AN APOLOGY.

BELIEVING that the life and teaching of Our Lord Jesus Christ were intended by God to be the most gracious and universal expression of His purpose and love to mankind, I have often wondered why the Hebrew Scriptures have invariably been placed before the Christian. I can only assume that this has been done as a matter of convention—merely because it has been done before.

I am deeply convinced the time has come when some departure ought to be made from this established custom. In pleading for a reversal of the order in which the Testaments are thus printed, much might be said. I will say only what is needful to make my object clear.

The books contained in the Old Testament were written during a period extending over a thousand years, the latest having been produced more than four hundred years before the Christian era. Much of their teaching was intended to meet the needs of a special race of people, distinctive in their habits of thought, in their social and tribal customs, and in their political institutions; and although applicable to their times, and essential to their well-being in life and conduct, can have but little value in these modern days and to us.

The occasion, therefore, seems to have fully come when we should no longer place these great writings of the ancient Hebrews in the forefront of human interest and inquiry, thereby according them an exaggerated sacredness. The author of the Epistle to the Hebrews affirms that "God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, hath in these last days spoken unto us by His Son, whom He hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also He made the worlds." If so, ought we not supremely to hear Him? He came to tell us who and what God is—to reveal Him, to make Him fully known. Consequently, it is impossible to be content with the rules given to the Hebrews of a distant past, nor can we accept their ideals of Christian living.

The Old Testament is meant as a candlestick upon which the New Testament should stand; yet we have largely made it an extinguisher which puts out its light. A reversal of the order of the two great sections of the Bible seems, therefore, a necessity, if the Old Testament is not to prove an obstruction to intellectual and spiritual growth, and if the New Testament is to retain its place foremost amongst those Divine realities which satisfy the permanent wants of man's nature. If the Christian Scripture is the medium by which we saw near the supreme manifestation of God on earth, should it not be placed first in fact as well as in theory?

In saying this, I would not in the least degree minimise the value of the Hebrew Scriptures, nor would I forget how powerful their moral and mental stimulus in quickening conscience, in ennobling character, and in advancing civilisation. But for men who are seeking to know God, and to find the way to Eternal Life, it is little help to place these ancient writings in their hands in a form which seems to suggest they should be studied before the story of Christ is read. Rather, that may generate the feeling which has misled so many into the misbelief that if the Hebrew standard of thought and action were attained, men have thereby proved themselves Christians. On the contrary, it is essential that men should be directed at once to the Gospels and Epistles which tell of Jesus, the Way; the Truth, the Life.

I write this in all humility, and with a heart-felt desire to help any among my neighbours who are facing the doubts and perplexities I have myself confronted. I am deeply convinced that to come first into contact with the living Christ Himself, as portrayed in the writings of the Christian Evangelists and Apostles, is every man's surest means of being quickened into new life by the spiritual birth Jesus proclaimed as the first thing needful.

I should not have taken this course of putting into tangible form my feelings and conviction upon this matter, if others more capable than myself would have assumed the responsibility; but having suggested the desirability of such action to several leaders of religious thought, and not meeting with the practical sympathy anticipated, I have been impelled to carry out the suggested course myself.

18 ¶ Now the ⁿbirth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost.

19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just ^{man}, and not willing ^oto make her a public example, was minded to put her away privily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, ^athou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife; ^pfor that which is ²conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

21 And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name ³JESUS; for ^qhe shall save his people from their sins.

22 (Now all this was done, that ^rit might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23 Behold, ^aa virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and ⁴they shall call his name Emmanuel, which, being interpreted, is, ^tGod with us.)

24 Then Joseph, being raised from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife;

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth ^uher first-born son:
and he called his name JESUS.

CHAPTER 2.

1 <sup>Wise men enquire after Christ: 11 they worship him, and offer presents. 13
Joseph fleeth into Egypt with Jesus and Mary. 16 Herod slayeth the children at Bethlehem: 19 Christ brought out of Egypt.</sup>

NOW when ^aJesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men ^bfrom the east to Jerusalem,

2 Saying, ^cWhere is he that is born
King of the Jews? for we have seen ^dhis star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judea: for thus it is written by the prophet,

6 And thou, Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

7 Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 ¶ And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

12 And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

13 ¶ And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.

14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt;

15 And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt have I called my son.

5 Then the devil taketh him up ^ginto the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple,

6 And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, He ^hshall give his angels charge concerning thee; and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

19 And he saith unto them, Follow me, and 'I will make you fishers of men.

20 And "they straightway left their nets, and followed him.

21 And "going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them.

22 And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him.

23 ¶ And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching "in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people.

24 And his "fame went throughout all Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatic, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them.

25 And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judea, and from beyond Jordan.

14 Ye "are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a "bushel, but a candlestick: and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 Let your light so shine before men, that "they may see your works, and glorify "your Father which is in heaven.

17 ¶ Think "not that I am come to destroy the Law, or the Prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

18 For verily I say unto you, heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass away: the law, till all be fulfilled.

19 Whosoever "therefore break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 For I say unto you, That every one of you whose righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, "Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill, he shall be in danger of the judgment.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Of alms, 5 prayer, 14 forgiveness. 19 Our treasure. 24 Of God and mammon.

TAKE heed that ye do not your ¹alms before men, to be seen of them; otherwise ye have no reward ²of your Father which is in heaven.

2 Therefore, ^awhen thou doest thine alms, ³do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men.
 Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth;

4 That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly.

5 ¶ And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are:
 for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you,
 They have their reward.

6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father ^cwhich seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

7 But when ye pray, ^duse not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of before ye ask him.

9 After this manner therefore pray ye; ^eOur Father which art in heaven, ^fHallowed be thy name.

10 Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, ^gas it is in heaven.

11 Give us this day our ^hdaily bread.

12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

13 And ⁱlead us not into temptation, but deliver ^jus from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

14 For ^kif ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

15 But ^lif ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 ¶ Moreover, ^mwhen ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

17 But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face;

18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

19 ¶ Lay ⁿnot up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal;

20 But ^olay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 The ^plight of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

in thee be darkness, how great that darkness!

24 No ^aman can serve two masters: for either he will hate one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. ^bYe cannot serve God and mammon.

25 Therefore I say unto you, ^cTake no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the more than meat, and the body more than raiment?

26 Behold ^dthe fowls of the air: they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet doth heavenly Father feedeth them.

Are ye not much better than they? ^eWhich of you, by the thought, can add one cubit unto his stature?

28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they toil not, neither do they spin:

29 And yet I say unto you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

30 Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, ^fshall he not much more clothe you of little faith?

31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Where shall we be clothed?

32 (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek;) for ^gyour heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

33 But ^hseek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness: all these things shall be added unto you.

34 Take therefore no ⁱthought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the thereof.

23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart and it fell: and great was the fall of it.

Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine:
29 For he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.
CHAPTER 8.
2 Christ cleanseth the leper. 5 healeth the centurion's servant, 14 Peter's mother-in-law, 16 and many other diseased;
18 sheweth how he is to be followed; 23
stilleth the tempest on the sea; 28 heal-eth two men possessed, etc.
WHEN he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.
2 And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.
3 And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

4 And Jesus saith unto him, ^bSee thou tell no man; but go thy way, show thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that ^cMoses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

5 ¶ And ^dwhen Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him,

6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.

7 And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, I ^eam not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof: but ^fspeak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.

9 For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

10 When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

11 And I say unto you, That ^gmany shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven:

12 But ^hthe children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

13 And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour.

14 ¶ And ⁱwhen Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw ^khis wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever.

15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered unto them.

16 ¶ When ^lthe even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, Himself ^mtook our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

18 ¶ Now when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, he commanded to depart unto another side.

19 And ^aa certain scribe came, said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

20 And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests;

^bthe Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

21 And ^canother of his disciples said unto him, Lord, ^dsuffer me first to go and bury my father.

22 But Jesus said unto him, Follow me; and let ^ethe dead bury their dead.

23 ¶ And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him.

24 And, ^fbehold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, inasmuch that the ship was covered with waves; but he was asleep.

25 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, we are in peril.

26 And he saith unto them, Ye are ye fearful, O ye of little faith. Then ^ghe arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

27 But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, even the winds and the sea obey him!

28 ¶ And ^hwhen he was come to the other side, into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him a man possessed with devils, coming of the tombs, exceeding fierce, that no man might pass by that way.

29 And, behold, they cried saying, What ⁱhave we to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God? thou come hither to torment us before the time?

30 And there was a good way from them an herd of many ^jswine feeding.

31 So the devils ^kbesought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine.

32 And he said unto them, And when they were come, they went into the herd of swine, and, behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters.

And they that kept them fled, and told every thing, and what was fallen to the possessed of the ills.

And, behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus: and when he saw him, they besought him that he would depart out of their coasts.

justifieth himself for eating with publicans and sinners: 20 he healeth the lame; 23 raiseth to life the ruler's daughter; 27 giveth sight to two blind men, etc.*

AND he entered into a ship, and passed over, and came into his own city.

And, behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus, seeing their faith, said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee.

And, behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves,
This man blasphemeth.

And Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?

For whether is easier, to say,
Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and walk?

But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.

And he arose, and departed to his house.

But when the multitudes saw that they marvelled, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men.

¶ And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

¶ And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, disciples.

And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why

^v Or, this fame.

whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

13 But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

14 ¶ Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not?

15 And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bride-chamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast.

16 No man putteth a piece of new cloth unto an old garment; for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse.

17 Neither do men put new wine into old bottles; else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.

18 ¶ While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live.

19 And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples.

20 ¶ And, behold, a woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment:

21 For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.

22 But Jesus turned him about;
and when he saw her, he said,
Daughter, be of good comfort; thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.

23 And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the minstrels and the people making a noise,

24 He said unto them, Give place; for the maid is not dead, but sleep-eth. And they laughed him to scorn.

25 But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose.

26 And the fame hereof went abroad into all that land.

27 ¶ And when Jesus departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, ^vThou son of David, have mercy on us.

28 And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord.

29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you.

30 And ^wtheir eyes were opened: and Jesus straitly charged them, saying, ^xSee that no man know it.

31 But ^ythey, when they were departed, spread abroad his fame in all that country.

32 ¶ As ^zthey went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with a devil.

33 And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel.

34 But the Pharisees said, He casteth out devils through the prince of the devils.

35 ¶ And ^aJesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease, among the people.

36 But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they ³fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd.

37 Then saith he unto his disciples, ^bThe harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few;

38 Pray ^cye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.

AND ^awhen he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power ¹against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness, and all manner of disease.

2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these; The first, Simon, ^bwho is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother;

3 Philip, and Bartholomew;

CHAPTER 11.

2 John sendeth his disciples to Christ. 7 The testimony of Christ concerning John. 20 Christ upbraideth the unthankfulness and impenitence of Chorazin, Bethsaida, and Capernaum: 28 Gracious offer of rest to the penitent.

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence, to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 ¶ Now ^awhen John had heard ^bin the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples,

3 And said unto him, Art thou ^che that should come, or do we look for another?

4 Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and show John again those things which ye do hear and see:

5 The ^dblind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the ^epoor have the gospel preached to them.

6 And blessed is ^fhe, whosoever shall not be ^goffended in me.

7 ¶ And ^has they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.

9 But what went ye out for to see?

A prophet? yea, I say unto you, ^aand more than a prophet.

10 For this is ^{he}, of whom it is written, ⁱBehold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist; notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

12 And ⁱfrom the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven ¹suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.

13 For ^aall the Prophets and the Law prophesied until John.

14 And if ye will receive ^{it}, this is ⁱElias, which was for to come.

15 He ^mthat hath ears to hear, let him hear.

16 But ⁿwhereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows, 17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil.

19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a winebibber, ^aa friend of publicans and sinners. ^pBut Wisdom is justified of her children.

20 ¶ Then ^qbegan he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not:

21 Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago ^rin sackcloth and ashes.

22 But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you.

23 And thou, Capernaum, ^swhich art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

24 But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Christ reproveth the blindness of Pharisees concerning the breach of sabbath: 9 he healeth the withered hand etc.

AT that time ^aJesus went on the sabbath day through the country, and his disciples were an hungered, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat.

2 But when the Pharisees saw this, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the sabbath day.

3 But he said unto them, Have ye not read ^bwhat David did, when he was an hungered, and they that were with him;

4 How he entered into the house of God, and did eat ^cthe shewbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, ^dbut only for the priests?

5 Or have ye not read in the ^eLaws, how that on the sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless?

6 But I say unto you, That in this place is ^fone ^ggreater than the temple.

7 But if ye had known what this meaneth, I ^hwould have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.

8 For the ⁱSon of man is Lord even of the sabbath day.

9 ¶ And ^jwhen he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue:

10 And, behold, there was a man which had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath days? that they might accuse him.

11 And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you that shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?

12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath days.

13 Then saith he to the man, stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other.

14 ¶ Then the Pharisees went out, and held a council against him, how they might destroy him.

15 But when Jesus knew it, he withdrew himself from thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all;

16 And charged them that they should not make him known:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

18 Behold my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my Spirit upon him, and he shall show judgment to the Gentiles.

19 He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.

20 A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory.

21 And in his name shall the Gentiles trust.

22 ¶ Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind and dumb: and he healed him, inasmuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw.

23 And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the son of David?

24 But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils.

25 And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:

26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?

27 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.

28 But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you.

29 Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.

30 He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad.

31 Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.

32 And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.

33 Either make the tree good, and his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit.

34 O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

35 A good man, out of the good treasure of the heart, bringeth forth good things: and an evil man, out of the evil treasure, bringeth forth evil things.

36 But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.

37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

38 ¶ Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee.

39 But he answered and said unto them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas:

40 For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly, so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

41 The ^jmen of Nineve shall rise in judgment with this generation, and ^kshall condemn it: 'because they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, ^ma greater than Jonas is here.

42 The ⁿqueen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a ^ogreater than Solomon is here.

43 When ^pthe unclean spirit is gone out of a man, ^qhe walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none.

44 Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished.

45 Then ^rgoeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and ^sthe last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation.

46 ¶ While he yet talked to the people, behold, ^this mother and ^uhis brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him.

47 Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee.

48 But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren?

49 And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren!

50 For ^vwhosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

CHAPTER 13.

3 Of the sower and the seed. 10 Why Christ spake in parables. 18 The exposition of the parable of the sower. 24 Divers other parables, etc.

THE same day went Jesus out of the house, ^aand sat by the sea-side.

2 And ^bgreat multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that ^che went into a ship, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

3 And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, Behold, a sower went forth to sow:

4 And when he sowed, some seed fell by the way-side, and the fow came and devoured them up:

5 Some fell upon ^dstony places where they had not much earth, and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth:

6 And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no ^eroot, they withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprung up and choked them:

8 But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some ^fa hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold.

9 Who ^ghath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 ¶ And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?

11 He answered and said unto them, Because ^hit is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

12 For ⁱwhosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance; but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath.

13 Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing, see not; and hearing, they hear not; neither do they understand.

14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, ^jBy hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive:

15 For this people's heart is waxed gross, and ^ktheir ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with ^ltheir eyes, and hear with ^mtheir ears, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

16 But ⁿblessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear.

17 For verily I say unto you, ^oThe many prophets and righteous men have desired to see ^pthose things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear ^qthose things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

18 ¶ Hear ^rye therefore the parable of the sower.

19 When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh ^othe wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way-side.

20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it:

21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while; for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by ^qhe is offended.

22 He ^ralso that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

23 But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field:

25 But while men slept, ^this enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

29 But he said, Nay; lest, while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them; but ^ugather the wheat into my barn.

31 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, ^vThe kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds; but when it is grown, it

33 ¶ Another ^wparable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took and hid in three ¹measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

34 All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them:

35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, ^aI will open my mouth in parables; ^bI will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

36 ¶ Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He answered and said unto them, He that ^csoweth the good seed is the Son of man;

38 The ^dfield is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are ^ethe children of the wicked one;

39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; ^fthe harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, ^gand they shall gather out of his kingdom all ^hthings that offend, and them which do iniquity, 42 And ⁱshall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

43 Then ^jshall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

44 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and ^kselleth all that he hath, and ^lbuyeth that field.

45 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant-man seeking goodly pearls:

46 Who, when he had found ^mone pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered ^j of every kind:

43 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

49 So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just,

50 And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

51 Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.

52 Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven, is like unto a man that is an householder which bringeth forth out of his treasure ^k things new and old.

53 ¶ And it came to pass, that, when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence.

54 And ^lwhen he was come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty works?

55 Is ^mnot this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and ⁿhis brethren, ^oJames, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas?

56 And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things?

57 And they ^pwere offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, ^qA prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.

58 And ^rhe did not many mighty works there, because of their unbelief.

1 Herod's opinion of Christ. 3 John Baptist beheaded. 15 Five thousand fed, etc.

AT that time ^aHerod the tetrarch heard of the fame of Jesus,

2 And said unto his servants, This is John the Baptist: he is risen from the dead; and therefore mighty works ¹do show forth themselves in him.

3 ¶ For ^bHerod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife.

4 For John said unto him, ^cIt is not lawful for thee to have her.

5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, ^abecause they counted him as a prophet.

6 But when Herod's ^ebirthday was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced ²before them, and pleased Herod.

7 Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she would ask.

8 And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here John Baptist's head in a charger.

9 And the king was sorry: ^fnevertheless, for the oath's sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her.

10 And he sent, and beheaded John in the prison.

11 And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.

12 And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jesus.

13 ¶ When ^gJesus heard of it, he departed thence by ship into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities.

14 And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and ^hwas moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.

15 ¶ And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals.

16 But Jesus said unto them, They need not depart; ⁱgive ye them to eat.

17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.

18 He said, Bring them hither to me.

19 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and, looking up to heaven, ^jhe blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

20 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

22 ¶ And straightway Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.

23 And ^kwhen he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: ^land when the evening was come, he was there alone.

24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.

25 And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea.

26 And when the disciples saw him ^mwalking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit: and they cried out for fear.

27 But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid.

28 And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.

29 And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.

30 But when he saw the wind ³boisterous, he was afraid; and, beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me!

31 And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore ⁿdidst thou doubt?

32 And when they were come into the ship, the ^owind ceased.

33 Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou ^part the Son of God.

34 ¶ And ^qwhen they were gone over, they came into the land of Gennesaret.

35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased;

36 And besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment: and ^ras many as touched were made perfectly whole.

2 Why ^bdo thy disciples transgress ^cthe tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread.

3 But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition?

4 For God commanded, saying, ^dHonour thy father and mother: and, ^eHe that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, ^f*It is a gift*, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me;

6 And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.

7 Ye ^ghypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying,

8 This ^hpeople draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honour-eth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

9 But in vain they do worship me, ⁱteaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

10 ¶ And ^jhe called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand:

11 Not ^kthat which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.

12 Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying?

13 But he answered and said, ^lEvery plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.

14 Let ^mthem alone: ⁿthey be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 Then ^oanswered Peter and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable.

16 And Jesus said, ^pAre ye also yet without understanding?

17 Do not ye yet understand, that ^qwhatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 But ^rthose things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man.

19 For ^sout of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies :

20 These are the things which defile a man : but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.

21 ¶ Then Jesus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tyre and Sidon.

22 And, behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of David ; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil.

23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away ; for she crieth after us.

24 But he answered and said, ¶ I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

25 Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me !

26 But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs.

27 And she said, Truth, Lord : yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table.

28 Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith : be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

29 ¶ And Jesus departed from thence, and came nigh unto the sea of Galilee ; and went up into a mountain, and sat down there.

30 And great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus' feet ; and he healed them :

31 Inasmuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see : and they glorified the God of Israel.

32 ¶ Then Jesus called his disciples unto him, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat : and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way.

33 And his disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness as to fill so great a multitude ?

CHAPTER 16.

1 The Pharisees require a sign. 5 Of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees, etc.

THE Pharisees also with the Sadducees came, and tempting desired him that he would show them a sign from heaven.

2 He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather ; for the sky is red :

3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather to-day ; for the sky is red and lowring. O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky ; but can ye not discern the signs of the times ?

4 A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign ; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas. And he left them, and departed.

5 ¶ And when his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.

6 Then Jesus said unto them, Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread.

8 Which when Jesus perceived, he said unto them, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no bread ?

9 Do ye not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up ?

10 Neither ^uthe seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

11 How is it that ye do not understand that I spake it not to you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees?

12 Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

13 ¶ When Jesus came into the coasts of Cesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, ^hWhom do men say that I the Son of man am?

14 And they said, ⁱSome say that thou art John the Baptist; some, ^jElias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets.

15 He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am?

16 And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou ^kart the Christ, the Son of the living God.

17 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jona: ^lfor flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but ^mmy Father which is in heaven.

18 And I say also unto thee, That ⁿthou art Peter, and ^oupon this rock I will build my church; and ^pthe gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

19 And ^qI will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

20 Then charged he his disciples that they should tell no man that he was Jesus the Christ.

21 ¶ From that time forth began Jesus to show unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day.

22 Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, ¹Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee.

23 But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan: ^rthou art an offence unto me; for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.

24 Then ^ssaid Jesus unto his

CHAPTER 17.

1 The transfiguration of Christ: 14 he healeth the lunatic: 24 he payeth tribute.

AND ^aafter six days Jesus taketh ^bPeter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain apart,

2 And was transfigured before them; and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

3 And, behold, there appeared unto them Moses ^band Elias talking with him.

4 Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

5 While ^che yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, ^dThis is my beloved Son, ^ein whom I am well pleased; ^fhear ye him.

6 And ^gwhen the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.

7 And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only.

9 ¶ And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead.

10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why ^hthen say the scribes that Elias must first come?

11 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Elias truly shall first come, and restore ¹all things.

12 But ¹I say unto you, That Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but have ^kdone unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them.

13 Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

14 ¶ And ¹when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying,

15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is lunatic, and sore vexed: for oftentimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water.

16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.

17 Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you! how long shall I suffer you! Bring him hither to me.

18 And Jesus rebuked the devil; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour.

19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?

20 And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ^mye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.

21 Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting.

22 ¶ And ⁿwhile they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men;

23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding sorry.

24 ¶ And ^owhen they were come to Capernaum, they that received ¹tribute money came to Peter, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute?

25 He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers?

26 Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the children free.

CHAPTER 18.

1 Christ teacheth to be humble. 7 Touching offences, 21 and forgiving one another.

AT ^athe same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

2 And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

3 And said, Verily I say unto you, ^bExcept ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

4 Whosoever ^ctherefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

5 And ^dwhoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.

6 But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 ¶ Woe unto the world because of offences! for ^eit must needs be that offences come; but ^fwoe to that man by whom the offence cometh!

8 Wherefore ^gif thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire.

9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire.

10 ¶ Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven ^htheir angels do always ⁱbehold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

11 For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.

12 How ^jthink ye? If a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, He rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

14 Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

15 ¶ Moreover, ^kif thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, ^lthou hast gained thy brother.

16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in ^mthe mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto ⁿthe church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an ^oheathen man and a publican.

18 Verily I say unto you, ^pWhatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

19 Again ^qI say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, ^rit shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, ^sthere am I in the midst of them.

21 ¶ Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? ^ttill seven times?

22 Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times; ^ubut, Until seventy times seven.

23 ¶ Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants.

24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand ^vtalents:

25 But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him ^wto be sold, and his wife and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 The servant therefore fell down, and ^xworshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

28 But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, which owed him an hundred ^apence; and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29 And his fellow-servant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

30 And he would not; but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31 So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done.

32 Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me:

33 Shouldest ^wnot thou also have had compassion on thy fellow-servant, even as I had pity on thee?

34 And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him.

35 So ^xlikewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

CHAPTER. 19.

1 Christ healeth the sick: 3 he answereth the Pharisees touching divorcement: 16 he instructeth how to attain everlasting life, etc.

AND it came to pass, ^athat when Jesus had finished these sayings, he departed from Galilee, and came into the coasts of Judea beyond Jordan;

2 And ^bgreat multitudes followed him; and he healed them there.

3 ¶ The Pharisees also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?

4 And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, ^cthat he which made them at the beginning made them male and female,

5 And said, ^dFor this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and ^ethey twain shall be one flesh?

6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

7 They say unto him, /Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away?

8 He saith unto them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but ⁹from the beginning it was not so.

9 And ^hI say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery; and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery.

10 ¶ His disciples say unto him, ⁱIf the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry.

11 But he said unto them, /All men cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given.

12 For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb; and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men; and ^kthere be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

13 ¶ Then ^lwere there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me; for of ^msuch is the kingdom of heaven.

15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

16 ¶ And, behold, one came and said unto him, ⁿGood Master, what ^ogood thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?

17 And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.

kept from my youth up: what lack I yet?

21 Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, ⁹go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven; and come and follow me.

22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

23 ¶ Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That ^aa rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.

24 And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

25 When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved?

26 But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with ^bGod all things are possible.

27 ¶ Then ^canswered Peter and said unto him, Behold, ^dwe have forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore?

28 And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in ^ethe regeneration, when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ^fye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

29 And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or childrer, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

30 But ^gmany that are first shall be last; and the last shall be first.

CHAPTER 20.

1 Of the labourers in the vineyard. 17 Christ foretelleth his passion: 20 Teacheth his disciples to be lowly: 29 and giveth sight to two blind men.

FOR the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.

2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a ¹penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the market-place,

4 And said unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way.

5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.

6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?

7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

8 So when ^aeven was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.

9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.

10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny.

11 And when they had received it, they murmured against the good-man of the house, 12 Saying, These last ^ahave wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day.

13 But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny?

14 Take that thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this last even as unto thee.

15 Is ^bit not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? ^cIs thine eye evil, because I am good?

16 So ^dthe last shall be first, and the first last: ^efor many be called, but few chosen.

17 ¶ And ^fJesus going up to Jerusalem took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said unto them,

18 Behold, ^gwe go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death, 19 And ^hshall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify him: and the third day he shall rise again.

20 ¶ Then ⁱcame to him ^jthe mother of Zebedee's ^kchildren with 21 And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons ⁱmay sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdom.

22 But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the ^mcup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with ⁿthe baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him, We are able.

23 And he saith unto them, ^oYe shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to ^pgive, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father.

24 And ^qwhen the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brethren.

25 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them.

26 But ^rit shall not be so among you: but whosoever ^swill be great among you, let him be your minister;

27 And ^twhosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant:

28 Even ^uas the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, ^vbut to minister, and to ^wgive his life a ransom ^xfor many.

29 ¶ And ^yas they departed from Jericho, a great multitude followed him.

30 And, behold, ^ztwo blind men sitting by the way-side, when they heard that Jesus passed by, cried out, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou son of David!

31 And the multitude rebuked them, because they should hold their peace: but they cried the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou son of David!

32 And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, What will ye that I shall do unto you?

33 They say unto him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened.

34 So Jesus had ^{aa}compassion on them, and touched their eyes; and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

CHAPTER 21.

1 Christ rideth into Jerusalem upon an ass: 12 driveth the buyers and sellers out of the temple: 18 curseth the fig tree. 28 Parable of the two sons: 33 of the husbandmen.

AND ^awhen they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to Bethphage, unto ^bthe mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two disciples,

2 Saying unto them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me.

3 And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say, The ^cLord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them.

4 (All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,

5 Tell ^eye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass.)

6 And ^fthe disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them,

7 And brought the ass, and the colt, and put ^gon them their clothes, and they set ^hhim thereon.

8 And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way; ⁱothers cut down branches from the trees, and strawed ^jthem in the way.

9 And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, ^kHosanna to the son of David! ^lBlessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!

10 ¶ And ^mwhen he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this?

11 And the multitude said, This is Jesus the ⁿprophet of Nazareth of Galilee.

12 ¶ And ^oJesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the ^pmoney-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves, 13 And said unto them, It is written, ^qMy house shall be called the house of prayer; but ^rye have made it a den of thieves.

14 And ^sthe blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them.

15 And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to ^{ad}the son of David; they were sore displeased, 16 And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea; have ye never read, ^{ae}Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

17 And he left them, and went out of the city into ^{af}Bethany; and he lodged there.

18 ¶ Now in the morning, as he returned into the city, he hungered.

19 And when he saw ^{ag}a fig tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig tree withered away.

20 And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig tree withered away!

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, ^{ah}If ye have faith, and ^{ai}doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, ^{aj}but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done.

22 And ^{ak}all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

23 ¶ And ^{al}when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and ^{am}said, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority?

24 And ^{an}Jesus answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in like wise will tell you by what authority I do these things.

25 The baptism of John, whence was it? from heaven, or of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why did ye not then believe him?

26 But if we shall say, Of men; we fear the people; ^{ao}for all hold John as a prophet.

27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

28 ¶ But what think ye? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to-day in my vineyard.

29 He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented, and went.

30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir; and went not.

31 Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.

32 For ^dJohn came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but ^ethe publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen ^{it}, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.

33 ¶ Hear another parable: There was a certain householder, ^fwhich planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and ^gwent into a far country:

34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, ^hthat they might receive the fruits of it.

35 And ⁱthe husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

36 Again, he sent other servants more than the first; and they did unto them likewise.

37 But last of all ^jhe sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son.

38 But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, ^kThis is the heir; ^lcome, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance.

39 And ^mthey caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him.

40 When the lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen?

41 They ⁿsay unto him, ^oHe will miserably destroy those wicked men, ^pand will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

42 Jesus saith unto them, ^qDid ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's

CHAPTER 22.

1 The marriage of the king's son. 9 The calling of the Gentiles. 11 The wedding garment. 21 Tribute ought to be paid to Cesar. 23 Christ silenceth the Sadducees.

AND Jesus answered ^aand spake unto them again by parables, and said,

2 The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son,

3 And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come.

4 Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: ^bmy oxen and ^cmy fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

5 But they ^dmade light of ^eit, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:

6 And ^fthe remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them.

7 But when the king heard ^{thereof}, he was wroth: and he sent forth ^ghis armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.

8 Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not ^hworthy.

9 Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.

10 So those servants went out into the highways, and ⁱgathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests.

11 And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man

^h which had not on a wedding garment:

12 And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he ^h was speechless.

13 Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him ^j into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

14 For ^k many are called, but few are chosen.

15 ¶ Then ^l went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk.

16 And they sent out unto him their disciples with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man; for thou regardest not the person of men.

17 Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Cesar, or not?

18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?

19 Show me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a ^l penny.

20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and ² superscription?

21 They say unto him, Cesar's. Then saith he unto them, ^m Render therefore unto Cesar the things which are Cesar's; and unto God the things that are God's.

22 When they had heard these words, they ⁿ marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

23 ¶ The ^o same day came to him the Sadducees, ^p which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him, 24 Saying, Master, ^q Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

25 Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and, having no issue, left his wife unto his brother:

26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the ³ seventh.

27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.

31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, 32 I ^t am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

33 And when the multitude heard this, they ^u were astonished at his doctrine.

34 ¶ But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together.

35 Then one of them, which was ^v a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying, 36 Master, which is the great commandment in the law?

37 Jesus said unto him, ^w Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

38 This is the first and great commandment.

39 And the second is like unto it, ^x Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

40 On ^y these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.

41 ¶ While ^z the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them,

CHAPTER 23.

¹ Of the scribes and Pharisees' good doctrine, but evil examples of life. ³⁴ The destruction of Jerusalem foretold.

THEN spake Jesus to the multitude, and to his disciples,

2 Saying, "The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat:

3 All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for ^bthey say, and do not.

4 For ^cthey bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

5 But ^dall their works they do for to be seen of men: ^ethey make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments,

6 And ^flove the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues,

7 And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Rabbi, Rabbi.

8 But ^gbe not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren.

9 And call no man your father upon the earth: ^hfor one is your Father, which is in heaven.

10 Neither be ye called masters: for one is your Master, even Christ.

11 But ⁱhe that is greatest among you shall be your servant.

12 And ^jwhosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.

13 ¶ But ^kwoe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.

14 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! ^lfor ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.

15 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.

16 Woe unto you, ^mye blind guides, which say, ⁿWhosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor!

whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is ⁱguilty.

22 And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by ^rthe throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

23 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! ^sfor ye pay tithe of mint and ^{ta}nise and cummin, and ^thave omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

24 Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel.

26 Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first that which ^vis within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.

27 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! ^wfor ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness.

28 Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

29 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the ^xsepulchres of the righteous, 30 And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.

31 Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ^yye are the children of them which killed the prophets.

32 Fill ^zye up then the measure of your fathers.

33 Ye serpents, ye ^{aa}generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?

34 Wherefore, ^{ab}behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some ^b of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some ^c of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city:

35 That ^d upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, ^e from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar.

36 Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

37 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I ^f have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!

38 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate.

39 For I say unto you, ^g Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, ^h Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

CHAPTER 24.

1 Christ foretelleth the destruction of the temple: 3 what shall happen at his coming. 36 As no man knoweth the day, we ought to watch, etc.

AND ^a Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him, for to show him the buildings of the temple.

2 And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, There ^b shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 ¶ And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, ^c Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?

4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take ^d heed that no man deceive you.

5 For ^e many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

6 And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

and pestilences, and earthquakes in divers places.

8 All these are the beginning sorrows.

9 Then ^g shall they deliver you to be afflicted, and shall kill you, and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake.

10 And then shall many offend, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.

11 And ^h many false prophets shall rise, and ⁱ shall deceive many.

12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.

13 But ^k he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 And this gospel of the kingdom ^l shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

15 When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel ^m the prophet stand in the holy place, (ⁿ which readeth, let him understand,)

16 Then let them which be in Judea flee into the mountains:

17 Let him which is on the house, top not come down to take any thing out of his house:

18 Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes. And woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days!

20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day:

21 For ^o then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

22 And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: ^p but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

23 Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there, believe it not.

24 For ^q there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall show great signs and wonders; insomuch that, ^r if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

25 Behold, I have told you before.

26 Wherefore, if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not.

For as the lightning cometh of the east, and shineth even to the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

For ^swheresoever the carcase is there will the eagles be gathered together.

¶ Immediately ^tafter the tribulation of those days ^ushall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:

And ^vthen shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: ^wand then shall all the tribes of the earth turn, ^xand they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

And ^yhe shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the end of heaven to the other.

¶ Now learn ^aa parable of the fig tree: When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh:

So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that ^bit is near, even at the doors.

Verily I say unto you, ^cThis generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled.

Heaven ^dand earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

¶ But ^eof that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, ^fbut my Father only.

But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

For ^gas in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

Then shall two be in the field; one shall be taken, and the other left.

Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

¶ Watch therefore; for ye know what hour your Lord doth come.

But ^hknow this, that if the Son of man of the house had known 44 Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.

CHAPTER 25.

1 The parable of the ten virgins; 14 of the talents, and the reward to those who improved them. 31 Of the last judgment.

THEN shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet ^athe bridegroom.

2 And ^bfive of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 They that ^cwere foolish took their lamps, and took ^dno oil with them:

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

5 While the bridegroom tarried, ^ethey all slumbered and slept.

6 And at midnight ^fthere was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are ^ggone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the ^gdoor was shut.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, ^hLord, Lord, open to us.

12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, ⁱI know you not.

13 Watch ^jtherefore; for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

14 ¶ For ^kthe kingdom of heaven is ^las a man travelling into a far country, ^mwho called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.

15 And unto one he gave five ⁿtalents, to another two, and to another one; ^oto every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents went and ^ptraded with the same, and made ^qthem other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and ^rhid his lord's money.

19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained besides them five talents more.

21 His lord said unto him, Well done, ^sthou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, ^tI will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into ^uthe joy of thy lord.

22 He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents besides them.

23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

24 Then he which had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed:

39 Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

40 And the King shall answer say unto them, Verily I say unto you, ^{bi}Inasmuch as ye have done unto one of the least of these brethren, ye have done ^{bj}it unto me.

41 Then shall he say also

16 And ^gthese shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life ^heternal.

CHAPTER 26.

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples,

2 Ye ^aknow that after two days is ^bthe feast of the passover, and the son of man is betrayed to be crucified.

3 ^cThen ^bassembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas,

4 And consulted that they might ^dkill Jesus by subtilty, and kill him.

5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the people.

6 ^eNow ^cwhen Jesus was in ^dBethany, in the house of Simon the leper, 7 There came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head, as he sat at meat.

8 But ^ewhen his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste?

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.

10 When Jesus understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought good work upon me.

11 For ^fye have the poor always with you; but ^gme ye have not always.

12 For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial.

13 Verily I say unto you, ^hWheresoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her.

14 ¶ Then ⁱone of the twelve, called Judas ^jIscariot, went unto the chief priests, 15 And said unto them, ^kWhat will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

17 ¶ Now ^lthe first day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?

18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the passover.

20 ¶ Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve.

21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, That one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?

23 And he answered and said, ^mHe that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24 The Son of man goeth ⁿas it is written of him: but ^owoe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it had been good for that man if he had not been born.

25 Then Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.

26 ¶ And as they were eating, ^pJesus took bread, and ^qblessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this ^ris my body.

27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it;

28 For ¹this is my blood ²of the new testament, which is shed ³for many for the remission of sins.

29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, ⁴until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

30 ¶ And ⁵when they had sung an ⁶hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

31 Then saith Jesus unto them, ⁷All ye shall ⁸be offended because of me this night: for it is written, ⁹I will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

32 But after I am risen again, ¹⁰I will go before you into Galilee.

33 Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended.

34 Jesus said unto him, ¹¹Verily I say unto thee, That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

35 Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 ¶ Then ¹²cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.

37 And he took with him Peter and ¹³the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy.

38 Then saith he unto them, ¹⁴My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and ¹⁵watch with me.

39 And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, and ¹⁶prayed, saying, ¹⁷O my Father, if it be possible, ¹⁸let this cup pass from me: nevertheless ¹⁹not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What! could ye not watch with me one hour?

41 Watch ²⁰and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy.

44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.

45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

46 Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.

47 ¶ And ³²while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he: hold him fast.

49 And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, Master! ³³and kissed him.

50 And Jesus said unto him, ³⁴Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.

51 And, behold, ³⁵one of them which were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest, and smote off his ear.

52 Then said Jesus unto him, ³⁶Put up again thy sword into his place: ³⁷for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.

53 Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me ³⁸more than twelve legions of angels?

54 But how then shall ³⁹the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be?

55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.

56 But all this was done, that the ⁴⁰scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then ⁴¹all the disciples forsook him, and fled.

57 ¶ And ⁴²they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

58 But Peter followed him afar off unto the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end.

59 Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jesus, to put him to death;

60 But found none: yea, though many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came two false witnesses, 61 And said, This fellow said, ^wI am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.

62 And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

63 But ^xJesus held his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him, ^yI adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God.

64 Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless, I say unto you, ^zHereafter shall ye see the Son of man ^asitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

65 Then the high priest ^brent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy.

66 What think ye? They answered and said, ^cHe is guilty of death.

67 Then ^ddid they spit in his face, and buffeted him; and ^eothers smote him with ⁴the palms of their hands, 68 Saying, ^fProphecy unto us, thou Christ, Who is he that smote thee?

69 ¶ Now Peter sat without in the palace: and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee.

70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.

71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth.

72 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.

73 And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee.

CHAPTER 27.

1 Christ delivered bound to Pilate. 3 Judas hangeth himself. 27 Christ is mocked, 33 crucified, 39 and reviled. 51 The astonishing events which attended his death, etc.

WHEN the morning was come,

^aall the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death:

2 And when they had bound him, they led him away, and ^bdelivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor.

3 ¶ Then ^cJudas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, ^dand departed, and went and hanged himself.

6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.

7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.

8 Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this day.

9 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, ^eAnd they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, ¹whom they of the children of Israel did value,

10 And gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.

11 ¶ And Jesus stood before the governor: and ^fthe governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, ^gThou sayest.

12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, ^hhe answered nothing.

13 Then said Pilate unto him, ⁱHearst thou not how many things they witness against thee?

14 And he answered him to never a word; insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly.

15 ¶ Now at that feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.

17 Therefore, when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ?

18 For he knew that for keny they had delivered him.

19 ¶ When he was set down on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him.

20 But m the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.

21 The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas.

22 Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified.

23 And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he n took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

25 Then answered all the people, and said, o His blood be on us, and on our children.

26 Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when p he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

27 ¶ Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the 2 common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers.

28 And they stripped him, and q put on him a scarlet robe.

29 ¶ And r when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!

30 And s they spit upon him, and took the reed, and s smote him on the head.

31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, u and led him away to crucify him.

32 And v as they came out, w they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross.

33 And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, A place of a skull, 34 They x gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

35 And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, They y parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots.

36 And sitting down they watched him there;

37 And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 Then z were there two thieves crucified with him; one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 ¶ And a they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads, 40 And saying, b Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross.

41 Likewise also the chief priests, mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, 42 He saved others: himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.

43 He c trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God.

44 The d thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth.

45 ¶ Now e from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.

46 And about the ninth hour f Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli! Eli! lama sabachthani?

that is to say, ^gMy God! my God! why hast thou forsaken me?

47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Elias.

48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, ^hand filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.

49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to save him.

50 ¶ Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.

51 And, behold, ⁱthe veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and ^jthe earth did quake, and the rocks rent;

52 And the graves were opened; ^kand many bodies of the saints which slept arose, 53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.

54 Now ⁱwhen the centurion, and they that were with him watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.

55 And many women were there beholding afar off, ^mwhich followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him:

56 Among ⁿwhich was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's children.

57 ¶ When ^othe even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple:

58 He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered.

59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 And ^plaid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.

61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 ¶ Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate, 65 Pilate said unto them, Ye have a watch: go your way, make it as sure as ye can.

66 So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, ^ssealing the stone, and setting a watch.

CHAPTER 28.

1 Christ's resurrection declared; 9 he appeareth to the women, 16 and to his disciples, 18 and sendeth them to teach and baptize.

IN the ^aend of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene ^band the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

2 And, behold, there ¹was a great earthquake: for ^cthe angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

3 His ^dcountenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow:

4 And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, ^eFear not ye; for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.

6 He is not here; for he is risen, ^fas he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay:

7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, he ^ggoeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you.

8 And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy, and did run to bring his disciples word.

9 ¶ And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, ^hJesus met them, saying, All hail! And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.

10 Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid: go tell ⁱmy brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

11 ¶ Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and showed unto the chief priests all the things that were done.

12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers, 13 Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept.

14 And if this come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you.

15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

CHAPTER 1.

1 John Baptist's office. 9 Jesus baptized: 12 he is tempted, 14 preacheth, 16 calleth Peter and others, 32 and cureth many.

3 The ^cvoice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance ¹for the remission of sins.

5 And there went out unto him all the land of Judea, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins.

6 And John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; and he did eat ^dlocusts and wild honey;

7 And preached, saying, ^eThere cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose.

8 I indeed have baptized you with water; but he shall baptize you ^fwith the Holy Ghost.

Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Jordan.

10 And ⁱstraightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens ²opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him:

11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, ^jThou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

12 ¶ And ^kimmediately the Spirit driveth him into the wilderness.

13 And he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted of Satan; and was with the wild beasts; ⁴and the angels ministered unto him.

14 ¶ Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, ^mpreaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, 15 And saying, ⁿThe time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.

16 ¶ Now ^oas he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

17 And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

18 And straightway ^pthey forsook their nets, and followed him.

19 And ^qwhen he had gone a little farther thence, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets.

20 And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him.

21 And ¹they went into Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue, and taught.

22 And ²they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.

23 And ³there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, 24 Saying, Let us alone; ⁴what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the ⁵Holy One of God.

25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And when the unclean spirit ⁶had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, inso-much that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.

28 And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.

29 ¶ And ⁷forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

30 But Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever, and anon they tell him of her.

31 And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and ⁸immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

32 ¶ And ⁹at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils.

33 And all the city was gathered together at the door.

34 And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils; and ¹⁰suffered not the devils ¹¹to speak, because they knew him.

38 And he said unto them, ³Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for ⁴therefore came I forth.

39 And ⁵he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and ⁶cast out devils.

40 ¶ And ⁷there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst ⁸make me clean.

41 And Jesus, ⁹moved with compassion, put forth ¹⁰his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou clean.

42 And as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed.

43 And he straitly charged him, and forthwith sent him away;

44 And saith unto him, See thou say nothing to any man: but go thy way, show thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things ¹¹which Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

45 But ¹²he went out, and began to publish ¹³it much, and to blaze abroad the matter, insomuch that Jesus could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places: ¹⁴and they came to him from every quarter.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Christ followed by multitudes: 3 he healeth the palsy, 14 calleth Levi, 15 justifieth himself for eating with publicans and sinners, 18 excuseth his disciples for not fasting, etc.

AND again ¹he entered into Capernaum after some days; and it was noised that he was in the house.

2 And straightway many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive ²them, no, not so much as about the door: and he ³preached the word unto them.

3 And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsy, which was borne of four.

4 And when they could not come nigh unto him for the press, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palsy lay.

5 When Jesus ^csaw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, ^dSon, thy sins be forgiven thee.

6 But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,

7 Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? ^ewho can forgive sins but God only?

8 And immediately ^fwhen Jesus perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?

9 Whether ^gis it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk?

10 But that ye may know that ^hthe Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,)

11 I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house.

12 And ⁱimmediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.

13 ¶ And ^jhe went forth again by the sea-side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them.

14 And ^kas he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting ^lat the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him.

15 And ^mit came to pass, that, as Jesus sat at meat in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him.

16 And when ⁿthe scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners?

17 When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, ^oThey that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

19 And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of ^pthe bride-chamber fast while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have ^qthe bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

20 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

21 No man also seweth a piece of ^rnew cloth on an old garment; else the new piece that filled it up taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse.

22 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred: but new wine must be put into new bottles.

23 ¶ And ^sit came to pass, that he went through the corn fields on the sabbath day; and his disciples began, as they went, ^tto pluck the ears of corn.

24 And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath day that which is not lawful?

CHAPTER 3.

1 Christ healeth the withered hand: 6 the Pharisees conspire his death: 13 he chooseth twelve apostles: 22 he confuteth the Pharisees' blasphemy respecting his casting out devils, etc.

AND ^ahe entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there which had a withered hand.

2 And they watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath day; that they might accuse him.

3 And he saith unto the man which had the withered hand, ¹Stand forth.

4 And he saith unto them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath days, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? But they held their peace.

5 And when he had looked round about on them with ^banger, being grieved for the ²hardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

6 And ^cthe Pharisees went forth, and straightway took counsel with ^dthe Herodians against him, how they might destroy him.

7 ¶ But Jesus withdrew himself with his disciples to the sea: and a great multitude from Galilee followed him, ^eand from Judea,

8 And from Jerusalem, and from Idumea, and from beyond Jordan; and they about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things he did, came unto him.

9 And he spake to his disciples, that a small ship should wait on him because of the multitude, lest they should throng him:

10 For he had healed many; inso-much that they ³pressed upon him for to touch him, as many as had plagues.

11 And ^funclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, ^gThou art the Son of God.

12 And ^hhe straitly charged them that they should not make him known.

13 ¶ And ⁱhe goeth up into a mountain, and calleth unto him whom he would: and they came unto him.

14 And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach, 15 And to have power to heal sicknesses, and to cast out devils.

24 And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.

25 And if a house be divided against itself, that house cannot stand.

26 And if Satan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end.

29 But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath ⁷never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation:

30 Because they said, He hath an unclean spirit.

31 ¶ There ⁸came then his brethren and his mother, and, standing without, sent unto him, calling him.

32 And the multitude sat about him; and they said unto him, Behold, ⁸thy mother and thy brethren without seek for thee.

33 And he answered them, saying, Who is my mother, or my brethren?

34 And he looked round about on them which sat about him, and said, ⁹Behold my mother and my brethren!

35 For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother and my sister, and mother.

CHAPTER 4.

1 The parable of the sower: 14 the meaning thereof. 26 Of the seed growing secretly, etc.

AND ^ahe began again to teach by the sea-side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.

2 And he taught them many things by parables, ^band said unto them in his doctrine,

3 Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow:

4 And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way-side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth:

6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

8 And other fell on good ground, ^cand did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

9 And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 ¶ And ^dwhen he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parable.

11 And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know ^ethe mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto ^fthem that are without, all these things are done in parables:

12 That ^gseeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and ^htheir sins should be forgiven them.

13 And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables?

14 ¶ The ⁱsower soweth the word.

15 And these are they by the way-side, where the word is sown; but, when they have heard, ^jSatan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.

16 And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;

17 And have ^kno root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the 18 And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word, 19 And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things enter in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

20 And these are they which are sown on good ^zground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred.

21 ¶ And ^{aa}he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under ^{ab}1 bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick?

25 For ^{ag}he that hath, to him shall be given; and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.

26 ¶ And he said, ^{ah}So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground;

27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

29 But when the fruit is ^{ai}2 brought forth, immediately ^{aj}he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

30 ¶ And he said, ^{ak}Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God, or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 ^{al}It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seed that be in the earth:

32 But when it is sown, it ^{am}groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.

33 And ^w with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it.

34 But without a parable spake he not unto them: and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.

35 ¶ And ^x the same day, when the even was come, he saith unto them, Let us pass over unto the other side.

36 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship. And there were also with him other little ships.

37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?

39 And he arose, and ^y rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

40 And he said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith?

41 And they ^z feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

Jesus, thou Son of the most high God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.

8 (For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.)

9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

10 And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country.

11 Now there was there, nigh unto the mountains, a great herd of ^c swine feeding.

12 And all the devils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.

13 And forthwith Jesus ^d gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand,) and were choked in the sea.

14 And they that fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and ^e in his right mind: and they were afraid.

16 And they that saw it told them how it befell to him that was possessed with the devil, and also concerning the swine.

17 And ^f they began to pray him to depart out of their coasts.

18 And when he was come into the ship, he ^g that had been possessed with the devil prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit Jesus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee.

20 And he departed, and ^h began to publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him: and all men did marvel.

21 ¶ And ⁱ when Jesus was passed over again by ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him: and he was nigh unto the sea.

22 And, ^j behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue,

Jairus by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet,

23 And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death: I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live.

24 And Jesus went with him; and much people followed him, and thronged him.

25 ¶ And a certain woman, ^k which had an issue of blood twelve years,

26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and ^l was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse, 27 When she had heard of Jesus, came in the press behind, and ^m touched his garment.

28 For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole.

29 And ⁿ straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague.

30 And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that ^o virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing.

33 But the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.

34 And he said unto her, Daughter, ^p thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.

35 ¶ While ^q he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's house certain which said, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further?

37 And he suffered no man to follow him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James.

38 And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

9 But ^{ke}be shod with sandals; and not put on two coats.

10 And ^{he}he said unto them, In what place soever ye enter into an house, there abide till ye depart from that place.

11 And ^mwhosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake ^{off}off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. ^oVerily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom ²and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city.

12 And they went out, and preached that men should repent.

13 And they cast out many devils, ⁷and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.

14 ¶ And ²king Herod heard of him; (for his name was spread abroad;) and he said, That John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do show forth themselves in him.

15 Others ⁷said, That it is Elias. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.

16 But ^{when}when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.

17 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife; for he had married her.

18 For John had said unto Herod, ^{It}It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife.

19 Therefore Herodias had ^{3a}quarrel against him, and would have killed him; but she could not:

20 For Herod ⁷feared John, knowing that he was a just man and an holy, and ⁴observed him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

21 And ^{when}when a convenient day was come, that Herod, ^{on}on his birth day, made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief estates of Galilee;

22 And when ^{the}the daughter of the said Herodias came in, and danced, and pleased Herod and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee.

23 And he sware unto her, ^{What}Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom.

Mat. 18. 28

24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The ²head of John the Baptist.

25 And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by in a charger the head of John the Baptist.

26 And the king was exceeding sorry; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her.

27 And immediately the king sent ⁵an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison, 28 And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel: and the damsel gave it to her mother.

29 And when his disciples heard of it, they came and ^atook up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

30 ¶ And ^bthe apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

31 And ^che said unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while: for ^dthere were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.

32 And they departed into a desert place by ship privately.

33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him.

34 And ^eJesus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and ^fhe began to teach them many things.

35 And ^gwhen the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed:

36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat.

37 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, ^hShall we go and buy two hundred ⁱpennyworth of bread, and give them to eat?

38 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, 'Five, and two fishes.

39 And he commanded them to make all sit down ⁷by companies upon the green grass.

40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and ^jblessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all.

42 And they did all eat, and were filled.

43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

44 And they that did eat of the loaves were about five thousand men.

45 ¶ And ^kstraightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the other side before ⁶unto Bethsaida, while he sent away the people.

46 And when he had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray.

47 And ^lwhen even was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land.

48 And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them: and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea, and ^mwould have passed by them.

49 But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out:

50 For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid.

51 And he went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered.

52 For ⁿthey considered not the miracle of the loaves: for their ^oheart was hardened.

53 And ^pwhen they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore.

54 And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him,

CHAPTER 7.

¹⁴ Meat defileth not a man. 24 Christ healeth the Syrophenician woman's daughter, 31 and one that was deaf, and stammered in his speech.

THEN ^acame together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, which came from Jerusalem.

2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with ¹defiled (that is to say, with unwashen) hands, they found fault.

3 (For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands ²oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.)

4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and ³pots, brasen vessels, and of ⁴tables.)

5 Then ^bthe Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands?

6 He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, ^cThis people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

7 Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

8 For, laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

9 And he said unto them, Full well ye ⁵reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

10 For Moses said, ^dHonour thy father and thy mother; and, ^eWho-so curseth father or mother, let him die the death:

11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is /Corban, (that is to say, a gift,) by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free.

12 And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother;

13 Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye.

14 ¶ And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Harken unto me every one of you, and understand:

15 There is ⁹nothing from without a man, that entering into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

16 If ^hany man have ears to hear, let him hear.

17 And ⁱwhen he was entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also?

Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him;

19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats?

20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

21 For ^jfrom within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

22 Thefts, ^kcovetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:

23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

24 ¶ And ^lfrom thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into an house, and would have no man know it: but he could not be hid.

25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet:

26 The woman was a ⁷Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.

27 But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs.

35 And ^sstraightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain.

36 And ^the charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it;

37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Christ feedeth the people miraculously; 22 giveth a blind man his sight; 27 acknowledged that he is Christ who should suffer and rise again, etc.

IN those days ^athe multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them,

2 I have ^bcompassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat:

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from afar.

4 And his disciples answered him, From whence ^ccan a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness?

5 And ^dhe asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they did set them before the people.

7 And they had a few small fishes: and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away.

10 ¶ And ^g straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 And ^h the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? Verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.

13 And he left them, and, entering into the ship again, departed to the other side.

14 ¶ Now ⁱ the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

15 And ^j he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is ^k because we have no bread.

17 And when Jesus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye because ye have no bread? ^l perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet hardened?

18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?

19 When ^m I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve.

20 And ⁿ when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.

21 And he said unto them, How is it ^o that ye do not understand?

23 And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when ^p he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought.

24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking.

25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, ^q nor tell it to any in the town.

27 ¶ And ^r Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Cesarea Philippi: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am?

28 And they answered, ^s John the Baptist: but some say, Elias; and others, One of the prophets.

29 And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Peter answereth and saith unto him, ^t Thou art the Christ.

30 And ^u he charged them that they should tell no man of him.

31 ¶ And ^v he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

32 And he spake that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.

33 But when he had turned about, and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan: ^w for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

34 ¶ And when he had called the people unto him, with his disciples also, he said unto them, ^x Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

35 For ^y whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it.

36 For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

37 Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

38 Whosoever ² therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

CHAPTER 9.

² Jesus transfigured: 11 he instructeth his disciples concerning Elias; 14 casteth forth a dumb and deaf spirit; 30 foretelleth his death, etc.

AND he said unto them, ^a Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen ^b the kingdom of God come with power.

² ¶ And ^c after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.

³ And his raiment became shining, exceeding ^d white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them.

⁴ And there appeared unto them Elias with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus.

⁵ And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

⁶ For he wist not what to say; for they were sore afraid.

⁸ And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

¹⁰ And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean.

¹¹ ¶ And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes ^h that Elias must first come?

¹² And he answered and told them, Elias verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and ⁱ how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and ^j be set at nought.

²⁴ And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; ^p help thou mine unbelief.

²⁵ When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he ^q rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

²⁶ And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; inasmuch that many said, He is dead.

²⁷ But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose.

²⁸ And ^r when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?

29 And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing but by prayer and fasting.

30 ¶ And they departed thence, and passed through Galilee; and he would not that any man should know it.

31 For^e he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.

32 But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him.

33 ¶ And he came to Capernaum; and, being in the house, he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way?

34 But they held their peace: ^ufor by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest.

35 And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, ^vIf any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all.

36 And ^whe took a child, and set him in the midst of them; and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them, 37 Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: ^zand whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

38 ¶ And ^yJohn answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and he followeth not us: and we forbade him, because he followeth not us.

39 But Jesus said, Forbid him not: ^afor there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me.

40 For^a he that is not against us is on our part.

41 For^b whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward.

42 And ^cwhosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.

43 And if thy hand ³offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than

CHAPTER 10.

2 Of divorcement. 13 Christ blesseth children; 23 telleth the danger of riches; 32 foretelleth his death and resurrection. 46 Blind Bartimeus receiveth sight.

AND ^ahe arose from thence, and cometh into the coasts of Judea by the farther side of Jordan: and the people resort unto him again: and, as he was wont, he taught them again.

2 ¶ And ^bthe Pharisees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? tempting him.

3 And he answered and said unto them, What did Moses command you?

4 And they said, ^cMoses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away.

5 And Jesus answered and said unto them, For ^dthe hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept:

6 But from the beginning of the creation God ^emade them male and female.

7 For^f this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife;

8 And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh.

9 What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

10 And in the house his disciples asked him again of the same matter.

11 And he saith unto them, ⁹ Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.

12 And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.

13 ¶ And ^h they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

14 But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for ⁱ of such is the kingdom of God.

15 Verily I say unto you, ^j Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

16 And he ^k took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

17 ¶ And ^l when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?

18 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God.

19 Thou knowest the commandments, ^m Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother.

20 And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth.

21 Then Jesus, beholding him, loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell ⁿ whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure ^o in heaven: and come, take up the ^p cross, and follow me.

22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions.

23 ¶ And ^q Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them ^r that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?

27 And Jesus, looking upon them, saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for ^a with God all things are possible.

28 ¶ Then ^b Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.

29 And Jesus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's, 30 But ^c he shall receive an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, ^d with persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life.

31 But ^e many that are first shall be last; and the last first.

32 ¶ And ^f they were in the way going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus went before them: and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. ^g And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen unto him,

33 Saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gentiles:

34 And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him: and the third day he shall rise again.

35 ¶ And ^h James and John, the sons of Zebedee, come unto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatsoever we shall desire.

36 And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you?

37 They said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory.

38 But Jesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I drink of?

and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?

39 And they said unto him, We can. And Jesus said unto them, *a*Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized:

40 But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it shall be given *b*to them for whom it is prepared.

41 And *c*when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with James and John.

42 But Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, *d*Ye know that they which *1*are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.

43 But *e*so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister;

44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.

45 For even *f*the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to *g*give his life a ransom for many.

46 ¶ And *h*they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bartimeus, the son of Timeus, sat by the highway-side begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou *i*son of David, have mercy on me.

48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy on me.

49 And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth thee.

50 And he, casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jesus.

51 And Jesus answered and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight.

52 And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; thy faith hath *2*made thee whole. And immediately *j*he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Christ rideth into Jerusalem: 12 curseth a fruitless fig tree: 27 silenceth the priests who questioned his authority.

AND *a*when they came nigh to Jerusalem, unto Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount of *b*Olives, he sendeth forth two of his disciples,

2 And saith unto them, Go your way into the village over against you: and as soon as ye be entered into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that *c*the Lord hath need of him; and straightway he will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without in a place where two ways met; and they loose him.

5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt?

6 And they said unto them even as Jesus had commanded: and they let them go.

7 And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him; *d*and he sat upon him.

8 And *e*many spread their garments in the way; and others cut down branches off the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, *f*Hosanna! Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord!

10 Blessed be the kingdom of our father David, that cometh in the name of the Lord! *g*Hosanna in the highest!

11 And *h*Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple: and when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the eventide was come, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve.

12 ¶ And *i*on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry:

13 And *j*seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.

14 And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.

15 ¶ And ^kthey come to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves;

16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple.

17 And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, ⁱMy house shall be called ^lof all nations the house of prayer? but ^mye have made it a den of thieves.

18 And ⁿthe scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all ^othe people was astonished at his doctrine.

19 And when even was come, he went out of the city.

20 ¶ And ^pin the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.

21 And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away.

22 And Jesus answering saith unto them, ²Have faith in God.

23 For ^qverily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

24 Therefore I say unto you, ^rWhat things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

25 And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any; that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.

26 But ^tif ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

27 ¶ And they come again to Jerusalem: and ^uas he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders, 28 And say unto him, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things?

CHAPTER 12.

¹ The parable of the vineyard. ¹³ Touching the paying of tribute. ¹⁸ The Sadducees confuted. ³⁵ A difficulty proposed to the scribes, etc.

AND ^ahe began to speak unto them by parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set an hedge about it, and digged a place for the wine-fat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and ^bkilling some.

6 Having yet therefore one son, ^chis well-beloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son.

7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is ^dthe heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.

8 And they took him, and ^ekilled him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the husbandmen, and ^fwill give the vineyard unto others.

10 And have ye not read this scripture; The ^dstone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner:

11 This was the Lord's doing, and ^kit is marvellous in our eyes?

12 And ^tthey sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people; for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

13 ¶ And ^jthey send unto him certain of the Pharisees and of the Herodians, to catch him in his words.

14 And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man; for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Cesar, or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a ^lpenny, that I may see it.

16 And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Cesar's.

17 And Jesus answering said unto them, Render to Cesar the things that are Cesar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him.

18 ¶ Then ^kcome unto him the Sadducees, which ^lsay there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying,

19 Master, ^mMoses wrote unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

20 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.

21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed: and the third likewise.

22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.

23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.

24 And Jesus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not ⁿthe scriptures, neither ^othe power of God?

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise; have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, ^qI am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

28 ¶ And ^rone of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?

29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, ^sHear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord:

30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength. This is the first commandment.

31 And the second is like, namely this, Thou ^tshalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.

32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; ^uand there is none other but he:

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, ^vis more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.

34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. ^wAnd no man after that durst ask him any question.

35 ¶ And ^xJesus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Christ is the son of David?

36 For David himself said ^yby the Holy Ghost, ^zThe Lord said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

37 David therefore himself calleth him Lord; and ^awhence is he then his son? And the common people heard him gladly.

38 ¶ And ^bhe said unto them in his doctrine, ^c'Beware of the scribes, which love to go in long clothing, and ^dlove salutations in the market-places,

39 And the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost rooms at feasts;

40 Which ^e'devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater damnation.

41 ¶ And ^fJesus sat over against the treasury, and beheld how the people cast ^gmoney into the ^htreasury: and many that were rich cast in much.

42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two ⁱmites, which make a farthing.

43 And he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ^jthis poor widow hath cast more in than all they which have cast into the treasury:

44 For all ^kthey did cast in of their abundance; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, ^leven all her living.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Christ foretelleth the destruction of the temple: 3 he sheweth what signs should go before, 24 and what should happen at the time of his coming: 32 no man knoweth the day or hour; therefore we must watch and pray, lest found unprepared.

AND ^aas he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here!

2 And Jesus answering said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? b there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, over against the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately, 4 Tell ^cus, when shall these things be? and what ^dshall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?

5 And Jesus answering them began to say, ^eTake heed lest any man deceive you:

6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

7 And when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be; but ^a'the end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines and troubles. These are the beginnings of ^b sorrows.

9 ¶ But ^c'take heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten: and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them.

10 And ^d'the gospel must first be published among all nations.

11 But ^ewhen they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate; but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, ^f'but the Holy Ghost.

12 Now ^g'the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

13 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but ^h'he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 ¶ But ⁱ'when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, ^j'spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then let ^k'them that be in Judea flee to the mountains:

15 And let him that is on the house-top not go down into the house, neither enter therein, to take any thing out of his house:

16 And let him that is in the field not turn back again for to take up his garment.

17 But ^l'woe to them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days!

18 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.

19 For ^m'in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created unto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days.

21 And ²then, if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ; or, lo, he is there; believe him not:

22 For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall show signs and wonders, to seduce, ⁷if it were possible, even the elect.

23 But ⁴take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things.

24 ¶ But ²in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, 25 And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken.

26 And ¹¹then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory.

27 And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

28 Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near:

29 So ye, in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, even at the doors.

30 Verily I say unto you, that this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done.

31 Heaven and earth shall pass away; but my ^vwords shall not pass away.

32 ¶ But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.

33 Take ^wye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is.

34 For ²the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.

35 Watch ^vye therefore; for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cock-crowing, or in the morning;

36 Lest, coming suddenly, he find you sleeping.

37 And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.

CHAPTER 14.

1 A conspiracy against Christ: 3 a woman poureth ointment on his head: 10 Judas covenanteth to betray him: 12 he eateth the passover: 22 he instituteth his supper: 66 Peter thrice denieth him, etc.

AFTER ^atwo days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

3 ¶ And ^bbeing in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of ¹spikenard very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.

4 And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred ^cpence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

6 And Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.

7 For ^dye have the poor with you always, and whosoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.

8 She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

10 ¶ And ^eJudas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him ^fmoney. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

12 ¶ And ^gthe first day of unleavened bread, when they ²killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest eat the passover?

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat ^hthe passover with my disciples?

15 And he will show you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

17 And ⁱin the evening he cometh with the twelve.

18 And as they sat and did eat, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me shall betray me.

19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?

20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that dippeth with me in the dish.

21 The ^jSon of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born.

22 ¶ And ^kas they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake ^lit, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this ³is my body.

23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave ^lit to them: and they all drank of it.

24 And he said unto them, This is ^lmy blood of the new testament, which is shed for many.

25 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

26 ¶ And ^mwhen they had sung an ⁴hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

27 And ⁿJesus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, ^oI will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.

28 But ^pafter that I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee.

29 But ^qPeter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet ^{will} not I.

30 And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this day, ^{even} in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.

31 But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee,

I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.

32 ¶ And ^rthey came to a place which was named Gethsemane: and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while ^sI shall pray.

33 And he taketh with him Peter and James and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy;

34 And saith unto them, ^tMy soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.

35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.

36 And he said, ^uAbba, Father, ^vall things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: ^wnevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt.

37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldst not thou watch one hour?

38 Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. ^xThe spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.

39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.

40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) neither wist they what to answer him.

41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take ^yyour rest: it is enough, ^zthe hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

42 Rise ^aup, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

43 ¶ And ^aimmediately, while he yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.

44 And he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead ^bhim away safely.

45 And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, ⁵Master, master; and ^bkissed him.

46 And they laid their hands on him, and took him.

47 And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

48 And ^cJesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staves to take me?

49 I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but ^dthe scriptures must be fulfilled.

50 And ^ethey all forsook him, and fled.

51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the young men laid hold on him:

52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

53 ¶ And ^fthey led Jesus away to the high priest: and with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes.

54 And Peter followed him afar off, even into the palace of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.

55 And ^gthe chief priests and all the council sought for witness against Jesus to put him to death; and ^hfound none:

56 For many bare ⁱfalse witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.

57 And there arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying,

58 We heard him say, ^jI will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.

59 But neither so did their witness agree together.

60 And ^kthe high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

61 But ^lhe held his peace, and answered nothing. ^mAgain the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?

62 And Jesus said, I am: ⁿand ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

63 Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further witnesses?

64 Ye have heard ^othe blasphemy:

CHAPTER 15.

1 Jesus is brought bound and accused before Pilate: 6 Pilate, prevailed on by the people, giveth up Jesus to be crucified: 17 he is crowned with thorns, 27 crucified between two thieves: 43 he is honourably buried.

AND ^aa straightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.

2 And ^bPilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering said unto him, ^cThou sayest it.

3 And the chief priests accused him of many things: but ^dhe answered nothing.

4 And ^ePilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.

5 But ^fJesus yet answered nothing; so that Pilate marvelled.

6 ¶ Now ^gat that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.

7 And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude, crying aloud, began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy.

11 But the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them.

12 And Pilate answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews?

13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.

14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.

15 And so Pilate, being willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.

16 ¶ And the soldiers led him away into the hall called Pretorium; and they call together the whole band.

17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head, 18 And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews!

19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him.

20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

21 And they compel one Simon a Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross.

22 And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull.

23 And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not.

Ps. 38. 11.

24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.

25 And it was the third hour, and they crucified him.

26 And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 And with him they crucify two thieves; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.

28 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was numbered with the transgressors.

29 ¶ And they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah! thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, 30 Save thyself, and come down from the cross.

31 Likewise also the chief priests mocking said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others; himself he cannot save.

32 Let Christ the King of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with him reviled him.

33 ¶ And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi! Eloi! lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God! my God! why hast thou forsaken me?

35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elias.

36 And one ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let alone; let us see whether Elias will come to take him down.

37 And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost.

38 And the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom.

39 ¶ And when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God.

40 There were also women looking on afar off: among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and Salome;

41 (Who also, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministered unto him;) and many other women which came up with him unto Jerusalem.

42 ¶ And now when the even was come, because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath, 43 Joseph of Arimathea, an honourable counsellor, which also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus.

44 And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead: and, calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead.

45 And when he knew it of the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph.

46 And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre.

47 And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses beheld where he was laid.

CHAPTER 16.

1 An angel declareth the resurrection of Christ to three women: 9 he appeareth to Mary Magdalene, 12 to two of his disciples going into the country, 14 and to the eleven, whom he commissioneth to preach the Gospel to all the world: 19 his ascension into heaven; the Gospel is preached.

AND when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.

2 And very early in the morning, the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.

3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great.

5 And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted.

6 And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him.

7 But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled and were amazed: neither said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid.

9 ¶ Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils.

10 And she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not.

12 ¶ After that he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country.

13 And they went and told it unto the residue: neither believed they them.

14 ¶ Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen.

15 And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

16 He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned.

17 And these signs shall follow them that believe: In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues;

18 They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

19 ¶ So then, after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God.

20 And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.

CHAPTER 1.

Luke's preface. 5 The conception of John Baptist, 26 and of Christ. 57 The nativity and circumcision of John. 64 The mouth of Zacharias opened: 67 his prophecy.

FORASMUCH as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of ^athose things which are most surely believed among us,

2 Even ^bas they delivered them unto us, which ^cfrom the beginning were eye-witnesses, and ministers of the word;

3 It ^dseemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write unto thee ^ein order, most excellent Theophilus,

4 That ^fthou mightest know the certainty of those things, wherein thou hast been instructed.

5 THERE was, ^hin the days of Herod the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth.

6 And they were both ⁱrighteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.

7 And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren; and they both were now well stricken in years.

8 And it came to pass, that, while he executed the priest's office before God ^kin the order of his course, 9 According to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was ^lto burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

10 And ^mthe whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of incense.

11 And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense.

12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

13 But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: for ⁿthy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John.

14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth.

15 For he shall be ^pgreat in the sight of the Lord, and ^qshall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, ^reven from his mother's womb.

17 And ^the shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient ^uto the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for ^vthe Lord.

18 And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby ^wshall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.

19 And the angel answering said unto him, I am ^xGabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to show thee these glad tidings.

20 And, behold, ^ythou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

21 And the people ^zwaited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them; and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple; for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pass, that, as soon as the ^adays of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying, 25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to ^btake away my reproach among men.

26 ^cAnd in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth,

27 To a ^b virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.

28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail! thou that art ²highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women!

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary; for thou hast found favour with God.

31 And, ^cbehold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS.

32 He shall be ^dgreat, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and ^ethe Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David:

33 And ^fhe shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

34 Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the ^gSon of God.

36 And, behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren.

37 For ^hwith God nothing shall be impossible.

38 And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

39 ¶ And Mary arose in those days, and went into the hill country with haste, ⁱinto a city of Juda;

40 And entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth.

41 And it came to pass, that, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was filled ^jwith the Holy Ghost:

42 And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, ^kBlessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

44 For, lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

45 And blessed is she ³that believed: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.

46 ¶ And Mary said, ⁴My soul doth magnify the Lord, 47 And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

48 For ⁵he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth ⁶all generations shall call me blessed.

49 For he that is mighty hath done to me great things; and holy is his name.

50 And ⁷his mercy is on them that fear him from generation to generation.

51 He ⁸hath showed strength with his arm: ⁹he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

52 He ¹⁰hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

53 He ¹¹hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich he hath sent empty away.

54 He hath holpen his servant Israel, ¹²in remembrance of his mercy, 55 As ¹³he spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever.

56 And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

57 ¶ Now Elisabeth's full time came that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son.

58 And her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had showed great mercy upon her; and they rejoiced with her.

59 And it came to pass, that ¹⁴on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60 And his mother answered and said, Not so; but he shall be called John.

61 And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name.

62 And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called.

63 And he asked for a writing table, and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they marvelled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, and praised God.

65 And fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Judea.

66 And all they that heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be! And the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 ¶ And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying,

68 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed his people, 69 And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David;

70 As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began;

71 That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us;

72 To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant,

73 The oath which he swore to our father Abraham,

74 That he would grant unto us, that we, being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, might serve him without fear, 75 In holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life.

76 And thou, child, shalt be called the Prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways;

77 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people, by the remission of their sins,

78 Through the tender mercy of our God, whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us, 79 To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

80 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his showing unto Israel.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Augustus taxeth the Roman empire. 6
Christ's nativity: 21 his circumcision:
26 he questioneth the doctors, etc.

AND it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Cesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed.

2 (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.)

3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, (because he was of the house and lineage of David,)

5 To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7 And she brought forth her first-born son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 ¶ And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

9 And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them; and they were sore afraid.

10 And the angel said unto them, Fear not; for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

11 For unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

12 And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, 14 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18 And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19 But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

21 ¶ And ^kwhen eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called ^jJESUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when ^mthe days of her purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord;

23 (As it is written in the law of the Lord, Every ⁿmale that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord;)

24 And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtle doves, or two young pigeons.

25 And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was just and devout, ^owaiting for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Ghost was upon him.

26 And it was revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should not ^psee death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

27 And he came by ^qthe Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law,

28 Then took he him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said,

29 Lord, ^rnow lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word:

30 For mine eyes ^shave seen thy salvation,

31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;

32 A ^tlight to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.

33 And Joseph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.

Mk. 1. 22.

Jn. 7. 15.

34 And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this ^uchild is set for the ^vfall and rising again of many in Israel; and for ^wa sign which shall be spoken against;

35 (Yea, ^xa sword shall pierce through thy own soul also,) that ^ythe thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.

36 And there was one Anna, ^za prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser: she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity;

37 And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers ^anight and day.

38 And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that ^blooked for redemption in ^cJerusalem.

39 And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth.

40 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom; and the grace of God was upon him.

41 ¶ Now his parents went to Jerusalem every ^byear at the feast of the passover.

42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem after the custom of the feast.

43 And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother knew not of it.

44 But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance.

45 And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him.

46 And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, ^cboth hearing them, and asking them questions.

47 And ^dall that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.

48 And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing.

49 And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about ^emy Father's business?

50 And ^fthey understood not the saying which he spake unto them.

51 And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them: but his mother ^gkept all these sayings in her heart.

52 And Jesus ^hincreased in wisdom and ⁱstature, and in favour with God and man.

CHAPTER 3.

1 John's preaching and baptism: 15 his testimony of Christ. 19 Herod imprisoneth John. 21 Christ is baptized: 23 his genealogy.

NOW in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Cesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the tetrarch of Abilene,

2 Annas ^aand Caiaphas being the high priests, the word of God came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness.

3 And ^bhe came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance ^cfor the remission of sins;

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Esaias the prophet, saying, ^d"The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight."

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways ^eshall be made smooth;

6 And ^f"all flesh shall see the salvation of God."

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, ^g"O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?"

8 Bring ^hforth therefore fruits ⁱworthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

9 And now also the ax is laid unto the root of the trees: ^jevery tree

10 And the people asked him, saying, What ^ashall we do then?

11 He answereth and saith unto them, He ^bthat hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12 Then ^ccame also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do?

14 And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, ^e"Do violence to no man, ^fneither accuse ^gany falsely; and be content with your ^hwages."

15 ¶ And as the people were ⁱin expectation, and all men ^jmused in their hearts of John, whether he were the Christ, or not;

16 John answered, saying unto them all, I ^k"indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with ^lthe Holy Ghost and with fire:

18 And many other things in his exhortation preached he unto the people.

19 ¶ But ⁿHerod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias his brother Philip's wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done, 20 Added yet this above all, that he shut up John in prison.

21 ¶ Now when all the people were baptized, ^oit came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened,

22 And the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came ^pfrom heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Christ's temptation and fasting: 13 he, overcoming the devil, 14 beginneth to preach: 16 the people at Nazareth admire him: 33 he cureth one possessed of a devil, etc.

AND ^aJesus, being full of the Holy Ghost, returned from Jordan, and ^bwas led by the Spirit into the wilderness,

2 Being forty days ^ctempted of the devil. And ^din those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward hungered.

3 And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread.

4 And Jesus answered him, saying, ^eIt is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.

5 And the devil, taking him up into an high mountain, showed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.

6 And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for ^fthat is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it.

7 If thou therefore wilt ^gworship me, all shall be thine.

8 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Satan: ^hfor it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

9 And ⁱhe brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast ^jthyself down from hence:

10 For ^kit is written, He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee;

11 And in ^ltheir hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

12 And Jesus answering said unto him, It ^mis said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he ⁿdeparted from him ^mfor a season.

14 ¶ And ⁿJesus returned in the power of the Spirit into ^oGalilee: and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about.

15 And he taught in their synagogues, being ^pglorified of all.

16 ¶ And he came to ^qNazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, ^rhe went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up for to read.

17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Esaias. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,

18 The ^sSpirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, 19 To preach the ^tacceptable year of the Lord.

20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.

21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

22 And all bare him witness, and ^uwondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is ^vnot this Joseph's son?

23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done in ^wCapernaum, do also here in ^xthy country.

24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, No prophet ^yis accepted in his own country.

25 But I tell you of a truth, ^zmany widows were in Israel in the days of Elias, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land;

26 But unto none of them was Elias sent, save unto Sarepta, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow.

27 And ^amany lepers were in Israel in the time of Eliseus the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the Syrian.

30 But he ^bpassing through the midst of them went his way, 31 And ^ccame down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the sabbath days.

32 And they were astonished at his doctrine: ^dfor his word was with power.

33 ¶ And ^ein the synagogue there was a man which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice, 34 Saying, ³Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art; ^fthe Holy One of God.

35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.

37 And ^gthe fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

38 ¶ And ^hhe arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. And Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her.

39 And he stood over her, and ⁱrebuked the fever; and it left her. And immediately she arose and ministered unto them.

40 ¶ Now ^jwhen the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

41 And ^kdevils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ, the Son of God. And ^lhe, rebuking them, suffered them not ⁴to speak: for they knew that he was Christ.

42 And ^mwhen it was day, he departed and went into a desert place; and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them.

43 And he said unto them, ^aI must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also: for therefore am I sent.

44 And ^ohe preached in the synagogues of Galilee.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Christ teacheth out of Peter's ship. 4 A miraculous draught of fishes. 12 A leper cleansed. 18 The palsy healed. 27 Levi called from the receipt of custom.

AND ^ait came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gennesaret,

2 And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.

4 Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, ^bLaunch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

5 And Simon answering said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake.

7 And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, ^cDepart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:

10 And so ^dwas also James and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; ^dfrom henceforth thou shalt catch men.

their ships to land, ^ethey forsook all, and followed him.

12 ^fAnd ^git came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold a man full of leprosy; who, seeing Jesus, fell on ^hhis face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst ⁱmake me clean.

13 And he put forth ^jhis hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

14 And ^khe charged him to tell no man; but go, and show thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, ^laccording as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: and ^mgreat multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 And ⁿhe withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

17 ^o¶ And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judea, and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord ^pwas present to heal them.

18 ^q¶ And, ^rbehold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought ^smeans to bring him in, and to lay ^thim before him.

19 And when they could not find by what ^uway they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the house-top, and let him down through the tiling with ^vhis couch into the midst before Jesus.

20 And when he saw their ^wfaith, he said unto him, Man, ^xthy sins are forgiven thee.

21 And ^ythe scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? ^zWho can forgive sins but God alone?

22 But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?

24 But that ye may know that ^athe Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee

Arise, and take up thy couch, and go unto thine house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, ^r glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to-day.

27 ¶ And ^aafter these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom : and he said unto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 And ^tLevi made him a great feast in his own house : and ^uthere was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them.

30 But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?

31 And Jesus answering said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician ; but they that are sick.

32 I ^vcame not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 ¶ And they said unto him, ^wWhy do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees ; but thine eat and drink ?

34 And he said unto them, Can ye make the children of the bride-chamber fast while the ^xbridegroom is with them ?

35 But the days will come, when the Bridegroom shall ^ybe taken away from them, and then shall they ^zfast in those days.

36 ¶ And ^ahe spake also a parable unto them ; No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old : if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old.

37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles ; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new bottles ; and both are preserved.

39 No man also having drunk old wine straightway desireth new ; for he saith, The old is better.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Touching the ears of corn that were plucked by the disciples on the sabbath. 13 Christ chooseth the twelve, 17 healeth divers diseases, 20 pronounceth blessings, etc.

AND ^ait came to pass, on the second sabbath after the first, that he went through the corn fields ; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And certain of the Pharisees said unto them, ^bWhy do ye that which is not lawful to do on the sabbath days?

3 And Jesus answering them said, Have ye not read so much as this, ^cwhat David did, when himself was an hungered, and they which were with him ;

4 How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the shewbread, and gave also to them that were with him ; ^dwhich it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone?

5 And he said unto them, That the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

6 ¶ And ^eit came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught : and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

7 And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day ; that they might find an accusation against him.

8 But he ^fknew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth.

9 Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing ; ^gIs it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil ? to save life, or to destroy it?

10 And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so : and his hand was restored whole as the other.

11 And they were filled with madness ; and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.

12 ¶ And ^hit came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God.

13 And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named Apostles;

14 Simon, (whom he also named Peter,) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew, 15 Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon called Zelotes, 16 And Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitor.

17 And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;

18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went virtue out of him, and healed them all.

20 ¶ And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God.

21 Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh.

22 Blessed are ye when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.

23 Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

24 But woe unto you that are rich! for ye have received your consolation.

25 Woe unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. Woe unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep.

26 Woe unto you when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

27 ¶ But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you,

28 Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you.

29 And unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; and him that taketh away thy cloak forbid not to take thy coat also.

30 Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.

31 And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

32 For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.

33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.

34 And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

35 But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.

36 Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.

37 Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven:

38 Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again.

39 And he spake a parable unto them: Can the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch?

40 The disciple is not above his master: but every one that is perfect shall be as his master.

41 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.

43 For ^aa good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

44 For ^aevery tree is known by his own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they ²grapes.

45 A ^wgood man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

46 ^cAnd ^dwhy call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?

47 Whosoever ^ycometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will show you to whom he is like:

48 He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when ²the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it; for it was founded upon ^aa rock.

49 But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and ^bthe ruin of that house was great.

1 The centurion's faith; 10 Christ healeth his servant, being absent; 11 raiseth the widow's son. 24 Christ's testimony of John. 36 Mary Magdalene anointeth Christ's feet.

NOW when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, ⁴he entered into Capernaum.

2 And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die.

3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

4 And when they came to Jesus, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this:

5 For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.

6 Then Jesus went with them.

And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself; for I am not worthy that thou shouldst enter under my roof:

7 Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers; and I say unto ¹one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9 When Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in ^bIsrael.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

11 ¶ And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nain; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was ²a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he ^chad compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

14 And he came and touched the ²bier: and they that bare him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, ^dArise.

15 And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother.

16 And ^ethere came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, ¶ That a great prophet is risen up among us; and, ^fThat God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judea, and throughout all the region round about.

18 ¶ And ^hthe disciples of John showed him of all these things.

19 And John calling unto him two of his disciples, sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou ⁱhe that should come? or look we for another?

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

21 And in the same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind he gave sight.

22 Then Jesus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; ^khow that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, ^lto the poor the gospel is preached.

23 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

24 ¶ And ^mwhen the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

27 This is he of whom it is written, "Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

29 And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified God, ^obeing baptized with the baptism of John.

30 But the Pharisees and lawyers ³rejected ^pthe counsel of God ⁴against themselves, being not baptized of him.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, ^qWhereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?

32 They are like unto children sitting in the market-place, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

33 For ^rJohn the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a devil.

34 The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners!

35 But ^sWisdom is justified of all her children.

36 ¶ And ^tone of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat.

37 And, behold, a ^uwoman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment, 38 And stood at his feet behind ^vhim weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe ^wthem with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed ^xthem with the ointment.

39 Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, ^y"This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him; for she is a sinner.

40 And Jesus answering said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.

41 There was a certain creditor, which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred ^zpence, and the other fifty.

42 And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly ^{aa}forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?

43 Simon answered and said, I suppose that he to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no ^{ab}water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped ^{ac}them with the hairs of her head.

45 Thou gavest me no ^{ad}kiss; but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

46 My ^{ae}head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.

47 Wherefore ^{af}I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.

48 And he said unto her, *d*Thy sins are forgiven.

49 And they that sat at meat with him began to say within themselves, *e*Who is this that forgiveth sins also?

50 And he said to the woman, *f*Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Devout women minister unto Christ.
4 The parable of the sower, 16 and of the candle. 26 The legion of devils cast out: 43 the woman healed of her bloody issue, etc.

AND it came to pass afterward, A that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and showing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him,

2 And *a*certain women, which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, *b*out of whom went seven devils,

3 And Joanna the wife of Chuza Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, which ministered unto him of their substance.

4 ¶ And *c*when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:

5 A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way-side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, *H*e that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 ¶ And *d*his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be?

10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; *e*that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

11 Now *f*the parable is this: The *g*seed is the word of God.

that hear; then cometh *i*the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares *j*and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and *k*bring forth fruit with patience.

16 ¶ No l'man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

17 For *m*nothing is secret that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid that shall not be known and come abroad.

18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: *n*for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he *l*seemeth to have.

19 ¶ Then *o*came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press.

20 And it was told him by certain, which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.

21 And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it.

22 ¶ Now *p*it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish! Then he *q*arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And they being ^rafraid wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

26 ¶ And ^athey arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.

28 When he saw Jesus, he ^tcried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee, torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.)

30 And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him.

31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out ^uinto the deep.

32 And there was there an herd ^vof many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And ^whe suffered them.

33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jesus, and found the man out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, ^xand in his right mind: and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils was healed.

37 ¶ Then ^ythe whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes round about besought ^zhim to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear. And he went up into the ship, and returned back again.

38 Now ^athe man out of whom the devils were departed besought him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying, 39 Return to thine own house, and show how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done unto him.

40 And it came to pass, that, when Jesus was returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.

41 ¶ And, ^bbehold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house:

42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the people thronged him.

43 ¶ And ^ca woman, having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any,

44 Came behind him, and ^dtouchèd the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanchèd.

45 And Jesus said, Who touchèd me? When all denied, Peter and they that were with him said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touchèd me?

46 And Jesus said, Somebody hath touchèd me: for I perceive that ^evirtue is gone out of me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touchèd him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace.

49 ¶ While ^fhe yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; ^gtrouble not the Master.

50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: ^hbelieve only, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter and James and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, ^hbut sleepeth.

53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, ⁱarise.

55 And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: and he commanded to give her meat.

56 And her parents were astonished: but he ^jcharged them that they should tell no man what was done.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Christ sendeth out his apostles: 7 Herod is desirous to see him. 12 Christ feedeth five thousand; 28 his transfiguration: 37 he healeth a lunatic, etc.

THEN ^ahe called his twelve disciples together, and ^bgave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.

2 And ^che sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

3 And ^dhe said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.

4 And ^ewhatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 And ^fwhosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, ^gshake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them.

6 And ^hthey departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where.

7 ¶ Now ⁱHerod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that John was risen from the dead;

8 And of some, that Elias had appeared; and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again.

9 And Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this of whom I hear such things? And ^jhe desired to see him.

10 ¶ And ^kthe apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And ^lhe took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bethsaida.

11 And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing.

12 ¶ And ^mwhen the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he said unto them, ⁿGive ye them to eat. And they said, ^oWe have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people.

14 (For they were about five thousand men.) And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they ^pdid eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.

18 ¶ And ^qit came to pass, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

19 They answering said, "John the Baptist; but some say, Elias; and others say, that one of the old prophets is risen again.

20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? ^rPeter answering said, The Christ of God.

21 And ^she straitly charged them, and commanded them to tell no man that thing;

22 Saying, "The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day.

23 ¶ And ^the said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

24 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

25 For ^uwhat is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?

26 For ^xwhosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels.

27 But ^yI tell you of a truth, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

28 ¶ And ^zit came to pass, about an eight days after these ¹sayings, he took Peter and John and James, and went up into a mountain to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the ^afashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.

30 And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and ^bElias;

31 Who appeared in ^cglory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 But Peter and they that were with him were ^dheavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, ^eThis is my beloved Son: hear ^fhim.

36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. ^gAnd they kept ^hit close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

37 ¶ And ⁱit came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.

38 And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son; for he is mine only child:

39 And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth again, and, bruising him, hardly departeth from him.

40 And I besought thy disciples to cast him out; and they could not.

41 And Jesus answering said, O faithless and perverse generation! how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither.

42 And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.

43 ¶ And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But, while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples, 44 Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.

45 But ⁱthey understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.

46 ¶ Then ^kthere arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

47 And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him, 48 And said unto them, ^lWhosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me; and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: ^mfor he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 And ⁿJohn answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbade him, because he followeth not with us.

50 And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for ^ohe that is not against us is for us.

51 ¶ And it came to pass, when the time was come that ^phe should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, 52 And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him.

53 And ^qthey did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.

54 And when his disciples James and John saw ^rthis, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as ^sElias did?

55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not ^awhat manner of spirit ye are of.

56 For ^athe Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

57 ¶ And ^ait came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

58 And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air ^ahave nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

59 And ^ahe said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

60 Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

61 And another also said, Lord, ^aI will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell which are at home at my house.

62 And Jesus said unto him, ^aNo man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

12 But I say unto you, That ^dit shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city.

13 Woe ^eunto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! ^ffor if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which have been done in you, they had a great while ago ^grepented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

16 He ^kthat heareth you heareth me; and he ^lthat despiseth you despiseth me; ^mand he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me.

17 ¶ And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name.

18 And he said unto them, ⁿI beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven.

19 Behold, ^oI give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

20 Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because ^pyour names are written in heaven.

21 ¶ In ^qthat hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from ^rthe wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight.

22 ^sAll things ^tare delivered to me of my Father: and ^uno man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.

23 ¶ And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, ^oBlessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see:

24 For I tell you, ^hthat many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

25 ¶ And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, 'Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

26 He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou?

27 And he answering said, ^jThou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and ^kthy neighbour as thyself.

28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and ^lthou shalt live.

29 But he, willing to ^mjustify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour?

30 And Jesus answering said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, ⁿhe passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 But a certain ^oSamaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him, 34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35 And on the morrow, when he departed, he took out two ^ppence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him: and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

39 And she had a sister called Mary, which also ^csat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word.

40 But Martha was ^dcumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Christ teacheth to pray: 14 he casteth out a dumb devil: 27 he sheweth who are truly blessed: 29 he preacheth to the people, 37 and reproveth the Pharisees' outward show of holiness, etc.

AND it came to pass, that, as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, ^ateach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples.

2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, ^bOur Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.

^cThy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

3 Give us ^d1 day by day our daily bread.

4 And forgive us our sins: for ^ewe also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And ^flead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves;

6 For a friend of mine ^gin his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.

8 I say unto you, / Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

9 And ⁹ I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

10 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

11 If ^ha son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if ^{he} ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?

12 Or if he shall ask an egg, will he ³offer him a scorpion?

13 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

14 ¶ And ^hhe was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered.

15 But some of them said, ^kHe casteth out devils through ^lBeelzebub the chief of the devils.

16 And others, tempting ^{him}, sought of him a sign from heaven.

17 But ^mhe, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth.

18 If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub.

19 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do ⁿyour sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges.

20 But if I ^owith the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.

21 When ^pa strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace:

22 But ^qwhen a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.

23 He ^rthat is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth.

24 When ^athe unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.

25 And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished.

26 Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and ^tthe last state of that man is worse than the first.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him, ^uBlessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked.

28 But he said, Yea ^vrather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

29 ¶ And ^wwhen the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign; and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jonas the prophet.

30 For as ^xJonas was a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation.

31 The ^yqueen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a ^zgreater than Solomon is here.

32 The men of Nineve shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for ^athey repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here.

33 No ^bman, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a ^cbushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light.

34 The ^dlight of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when ^ethine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.

35 Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness.

36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when ^fthe bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

37 ¶ And as he spake, a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him : and he went in, and sat down to meat.

38 And ^ewhen the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner.

39 And ^fthe Lord said unto him, Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but ^gyour inward part is full of ravening and wickedness.

40 Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also?

41 But ^hrather give alms ⁱof such things as ye have; and, behold, all things are clean unto you.

42 But ^jwoe unto you, Pharisees! ^kfor ye tithe mint and rue, and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

43 Woe ^lunto you, Pharisees! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

44 Woe ^munto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! ⁿfor ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

45 Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying thou reproachest us also.

46 And he said, Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! ^ofor ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 Woe ^punto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for ^qthey indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

49 Therefore also said the ^rwisdom of God, ^sI will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute:

50 That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation;

51 From ^tthe blood of Abel, unto the blood of Zacharias, which perished between the altar and the temple: verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation.

CHAPTER 12.

¹ To avoid hypocrisy. ¹³ To beware of covetousness. ⁴¹ The faithful and wise steward. ⁴⁹ Of divisions on account of the Gospel.

IN ^{ca}the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, ^{cb}Beware ye of the heaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

2 For ^{cc}there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known.

3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the house-tops.

4 And ^{cd}I say unto you, my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

5 But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath ^{ce}power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him.

6 Are not five sparrows sold for two ^{cf}farthings? and ^{cg}not one of them is forgotten before God:

7 But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows.

8 Also ^{ch}I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God:

9 But he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God.

10 And ^{ci}whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Ghost it shall not be forgiven.

11 And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say :

12 For ^athe Holy Ghost shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say.

13 ¶ And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.

14 And he said unto him, ⁱMan, who made me a judge or a divider over you?

15 And he said unto them, ^mTake heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully:

17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?

18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soul, ⁿSoul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

20 But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night ¹thy soul shall be required of thee: then ^owhose shall those things be which thou hast provided?

21 So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, ^pand is not rich toward God.

22 ¶ And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, ^qTake no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.

24 Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn; and ^rGod feedeth them: how much more are ye better than the fowls?

25 And which of you with taking thought can add to his stature one cubit?

26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest?

27 Consider the lilies how they grow: they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grass, which is to-day in the field, and to-morrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, ²neither be ye of doubtful mind.

30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth ^athat ye have need of these things.

31 But ^brather seek ye the kingdom of God; and ^call these things shall be added unto you.

32 Fear not, little flock; for ^dit is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

33 Sell ^ethat ye have, and give alms; provide ^fyourself bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

35 Let ^gyour loins be girded about, ^hand your lights burning;

36 And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding; that, when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.

37 Blessed ⁱare those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them.

38 And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find ^jthem so, blessed are those servants.

39 And ^kthis know, that if the goodman of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through.

40 Be ^lye therefore ready also: for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.

41 ¶ Then Peter said unto him, Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to all?

42 And the Lord said, ^mWho then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season?

43 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

44 Of a truth I say unto you, ^ethat he will make him ruler over all that he hath.

45 But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the men-servants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken;

46 The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will ³cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.

47 And ^fthat servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.

48 But ^ghe that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required; and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.

49 ¶ I am come to send fire on the earth; and what will I, if it be already kindled?

50 But ^hI have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I ⁴straitened till it be accomplished!

51 Suppose ⁱye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; ^jbut rather division:

52 For ^kfrom henceforth there shall be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three.

53 The father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

54 ¶ And he said also to the people, When ^lye see a cloud rise out of the west, straightway ye say, There cometh a shower; and so it is.

55 And when ye see ^mthe south wind blow, ye say, There will be heat; and it cometh to pass.

56 Ye ⁿhypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky and of the earth;

CHAPTER 13.

1 Christ preacheth repentance by the calamity upon the Galileans and others. 6 The fruitless fig tree cursed. 11 He healeth the crooked woman. 18 Parable of the grain of mustard seed, and of leaven. 24 The strait gate.

THERE were present at that season some that told him of ^athe Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ^bye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered such things?

3 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were ^csinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem?

5 I tell you, Nay: but, except ^cye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 ¶ He spake also this parable; ^dA certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these ^ethree years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?

8 And he answering said unto him, Lord, let ^fit alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

9 And if it bear fruit, well; and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.

10 ¶ And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.

11 And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself.

12 And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.

13 And ^ohe laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the synagogue answered ^hwith indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, ⁱThere are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and ^jnot on the sabbath day.

15 The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite, ^kdoth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

16 And ought not this woman, ^lbeing a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day?

17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 ¶ Then ^msaid he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it?

19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

20 ¶ And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God?

21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three ⁿmeasures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

22 And ^ohe went through the cities and villages, teaching and journeying toward Jerusalem.

23 ¶ Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, 24 ²Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for ^pmany, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

CHAPTER 14.

² Christ healeth the dropsy on the sabbath day: 7 teacheth humility: 12 to feed the poor. 15 The parable of the great supper. 25 What is required of those who would be Christ's disciples.

AND it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath day, that they watched him.

2 And, behold, there was a certain man before him which had the dropsy.

3 And Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, ^aIs it lawful to heal on the sabbath day?

4 And they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go;

5 And answered them, saying, ^bWhich of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the sabbath day?

6 And they could not answer him again to these things.

7 ¶ And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms; saying unto them,

8 When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room; lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him;

9 And he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.

10 But ^cwhen thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

11 For ^dwhosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

12 ¶ Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, ^ecall the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind:

14 And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed at ^fthe resurrection of the just.

15 ¶ And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, ^gBlessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.

16 Then ^hsaid he unto him, A certain man made a great supper, and bade many:

17 And ⁱsent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready.

18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, ^sI have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused.

19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.

20 And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that servant came, and showed his lord these things. Then the master of the house, being angry, said to his servant, Go ^tout quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.

22 And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.

23 And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, ^uand compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.

24 For I say unto you, ^vThat none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper.

25 ¶ And there went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and said unto them, 26 If ^wany man come to me, ^xand hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, ^yyea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple.

30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish.

31 Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand?

1 The parable of the lost sheep: 8 of the piece of silver: 11 of the prodigal son.

THEN ^adrew near unto him all the publicans and ^bsinners for to hear him.

2 And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and ^ceateth with them.

3 ¶ And he spake this parable unto them, saying,

4 What ^dman of you, having an hundred sheep, if he ^elose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep ^fwhich was lost.

7 I say unto you, That likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, ^gmore than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance.

8 ¶ Either what woman, having ten ⁱpieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it?

9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise, I say unto you, There is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

11 ¶ And he said, A certain man had two sons:

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them ^hhis living.

13 And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into ^aa far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough, and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

18 I will ⁱarise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, ^kI have sinned against Heaven, and before thee, 19 And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

20 And he arose, and came to his father. But ^lwhen he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

21 And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against Heaven, ^mand in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

22 But the father said to his servants, Bring forth ⁿthe best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on ^{his} feet:

23 And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry:

24 For ^othis my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they ^pbegan to be merry.

25 Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard music and dancing.

26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant.

27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound.

28 And ^ahe was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and entreated him.

29 And he answering said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment; and ^ayet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends:

30 But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.

31 And he said unto him. Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine.

32 It ^awas meet that we should make merry and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

CHAPTER 16.

1 The parable of the unjust steward. 14 Christ reproveth the hypocrisy of the covetous Pharisees. 19 The rich glutton, and Lazarus the beggar.

AND he said also unto his disciples. There was a certain ^arich man which had a steward: and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account ^bof thy stewardship: for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.

4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?

6 And he said, An hundred ¹measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred ²measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.

8 And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than ^cthe children of light.

9 And I say unto you, ^dMake to yourselves friends of the ³mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

10 He ^ethat is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much; and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.

11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous ⁴mammon, who will commit to your trust the ^ftrue riches?

12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?

13 No ^gservant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other: or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

14 ^hAnd the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him.

15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which ⁱjustify yourselves before men: but God knoweth your hearts: for ^kthat which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God.

16 The ^lLaw and the Prophets ^{vere}until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.

17 And ^mit is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the Law to fail.

18 Whosoever ⁿputteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from ^oher husband committeth adultery.

19 ^pThere was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day:

20 And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, ^qfull of sores.

21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and ^rwas carried by the angels into Abraham's ²bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried;

23 And in hell he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth

Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

24 And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and ^rcool my tongue; for I ^aam tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 And besides all this, between us and you there is ^aa great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.

27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house:

28 For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

29 Abraham saith unto him, ^vThey have Moses and the Prophets; let them hear them.

30 And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.

31 And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the Prophets, ^{neither} will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

6 And ^sthe Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.

7 But which of you, having a servant plowing or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat?

8 And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, ^vand serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink?

9 Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not.

10 So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are ^hunprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do.

11 ¶ And it came to pass, ⁱas he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee.

12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which ^jstood afar off:

13 And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.

14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, ^kGo show yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed.

15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice ^lglorified God, 16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was ^ma Samaritan.

17 And Jesus answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine?

18 There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger.

19 And ⁿhe said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole.

20 ¶ And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not ^owith observation:

21 Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, ^othe kingdom of God is ²within you.

22 ¶ And he said unto the disciples, ^pThe days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it.

23 And ^qthey shall say to you, See here! or, see there! go ^rnot after them, nor follow them.

24 For as the lightning, that lighteth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall also ^sthe Son of man be in his day.

25 But ^tfirst must he suffer many things, and be rejected of this generation.

26 And ^uas it was in the days of Noe, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.

27 They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

28 Likewise ^valso as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded;

29 But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.

30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man ^wis revealed.

31 In that day, he ^xwhich shall be upon the house-top, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

32 Remember ^yLot's wife.

33 Whosoever ^zshall seek to save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life shall preserve it.

34 I ^atell you, in that night there shall be two men in one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.

35 Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

36 ^bTwo men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

CHAPTER 18.

1 The importunate widow. 9 The Pharisee and publican. 15 Children brought to Christ. 28 All to be left for the Gospel's sake. 31 He foresheweth his death.

AND he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought ^aalways to pray, and not to faint;

2 Saying, There was ¹in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man:

3 And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary.

4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man;

5 Yet ^bbecause this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.

6 And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith.

7 And ^cshall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

8 I tell you ^dthat he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

9 ¶ And he spake this parable unto certain ^ewhich trusted in themselves ²that they were righteous, and despised others:

10 Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.

11 The Pharisee ^fstood and prayed thus with himself, ^gGod, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

12 I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.

13 And the publican, ^hstanding afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: ⁱfor every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

15 ¶ And ^jthey brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, *Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for ¹of such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein.

18 ¶ And ^ma certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

19 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is, God.

20 Thou knowest the commandments, ⁿDo not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, ^oHonour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell ^pall that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

24 And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, ^qHow hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, ^rThe things which are impossible with men are possible with God.

28 ¶ Then ^sPeter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, ^tThere is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake, 30 Who ^ushall not receive manifold more in this present time, and ^vin the world to come life everlasting.

31 ¶ Then ^whe took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things ^xthat are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished.

32 For ^yhe shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on:

33 And they shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again.

34 And ²they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.

35 ¶ And ^ait came to pass, that, as he was come nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the way-side begging:

36 And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by.

38 And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me!

39 And they which went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried so much the more, Thou son of David, have mercy on me!

40 And Jesus ^bstood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he asked him, 41 Saying, What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight.

42 And Jesus said unto him. Receive thy sight: ^cthy faith hath saved thee.

CHAPTER 19.

1 Of Zaccheus the publican. 11 The ten pieces of money. 28 Christ rideth into Jerusalem: 41 weepeth over it: 45 driveth the buyers and sellers out of the temple, etc.

AND Jesus entered and passed through ^aJericho.

2 And, behold, there was a man named Zaccheus, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

3 And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zaccheus, make haste, and come down; for to-day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, ^bThat he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

8 And Zaccheus stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by ^cfalse accusation, I ^drestore him fourfold.

9 And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as ^ehe also is a son of Abraham.

10 For ^fthe Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 ¶ And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and ^gbecause ^hthey thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

12 He ⁱsaid therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.

13 And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten ^jpounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come.

14 But ^khis citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that, when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the ^lmoney, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.

17 And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been ^mfaithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, ⁿhere is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin:

21 For ^oI feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not

22 And he saith unto him, ^{aa}Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. ^{ab}Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow:

23 Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury?

24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.

27 But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 And when he had thus spoken, ^{ad}he went before, ascending up to Jerusalem.

29 ¶ And ^{ae}it came to pass, when he was come nigh to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, 30 Saying, Go ye into the village over against you; in the which at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, Because ^{af}the Lord hath need of him.

32 And they that were sent went their way, and found even as he had said unto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him.

35 And they brought him to Jesus: ^{ag}and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon.

36 And ^{ah}as he went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen,

38 Saying, Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: ^upeace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

39 And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said unto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 And he answered and said unto them, I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, ^vthe stones would immediately cry out.

41 ¶ And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and ^wwept over it, 42 Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

43 For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall ^xcast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, 44 And ^yshall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they ^zshall not leave in thee one stone upon another; ^abecause thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

45 And ^bhe went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought;

46 Saying unto them, ^cIt is written, My house is the house of prayer: but ^dye have made it a den of thieves.

47 And he taught daily in the temple. But the ^echief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people sought to destroy him, 48 And could not find what they might do: for all the people ³were very attentive to hear him.

AND ^ait came to pass, that on one of those days, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him with the elders,

4 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men?

5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not?

6 But and if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us; ^efor they be persuaded that John was a prophet.

7 And they answered, That ^dthey could not tell whence it was.

8 And Jesus said unto them, ^eNeither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

9 Then began he to speak to the people this parable: ^fA certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.

10 And at the season ^ghe sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

11 And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.

12 And ^hagain he sent a third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send ⁱmy beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is ^jthe heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and ^kkilled him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

17 And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, ^lThe stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?

18 Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken; but ^mon whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

19 And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 ¶ And ²they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.

21 And they asked him, saying, ^oMaster, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God ¹truly:

22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Cesar, or no?

23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Show me a ^ppenny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cesar's.

25 And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Cesar the things which be Cesar's, and unto God the things which be God's 26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

27 ¶ Then ²came to him certain of the Sadducees, ⁷which deny that there is any resurrection; and they asked him, 28 Saying, Master, ^sMoses wrote unto us, If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children.

30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childless.

31 And the third took her: and in like manner the seven also: and they left no children, and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

34 And Jesus answering said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

35 But they which shall be ^caccounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:

36 Neither can they die any more: for they ⁷are equal unto the angels; and are the children of God, ⁷being the children of the resurrection.

37 Now, that the dead are raised, ^weven Moses showed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

38 For ²he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for ^vall live unto him.

39 Then certain of the scribes answering said, Master, thou hast well said.

40 And after that they durst not ask him any question at all.

41 ¶ And he said unto them, ²How say they that Christ is David's son?

42 And David himself saith in the book of Psalms, ^aThe LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 43 Till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

44 David therefore calleth him Lord, how is he then his son?

45 ¶ Then, ^bin the audience of all the people, he said unto his disciples,

46 Beware ^cof the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and ^dlove greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts;

47 Which ^edevour widows' houses, and for a show make long prayers: ^fthe same shall receive greater damnation.

CHAPTER 21.

1 Christ commendeth the poor widow. 5 He foretelleth the destruction of the temple, and of the city of Jerusalem: 25 the signs also which shall be before the last day, etc.

AND he looked up, ^aand saw the ^Arich men casting their gifts into the treasury.

2 And he saw also a certain poor widow casting in thither two mites.

3 And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, that ^bthis poor widow hath cast in more than they all:

4 For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had.

5 ¶ And ^cas some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said,

6 As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which ^dthere shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

7 And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass?

8 And he said, "Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them.

9 But when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but the end is not by and by.

10 Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:

11 And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven.

12 But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name's sake.

13 And it shall turn to you for a testimony.

14 Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer:

15 For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gain-say nor resist.

17 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake.

18 But there shall not an hair of your head perish.

19 In your patience possess ye your souls.

20 And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.

21 Then let them which are in Judea flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter hereinto.

28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.

29 And he spake to them a parable; Behold the fig tree, and all the trees;

30 When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand.

31 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.

32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away till all be fulfilled.

33 Heaven and earth shall pass away; but my words shall not pass away.

34 ¶ And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you un-awares.

35 For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

36 Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.

37 And in the day-time he was teaching in the temple; and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Olives

38 And all the people came early in the morning to him ^e in the temple, for to hear him.

CHAPTER 22.

1 The Jews conspire against Christ; 3 Judas covenanteth to betray him; 19 he instituteth his holy supper; 42 his agony in the garden; 50 he healeth Malchus's ear, etc.

NOW ^a the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover.

2 And ^b the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people.

3 ¶ Then ^c entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them.

5 And they were glad, and ^d covenanted to give him money.

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them ¹ in the absence of the multitude.

7 ¶ Then ^e came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.

8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?

10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in.

11 And ye shall say unto the good-man of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

12 And he shall show you a large upper room furnished: there make ready.

13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

14 And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

15 And he said unto them, ² With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer:

16 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, ^f until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

17 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves;

18 For ^a I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.

19 ¶ And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this ^b do in remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, 'This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 ¶ But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table.

22 And truly the Son of man goeth, as ^c it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed!

23 And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

24 ¶ And ^d there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.

25 And ^e he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors.

26 But ^f ye shall not be so: ^g but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.

27 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but

^h I am among you as he that serveth.

28 Ye are they which have continued with me in ⁱ my temptations.

29 And ^j I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me;

30 That ^k ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, ^l Satan hath desired to have you, that he may ^m sift you as wheat:

32 But ⁿ I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: ^o and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren.

33 And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death.

34 And ^p he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me, 35 ¶ And ^ahe said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.

37 For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, And ^ahe was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

39 ¶ And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to the mount of Olives; and his disciples also followed him.

40 And ^bwhen he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation.

41 And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if thou be ^cwilling, remove this cup from me: nevertheless ^cnot my will, but thine, be done.

43 And there appeared ^dan angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.

44 And ^ebeing in an agony he prayed more earnestly; and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow, 46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 ¶ And while he yet spake, behold a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus /to kiss him.

48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

49 When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?

50 ¶ And ^gone of them smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

52 Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: ^abut this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

54 ¶ Then ^ttook they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed afar off.

55 And ^kwhen they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them.

56 But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 And, ^lafter a little while, another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of one hour after, another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him; for he is a Galilean.

60 And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew.

61 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. ^mAnd Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before ⁿthe cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

62 And Peter went out, and ^owept bitterly.

63 ¶ And ^pthe men that held Jesus mocked him, and smote him.

64 And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophecy, who is it that smote thee?

65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

66 ¶ And ^qas soon as it was day, ^rthe elders of the people, and the chief priests, and the scribes, came together, and led him into their council.

67 Saying, Art ^sthou the Christ? tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe:

68 And if I also ask you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go.

69 Hereafter 'shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.

70 Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them, "Ye say that I am.

71 And ^vthey said, What need we any further witness? for we ourselves have heard of his own mouth.

1 Jesus is accused before Pilate, 7 and sent to Herod: 11 he is mocked, and sent back to Pilate: 25 he is delivered to be crucified, 34 prayeth for his enemies, etc.

AND ^athe whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow ^bperverting the nation, and ^cforbidding to give tribute to Cesar, saying ^dthat he himself is Christ a king.

3 And ^ePilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pilate to the chief priests and to the people, ^fI find no fault in this man.

5 And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place.

6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto ^gHerod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem at that time.

8 ¶ And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for ^hhe was desirous to see him of a long season, because ⁱhe had heard many things of him; and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him.

9 Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him nothing.

10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him.

11 And ^jHerod with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate.

12 ¶ And the same day ^kPilate and Herod were made friends together: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

called together the chief priest and the rulers and the people,

14 Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as on that perverteth the people: and behold, I, having examined him before you, have ^mfound no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him:

15 No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him; and, lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him:

16 I ⁿwill therefore chastise him and release him.

17 (For ^oof necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.)

13 And ^pthey cried out all at once saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas;

19 (Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder was cast into prison.)

20 Pilate therefore, willing to release Jesus, spake again to them.

21 But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him.

22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.

23 And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified: and the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed.

24 And Pilate ¹gave sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And ^qhe released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will.

26 ¶ And ^ras they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus.

27 And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Jesus, turning unto them, said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.

29 For, ^sbehold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.

30 Then ^tshall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.

 1 For ^uif they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?
 2 ¶ And ^vthere were also two others, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.
 3 And ^wwhen they were come to the place which is called ²Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.
 4 Then said Jesus, Father, ^xforgive them; for ^ythey know not what they do. And ^zthey parted their raiment, and cast lots.
 5 And ^athe people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he be Christ, the chosen of God.
 6 And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar,
 7 And saying, If thou be the King of the Jews, save thyself.
 8 And ^ba superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.
 9 ¶ And ^cone of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thyself and us.
 10 But the other answering ^dreplied him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?
 11 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss.
 12 And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest to ^ethy kingdom.
 13 And Jesus said unto him, Verily say unto thee, To-day shalt thou be with me in ^fparadise.
 14 ¶ And ^git was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the ³earth until the ninth hour.
 15 And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was rent in the midst.
 16 And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, ^hFather, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he gave up the ghost.
 17 ¶ Now ^kwhen the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned.

49 And ^uall his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

50 ¶ And, ^mbehold, there was a man named Joseph, a counsellor; and he was a good man, and a just:

51 (The same ⁿhad not consented to the counsel and deed of them:) he was of Arimathea, a city of the Jews: ^owho also himself waited for the kingdom of God.

52 This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.

53 And ^phe took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in ^aa sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

54 And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on.

55 ¶ And the women also, ^rwhich came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld ^sthe sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, and ^tprepared spices and ointments; and rested the sabbath day, ^uaccording to the commandment.

CHAPTER 24.

1 Christ's resurrection declared to the women: 9 they report it to others. 13 Christ himself appeareth; 49 he promisseth the Holy Ghost; 51 his ascension to heaven.

NOW ^aupon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, ^bbringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 And ^cthey entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, ^dbehold, two men stood by them in shining garments:

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down ^etheir faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye ^fthe living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: ^gremember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee,

7 Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

8 And ^jthey remembered his words,

9 And ^greturned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.

10 It was Mary Magdalene, and ^hJoanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles.

11 And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.

12 Then ⁱarose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

13 ¶ And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs.

14 And they ^jtalked together of all these things which had happened.

15 And it came to pass, that, while they communed together and reasoned, ^kJesus himself drew near, and went with them.

16 But ^ltheir eyes were holden that they should not know him.

17 And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad?

18 And the one of them, ^mwhose name was Cleopas, answering said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days?

19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, ⁿwhich was a prophet ^omighty in deed and word before God and all the people:

20 And ^phow the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.

21 But we trusted ^qthat it had been he which should have redeemed Israel: and besides all this, to-day is the third day since these things were done.

22 Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre;

ch. 4. 30.^v 1 Cor. 15. 5

23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.

24 And certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not.

25 Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken!

26 Ought ^rnot Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And beginning at ^sMoses and ^tall the Prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

28 And they drew nigh unto the village whither they went: and ^uhe made as though he would have gone farther.

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us; for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.

31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he ^vvanished out of their sight.

32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath ^wappeared to Simon.

35 And they told what things ^{were done} in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.

36 ¶ And as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

38 And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he showed them his hands and his feet.

41 And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat?

42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honeycomb.

43 And ^whe took it, and did eat before them.

44 And he said unto them, ^{*}These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the Law of Moses, and in the Prophets, and in the Psalms, concerning me.

45 Then ^vopened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures,

46 And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ

S. JOHN.

CHAPTER 1.

1 The divinity of Christ. 14 The incarnation of the Word. 15 John's testimony of Christ. 39 The calling of Andrew, Peter, etc.

IN the beginning ^awas the Word, and the Word was ^bwith God, and the Word was God.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

3 All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

5 And ^dthe light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

6 ¶ There ^ewas a man sent from God, whose name was John.

7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

8 He ^fwas not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

9 That ^gwas the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and ^hthe world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

11 He ⁱcame unto his own, and his own received him not.

12 But ^jas many as received him, to them gave he ^lpower to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

13 Which ^kwere born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And ^lthe Word ^mwas made ⁿflesh, and dwelt among us, (and ^owe beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) ^pfull of grace and truth.

15 ¶ John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: ^qfor he was before me.

16 And of his ^rfulness have all we received, and grace for grace.

17 For the ^sLaw was given by Moses, ^tbut grace and ^utruth came by Jesus Christ.

18 No ^vman hath seen God at any time; the ^wonly begotten Son, which is in ^xthe bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 ¶ And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou?

20 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou ⁹Elias? And he saith, ⁹I am not. Art thou ²that prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?

23 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as ^asaid the prophet Esaias.

24 And they which were sent were of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet?

26 John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: ^bbut there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;

27 He it is, who coming after me, is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 ¶ The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold ^cthe Lamb of God, ^dwhich ³taketh away the sin of the world!

30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

32 And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the ^esame is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost.

34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.

35 ¶ Again, the next day after, John stood, and two of his disciples;

37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where ⁴dweltest thou?

39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was ⁵about the tenth hour.

40 One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.

41 He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, ⁶the Christ.

42 And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is, by interpretation, ⁷A stone.

43 ¶ The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

44 Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him of whom Moses ^fin the Law, and the ⁹Prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth the son of Joseph.

46 And Nathanael said unto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see.

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile!

48 Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee.

49 Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel.

50 Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.

51 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^A Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon ⁱ the Son of man.

CHAPTER 2.

¹ Christ turneth water into wine, ¹² goeth into Capernaum, and to Jerusalem, ¹⁴ purgeth the temple, ¹⁹ foretelleth his death and resurrection, etc.

AND the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there: ² And both Jesus was called, and his disciples. to the marriage.

³ And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine.

⁴ Jesus saith unto her, ^a Woman, ^b what have I to do with thee? ^c mine hour is not yet come.

⁵ His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.

⁶ And there were set there six water-pots of stone, ^d after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.

⁷ Jesus saith unto them, Fill the water-pots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

⁸ And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.

⁹ When the ruler of the feast had tasted the ^e water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was, (but the servants which drew the water knew,) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,

¹⁰ And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: ^f but thou hast kept the good wine until now.

¹¹ This beginning of miracles did Jesus in ^g Cana of Galilee, ^h and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him.

¹² ¶ After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and ⁱ his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.

¹³ ¶ And ^j the Jews' passover was at hand; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem,

¹⁴ And ^k found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting:

¹⁷ And his disciples remembered that it was written, ^l The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

¹⁸ ¶ Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign showest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

¹⁹ Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy ^m this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

²⁰ Then said the Jews. Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

²¹ But he spake ⁿ of the temple of his body.

²² When therefore he was risen from the dead, ^o his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

²³ ¶ Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast-day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

²⁴ But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men, ²⁵ And needed not that any should testify of man: for ^p he knew what was in man.

CHAPTER 3.

¹ Christ teacheth Nicodemus the necessity of regeneration. ¹⁸ Condemnation for unbelief. ²³ The baptism, witness, and doctrine of John concerning Christ.

THERE was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

² The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi. we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for ^q no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except ^b God be with him.

³ Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, ^c Except a man be born ^d again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

⁴ Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, ^dExcept a man be born of water and ^eof the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born ²again.

8 The ^ewind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How ^fcan these things be?

10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believed not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you ^gof heavenly things?

13 And ^gno man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, ^heven the Son of man which is in heaven.

14 And ^has Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up;

15 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

16 For ⁱGod so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 For ^jGod sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

18 He that believeth on him ^kis not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, ^lthat light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

22 ¶ After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judea; and there he tarried with them, ^mand baptized.

23 And John also was baptizing in ⁿEnon near to ⁿSalim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Christ revealeth himself to a woman of Samaria: 31 his zeal for God's glory. 39 Many Samaritans believe on him. 43 He healeth the ruler's son.

WHEN therefore the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John,

2 (Though Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples,)

3 He left Judea, and departed again into Galilee.

4 And he must needs go through Samaria.

5 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground ^athat Jacob gave to his son Joseph.

6 Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour.

7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink.

8 (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.)

9 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for ^bthe Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans.

10 Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest ^cthe gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee ^dliving water.

11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

12 Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?

13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:

14 But ^ewhosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him ^fshall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:

18 For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly.

19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, ^uI perceive that thou art a prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in ^vthis mountain; and ye say, that in ^wJerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, ^xwhen ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.

22 Ye worship ^yye know not what: we know what we worship: for ^zsalvation is of the Jews.

23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in ^{aa}spirit ^{ab}and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

24 God ^{ac}is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship ^{ad}him in spirit and in truth.

25 The woman saith unto him, I know that ^{ae}Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.

26 Jesus saith unto her, ^{af}I that speak unto thee am ^{ag}he.

27 ¶ And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her water-pot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men, 29 Come, see a man which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

31 ¶ In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.

33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ^{ah}ought to eat?

34 Jesus saith unto them, ^{ai}My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work, 35 Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; ^cfor they are white already to harvest.

36 And ^ahe that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal; that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.

37 And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: ^bother men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

39 ¶ And ^wmany of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.

40 So ^xwhen the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.

41 And ^ymany more believed because of his own word;

42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying; for ^zwe have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, ^athe Saviour of the world.

43 ¶ Now after two days he departed thence, and went into Galilee.

44 For ^bJesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country.

45 Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galileans received him, ^chaving seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: ^dfor they also went unto the feast.

46 So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, ^ewhere he made the water wine. And there was a certain ¹nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum.

47 When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said Jesus unto him, ^fExcept ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe.

49 The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die,

50 Jesus saith unto him, ^gGo thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

52 Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth; and ^hhimself believed, and his whole house.

54 This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judea into Galilee.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Jesus, on the sabbath day, cureth an impotent man at the pool of Bethesda: 16 the Jews persecute him for it: 17 he justifieth himself, and asserteth his power, etc.

AFTER ^athis there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is at Jerusalem, ^bby the sheep ¹market, a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue ²Bethesda, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

6 When Jesus saw him lie, and ^cknew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, ^dWilt thou be made whole?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jesus saith unto him, ^eRise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on ^fthe same day was the sabbath.

10 ¶ The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath day: ^o it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?

13 And he that was healed wist not who it was; for Jesus had conveyed himself away, ^{3a} a multitude being in that place.

14 Afterward Jesus findeth him ^h in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: ⁱ sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus which had made him whole.

16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day.

17 ¶ But Jesus answered them, ^j My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

18 Therefore the Jews ^k sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, ^l making himself equal with God.

19 ¶ Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^m The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

20 For ⁿ the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will show him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; ^o even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man, but hath ^p committed all judgment unto the Son;

23 That all men should ^q honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; ^r but is passed from death unto life.

ⁱⁱ 1 Thes. 2.6

25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when ^a the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

26 For as the Father hath life in himself, so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;

27 And ^t hath given him authority to execute judgment also, ^u because he is the Son of man.

28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, 29 And ^v shall come forth; ^w they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

30 I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because ^x I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

31 If ^y I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.

32 There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.

33 Ye sent unto John, ^z and he bare witness unto the truth.

34 But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.

35 He was a burning and ^a a shining light: and ^b ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

36 But ^c I have greater witness than that of John: for ^d the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

37 And the Father himself, which hath sent me, ^e hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor ^f seen his shape.

38 And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.

39 Search ^g the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and ^h they are they which testify of me.

40 And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

41 I ⁱ receive not honour from men.

42 But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you.

43 I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive.

44 How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only?

45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: ^kthere is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust.

46 For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: ^lfor he wrote of me.

47 But if ^mye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

CHAPTER 6.

1 Christ feedeth five thousand with five loaves and two fishes: 19 he walketh on the sea: 22 the multitude flocking unto him, he reproveth their carnal views, etc.

AFTER ^athese things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias.

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.

3 And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.

4 And ^bthe passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.

5 When ^cJesus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?

6 (And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.)

7 Philip answered him, ^dTwo hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.

8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, 9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: ^ebut what are they among so many?

10 And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

11 And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had ^fgiven thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.

14 ¶ Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth ^uthat Prophet that should come into the world.

15 When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.

16 ¶ And ^vwhen even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea, 17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose, by reason of a great wind that blew.

19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship; and they were afraid.

20 But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid.

21 Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.

22 ¶ The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone;

23 (Howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias, nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:)

24 When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

27 ¹Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but ²for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: ³for him hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, This ¹is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore unto him, What sign showest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

31 Our ^mfathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, ⁿHe gave them bread from heaven to eat.

32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

34 Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

35 And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: ^ohe that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

36 But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.

37 All that the Father giveth me shall come to me: and ^phim that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

38 For I came down from heaven, ^qnot to do mine own will, ^rbut the will of him that sent me.

39 And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, ^sthat of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that ^tevery one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?

43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.

44 No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 It ^uis written in the Prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

46 Not ^vthat any man hath seen the Father, save ^whe which is of God, he hath seen the Father.

47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^xHe that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

48 I am that bread of life.

49 Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

50 This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.

51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven. If any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and ^ythe bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

52 The Jews therefore ^zstrove among themselves, saying, ^aHow can this man give us his flesh to eat?

53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ^bye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

54 Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, ^cdwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father; so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.

59 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many ^dtherefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying; who can hear it?

61 When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?

62 What ^eand if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?

63 It ^fis the Spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they ^gare spirit, and they are life.

64 But there are some of you that believe not. For ^hJesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.

66 ¶ From that time many of his disciples went ⁱback, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life.

69 And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God.

70 Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil?

71 He spake of Judas Iscariot the son of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

AFTER these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Jewry, ^abecause the Jews sought to kill him.

2 ¶ Now ^bthe Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand.

3 His ^cbrethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, show thyself to the world.

5 For ^aneither did his brethren believe in him.

6 Then Jesus said unto them, ^eMy time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready.

7 The ^fworld cannot hate you; but me it hateth, ^gbecause I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.

8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; ^hfor my time is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee.

10 ¶ But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then ⁱthe Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And ^jthere was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some ^ksaid, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews.

14 ¶ Now about the midst of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.

15 And ^lthe Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man ^mletters, having never learned?

16 Jesus answered them, and said, ⁿMy doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 If ^oany man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

18 He ^pthat speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

19 Did ^qnot Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? ^rWhy go ye about to kill me?

20 The people answered and said, ^sThou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel.

22 Moses ^ttherefore gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Moses, but ^uof the fathers;) and ye on the sabbath day circumcise a man.

23 If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, ²that the law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because I ^uhave made a man every whit whole on the sabbath day?

24 Judge ^vnot according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

25 Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he whom they seek to kill?

26 But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ?

27 Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

28 Then cried Jesus in the temple, as he taught, saying, ^wYe both know me, and ye know whence I am: and ^xI am not come of myself, but he that sent me ^yis true, whom ^zye know not.

29 But ^aI know him: for I am from him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

31 And many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done?

32 ¶ The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then said Jesus unto them, Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.

34 Ye ^cshall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.

35 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto ^dthe dispersed among the Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles?

36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come?

37 ¶ In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, ^eIf any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

38 He ^fthat believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, ^gout of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

39 (But ^hthis spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet ⁱglorified.)

40 Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is ^jthe Prophet.

41 Others said, ^kThis is the Christ. But some said, Shall Christ come ^lout of Galilee?

42 Hath ^mnot the scripture said, That Christ cometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, ⁿwhere David was?

43 So there was a division among the people because of him.

44 And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

45 ¶ Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, Never man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived?

48 Have ^oany of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him?

49 But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed.

50 Nicodemus saith unto them, (^phe that came ^qto Jesus by night, being one of them,)

53 And every man went unto his own house.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Christ releaseth a woman taken in adultery: 12 he preacheth himself the light of the world, and justifieth his doctrine; 33 answereth the Jews.

JESUS went unto the mount of Olives.

2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.

3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst, 4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now ^aMoses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?

6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, ^bHe that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, ^cbeing convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, ^dNeither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.

12 ¶ Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou ^ebearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.

14 Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ^fye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 Ye ^gjudge after the flesh; ^hI judge no man.

16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true; for ⁱI am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 It ^jis also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one that bear witness of myself, and ^kthe Father that sent me beareth witness of me.

19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, ^lYe neither know me, nor my Father: ^mif ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

20 These words spake Jesus in ⁿthe treasury, as he taught in the temple: and ^ono man laid hands on him; for ^pthis hour was not yet come.

21 Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and ^qye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come.

22 Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.

23 And he said unto them, ^rYe are from beneath; I am from above: ^sye are of this world; I am not of this world.

24 I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: ^tfor if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.

26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but ^uhe that sent me is true; and I ^vspeak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have ^wlifted up the Son of man, ^xthen shall ye know that I am he, and ^ythat I do nothing of myself; but ^zas my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

29 And ^ahe that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; ^bfor I do always those things that please him.

30 As he spake these words many believed on him.

31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed;

32 And ye shall know the truth, and ^cthe truth shall make you free.

33 They answered him, ^dWe be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^eWhosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin.

35 And ^fthe servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever.

36 If ^gthe Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

37 I know that ye are Abraham's seed; but ye ^h seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 I speak that which I have seen with my Father; and ye do that which ye have seen with your Father.

39 They answered and said unto him, Abraham ⁱ is our father. Jesus saith unto them, ^j If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham.

40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham.

41 Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication; ^k we have one Father, even God.

42 Jesus said unto them, ^l If God were your Father, ye would love me: ^m for I proceeded forth and came from God; ⁿ neither came I of myself, but he sent me.

43 Why ^o do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.

44 Ye ^p are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and ^q abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own; for he is a liar, and the father of it.

45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.

46 Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?

47 He ^r that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

48 Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil?

49 Jesus answered, I have not a devil; but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.

50 And ^s I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

51 Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^t If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.

52 Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. ^u Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.

CHAPTER 9.

1 A man that was born blind is restored to sight: 13 he is brought to the Pharisees: 34 they excommunicate him: 35 Christ receiveth him. 39 He chargeth the Pharisees with spiritual blindness.

AND as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did ^a sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

3 Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: ^b but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

4 I ^c must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.

5 As long as I am in the world, ^d I am the light of the world.

6 When he had thus spoken, ^e he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he ^f anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay,

7 And said unto him, Go, wash ^g in the pool of Siloam, (which is, by interpretation, Sent.) ^h He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

8 ¶ The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?

9 Some said, This is he; others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.

10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.

12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

13 ¶ They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind.

14 And it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.

16 Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, ^aHow can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And ^bthere was a division among them.

17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, ^cHe is a prophet.

18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?

20 His parents answered them, and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.

22 These words spake his parents, because they ^dfeared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, ^ehe should be put out of the synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.

24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him,

^m Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.

25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.

26 Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Moses' disciples.

29 We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered and said unto them, Why ^o herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that ^pGod heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.

32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

33 If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.

34 They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they ²cast him out.

35 ¶ Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on ^qthe Son of God?

36 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?

37 And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and ^rit is he that talketh with thee.

38 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him.

39 ¶ And Jesus said, ^sFor judgment I am come into this world, ^tthat they which see not might see, and that they which see might be made blind.

40 And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, ^uand said unto him, Are we blind also?

41 Jesus said unto them, ^vIf ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth.

CHAPTER 10.

Christ is the door, and the good shepherd. 19 Divers opinions of him. 22 He proveth by his works that he is Christ, and asserteth his unity with the Father.

VERILY, verily, I say unto you, ^aHe that entereth not by the door into the sheep-fold, but limbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

² But he that entereth in by ^bthe door is the shepherd of the sheep.

⁵ And ^{da} a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

^f All ^gthat ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.

⁹ I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

voice; ^mand there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

¹⁷ Therefore doth my Father love me, ⁿbecause I lay down my life, that I might take it again.

¹⁸ No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This ^ocommandment have I received of my Father.

¹⁹ ¶ There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings.

²⁰ And many of them said, He hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him?

²¹ Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. ^pCan a devil open the eyes of the blind?

²² ¶ And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter.

²³ And Jesus walked in the temple, ^qin Solomon's porch.

²⁴ Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou ^rmake us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.

²⁵ Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me.

²⁶ But ^sye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.

²⁷ My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:

²⁸ And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any pluck them out of my hand.

²⁹ My ^tFather, ^uwhich gave them me, is greater than all; and none is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.

³⁰ I ^vand my Father are one.

³¹ ¶ Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him.

³² Jesus answered them, Many good works have I showed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?

³³ The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest ^vthyself God.

³⁴ Jesus answered them, ^wIs it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods?

35 If he called them gods ^xunto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken;

36 Say ye of him, ^ywhom the Father hath sanctified, and ^zsent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am ^athe Son of God?

37 If ^bI do not the works of my Father, believe me not.

38 But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works; that ye may know and believe ^cthat the Father is in me, and I in him.

39 ^eTherefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand,

40 And went away again beyond Jordan, into the place ^dwhere John at first baptized; and there he abode.

41 And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no miracle: ^ebut all things ^fthat John spake of this man were true.

42 And ^fmany believed on him there.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Christ raiseth Lazarus to life. 45 Many Jews believe. 49 Caiaphas prophesieth. 54 Jesus hid himself.

NOW a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of ^aMary and her sister Martha.

2 (It ^bwas that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

4 When Jesus heard ^cthat, he said, This sickness is not unto death, ^ebut for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.

5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, ^dhe abode two days still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judea again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, ^ethe Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?

9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? ^fIf any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But ^gif a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus ^hsleepeth; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.

13 Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

14 Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.

16 Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had ⁱlain in the grave four days already.

18 Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, ^jabout fifteen furlongs off.

19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat ^kstill in the house.

21 Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

22 But I know, that even now, ^lwhatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give ^mit thee.

23 Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise ⁿagain.

24 Martha saith unto him, ^oI know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Jesus said unto her, I am ^pthe resurrection, and the ^qlife: he ^rthat believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

26 And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: ^sI believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.

28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying,

The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.

31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.

32 Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and ²was troubled, 34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see.

35 Jesus ²wept.

36 Then said the Jews, Behold now he loved him!

37 And some of them said, Could not this man, ²which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

38 Jesus therefore, again groaning in himself, cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

39 Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days.

40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God?

41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but ²because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

43 And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.

44 And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with grave-clothes; and ²this face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45 Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, ²and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him.

46 But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

47 ¶ Then ²gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said, ²What do we? for this man doeth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and ²the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them, named ²Caia-phas, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

50 Nor ²consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation;

52 And ²not for that nation only, ²but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.

53 Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death.

54 Jesus ²therefore walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called ²Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶ And ²the Jews' passover was nigh at hand: and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passover, to purify ²themselves.

56 Then ²sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he were, he should show it, that they might take him,

CHAPTER 12.

1 Jesus excuseth Mary anointing his feet.
 10 The chief priests consult to kill Lazarus. 12 Christ rideth into Jerusalem with triumph. 23 He foretelleth his death.

THEN Jesus, six days before the passover, came to Bethany, ^awhere Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 There ^bthey made him a supper; and Martha served: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then took ^cMary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him, 5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and ^dhad the bag, and bare what was put therein.

7 Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

8 For ^ethe poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.

9 ¶ Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.

10 But ^fthe chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death;

11 Because ^gthat by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 ¶ On ^hthe next day much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 Took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written, 15 Fear ⁱnot, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.

16 These things ^kunderstood not his disciples at the first: ^lbut when Jesus was glorified, ^mthen remembered they that these things were written of him, and ⁿthat they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.

18 For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him.

20 ¶ And there ⁿwere certain Greeks among them ^othat came up to worship at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.

22 Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus.

23 ¶ And Jesus answered them, saying, The ^phour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^qExcept a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 He ^rthat loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.

26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and ^swhere I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will ^tmy Father honour.

27 Now ^uis my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: ^vbut for this cause came I unto this hour.

28 Father, glorify thy name. ^wThen came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified ^xit, and will glorify ^yit again.

29 The people therefore that stood by, and heard ^zit, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him.

30 Jesus answered and said, ^{aa}This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

31 Now is the judgment of this world: now shall ^{ab}the prince of this world be cast out.

32 And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw ^vall men unto e.

33 (This he said, signifying what bath he should die.)
34 The people answered him, ^zWe have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?
35 Then Jesus said unto them,
Let a little while ^ais the light with you. ^bWalk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.
36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be ^dthe children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them.
37 ¶ But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him:
38 That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, ^eLord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?
39 Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again,
40 He ^fhath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with ^{their} eyes, nor understand with ^{their} heart, and be converted, and I should reale them.
41 These things said Esaias, when he saw his glory, and spake of him.
42 ¶ Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; yet because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:
43 For ^hthey loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.
44 ¶ Jesus cried and said, ⁱHe that

45 And ^jhe that seeth me seeth

CHAPTER 13.

1 Jesus washeth his disciples' feet, 14 and exhorteth them to humility and charity;
18 foretelleth his betrayal; 36 forewarneth Peter of his denial.

NOW before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.

2 And supper being ended, (the ^adevil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him,)

3 Jesus knowing ^bthat the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God,
and went to God;

4 He ^criseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself.

5 After that he poureth water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

6 Then cometh he to Simon
Peter: and ¹Peter saith unto him,
Lord, ^ddost thou wash my feet?

7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.

8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, ^eIf I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

9 Simon Peter saith unto him,
Lord, not my feet only, but also ^{my} hands and ^{my} head.

10 Jesus saith to him, ^fHe that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit:
and ^gye are clean, but not all.

11 For he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?

13 Ye ^hcall me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.

14 If ⁱI then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet, ^jye also ought to wash one another's feet.

15 For ^kI have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

16 Verily, ^lverily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.

17 If ^mye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

18 ¶ I speak not of you all: ⁿI know whom I have chosen: but, that the scripture may be fulfilled, ^oHe that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me.

19 ²Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he.

20 Verily, ^pverily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

21 When ^qJesus had thus said, ^rhe was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ^sone of you shall betray me.

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now ^tthere was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved.

24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.

25 He then lying on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jesus answered, He it is to whom I shall give a ³sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.

27 And ^uafter the sop Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.

28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

29 For some of them thought, ^vbecause Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the 30 He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was night.

31 ¶ Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and ^wGod is glorified in him.

32 If ^xGod be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.

33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you.

34 A ^ynew commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

35 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have ^zlove one to another.

36 ¶ Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but ^athou shalt follow me afterwards.

CHAPTER 14.

1 Christ comforteth his disciples; 5 professeth himself the way, the truth, and the life, 9 and that he is one with the Father: 27 he leaveth his peace with them.

LET not your heart be troubled: ¹ye believe in God, believe also in me.

2 In ^amy Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. ^bI go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I ^cwill come again, and receive you unto myself; that ^dwhere I am, there ye may be also.

4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

5 ¶ Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

6 Jesus saith unto him, I am ^ethe way, and ^fthe truth, and ^gthe life: ^hno man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

7 If [†]ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

8 ¶ Philip saith unto him, Lord, show us the Father, and it sufficeth us.

9 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, show us the Father?

10 Believest thou not that ^kI am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you ^lI speak not of myself: but the Father, that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.

12 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.

13 And whatsoever ye shall ask in ^mmy name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

15 ¶ If ⁿye love me, keep my commandments.

16 And I will pray the Father, and ^ohe shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

17 Even ^pthe Spirit of truth; ^qwhom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, ^rand shall be in you.

18 I will not leave you ¹comfortless: I will come to you.

19 Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ^sye see me: ^tbecause I live, ye shall live also.

20 At that day ye shall know that ^uI am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.

21 He ^vthat hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?

23 Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, ^wand we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

24 He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and ^xthe word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.

25 These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.

26 But ^ythe Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, ^zhe shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

27 Peace ^aI leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

28 Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for ^bmy Father is greater than I.

29 And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe.

30 Hereafter I will not talk much with you: ^cfor the prince of this world cometh, and ^dhath nothing in me.

31 But that the world may know that I love the Father; and ^eas the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

CHAPTER 15.

1 Union between Christ and his church, under the parable of a vine. 26 The office of the Holy Ghost, etc.

I AM the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

2 Every ^abranch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away; and every branch that beareth fruit he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 Now ^bye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

4 Abide ^cin me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much ^dfruit: for ¹without me ye can do nothing.

6 If a ^eman abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

8 Herein ^fis my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.

10 If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and ^gthat your joy might be full.

12 This ^his my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

13 Greater ⁱlove hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

15 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; ^jfor all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

16 Ye ^khave not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ^lordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain; that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

17 These things I command you, that ye love one another.

18 ^mIf ⁿthe world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

19 If ^oye were of the world, the world would love his own: but ^obecause ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

20 Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; ^pif they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.

CHAPTER 16.

1 Christ warneth his disciples of their sufferings: 7 office of the Comforter. 29 They profess their faith in Christ. 33 Peace in Christ, and in the world affliction.

THESE things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended.

2 They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, ^athat whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service.

3 And ^bthese things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.

4 But these things have I told you, that, when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now I go my way to him that sent me; and none ^cof you asketh me, Whither goest thou?

6 But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart.

7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but ^dif I depart, I will send him unto you.

8 And when he is come, he will ^ereprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

9 Of ^dsin, because they believe not on me;

10 Of ^erighteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;

11 Of ^fjudgment, because ^gthe prince of this world is judged.

12 I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.

13 Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, ^hhe will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will ⁱshow you things to come.

14 He shall glorify me; for he shall receive of mine, and shall show it unto you.

15 All ^jthings that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall show it unto you.

16 A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me; because I go to the Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?

18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith.

19 Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

21 A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

22 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and ^kyour heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

23 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. ^lVerily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.

24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in ²proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in ³proverbs, but I shall show you plainly of the Father.

26 At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you;

27 For ^mthe Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and ⁿhave believed that I came out from God.

28 I ^ocame forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

29 ¶ His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no ⁴proverb.

30 Now are we sure that ^pthou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this ^qwe believe that thou camest forth from God.

31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe?

32 Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to ⁵his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 These things I have spoken unto you, that ^rin me ye might have peace. ^sIn the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; ^tI have overcome the world.

CHAPTER 17.

1 Christ prayeth to his Father to glorify him, 6 to preserve his apostles, 11 in unity, 17 and truth, 20 to glorify them, and all other believers with him in heaven.

THESE words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee:

2 As ^athou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many ^bas thou hast given him.

3 And ^cthis is life eternal, that they might know thee ^dthe only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.

4 I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory ^e which I had with thee before the world was.

6 I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee.

8 For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

9 I pray for them: ^g I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

10 And ^h all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.

11 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, ⁱ keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, I ^k kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and ^l none of them is lost, ^m but the son of perdition; ⁿ that the scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I have given them thy word; ^o and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldst take them out of the world, but ^p that thou shouldst keep them from the evil.

16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

17 Sanctify ^q them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

18 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

19 And ^r for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be ^s sanctified through the truth.

20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them ^t also which shall believe on me through their word:

CHAPTER 18.

1 Judas betrayeth Jesus; 6 the band and officers at Christ's word fall to the ground; 10 Peter smiteth off Malchus's ear. 11 Jesus is taken, and led to Annas and Caiaphas. 15 Peter's denial. 19 Jesus examined before Caiaphas, 28 arraigned before Pilate: 36 his kingdom, &c.

WHEN Jesus had spoken these words, he ^a went forth with his disciples over the ^b brook Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

2 And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place; ^c for Jesus oftentimes resorted thither with his disciples.

3 Judas ^d then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches, and weapons.

4 Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.

8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he. If therefore ye seek me, let these go their way:

9 That the saying might be fulfilled which he spake, Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none.

10 Then Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

11 Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him, 13 And led him away to Annas first: for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest that same year.

14 Now Caiaphas was he which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. That disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.

16 But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

17 Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not.

18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

19 The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil; but if well, why smitest thou me?

24 Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest.

25 And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

26 One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off, saith. Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied again: and immediately the cock crew.

28 Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgment: and it was early; and they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled, but that they might eat the passover.

29 Pilate then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

32 That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

33 Then Pilate entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews?

34 Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?

36 Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should ²bear witness unto the truth. Every one that ³is of the truth heareth my voice.

38 Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I ²find in him no fault at all.

39 But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

40 Then ^acried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. ^bNow Barabbas was a robber.

CHAPTER 19.

1 Christ is scourged, crowned with thorns, and beaten. 6 Pilate delivers him to be crucified. 26 He commendeth his mother to John. 28 He dieth. 38 He is buried.

THEN ^aPilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him.

2 And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe,

3 And said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands.

4 Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, ^bthat ye may know that I find no fault in him.

5 Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man!

6 When ^cthe chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him.

7 The Jews answered him, ^dWe have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he ^emade himself the Son of God.

8 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid;

9 And went again into the judgment hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But ^fJesus gave him no answer.

10 Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to release thee?

11 Jesus answered, ^gThou couldst have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin.

12 And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, ^aIf thou let this man go, thou art not Cesar's friend: ^bwhosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Cesar.

13 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, ¹Gabbatha.

14 And ^cit was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King!

15 But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, ^kWe have no king but Cesar.

16 Then ^ldelivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away.

17 And he bearing his cross ^mwent forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew, Golgotha:

18 Where ⁿthey crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.

19 ¶ And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 This title then read many of the Jews; for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin.

21 Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews.

22 Pilate answered, What I have written I have written.

23 ¶ Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, ²woven from the top throughout.

24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, ^aThey parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did.

25 ¶ Now there stood by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene.

26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and ^bthe disciple standing by whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, ^cWoman, behold thy son!

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home.

28 ¶ After this, Jesus knowing that ^dall things were now accomplished, ^ethat the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth.

30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, ^fIt is finished: and he bowed his head, and ^ggave up the ghost.

31 ¶ The Jews therefore, ^hbecause it was the preparation, ⁱthat the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was ^jan high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and ^kthat they might be taken away.

32 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs:

34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came thereout blood and water.

35 And ^lhe that saw it bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

36 For these things were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled. A bone of him shall not be broken.

37 And again another scripture saith, They ^mshall look on him whom they pierced.

38 ¶ And ^aafter this, Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly ^bfor fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus.

39 And there came also ^cNicodemus, (which at the first came to Jesus by night,) and brought ^da mixture of myrrh and aloes, about an hundred pound weight.

40 Then took they the body of Jesus, and wound ^eit in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a ^fnew sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.

42 There ^glaid they Jesus therefore, because of the Jews' preparation day; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

CHAPTER 20.

1 Mary Magdalene cometh to the sepulchre: 11 she seeth two angels: Jesus himself appeareth to her, 19 and to his disciples. 24 The incredulity of Thomas.

THE ^afirst day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

2 Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the ^bother disciple whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

3 Peter ^ctherefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stooping down, and ^dlooking in, saw ^ethe linen clothes lying; yet went he not in.

6 Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie.

7 And ^fthe napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

8 Then went in also that other disciple which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

9 For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

10 Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

11 ¶ But ⁹Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre, 12 And seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.

13 And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

14 And ^hwhen she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, and ⁱknew not that it was Jesus.

15 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Mary! She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rabboni! which is to say, Master!

17 Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my ^kbrethren, and say unto them, ^lI ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to ^mmy God, and your God.

18 Mary ⁿMagdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

19 ¶ Then ^othe same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

20 And when he had so said, he ^pshowed unto them his hands and his side. ^qThen were the disciples glad when they saw the Lord.

21 Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: ^ras my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.

22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith

24 ¶ But Thomas, one of the twelve, ^bcalled Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

26 ¶ And after eight days, again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, "Peace be unto you.

30 ¶ And ^emany other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book:

31 But ^fthese are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and ^gthat believing ye might have life through his name.

CHAPTER 21.

1 Christ appeareth to his disciples, and is discovered unto them by a miraculous draught of fishes. 12 He dineth with them: 15 his charge to Peter, 18 foretelleth his death.

AFTER these things Jesus showed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and on this wise showed he himself.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and ^aNathanael of Cana in Galilee, and ^bthe sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him,

We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus.

5 Then ^dJesus saith unto them, Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.

6 And he said unto them, ^cCast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore; and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore ^fthat disciple whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat ^{unto him}, (for he was naked,) and ^gdid cast himself into the sea.

8 And the other disciples came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.

9 As soon then as they were come to land, they saw ^ha fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.

11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Jesus saith unto them, ⁱCome and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now ^jthe third time that Jesus showed himself to his disciples after that he was risen from the dead.

15 ^kSo when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, ^{son} of Jonas, lovest thou me ^kmore than these? He saith unto him, 19 This spake he, signifying ^rby what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.

20 Then Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple ^swhom Jesus loved following; which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 Peter seeing him saith to Jesus, Lord, and ^twhat shall this man do?

22 Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry ^utill I come, what ^vis that to thee? Follow thou me.

23 Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what ^wis that to thee?

24 This is the disciple which testified of these things, and wrote these things: ^xand we know that his testimony is true.

25 And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which, if they should be written every one, ^yI suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES.

CHAPTER 1.

1 A relation of part of Christ's history after his passion: 9 his ascension to heaven. 15 Peter's exhortation to ordain one in place of Judas Iscariot.

THE former treatise have I made, ^aO Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach,

2 Until ^bthe day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen :

3 To ^cwhom also he showed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God :

4 And, ¹being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, ^dwhich, saith he, ye have heard of me.

5 For ^eJohn truly baptized with water; but ^fye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time ^grestore again the kingdom to Israel?

7 And he said unto them, ^hIt is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.

8 But ye shall receive ²power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

9 And ⁱwhen he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

10 And, while they looked steadfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them ^jin white apparel;

11 Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, ^kshall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

12 ¶ Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called ^lOlivet, which is from Jerusalem ^ma sabbath day's journey.

13 And when they were come in, they went up ⁿinto an upper room, where abode both Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, and ^oSimon Zelotes, and ^pJudas the brother of James.

14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with ^qthe women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his ^rbrethren.

15 ¶ And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number ^sof the names together were about an hundred and twenty.)

16 Men and brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, ^twhich the Holy Ghost, by the mouth of David, spake before concerning Judas, ^uwhich was guide to them that took Jesus.

17 For ^vhe was numbered with us, and had obtained part of ^wthis ministry.

18 Now ^xthis man purchased a field with the ^yreward of iniquity: ^zand falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem; insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, ^{aa}Aceldama, that is to say, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, Let ^{ab}his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and, His ^{ac}bishopric let another take.

21 Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, 22 Beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained ^{ad}to be a witness with us of his resurrection.

23 And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.

24 And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, show whether of these two thou hast chosen, 25 That he may take part of his ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.

26 And they gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

CHAPTER 2.

The apostles, filled with the Holy Ghost, speak divers languages. 14 Peter's sermon, etc.

AND when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues, like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

4 And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

6 Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

7 And they were all amazed, and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Galileans?

8 And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?

9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia, 10 Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes, 11 Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.

12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?

14 ¶ But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day.

16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel;

17 And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:

18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy:

19 And I will show wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:

20 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:

21 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:

23 Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:

24 Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.

25 For David speaketh concerning him, I foresaw the Lord always before my face; for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:

26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope:

27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

29 Men and brethren, ⁸let me freely speak unto you ⁹of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day.

30 Therefore being a prophet, ¹⁰and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne;

31 He, seeing this before, spake of the resurrection of Christ, ¹¹that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption.

32 This Jesus hath God raised up, ¹²whereof we all are witnesses.

33 Therefore ¹³being by the right hand of God exalted, and ¹⁴having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath ¹⁵shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.

34 For David is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, ¹⁶The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 35 Until I make thy foes thy footstool.

36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God ¹⁷hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.

37 ¶ Now when they heard this, ¹⁸they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?

38 Then Peter said unto them, ¹⁹Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.

39 For the ²⁰promise is unto you, and ²¹to your children, and ²²to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

40 And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation.

41 ¶ Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

42 And ²³they continued stedfastly

CHAPTER 3.

Peter and John cure a lame man, etc.

NOW Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour.

2 And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, ³to ask alms of them that entered into the temple;

3 Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked an alms.

4 And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us.

5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.

6 Then Peter said, ⁴Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: ⁵In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk.

7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up; and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength.

8 And he ⁶leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 And ⁷all the people saw him walking and praising God:

10 And they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 ¶ And as the same man which was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch ^fthat is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.

12 And when Peter saw ^{it}, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own ^gpower or holiness we had made this man to walk?

13 The ^hGod of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, ⁱhath glorified his Son Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go.

14 But ye denied ^jthe Holy One ^kand the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you;

15 And killed the ^lPrince of life, whom God hath raised from the dead; whereof we are witnesses.

16 And ⁱhis name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know; yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 And now, brethren, I wot that through ignorance ^mye did ^{it}, as did also your rulers.

18 But those things, which God before had showed ⁿby the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

19 Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord;

20 And he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you:

21 Whom ^othe heaven must receive until the times of ^prestitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.

22 For Moses truly said unto the fathers, A ^qProphet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, ^rlike unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you.

23 And it shall come to pass, ^sthat every soul, which will not hear that Prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.

CHAPTER 4.

¹ Peter and John imprisoned: 8 their boldness: 18 they are threatened by the rulers of the Jews.

AND as they spake unto the people, the priests, and the ¹captain of the temple, and the Sadducees, came upon them,

2 Being ^agrieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they laid hands on them, and put ^{them} in hold unto the next day: for it was now even-tide.

4 Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.

5 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes,

6 And ^bAnnas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem.

7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, ^cBy what power, or by what name, have ye done this?

8 Then ^dPeter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,

9 If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole;

10 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, ^ethat by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, ^{even}by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

11 This ^fis the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

12 Neither ^gis there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved.

13 ¶ Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and ^hperceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.

14 And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

15 But, when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, 16 Saying, 'What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is manifest ^jto all them that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.

18 And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.

19 But Peter and John answered and said unto them, ^kWhether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.

20 For ^lwe cannot but speak the things which ^mwe have seen and heard.

21 So, when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because ⁿof the people: for all men glorified God for that ^owhich was done.

22 For the man was above forty years old on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 ¶ And being let go, ^pthey went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.

24 And when they heard that, ^qthey lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, 'thou art God, which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is:

25 Who by the mouth of thy servant David hast said, ^r'Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things?

29 And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, ^wthat with all boldness they may speak thy word, 30 By stretching forth thine hand to heal; and ^xthat signs and wonders may be done by ^ythe name of thy holy child Jesus.

31 And when they had prayed, ^zthe place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

32 ¶ And the multitude of them that believed ^awere of one heart and of one soul: neither ^bsaid any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own: but they had all things common.

33 And with ^cgreat power gave the apostles ^dwitness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and ^egreat grace was upon them all.

34 Neither ^fwas there any among them that lacked: ^gfor as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold,

35 And laid ^hthem down at the apostles' feet: ⁱand distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

36 And Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus, 37 Having land, ^jsold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Ananias and Sapphira at Peter's rebuke fall down dead. 12 The apostles work miracles. 17 They are again imprisoned, but delivered by an angel. 40 They are beaten.

BUT a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession,

2 And ^kkept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and bought a certain part, and laid it the apostles' feet.

But ^bPeter said, Ananias, why hath Satan ^cfilled thine heart ¹to lie the Holy Ghost, and to keep back ^dpart of the price of the land?

While it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

And Ananias hearing these words ^dfell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

And the young men arose, wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him.

And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

And Peter answered unto her, tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord?
Behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband ^{are} at the door, and shall carry thee out.

Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

And ^oby the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; and ^hthey were all with one accord at Solomon's porch.

And ⁱof the rest durst no man join himself to them; ^jbut the people magnified them.

And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women;

Insomuch that they brought forth the sick ²into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them.

There came also a multitude of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing ^lsick folks, and them which were vexed with un-every one.

17 ¶ Then ^mthe high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees,) and were filled with ³indignation,

18 And ⁿlaid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But ^othe angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said,

20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people ^pall the words of this life.

21 And when they heard ^{that}, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. ^qBut the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came,
and found them not in the prison,
they returned, and told,

23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the high priest ^rand the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto
this would grow.

25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: ^sfor they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.

27 And when they had brought them, they set ^{them} before the council: and the high priest asked them,

28 Saying, ^tDid not we straitly command you, that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and ^uintend to bring this man's blood ^vupon us.

29 Then Peter and the ^{other} apostles answered and said, ^wWe ought to obey God rather than men.

30 The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and ^xhanged on a tree.

31 Him ^y hath God exalted with his right hand to be ^a a Prince and ^a a Saviour, ^b for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.

32 And ^c we are his witnesses of these things; and so ^{is} also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 ¶ When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.

34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named ^d Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space;

35 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.

36 For before these days rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as ⁴ obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days ^{of} the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for ^f if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought:

39 But ^g if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even ^h to fight against God.

40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and ⁱ beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

41 And they departed from the presence of the council, ^j rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name.

42 And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ.

were neglected ^c in the daily ministration.

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, ^d It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables.

3 Wherefore, brethren, ^e look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we ^f will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude; and they chose Stephen, a ^g man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, ^h and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch:

6 Whom they set before the apostles: and when ⁱ they had prayed, ^j they laid their hands on them.

7 And ^k the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company ^l of the priests were obedient to the faith.

8 ¶ And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia and of Asia, disputing with Stephen.

10 And ^m they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.

11 Then ⁿ they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God.

12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council,

13 And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law:

14 For ^o we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall ^p destroy this place, and shall change the ¹ customs which Moses delivered us.

15 And all that sat in the council, looking stedfastly on him, saw his face as it had been the face of ² an angel.

CHAPTER 7.

Stephen being called, answereth to his accusation of blasphemy: 54 they stone him to death.

HEN said the high priest, Are these things so?

And he said, Men, brethren, and others, hearken; The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran,

And said unto him, ^aGet thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall show thee.

Then ^bcame he out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charran: and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him out of this land, wherein ye now dwell.

And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet he ^cpromised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, even as yet he had no child.

And God spake on this wise, that his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and enslave them ^devil four hundred years. And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and ^eserve me in this same land.

And ^fhe gave him the covenant of circumcision: ^hand so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him in the eighth day; ⁱand Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob ^jbegat the twelve patriarchs.

And ^kthe patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt: ^lbut God was with him,

And delivered him out of all his afflictions, ^mand gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his land.

Now there came a dearth over the land of Egypt and Chanaan, and great affliction: and our fathers had no sustenance.

But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent our fathers first.

And at the second time Joseph made known to his brethren; and Joseph's kindred was made known unto Pharaoh.

14 Then ^asent Joseph, and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred, threescore ^band fifteen souls.

15 So Jacob went down into Egypt, ^cand died, he, and our fathers, 16 And ^dwere carried over into Sychem, and laid in ^ethe sepulchre that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Emmor the father of Sychem.

17 But when ^fthe time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, 18 Till another king arose, which knew not Joseph.

19 The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live.

20 In ^gwhich time Moses was born, and was ^hexceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months:

21 And when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son.

22 And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and ⁱwas mighty in words and in deeds.

23 And ^jwhen he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel.

24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian:

25 ^kFor he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.

26 And the next day he showed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren: why do ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, ^lWho made thee a ruler and a judge over us?

28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday?

29 Then ^mfled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he ⁿbegat two sons.

30 And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina an ² Angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush.

31 When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him, 32 Saying, "I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold.

33 Then ^b said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

34 I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt.

35 This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer ^c by the hand of the Angel which appeared to him in the bush.

36 He ^d brought them out, after that he had showed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red sea, ^e and in the wilderness forty years.

37 This is that Moses which said unto the children of Israel, ^f A Prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, ^g like unto me; him ^g shall ye hear.

38 This ^h is he that was in the church in the wilderness with ⁱ the Angel which spake to him in the mount Sina, and ⁱ with our fathers: ^j who received the ^k lively oracles to give unto us:

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt, 40 Saying ^l unto Aaron, Make us gods to go before us: for ^{as for} this Moses, which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

41 And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

42 Then ^m God turned, and gave them up to worship ⁿ the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the Prophets, ^o O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me

43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your gods Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon.

45 Which ⁹ also our fathers ⁵ thus came after brought in with ⁶ Jesus into the possession of the Gentile, whom God drove out before the face of our fathers, unto the day of David;

46 Who ⁷ found favour before God, and desired ⁸ to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob.

47 But Solomon built him a house.

48 Howbeit ^t the Most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet, 49 Heaven ^u is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build me? saith the Lord: or what is the place of my rest?

54 ¶ When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth.

56 And said, Behold, ^a I see the heavens opened, and the ^b Son of man standing on the right hand of God.

57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord,

8 And ^ccast him out of the city, and stoned him: and ^ethe witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul.

9 And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive ^fmy spirit.

10 And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, ^gLord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell ^hasleep.

CHAPTER 8.

Philip planteth the church in Samaria: 25 he baptizeth an Ethiopian eunuch.

1 AND ^aSaul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem: and they ^bwere all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles.

2 And devout men carried Stephen ^chis burial, and ^emade great mentation over him.

3 As for Saul, ^dhe made havoc of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women, committed them to prison.

4 Therefore ^ethey that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word.

5 ¶ Then ^fPhilip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them.

6 And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For ^gunclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.

8 And there was great joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man called Simon, which beforetime in the same city used ^hsorcery, and witched the people of Samaria. Giving out that himself was some great one:

10 To whom ⁱthey all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

13 Then Simon himself ^bbelieved also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the ^cmiracles and signs which were done.

14 ¶ Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John:

15 Who, when they were come down, prayed for them, ^dthat they might receive the Holy Ghost.

16 (For ^eas yet he was fallen upon none of them: only ^fthey were baptized in ^gthe name of the Lord Jesus.)

17 Then ^hthey laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost.

18 And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money, 19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost.

20 But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou ⁱhast thought that ^jthe gift of God may be purchased with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy ^kheart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, ^lif perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I perceive that thou art in the gall ^mof bitterness, and ⁿin the bond of iniquity.

24 Then answered Simon, and said, Pray ye ^oto the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.

26 ¶ And ^pthe angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south, unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is desert.

27 And he arose and went: and, behold, a ^qman of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and ² had come to Jerusalem for to worship, 28 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read Esaias the prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.

30 And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Esaias, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him.

32 The place of the scripture which he read was this, ^a He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began ^b at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what ^c doth hinder me to be baptized?

37 And Philip said, ^d If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I ^e believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.

39 And when they were come up out of the water, ^f the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.

40 But Philip was found at ^g Azotus: and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Cesarea.

against the disciples of the Lord went unto the high priest,

2 And desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any ¹ of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.

3 And ^b as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined round about him light from heaven:

4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou ^c me?

5 And he said, ^d Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. ^e It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

6 And he, trembling and astonished, said, Lord, ^f what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

7 And ^g the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.

8 And Saul arose from the earth, and when his eyes were opened, saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.

9 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

10 ^h And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias, and to him said the Lord in vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire of the house of Judas for one called Saul, of ⁱ Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth, 12 And hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem:

14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind ^j whosoever we call on thy name.

15 But the Lord said unto him, ^k Go thy way: for ^l he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and ^lkings, and the children of Israel:

16 For ^mI will show him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake.

17 And ⁿAnanias went his way, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him, said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and ^obe filled with the Holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.

19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. ^pThen was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, ^qthat he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said, ^rIs not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and ^sconfounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ.

23 ¶ And after that many days were fulfilled, ^tthe Jews took counsel to kill him:

24 But their laying await was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night, and ^ulet him down by the wall in a basket.

26 And ^vwhen Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

27 But ^wBarnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus.

28 And he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem.

29 And he spake ^xboldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the ^yGrecians: ^zbut they went about to slay him.

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Cesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 Then ^ahad the churches rest throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria, and were edified; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied.

32 ¶ And it came to pass, as Peter passed throughout ^ball quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there he found a certain man named Eneas, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy.

34 And Peter said unto him, Eneas, ^cJesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt in Lydda and ^dSaron saw him, and ^eturned to the Lord.

36 ¶ Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called ^fDorcas: this woman was full of good works and alms-deeds which she did.

37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid her in ^gan upper chamber.

38 And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not ^hdelay to come to them.

39 Then Peter arose and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas made while she was with them.

40 But Peter ⁱput them all forth, and kneeled ^jdown, and prayed; and turning him to the body ^ksaid, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

41 And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up; and when he had called the saints and widows, he presented her alive.

42 And it was known throughout all Joppa; ^land many believed in the Lord.

43 And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in ^mJoppa with one Simon ⁿa tanner.

CHAPTER 10.

1 Cornelius sendeth for Peter. 34 Peter preacheth. 44 The Holy Ghost falleth on the hearers: 48 they are baptized.

THERE was a certain man in Cesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band,

2 A ^adevout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway.

3 He ^bsaw in a vision evidently, about the ninth hour of the day, ^can angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius.

4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for ^da memorial before God.

5 And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter:

6 He lodgeth with one ^eSimon a tanner, whose house is by the sea-side: he ^fshall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

7 And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually;

8 And when he had declared all ^gthese things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

9 ¶ On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the house-top to pray about the ^hsixth hour:

10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance,

11 And ⁱsaw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth:

12 Wherein were all manner of four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat.

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for ^jI have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.

15 And the voice ^kspake unto him again the second time, ^lWhat God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

16 This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven.

17 Now, while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, three men which were sent from Cornelius had made enquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate.

18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 While Peter thought on this vision, the Spirit ^rsaid unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.

20 Arise ^stherefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.

21 Then Peter went down to them, men which were sent unto him from Cornelius, and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek; what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and of ^tgood report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged ^uthem. And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 And the morrow after he entered into Cesarea. And Cornelius waited for them, and he called together his kinsmen and near friends.

25 And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped ^vhim.

26 But Peter took him up, saying, ^wStand up; I myself also am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said unto them, Ye know how that ^xit is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but ^yGod hath showed me that I should not call any man common or unclean.

29 Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying, as ^zsoon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me?

30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour, and at the ninth hour I prayed

11 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

12 Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner by the sea-side: who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.

13 Immediately therefore I sent unto thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God.

14 ¶ Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons:

15 But in every nation he that feareth him; and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

16 The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ: (he is Lord of all:)

17 That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Judea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached;

18 How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil: for God was with him.

19 And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree:

20 Him God raised up the third day, and showed him openly;

21 Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.

22 And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead.

23 To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

24 ¶ While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost.

46 For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter.

47 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we?

48 And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Peter accused for going to the Gentiles.

19 The gospel preached in many places.

27 Great dearth foretold.

AND the apostles and brethren that were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they that were of the circumcision contended with him, 3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them.

4 But Peter rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it by order unto them, saying,

5 I was in the city of Joppa praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me:

6 Upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts; and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

7 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Peter; slay, and eat.

8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And, behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Cesarea unto me.

12 And the Spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house :

13 And ⁱhe showed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter ;

14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, ^jas on us at the beginning.

16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, ^kJohn indeed baptized with water ; but ^lye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost.

17 Forasmuch ^mthen as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, what ⁿwas I, that I could withstand God ?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then ^ohath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life.

19 ¶ Now ^pthey which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only.

20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which, when they were come to Antioch, spake ^qunto the Grecians, preaching ^rthe Lord Jesus.

21 And ^sthe hand of the Lord was with them : and a great number believed, and turned ^tunto the Lord.

22 ¶ Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem : and they sent forth ^uBarnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch.

23 Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and ^vexhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would ^wcleave unto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith : ^xand much people was added unto the Lord.

25 Then departed Barnabas to ^yTarsus, for to seek Saul :

26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves ^zwith the church, and taught much people. And the disciples we called Christians first in Antioch. 27 ¶ And in these days came ^aprophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch.

28 And there stood up one of the named Agabus, ^cand signified by the Spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world : which came to pass in the days of Claudius Cesar.

29 Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send ^brelief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea :

30 Which also they did, and sent it to the ^celders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

CHAPTER 12.

¹ King Herod persecuteth the Christian Killeth James, and imprisoneth Peter whom an angel delivereth upon the prayers of the church. 20 Miserable death of Herod.

NOW about that time Herod the king ¹stretched forth his hands ^ato vex certain of the church.

2 And he killed James ^bthe brother of John with the sword.

3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were ^cthe days of unleavened bread.)

4 And ^dwhen he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him ; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

5 Peter therefore was kept in prison : but ^eprayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

7 And, behold, ^fthe angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison : and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he said unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out, and followed him; and ¹wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he ²saw a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came into the iron gate that leadeth into the city; which ³opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that ⁴the Lord hath sent his angel, and ⁵hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and ⁶from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

12 And when he had considered ⁷the thing, he ⁸came to the house of Mary the mother of ⁹John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together praying.

13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came ¹⁰to hearken, named Rhoda.

14 And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.

15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It ¹¹is his angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.

17 But he, beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go show these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and ¹²went into another place.

18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that ¹³they should be put to death. And he went down from Judea to Cesarea, and ¹⁴there abode.

20 ¶ And Herod ¹⁵was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus ¹⁶the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace; because ¹⁷their country was nourished by the king's country.

24 ¶ But ⁴the word of God grew and multiplied.

25 And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled ⁵their ⁶ministry, and ⁷took with them John, whose surname was Mark.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Paul and Barnabas sent to the Gentiles.

2 The Gentiles believe. 3 The Jews blaspheme, 50 and raise a persecution.

NOW there were ¹in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as ²Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius ³of Cyrene, and Manaen, ⁴which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

2 As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate ⁵me Barnabas and Saul for the work ⁶whereunto I have called them.

3 And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid ⁷their hands on them, they sent ⁸them away.

4 ¶ So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia; and from thence they sailed ⁹to Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John ¹⁰to their minister.

6 And when they had gone through the isle unto Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-jesus:

7 Which was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.

8 But ¹¹Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

9 Then ¹²Saul, (who also is called ¹³Paul,) filled with the Holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?

11 And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 ¶ Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John departing from them returned to Jerusalem.

14 ¶ But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down.

15 And after the reading of the Law and the Prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand, said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give audience.

17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with an high arm brought he them out of it.

18 And about the time of forty years suffered he their manners in the wilderness.

19 And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Chanaan, he divided their land to them by lot.

20 And after that he gave unto them judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet.

21 And afterward they desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of forty years.

22 And when he had removed him, he raised up unto them David to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will.

Ps. 78. 72.

23 Of this man's seed hath God, according to his promise, raised unto Israel a Saviour, Jesus:

24 When John had first preached before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And as John fulfilled his course, he said, Whom think ye that I am? I am not he. But, behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loose.

26 Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent.

27 For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath day, they have fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate that he should be slain.

29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre.

30 But God raised him from the dead:

31 And he was seen many days of them which came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses unto the people.

32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers, 33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you the sure mercies of David.

35 Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

36 For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption:

37 But he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption.

38 ¶ Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins:

39 And ⁹by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you which is spoken of in the Prophets;

41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

42 ¶ And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the ⁷next sabbath.

43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas: who, speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in ^athe grace of God.

44 ¶ And the next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.

45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and ^bspake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, ^cIt was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but ^dseeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles.

47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, ^esaying, ^fI have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: ^gand as many as were ordained to eternal life believed.

49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts.

CHAPTER 14.

1 Paul and Barnabas are persecuted. 8 Paul healing a cripple at Lystra, they are reputed as gods by the people. 19 Paul is stoned, etc.

AND it came to pass in Iconium, ^Athat they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great ^amultitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed.

2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren.

3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, ^bwhich gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews with their rulers, ^cto use them despitefully, and to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and ^dfled unto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about:

7 And there they preached the gospel.

8 ¶ And ^ethere sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked:

9 The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and ^fperceiving that he had faith to be healed,

10 Said with a loud voice, ^gStand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked.

11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, ^hThe gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

12 And they called Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people.

14 Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

15 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God, which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein:

16 Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 Nevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

19 ¶ And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, and, having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch, 22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

23 And when they had ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia;

26 And thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together,

CHAPTER 15.

1 Dissension about circumcision: 5 the apostles consult about it: 22 their determination, 36 Paul and Barnabas contend, and part.

AND certain men which came down from Judea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

2 When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question.

3 And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them.

5 ¶ But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.

6 And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter.

7 And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

8 And God, which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us;

9 And put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith.

10 Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they.

2 ¶ Then all the multitude kept assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,

26 Men ^w that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by ^z mouth.

28 For it seemed good to ^x the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;

29 That ^y ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and ^z from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well.
Fare ye well.

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle:

31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the ^a consolation.

32 And Judas and Silas, being ^a prophets also themselves, ^b exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them.

33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let ^c go in peace from the brethren unto the apostles.

34 Notwithstanding it pleased
Silas to abide there still.

35 Paul ^d also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 ¶ And some days after, Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren ^e in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

37 And Barnabas determined to take with them ^f John, whose surname was Mark.

38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, ^g who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work.

39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus;

40 And Paul chose Silas, and departed, being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.

41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the churches.

CHAPTER 16.

1 Paul circumciseth Timothy, 14 converteth Lydia, 16 casteth out a spirit of divination. 19 He and Silas whipped and imprisoned. 25 The jailor converted, etc.

THEN came he to ^aDerbe and Lystra: and, behold, a certain disciple was there, ^bnamed Timotheus, (the son of a certain woman, which was a Jewess, and believed; but his father was a Greek:)

2 Which ^cwas well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium.

3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and ^dtook and circumcised him because of the Jews which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek.

4 And as they went through the cities they delivered them the decrees for to keep, that ^ewere ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jerusalem.

5 And ^fso were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia and the region of Galatia, and were forbidden of the Holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia,

7 After they were come to Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia: but the Spirit suffered them not.

8 And they passing by Mysia ^gcame down to Troas.

9 ¶ And a ^hvision appeared to Paul in the night: There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us.

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to ⁱgo into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel there.

11 Therefore loosing from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis;

12 And from thence to ^jPhilippi, which is ¹the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days.

13 And on the ²sabbath we went out of the city by a river-side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither.

14 ¶ And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of ^kThyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart ^lthe Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul.

15 And when she was baptized and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful ^mto the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And ⁿshe constrained us.

16 ¶ And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel ^opossessed with a spirit ³of divination met us, which brought her masters ^pmuch gain by soothsaying:

17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which show unto us the way of salvation.

18 And this did she many days. But Paul, being ^qgrieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. ^rAnd he came out the same hour.

19 ¶ And ^swhen her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, ^tthey caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the ⁴market place unto the rulers,

20 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, do ^vexceedingly trouble our city, 21 And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans.

22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, ^wand commanded to beat them.

23 And ^xwhen they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely:

24 Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the ^ystocks.

25 ¶ And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and ^zsang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

6 And ^asuddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately ^ball the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed.

7 And the keeper of the prison waking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

8 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, ^cDo thyself no harm; for we are all here.

9 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas,

10 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what ^dmust I do to be saved?

11 And they said, ^eBelieve on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

12 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

13 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway.

14 And when he had brought them into his house, ^fhe set meat before them, ^gand rejoiced, believing in God with all his house.

15 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the sergeants, saying, Let those men go.

16 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.

17 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, ^hbeing Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they trust us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out.

18 And the sergeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared, when they heard that they were Romans.

19 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city.

20 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they ⁱcomforted them, and departed.

CHAPTER 17.

1 Paul preacheth at Thessalonica, 10 and at Berea: 16 disputeth with the Athenians; 32 some mock, others believe.

NOW when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews: 2 And Paul, as his manner was, went ^ain unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures;

3 Opening and alleging ^bthat Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jesus, ^cwhom I preach unto you, is Christ.

4 And ^csome of them believed, and consorted with Paul and ^dSilas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 ¶ But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of ^eJason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These ^fthat have turned the world upside down are come hither also;

7 Whom Jason hath received: and these all ^gdo contrary to the decrees of Cesar, saying ^hthat there is another king, one Jesus.

8 And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go.

10 ¶ And ⁱthe brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming ^jthither went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched ^jthe scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few.

13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, ^kthey came thither also, and stirred up the people.

14 And ^lthen immediately the brethren sent away Paul, to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Athens: and ^mreceiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, ⁿhis spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city ^owholly given to idolatry.

17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoics, encountered him. And some said, What will this ^pbabbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.

19 And they took him, and brought him unto ^qAreopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.

21 (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)

22 ¶ Then Paul stood in the midst of ^rMars' hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are ^stoo superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your ^tdevotions, I found an altar with this inscription, ^uTO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

24 God ^vthat made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is ^wLord of heaven and earth, ^xdwell-eth not in temples made with hands;

25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, ^yas though he needed any thing, seeing ^zhe giveth to all life, and breath, and all things;

26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth and ^{aa}hath determined the times before appointed, and ^wthe bounds of their habitation;

27 That ^zthey should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, ^{aa}though he be not far from every one of us:

28 For ^{ab}in him we live, and move, and have our being; ^{ac}as certain also of your own poets have said. For we are also his offspring.

29 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, ^{ad}we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

30 And ^{ae}the times of this ignorance God winked at; but ^{af}now commandeth all men every where to repent:

31 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which ^{ag}he will judge the world in righteousness by ^{ah}that man whom he hath ordained; ^{ai}whereunto he hath ^{aj}given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

32 ¶ And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this ^{ak}matter.

33 So Paul departed from among them.

34 Howbeit ^{al}certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

CHAPTER 18.

3 Paul labouring with his hands, and preaching at Corinth, 9 is encouraged in a vision, etc.

AFTER these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth;

2 And found a certain Jew ^{am}named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla (because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome;) and came unto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, ^{an}and wrought: for by their occupation they were tent-makers.

4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks.

5 And ^{ao}when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in ^{ap}the spirit, and testified to the Jews ^{aq}that Jesus ^{ar}was Christ.

6 And ^ewhen they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, ^fhe shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your ^gblood be upon your own heads: I ^ham clean: ⁱfrom henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles.

7 And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.

8 And ^jCrispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house: and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized.

9 Then ^kspake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

10 For ^lI am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee: ^mfor I have much people in this city.

11 And he ⁿcontinued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 ¶ And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat, 13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.

14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, "If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you:

15 But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters.

16 And he drave them from the judgment seat.

17 Then all the Greeks took ^oSosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Gallio cared for none of those things.

18 ¶ And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having shorn ^phis head in ^qCenchrea: for he had a vow.

19 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.

20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not;

21 But bade them farewell, saying, "I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem: but I will return again unto you, ^aif God will. And he sailed from Ephesus.

22 And when he had landed at Cesarea, and gone up, and saluted the church, he went down to Antioch.

23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of ^bGalatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening ^call the disciples.

24 ¶ And ^da certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus.

25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and being ^e fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing ^fonly the baptism of John.

26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.

27 And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, ^ghelped them much which had believed through grace:

28 For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publicly, ^hshowing by the scriptures that Jesus ⁱwas Christ.

CHAPTER 19.

1 The Holy Ghost given by the laying on of Paul's hands. 17 Many believe the gospel.

AND it came to pass, that, while Apollos was ^aat Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples,

2 He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, ^bWe have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost.

3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto John's ^cbaptism.

4 Then said Paul, ^dJohn verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.

5 When they heard this, they were baptized ^ein the name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had ^flaid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they ^gspake with tongues, and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 And ^hhe went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things ⁱconcerning the kingdom of God.

9 But ^jwhen divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil ^kof that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus.

10 And ^lthis continued by the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

11 And ^mGod wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul:

12 So ⁿthat from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

13 ¶ Then ^ocertain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, ^ptook upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus ^qI know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and fear ^rfell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.

18 And many that believed came, and confessed, and showed their deeds.

19 Many of them also which ^tused curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 So ^umightily grew the word of God and prevailed.

21 ¶ After ^vthese things were ended, Paul purposed ^win the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, ^xI must also see Rome.

22 So he sent into Macedonia two of them ^ythat ministered unto him, Timotheus and ^zErastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

23 ¶ And ^athe same time there arose no small stir about ^bthese things.

24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for Diana, brought ^cno small gain unto the craftsmen.

25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft ^dwe have our wealth.

26 Moreover ye see and hear, that we are not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that they ^ebe no gods which are made with hands:

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought, but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worshippeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught ^fGaius ^gand Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring ^hhim that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander reckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 And when the town-clerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is ¹a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither bidders of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess.

38 Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, the law is open, and there are deputies: let them implead one another.

39 But if ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a ³lawful assembly.

40 For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereof we may give an account of this oncourse.

41 And ^kwhen he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

Paul goeth to Macedonia: 7 he celebrateth the Lord's upper, and preacheth. 9 Eutychus, falling down dead, 10 is raised to life. 28 Paul committeth the flock to the elders: 36 he prayeth with them, and departeth.

AND after the uproar was ceased,

1 Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and departed for to go into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came intoreece,

3 And there abode three months. And when ^bthe Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia, Sopater of Berea; and of the Thessalonians, ^cAristarchus and Secundus; ^dand Gaius of Derbe, ^eand Timotheus; and of Asia, ^fTychicus and ^gTrophimus.

5 These going before tarried for us at Troas.

6 And we sailed away from Philippi after the ^hdays of unleavened bread, and came unto them ⁱto Troas in five days; where we abode seven days.

7 ¶ And upon ^jthe first day of the week, when the disciples came together ^kto break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were many lights ^lin the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down, and ^mfell on him, and embracing him said, "Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 ¶ And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot.

14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium; and the next day we came to Miletus.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for ^ohe hasted, if it were possible for him, ^pto be at Jerusalem ^qthe day of Pentecost.

17 ¶ And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the ^relders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, *from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons, 19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews.

20 And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have showed you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house, 21 Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there :

23 Save that ^wthe Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me.

24 But ⁿnone of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so ^vthat I might finish my course with joy, and ^zthe ministry which ^aI have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now, behold, ^bI know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I ^{am} pure from the blood of all men.

27 For I have not shunned to declare unto you all ^dthe counsel of God.

28 Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, ^gwhich he hath purchased ^hwith his own blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing ⁱshall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 Also ^jof your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch, and remember, that by ^kthe space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

32 And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and ^lto the word of his grace, which is able ^mto build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

33 I have coveted no man's silver or gold, or apparel.

34 Yea, ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 I have showed you all things how that ^qso labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, ^rIt is more blessed to give than to receive.

36 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all wept sore, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him, 38 Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

CHAPTER 21.

1 Paul, journeying to Jerusalem, came to Philip's house, whose daughters prophesied. 17 Paul, at Jerusalem, apprehended, 31 but rescued by the captain.

AND it came to pass, that after we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with straight course unto Coos, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara :

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: ^awho said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem.

5 And when we had accomplished those days, we departed and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and ^bwe kneeled down on the shore and prayed.

6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship, and they returned home ^cagain.

7 And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

And the next day we that were Paul's company departed, and came unto Cesarea: and we entered to the house of Philip the ^devanlist, which was ^eone of the seven; and abode with him.

And the same man had four daughters, virgins, ^fwhich did prophesy.

And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Judea certain prophet, named ^gAgabus.

And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem and the man that owneth this ridle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.

And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that age, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem.

Then Paul answered, ⁱWhat mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? for ^jI am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.

And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, ^kThe will of the Lord be done.

And after those days we took our carriages, and went up to Jerusalem.

There went with us also certain of the disciples of Cesarea, and sought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

And ^lwhen we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

And the day following Paul went in with us unto ^mJames; and the elders were present.

And when he had saluted them, he declared ⁿparticularly that things God had wrought among the Gentiles by ^ohis ministry.

And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all zealous of the law:

And they are informed of thee, that thou ^qteachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs.

22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them;

24 Them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may ^rshave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and ^skeepest the law.

25 As touching the Gentiles which believe, we ^thave written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them entered into ^uthe temple, ^vto signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid ^whands on him, 28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help: This is the man ^xthat teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 (For they had seen before with him in the city ^yTrophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut.

31 And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar:

32 Who ^zimmediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and ^acommanded him to be bound with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.

35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, ^bAway with him.

37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek?

38 Art not thou that ¹Egyptian, which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?

39 But Paul said, ^cI am a man which am a Jew of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and, I beseech thee, ^dsuffer me to speak unto the people:

40 And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with the hand unto the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

CHAPTER 22.

1 Paul declareth how he was converted: 25 he escapeth scourging, being a Roman citizen.

MEN, ^abrethren, and fathers, hear ye my defence which I make now unto you.

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he saith,)

3 I ^bam verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city ^cat the feet of ^dGanaliel, and taught ^eaccording to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and ^fwas zealous toward God, ^gas ye all are this day.

of the elders: from whom also received letters unto the ^bbrethren and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished.

6 And ^cit came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

9 And ^mthey that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.

12 And ⁿone Ananias, a devout man according to the law, ^ohaving a good report of all the ^pJews which dwelt there, 13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

14 And he said, ^qThe God of our fathers hath ^rchosen thee, that thou shouldst know his will, and ^sas that ^tJust One, and ^ushouldst hear the voice of his mouth.

15 For ^vthou shalt be his witness unto all men of ^wwhat thou hast seen and heard.

16 And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and ^xwash away thy sins, calling ^yon the name of the Lord.

17 And ^zit came to pass, that, when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance;

18 And saw him saying unto me, Make haste, ^{aa}and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord, ^bthey know that I imprisoned and ^cbeat in every synagogue them that believed on thee:

20 And ^dwhen the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also as standing by, and ^cconsenting unto his death, and kept the siment of them that slew him.

21 And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles.

22 ¶ And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, ^gAway with such a fellow from the earth; for it is not fit that ^hhe should live.

23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air, 24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried against him.

25 And as they bound him with whongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, ⁱIs it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I am free-born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have ^lexamined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he could have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and ^jcommanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

CHAPTER 23.

Paul pleadeth his cause: 7 dissension among his accusers: 10 he is again imprisoned: 12 the Jews conspire to kill him: 23 he is sent to Felix the governor.

conscience before God until this day.

2 And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him ^bto smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and ^ccommandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?

4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest?

5 Then said Paul, ^dI wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, Thou ^eshalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: ^fof the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided.

8 For ^hthe Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess both.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man: but ⁱif a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, let ^kus not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 And ^lthe night following, the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

12 And when it was day, ^mcertain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves ⁿunder a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to-morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

16 And ¹when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then ²Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain; for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, ³The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to-morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them; for there ⁴lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast showed these things to me.

23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Cesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and ²spear-men two hundred, at the third hour of the night;

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor Felix sendeth greeting.

27 This ⁷man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed

CHAPTER 24.

1 Tertullus accuseth Paul: 10 who answereth for his life and doctrine: 24 Paul preacheth Christ to the governor and his wife: 27 he is left in prison by Felix.

AND after ^afive days ^bAnanias the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing ^cthat by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence,

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with al thankfulness.

4 Notwithstanding, that I be no further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.

5 For ^dwe have found this man ^ea pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ring-leader of the sect of the Nazarenes: Who also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged according to our law.

But the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,

Commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things whereof we accuse him.

And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

¶ Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself:

Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship.

And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, either in the synagogues, nor in the city:

Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

But this I confess unto thee, that after the way which they call Presbytery, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the Law and the Prophets:

And have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

Now after many years I came bringing alms to my nation, and offerings.

Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.

Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they hadught against me.

Or else let these same here say, they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council,

21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.

22 ¶ And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.

24 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season I will call for thee.

26 He hoped also that money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

27 But after two years Porcius Festus came into Felix' room: and Felix, willing to show the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

CHAPTER 25.

1 Paul accused before Festus, 8 appealeth unto Cesar, 23 and declared innocent by Festus.

NOW when Festus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Cesarea to Jerusalem.

2 Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,

3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cesarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them ¹more than ten days, he went down unto Cesarea; and the next day, sitting on the judgment seat, commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem stood round about, ^dand laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove.

8 While he answered for himself, Neither against ^ethe law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cesar, have I offended any thing at all.

9 But Festus, ^fwilling to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For ^gif I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. ^hI appeal unto Cesar.

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Cesar? unto Cesar shalt thou go.

13 ¶ And after certain days King Agrippa and Bernice came unto Cesarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, ⁱThere is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:

15 About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore, when they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

20 And because ²I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked ^hhim whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the ³hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cesar.

22 Then ^kAgrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man myself. To-morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

23 And on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice with ^lgreat pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains and principal men of the city, at Festus' commandment Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying that he ought not ^mto live any longer.

27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him.

CHAPTER 26.

THEN Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself:

2 I think myself happy, kin

grippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews :

Especially because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews : wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews ;

Which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after the most straitest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee.

And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers :

Unto which promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews.

Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead ?

I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

Which thing I also did in Jerusalem : and many of the saints did shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests ; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme ; and, being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

Whereupon, as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests,

At mid-day, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.

And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me ? It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

And I said, Who art thou, Lord ? and he said, I am Jesus, whom thou persecutest.

But rise, and stand upon thy feet : for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee ;

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee, 18 To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.

19 Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision :

20 But showed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

21 For these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come ;

23 That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should show light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thyself ; much learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus ; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely : for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him ; for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets ? I know that thou believest.

28 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian.

29 And Paul said, I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them.

31 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, ^dThis man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds.

32 Then said Agrippa unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, ^eif he had not appealed unto Cesar.

CHAPTER 27.

1 Paul, shipping toward Rome, 9 foretelleth the danger of the voyage, but is not believed, etc.

AND when ^ait was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band.

2 And entering into a ship of Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia; one ^bAristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius ^ccourteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Onidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under ¹Crete, over against Salmone;

8 And, hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called the Fair Havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

9 ¶ Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, ²because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them,

10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with ³hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

11 Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain ^dto Phenice, and there to winter which is an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the south-west and north-west.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete.

14 But not long after there ⁴arose against it a tempestuous wind, called ⁵Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a certain island which is called Clauda, we had much work to come by the boat:

17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.

18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;

19 And the third day ^ewe cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

21 ¶ But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.

22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

23 For ^fthere stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom ^gI serve, 24 Saying, ^hFear not, Paul; thou must be brought ⁱbefore Cesar: and, lo, God hath given ^jthee all them that sail with thee.

25 Wherefore, sir, be of good cheer: for I ^kbelieve God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

26 Howbeit ^lwe must be cast upon a certain island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country;

28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they were gone a little farther, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast out the anchors out of the stern, and perished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship, 31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, ^mExcept these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat; for this is for your health: for ⁿthere shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and ^ogave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.

37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen souls.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to trust in the ship.

40 And when they had ⁶taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed theadder-bands, and hoised up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore.

42 And the soldiers' counsel was ^rto kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

43 But the centurion, ^swilling to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:

CHAPTER 28.

1 Paul and his company entertained by the barbarians. 5 The viper on his hand hurteth him not. 8 He healeth many diseases in the island.

AND when they were escaped, ^Athen they knew that the island was called ^aMelita.

2 And the barbarous people ^bshowed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, ^cNo doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

5 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and ^dfelt no harm.

6 Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and ^esaid that he was a god.

7 ¶ In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

8 And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and ^fprayed, and ^glaid his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:

10 Who also honoured us with ^hmany honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.

11 ¶ And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was Castor and Pollux.

12 And landing at Syracuse, we tarried there three days.

13 And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli:

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appii Forum, and the Three Taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but ⁱPaul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him.

17 And it came to pass, that after three days Paul called the chief of the Jews together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though ⁱI have committed nothing against the people or customs of our fathers, yet was ^kI delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.

18 Who, ^lwhen they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Jews spake against it, I ^mwas constrained to appeal unto Cesar; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that ⁿfor the hope of Israel I am bound with this ^ochain.

22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where ²it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging; ³to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, ⁴both out of the Law of Moses, and out of the Prophets, from morning till evening.

24 And ⁵some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Holy Ghost by Esaias the prophet unto our fathers,

26 Saying, ⁶Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive:

27 For ⁷the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

28 Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is ⁸sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it.

29 And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had great reasoning among themselves.

30 ¶ And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and received all that came in unto him, 31 Preaching ⁹the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

ROMANS.

CHAPTER 1.

Paul commendeth to the Romans his calling, 16 sheweth that the gospel is for the justification of all men through faith. 21 The sins of the Gentiles.

PAUL, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to ^abe an apostle, ^bseparated unto the gospel of God,

(Which ^che had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures.)

Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh;

And ¹declared to be the Son of God with power, according ^dto the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead:

By whom ^ewe have received grace and apostleship, ²for obedience to the faith among all nations, ^ffor his name:

Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ:

To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

First, ³I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that ^hyour faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.

For God is my witness, whom I serve ³with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers;

Making request (if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey ⁱby the will of God) to come unto you.

For I long to see you, that ^jI may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established;

That is, that I may be comforted together ⁴with you by the mutual faith both of you and me.

Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that ^koften-times I purposed to come unto you, (but ^lwas let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit ⁵among you also, even as among other Gentiles.

I ^mam debtor both to the Greeks and to the Barbarians, both to the wise and to the unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.

16 For ^aI am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for ^oit is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

17 For ^ptherein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, ²The just shall live by faith.

18 For ^rthe wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, ^swho hold the truth in unrighteousness.

19 Because ^tthat which may be known of God is manifest ⁶in them; for ^uGod hath showed ^{it} unto them.

20 For ^vthe invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, ^{even}his eternal power and Godhead; so ⁷that they are without excuse:

21 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified ^{him}not as God, ^wneither were thankful; but ^xbecame vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 Professing ^ythemselves to be wise, they became fools,

23 And changed the glory of the uncorruptible ²God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things.

24 Wherefore ^aGod also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, ^bto dishonour their own bodies between ^cthemselves:

25 Who changed ^dthe truth of God into a ^elie, and worshipped and served the creature ⁸more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

26 For this cause God gave them up unto vile ^faffections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:

27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.

²⁸ And even as they did not like ⁹ to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to ¹⁰ a reprobate mind, to do those things ¹¹ which are not convenient:

²⁹ Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers,

³⁰ Backbiters, haters of God, despightful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

³¹ Without understanding, covenant-breakers, ¹¹ without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful:

³² Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but ¹² have pleasure in them that do them.

CHAPTER 2.

1 They who condemn sin in others, and do the like themselves, are inexcusable, whether Jews or Gentiles. 17 The Jews, sinning against boasted light, doubly guilty.

THEREFORE thou art inexcusable, O man, whosever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things.

² But we are sure that the judgment of God is according ^a to truth against them which commit such things.

³ And ^b thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?

⁴ Or despisest thou ^c the riches of his goodness and forbearance ^d and long-suffering; ^e not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?

⁵ But after thy hardness and impenitent heart ^f treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God; glory and honour and immortality, eternal life;

⁸ But ¹ unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath,

⁹ Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the ¹ Gentile;

¹⁰ But ^k glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the ² Gentile.

¹¹ For there is ⁴ no respect of persons with God.

¹² For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law; and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law,

¹³ (For ^m not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

¹⁴ For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves:

¹⁵ Which show the work of the law written in their hearts, ³ their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts ⁴ the mean while accusing or else excusing one another.)

¹⁶ In ⁿ the day when God shall judge the secrets of men ^o by Jesus Christ according to my gospel.

¹⁷ Behold, ^p thou art called a Jew, and retest ^q in the law, ^r and makest thy boast of God,

¹⁸ And ^s knowest his will, and ⁵ approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law;

¹⁹ And art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness,

²⁰ An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, ^t which hast the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law.

²¹ Thou ^u therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preacheest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

²² Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, ^v dost thou commit sacrilege?

²³ Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God?

24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it ^wis written.

25 For ^xcircumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.

26 Therefore ^yif the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, judge ^zthee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?

28 For ^ahe is not a Jew which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Jew ^bwhich is one inwardly; and ^ccircumcision is that of the heart, ^din the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.

CHAPTER 3.

1 The Jews' prerogative not made void by the unbelief of some. 20 None justified by the law, but all by God's grace.

WHAT advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?

2 Much every way: chiefly, because that unto ^athem were committed the oracles of God.

3 For what if ^bsome did not believe? shall their ^cunbelief make the faith of God without effect?

4 God ^dforbid: yea, let ^eGod be true, but every ^fman a liar; as it is written, ^gThat thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

5 But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (^h*I speak as a man*)

6 God forbid: for then ⁱhow shall God judge the world?

7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner?

8 And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let ^jus do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.

9 What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have 11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

13 Their ^mthroat is an open sepulchre: with their tongues they have used deceit; the ⁿpoison of asps is under their lips:

14 Whose ^omouth is full of cursing and bitterness:

15 Their ^pfeet are swift to shed blood:

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways;

17 And the way of peace have they not known:

18 There ^qis no fear of God before their eyes.

19 Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law; that ^revery mouth may be stopped, and ^sall the world may become ²guilty before God.

20 Therefore ^tby the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for ^uby the law is the knowledge of sin.

21 But now ^vthe righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the Law ^wand the Prophets;

22 Even the righteousness of God which is by ^xfaith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe; for ^ythere is no difference:

23 For ^zall have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;

24 Being justified freely ^aby his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:

25 Whom God hath ³set forth to ^bbe a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the ⁴remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;

26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness; that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

27 Where ^cis boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay; but by the law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude ^dthat a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

29 Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:

30 Seeing it is one God which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

31 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Abraham justified by faith: 18 his faith recorded for the sake of those who believe.

WHAT shall we then say that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

2 For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.

3 For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed ^a God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

4 Now to ^b him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ^cungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God ^dimputeth righteousness without works,

7 Saying, "Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered."

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.

10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And ^ehe received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that ^fhe might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:

12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

13 For the promise, that he should be the ^h heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For ⁱif they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:

15 Because the law worketh wrath for where no law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be ^jby grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; ^kwho is the father of us all,

17 (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) ^lbefore him whom he believed, even God, who ^mquickeneth the dead, and calleth those ⁿthings which be not as though they were.

18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, ^oSo shall thy seed be.

19 And being not weak in faith, ^phe considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sara's womb:

20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God;

21 And being fully persuaded that what he had promised he was able also to perform.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

23 Now ^qit was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;

24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe ^ron him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead;

25 Who ^swas delivered for our offences, and ^twas raised again for our justification.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Being justified by faith, we have peace with God. 2 Sin and death came by Adam, 3 righteousness and life by Jesus Christ.

THEREFORE being justified by faith, we have ^apeace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:

2 By ^bwhom also we have access by faith into this grace ^cwherein we stand, ^dand rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not only so, but ^ewe glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience;

4 And patience, experience; and experience, hope:

5 And ^fhope maketh not ashamed; because ^gthe love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost, which is given unto us.

6 For when we were yet without strength, ^hin due time Christ died for the ungodly.

7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

8 But ⁱGod commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

9 Much more then, being now justified by ^jhis blood, we shall be saved ^kfrom wrath through him.

10 For if, when we were enemies, ^lwe were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved ^mby his life.

11 And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the ⁿatonement.

12 Wherefore, as ^oby one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, ^pfor that all have sinned:

13 (For until the law sin was in the world: but ^qsin is not imputed when there is no law.

14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come.

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded ^runto many.

16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

17 For if ^sby one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.)

18 Therefore as ^qby the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so ^rby the righteousness of one the free gift came upon ^sall men unto justification of life.

19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners; so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

20 Moreover ^tthe law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did ^umuch more abound:

21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER 6.

1 We must not live in sin, 2 for we are dead unto it: 12 nor let sin reign in us. 21 The end and wages of sin is death, etc.

WHAT shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

2 God forbid. How shall we, that are dead ^vto sin, live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not, that ^wso many of us as ^xwere baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death?

4 Therefore we are ^yburied with him by baptism into death; that ^zlike as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, ^aeven so we also should walk in newness of life.

5 For ^bif we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also ^cin the likeness of his resurrection:

6 Knowing this, that ^dour old man is crucified with him, that ^ethe body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

7 For he that is dead is ^ffreed from sin.

8 Now ^gif we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:

9 Knowing that ^hChrist being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but ⁱalive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let ^mnot sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither yield ye your members as ^sinstruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

14 For ⁿsin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then? shall we sin, ^obecause we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine ⁴which was delivered you.

18 Being then ^pmade free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.

19 I speak after the manner of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.

20 For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free ⁵from righteousness.

21 What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.

22 But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

23 For ^qthe wages of sin is death; but the ^rgift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER 7.

1 No law hath power over a man longer than he liveth. 5 The law is not sin, 12 but holy, just, and good.

husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

3 So then ^bif, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become ^cdead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should ^dbe married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the ¹motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members ^cto bring forth fruit unto death.

6 But now we are delivered from the law, ²that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve ^fin newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, ^gI had not known sin but by the law: for I had not known lust, ³except the law had said, ^hThou shalt not covet.

8 But ⁱsin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For ^jwithout the law sin was dead.

9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

10 And the commandment, ^kwhich was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

12 Wherefore ^lthe law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, ^msold under sin.

15 For that which I do I ⁿallow not: for what ^oI would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good.

17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that ^oin me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.

19 For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me.

22 For I ^pdelight in the law of God after the ^qinward man:

23 But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from ^sthe body of this death?

25 I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God, but with the flesh the law of sin.

CHAPTER 8.

Who are free from condemnation. 5. 13 What harm cometh of the flesh, 6. 14 what good of the Spirit, 17 and what of being God's children. 31 The Christian's hope.

THERE is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who ^awalk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For ^bthe law of ^cthe Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

3 For ^dwhat the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God, sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and ¹for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.

6 For ²to be carnally minded is death; but ³to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

7 Because ⁴the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that ^fthe Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the ^gSpirit of Christ, he is none of his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, ^hhe that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies ⁱby his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 For ^jif ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

15 For ^jye have not received the spirit of bondage again ^kto fear; but ye have received the Spirit ^lof adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

16 The ^mSpirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:

17 And if children, then heirs; ⁿheirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon that ^othe sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 For ^pthe earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the ^qmanifestation of the sons of God.

20 For ^rthe creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope;

21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that ^sthe whole creation groaneth ^tand travaileth in pain together until now.

23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the first-fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

24 For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

27 And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God.

28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

29 For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the first-born among many brethren.

30 Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called; and whom he called, them he also justified; and whom he justified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?

32 He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

33 Who shall lay anything to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth;

34 Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

36 As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

37 Nay, in all these things we are 39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Paul's sorrow for the Jews. 7 All Abraham's seed were not the children of the promise. 25 The calling of the Gentiles, and rejection of the Jews, foretold.

I SAY the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost, 2 That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.

3 For I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:

4 Who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises;

5 Whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.

6 Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Israel which are of Israel:

7 Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called.

8 That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

9 For this is the word of promise, At this time will I come, and Sara shall have a son.

10 And not only this; but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac,

11 (For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth,) 12 It was said unto her, The elder shall serve the younger.

13 As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.

14 What shall we say then? ^aIs there unrighteousness with God? God forbid.

15 For he saith to Moses, ^oI will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

16 So ^pthen it is not of him that willet, nor of him that runneth, but of God that showeth mercy.

17 For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even ^qfor this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might show my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? for who hath resisted his will?

20 Nay but, O man, who art thou that ^rreplieth against God? ^sShall he thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21 Hath not the ^tpotter power over the clay, of the same lump to make ^uone vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

22 What if God, willing to show his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much long-suffering the ^vvessels of wrath fitted to destruction;

23 And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory,

24 Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles?

25 As he saith also in Osee, ^wI will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved.

26 And ^xit shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God.

27 Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though ^ythe number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved:

28 For he will finish ^zthe work, and cut it short in righteousness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.

29 And as Esaias said before, Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, we ^bhad been as

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith;

31 But Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, ^chath not attained to the law of righteousness.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law: for ^dthey stumbled at that stumblingstone;

33 As it is written, ^eBehold, I lay in Sion a stumblingstone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ^fashamed.

CHAPTER 10.

1 Paul's prayer for Israel. 11 Salvation open to Jews and Gentiles.

BRETHREN, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

2 For I bear them record ^athat they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of ^bGod's righteousness, and going about to establish their own ^crighteousness, have ^dnot submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

4 For ^eChrist is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

5 For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, ^fThat the man which doeth those things shall live by them.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, ^gSay not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to ^hbring Christ down from above;)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to ⁱbring up Christ again from the dead.)

8 But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach;

9 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

11 For the scripture saith, ^jWhosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

12 For ^kthere is no difference between the Jew and the Greek; for the ^lsame Lord over all ^mis rich unto all that call upon him.

13 For ⁿwhosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without ^oa preacher?

15 And how shall they preach except they be sent? as it is written, ^pHow beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But ^qthey have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, ^rLord, who hath believed ^sour ^treport?

17 So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, ^utheir sound went into all the earth, and their words unto all the ends of the world.

19 But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, ^vI will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a ^wfoolish nation I will anger you.

20 But Esaias is very bold, and saith, ^xI was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

21 But to Israel he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

CHAPTER 11.

1 A remnant of Israel saved by grace. 17 The Gentiles may not boast against them.

I SAY then, ^aHath God cast away his people? God forbid. For ^bI also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which he ^cforeknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith ^dof Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,

3 Lord, ^ethey have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

6 And ^fif by grace, then is it no more of works; otherwise grace is no more grace. But if ^git be of works, then is it no more grace otherwise work is no more work.

7 What then? ^hIsrael hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the ⁱelection hath obtained it and the rest were ^jblinded

8 (According as it is written, ^kGod hath given them the spirit of ^lslumber, ^meyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear; unto this day.

9 And David saith, ⁿLet their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumblingblock, and a recompence unto them:

10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back alway.

11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they ^oshould fall? God forbid: but rather through ^ptheir fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy.

12 Now if the fall of them ^qbe the riches of the world, and the ^rdiminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their ^sfulness!

13 For I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as ^tI am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office;

14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and ^umight save some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them ^vbe the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?

16 For ^wif the first-fruit ^xbe holy, the lump is also holy; and if the root ^ybe holy, so are the branches.

17 And if ^zsome of the branches be broken off, ^aand thou, being a wild olive tree, wert grafted in ^bamong them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree;

18 Boast ^cnot against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.

20 Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest faith. Be ¹not high-minded, but fear:

1 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest also spare not thee.

2 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, if ³thou continue his goodness: otherwise ⁴thou shalt be cut off.

3 And they also, ⁵if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted: for God is able to graff them again.

4 For if thou wert cut out of the live tree, which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature to a good olive tree; how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree!

5 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits, that ⁶blindness in part happened to Israel, until ⁷the illness of the Gentiles be come in.

6 And so ⁸all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, ⁹There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:

7 For ¹⁰this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

8 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes.

9 For the gifts and calling of God are without ¹¹repentance.

10 For as ye in times past have not ¹²believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief;

11 Even so have these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.

12 For God hath ¹³concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

13 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

14 For ¹⁴who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?

15 Or ¹⁵who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?

I BESEECH you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ^aye present your bodies ^ba living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

2 And ^cbe not conformed to this world; but ^dbe ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove ^ewhat is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God.

3 For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think ¹soberly, according as God hath dealt ²to every man the measure of faith.

4 For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office;

5 So ³we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

6 Having ⁴then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, ⁵*let us prophesy* according to the proportion of faith;

7 Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering; or ⁶he that teacheth, on teaching;

8 Or ⁷he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that ⁸giveth, let him do it ³with simplicity; ⁹he that ruleth, with diligence; he that showeth mercy, with cheerfulness.

9 Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that ¹⁰which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

10 Be kindly affectioned one to another ¹¹with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another;

11 Not slothful in business; ¹²fer- vent in spirit; serving the Lord;

12 Rejoicing ¹³in hope; ¹⁴patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer;

13 Distributing ¹⁵to the necessity of saints; given ¹⁶to hospitality.

14 Bless ¹⁷them which persecute you: bless, and curse not.

15 Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

16 Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but 5 condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.

17 Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

18 If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

19 Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, ¹ Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

20 Therefore ²if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

21 Be ³not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Of subjection to magistrates. 8 Love containeth the whole law, etc.

LET every soul ^abe subject unto the higher powers. For ^bthere is no power but of God: the powers that be are ¹ordained of God.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

3 For ^crulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? Do ^dthat which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:

4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

5 Wherefore ^eye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience' sake.

6 For, for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 Render ^ftherefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; ^gfear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: ^hfor he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

9 For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended 11 And that, knowing the time that now it is high time ¹to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and ²let us put on the armour of light.

13 Let ³us walk ²honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not ⁴in strife and envying:

14 But ⁵put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and ⁶make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lust thereof.

CHAPTER 14.

How to treat a weak brother.

HIM that ^ais weak in the faith, receive ye, but ¹not to doubtful disputations.

2 For one believeth that he ^bmay eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs.

3 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and ^clet not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him.

4 Who ^dart thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up; for God is able to make him stand.

5 One ^eman esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be ²fully persuaded in his own mind.

6 He that ³regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for ^fhe giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For ^gnone of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

9 For ^hto this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be ⁱLord both of the dead and living.

But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at naught thy brother? for we shall stand before the judgment seat of Christ.

For it is written, ^kAs I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that ^mno man put a stumblingblock, or an occasion to fall, in his brother's way.

I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, ⁿthat there is nothing ⁴unclean of itself: but ^oto man that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not ⁶charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat for whom Christ died.

Let ^pnot then your good be evil spoken of:

For ^qthe kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

For he that in these things serveth Christ ^ris acceptable to God, and approved of men.

Let ^sus therefore follow after these things which make for peace, and things wherewith ^tone may edify another.

For meat destroy not the work of God. All ^uthings indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.

It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor ^vany thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

And he that ^wdoubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever ^xis not of faith is sin.

3 For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, ^eThe reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.

4 For ^fwhatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning; that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.

5 Now ^gthe God of patience and consolation grant you to be like-minded one toward another ^haccording to Christ Jesus;

6 That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Wherefore receive ye one another, ⁱas Christ also received us, to the glory of God.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

14 And ^qI myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, ^rfilled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because ^sof the grace that is given to me of God,

16 That ^tI should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the ^uoffering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost.

17 I have therefore whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ in those things which pertain to God.

18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things ^u which Christ hath not wrought by me, ^v to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed.

19 Through ^w mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, ² lest I should build upon another man's foundation:

21 But as it is written, ³ To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see; and they that have not heard shall understand.

22 For which cause also ² I have been ³ much hindered from coming to you.

23 But now having no more place in these parts, and ^a having a great desire these many years to come unto you;

24 Whosoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, ^b and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled ⁴ with your company.

25 But now ^c I go unto Jerusalem to minister unto the saints.

26 For ^d it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem.

27 It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, ^e their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

28 When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them ^f this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.

29 And ^g I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in ^h the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

30 Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and ⁱ for the love of the Spirit, ^j that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me;

31 That ^k I may be delivered from them that ⁵ do not believe in Judea; and that my service which I have

1 Paul sendeth salutations to many, and endeth with praise and thanks God.

I COMMEND unto you Phebe our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at ^a Cenchrea:

2 That ^b ye receive her in the Lord as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you: for she hath been a succourer of many, and of myself also.

3 Greet ^c Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus:

4 Who have for my life laid down their own necks: unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles.

5 Likewise greet ^d the church that is in their house. Salute my well beloved Epenetus, who is ^e the first fruits of Achaia unto Christ.

6 Greet Mary, who ^f bestowed much labour on us.

7 Salute Andronicus and Junia, my kinsmen, and my fellow-prisoners who are of note among the apostles who also ^g were in Christ before me.

8 Greet Amplias my beloved in the Lord.

9 Salute Urbane our helper in Christ, and Stachys my beloved.

10 Salute Apelles approved in Christ. Salute them which are of Aristobulus' ¹ household.

11 Salute Herodion my kinsman. Greet them that be of the ² household of Narcissus, which are in the Lord.

12 Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa who labour in the Lord. Salute the beloved Persis, which laboured much in the Lord.

13 Salute Rufus ^h chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.

14 Salute Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brethren which are with them.

15 Salute Philologus, and Julia Nereus, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints which are with them.

16 Salute ⁱ one another with an ly kiss. The churches of Christ salute you.

 7 Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them.
 8 For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.
 9 For your obedience is come abroad unto all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf: but yet would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil.
 10 And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.
 11 Timotheus my work-fellow, and Lucius, and Jason, and Sosipater, my kinsmen, salute you.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

Paul, after salutation and thanksgiving, 10 exhorteth to unity, 11 and reproveth their dissensions. 26 God rejecteth the wisdom of the wise.

PAUL, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours:

Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ;

That in every thing ye are enriched by him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge;

Even as the testimony of Christ is confirmed in you:

So that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ:

8 Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.

11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ.

13 Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, but Crispus and Gaius;

15 Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also the household ^r of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For ^aChrist sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of ³ words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the cross is to them ^t that perish ^u foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is ^v the power of God.

19 For it is written, ^w I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

20 Where ^x is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath ^y not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

21 For ^z after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

22 For the ^a Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:

23 But we preach Christ crucified, unto the ^b Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness;

24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ ^c the power of God, and ^d the wisdom of God.

25 Because ^e the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that ^f not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called:

27 But ^g God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;

28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, ^h yea, and ⁱ things which are not, ^j to bring to nought things that are:

29 That no flesh should glory in his presence.

30 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:

CHAPTER 2.

1 How Paul preached the gospel: ⁶ white is God's wise counsel for men's salvation.

AND I, brethren, when I came to you, came ^a not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God.

2 For I determined not to know any thing among you, ^b save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 And ^c I was with you ^d in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech and my preaching ^e was not with ¹ enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power:

5 That your faith should not ² stand in the wisdom of men, but ³ in the power of God.

6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that ⁴ are perfect: ye not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought:

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, ⁵ even the hidden wisdom, ^h which God ordained before the world unto our glory:

8 Which ⁱ none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known ⁶ it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written, ^j Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10 But ^k God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, ⁷ save the spirit of man which is in him? ^m even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but ⁿ the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

13 Which ^o things also we speak not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

14 But ^p the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness to him: neither ^acan he know ^{em}, because they are spiritually discerned.

5 But ^rhe that is spiritual ³judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man.

6 For ^ewho hath known the mind of the Lord, that he ⁵may instruct ^m? But ^ewe have the mind of Christ.

CHAPTER 3.

How Paul dealt with weak believers, etc.

AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ.

I have fed you with ^amilk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither at now are ye able.

For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and ¹divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk ²as men?

For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal?

Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom we believed, even ^bas the Lord gave to every man?

I ^chave planted, ^dApollos watered; but God ^egave the increase.

So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: ^fand every man shall receive his own reward, according to his own labour.

For ^gwe are labourers together with God: ye are God's ³husbandry, ye are God's ^hbuilding.

According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise master-builder, I have laid ⁱthe foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But ^jlet every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

For other foundation can no man lay than ^kthat is laid, ^lwhich is Jesus Christ.

Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day ^mshall declare it, because it ⁿshall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.

If any man's work abide which 17 If any man ⁵defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy: for ^pthe temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

18 Let ^qno man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, ^rHe taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

20 And again, ^rThe Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

21 Therefore let no man glory in men. For ^tall things are yours;

22 Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours;

23 And ^uye are Christ's; and ^vChrist is God's.

CHAPTER 4.

1 How to account of Christ's ministers.
8 To a self-sufficient vanity Paul opposeth his own afflicted state, etc.

LET a man so account of us as of the ministers of Christ, ^aand stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's ¹judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self.

4 For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

5 Therefore ^bjudge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and ^cthen shall every man have praise of God.

6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes; ^dthat ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.

7 For who ²maketh thee to differ from another? and ^cwhat hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?

8 Now ye are full, ^fnow ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For I think that God hath set forth us ³the apostles last, ^gas it were appointed to death: for ^hwe are made a ⁴spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

10 We are ⁱfools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ: ^jwe are weak, but ye are strong: ye are honourable, but we are despised.

11 Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are ^kbuffeted, and have no certain dwelling-place;

12 And ^llabour, working with our own hands: ^mbeing reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it;

13 Being defamed, we entreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things unto this day.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but, as my beloved sons, I warn you.

15 For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for ⁿin Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.

16 Wherefore I beseech you, ^obe ye followers of me.

17 For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, ^pwho is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church.

18 Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you.

19 But ^qI will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.

20 For ^rthe kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

21 What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

9 I wrote unto you in an epistle, ^lnot to company with fornicators:

10 Yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out ^mof the world.

11 But now I have written unto you, not to keep company, ⁿif any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one ^onot to eat.

12 For what have I to do to judge them also ^pthat are without? do not ye judge them that are within?

13 But them that are without ^qGod judgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Of bringing controversies before heathen judges. 7 How lawsuits may be avoided.

DARE any of you, having matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?

2 Do ye not know that ^athe saints shall judge the world? and if th world shall be judged by you, are unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

Know ye not that we shall ^bjudge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life!

If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

But brother goeth to law with other, and that before the unbelievers.

Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. ^cWhy do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?

Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, and that ^dyour brethren.

Know ye not that ^ethe unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

1 And such were some of you; but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

2 All ^gthings are lawful unto me, but all things are not ^hexpedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.

3 Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord, and ⁱthe Lord for the body.

4 And ^jGod hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power.

5 Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an idol? God forbid.

6 What! know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? ^kfor two, saith he, shall be one flesh.

17 But ^{mm}he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.

18 Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body: but he that committeth fornication sinneth ⁿⁿagainst his own body.

19 What! ^{oo}know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost ^{pp}which is in you, which ye have of God, and ^{qq}ye are not your own?

20 For ^{rr}ye are bought with a price: therefore ^{ss}glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

CHAPTER 7.

1 The use of marriage: 10 Christ hath forbidden to dissolve the bond thereof, etc.

NOW concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, ^{aa}to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 Let ^{bb}the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4 The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

5 Defraud ye not one the other, except ^{cc}it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that ^{dd}Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.

6 But I speak this by permission, ^{ee}and not of commandment.

7 For ^{ff}I would that all men were even as ^{gg}I myself. But ^{hh}every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, ⁱⁱIt is good for them if they abide even as I.

9 But ^{jj}if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

10 And unto the married I command, ^{kk}yet not I, but the Lord, ^{ll}Let not the wife depart from ^{mm}her husband:

11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to ⁿⁿher husband: and let not the husband put away ^{oo}his wife.

12 But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else ^kwere your children unclean; but now are they holy.

15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us ^lto peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save ^lthy husband? or ²how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save ^lthy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And ^mso ordain I in all churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let ⁿhim not be circumcised.

19 Circumcision ^ois nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but ^pthe keeping of the commandments of God.

20 Let ^qevery man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 Art ^rthou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be ^smade free, use it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's ³freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is ^tChrist's servant.

23 Ye ^uare bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.

24 Brethren, let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins ^vI have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one ^wthat hath obtained mercy of the Lord ^xto be faithful.

26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present ^ydistress; I say, that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 But ^vthis I say, brethren, the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be, though they had none;

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

31 And they that use this world as ^anot abusing it: for ^athe fashion of this world passeth away.

32 But I would have you without carefulness. ^bHe that is unmarried careth for the things ^bthat belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. ^cThe unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy, both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

36 But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.

37 Nevertheless he that standeth steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.

38 So ^dthen he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better.

39 The ^ewife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; ^fonly in the Lord.

40 But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

CHAPTER 8.

Charity preferable to knowledge. 4 An idol is nothing to those who rightly know God.

NOW ^aas touching things offered unto idols, we know that we have ^bknowledge: Knowledge buildeth up, but charity edifieth.

And ^cif any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

But if any man love God, ^dthe same is known of him.

As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, ^fand that there is none other God but one.

For though there be that ^gare called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,)

But ^hto us there is but one God, the Father, ⁱof whom are all things, and we ^jin him; and ^kone Lord Jesus Christ, ^kby whom are all things, and we by him.

Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.

But meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, ²are we the better; neither, if we eat not, ³are we the worse.

But take heed, lest by any means this ⁴liberty of yours become stumblingblock to them that are weak.

For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;

And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?

But ⁵when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ.

Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

Christ our Lord? are not ye my work in the Lord?

2 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for ^cthe seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

3 Mine answer to them that do examine me is this;

4 Have ^dwe not power to eat and to drink?

5 Have we not power to lead about a sister, and a ¹wife, as well as other apostles, and as ^ethe brethren of the Lord, and ^fCephas?

6 Or I only and Barnabas, ^ghave not we power to forbear working?

7 Who ^hgoeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who ⁱplanteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth ^ja flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

8 Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?

9 For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou ^kshalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?

10 Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, ^lthis is written: that ^lhe that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope.

11 If ^mwe have sown unto you spiritual things, ^lis it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?

12 If others be partakers of ^lthis power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless we ⁿhave not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 Do ^oye not know that they which minister about holy things ²live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?

14 Even so ^phath the Lord ordained that they ²which preach the gospel should live of the gospel.

15 But I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for ^qit were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.

16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!

17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward; but if against my will, a ^r dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.

18 What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.

19 For though I be free from all men, yet have ^o I made myself servant unto all, ^t that I might gain the more.

20 And ^u unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law;

21 To ^v them that are without law, as without law, (^w being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.

22 To ^x the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

23 And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So ^y run, that ye may obtain.

25 And every man that ^z striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown, but we ^a an incorruptible.

26 I therefore so run, not as ^b uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air:

27 But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be ^c a cast-away.

2 And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea;

3 And did all eat the same ^c spiritual meat;

^d spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that ¹ followed them; and that Rock was Christ.

5 But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness.

6 Now these things were ² our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.

7 Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, ³ The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play.

8 Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed and fell in one day three and twenty thousand.

9 Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents.

10 Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer.

11 Now all these things happened unto them for ⁴ ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come.

12 Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.

13 There hath no temptation taken you but ⁵ such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also ⁶ make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry.

15 I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say.

16 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? ⁷ The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?

17 For ⁸ we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.

18 Behold ⁹ Israel after the flesh: are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

19 What say I then? that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?

20 But I say, that the thing which the Gentiles ¹⁰ sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.

Ye cannot drink the cup of the and the cup of devils: ye ot be partakers of the Lord's
, and of the table of devils.
Do we provoke the Lord to ousy? are we stronger than he?
All things are lawful for me,
all things are not expedient:
things are lawful for me, but things edify not.
Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth.
Whatsoever is sold in the ambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake.
For the earth is the Lord's,
and the fulness thereof.
If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be dis-sued to go, whatsoever is set be-re you eat, asking no question or conscience sake.
But if any man say unto you, his is offered in sacrifice unto ols, eat not for his sake that owed it, and for conscience' ake: for the earth is the Lord's,
and the fulness thereof.
Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other: for why is y liberty judged of another man's science?
For if I by grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that or which I give thanks?
Whether therefore ye eat, or ink, or whatsoever ye do, do all the glory of God.
Give none offence, neither to e Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor the church of God:
Even as I please all men in all ings, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that ey may be saved.

for that is even all one as if she

6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.
7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.
8 For the man is not of the 10 For this cause ought the woman teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering.
16 But if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.
17 Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.
18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear that there be divisions among you;
and I partly believe it.
19 For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.
20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lord's supper.
21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken.
22 What! have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and shame them that have not? What shall

I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For ^uI have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread:

24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do ^s in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the ^vnew testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ⁹ye do show the Lord's death ¹⁰till he come.

27 Wherefore ^xwhosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 But ^ylet a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh ¹⁰damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

31 For ^zif we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, ^awe are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

34 And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto ¹¹condemnation. And the rest ^bwill I set in order when ^cI come.

CHAPTER 12.

Spiritual gifts are diverse, yet all to profit withal, and to that end are diversely bestowed of God for the general good.

NOW ^aconcerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

2 Ye know ^bthat ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, that ^cno man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus ¹accursed; and ^athat no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.

4 Now ^ethere are diversities of gifts, but the ^fsame Spirit.

5 And there are differences of ²administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God ⁹which worketh all in all.

7 But ^hthe manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man ⁱprofit withal.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit the word ⁱof wisdom; to another ^jthe word of knowledge by the same Spirit;

9 To ^kanother faith by the same Spirit; to another ^lthe gifts of healing by the same Spirit;

10 To ^manother the working of miracles; to another ⁿprophecy; ^oto another discerning of spirits; to another ^pdivers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues:

11 But all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, ^qdividing to every man severally ^ras will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body; ^sso also Christ.

13 For ^tby one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, ^uwhether we be Jews or ³Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and ^vhave been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? if the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

1 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee; or again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

2 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

3 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we ¹bestow more abundant honour: and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

4 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:

5 That there should be no ⁵schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

6 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

7 Now ^wye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

8 And ²God hath set some in the church, first ^vapostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, ^ahelps, ^bgovernments, ^cdiversities of tongues.

9 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles?

10 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

11 But ^ccovet earnestly the best gifts: and yet show I unto you a more excellent way.

CHAPTER 13.

2 And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, ^cso that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

3 And ^dthough I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 For ^kwe know in part, and we prophesy in part.

10 But ^lwhen that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I ³thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For ^mnow we see through a glass, ⁴darkly; but then ⁿface to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but ^othe greatest of these is charity.

CHAPTER 14.

1 Prophecy commended, 2, 3, 4 and preferred before speaking with tongues: 12 both must be referred to edification.

34 Women forbidden to speak in the church.

^FOLLOW after ^acharity, and ^bdesire spiritual gifts, ^cbut rather that ye may prophesy.

2 For he that ^dspeaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man ¹understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh ^emysteries.

3 But he that prophesieth ^fspeaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.

5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 And even things without life giving sound, whether ⁹pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the ²sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?

9 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words ³easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak ^hinto the air.

10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without significance.

11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.

12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous ⁴of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that ¹he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also; ¹I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing ^kwith the understanding also.

16 Else, when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say ¹Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:

19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, than by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren, ^mbe not children in understanding: howbeit in malice ⁿbe ye children, but in understanding be ⁵men.

men of other tongues and other languages will I speak unto this people; as yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them who believe.

23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, ^qwill they not say that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, one unlearned, he is convinced all, he is judged of all:

25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest: and falling down on his face he will worship God, and report ^rthat God is in you of a truth.

26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, ^shath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let ^tall things be done unto edifying.

27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church: and let him speak to himself, and to God.

29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, ^ulet the first hold his peace.

31 For ^vye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

32 And ^wthe spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, ^xas in all churches of the saints.

34 Let ^yyour women keep silence in the churches: for it is ^zpermitted unto them to speak, but ^athey are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the ^alaw.

35 And if they will learn anything, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

36 What! came the word of ^bGod

t from you? or came it unto you ly?

If ^cany man think himself to be prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord.

But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

Wherefore, brethren, ^dcovet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.

Let all things be done decently and in order.

*Christ's resurrection the apostle interpreth the necessity of our resurrection.
Christ the first-fruits. 35 The manner of the resurrection, 51 and of the alive.*

MOREOVER, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and ^awherein ye stand;

By ^bwhich also ye are saved, ye ¹keep in memory ²what I preached unto you, unless ^cye have believed in vain.

For I delivered unto you first of that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins ^daccording to the scriptures;

And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:

And ^ethat he was seen of Cephas, then of ^fthe twelve:

After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

After that, he was seen of James; then of ^hall the apostles.

And ⁱlast of all he was seen of us also, as of ^jone born out of due time.

For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because ^kI persecuted the church of God.

But ^lby the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which ^mwas bestowed upon me was not in vain; neither ⁿdid I labour more abundantly than they all: ^oyet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

some among you that ⁿthere is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, ^othen is Christ not risen:

14 And if Christ be not risen, then ^pis our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ^qye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.

19 If ^rin this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now ^sis Christ risen from the dead, and become ^tthe first-fruits of them that slept.

21 For ^usince by man ^vcame death, ^wby man ^xcame also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But ^yevery man in his own order: Christ the first-fruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.

24 Then ^zcometh the end, when he shall have delivered up ^{aa}the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

25 For he must reign, ^{ab}till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

26 The ^{ac}last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

27 For he ^{ad}hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith, All things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted which did put all things under him.

28 And ^{ae}when all things shall be subdued unto him, then ^{af}shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And ^{ag}why stand we in jeopardy every hour?

31 I protest by ^{ah}your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, ^{ai}I die daily.

32 If ⁵after the manner of men ⁶I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? /let us eat and drink; for to-morrow we die.

33 Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners.

34 Awake ⁷to righteousness, and sin not; for ⁸some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, 'How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

36 Thou fool, ⁹that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die.

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:

38 But ¹⁰God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 So ¹¹also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:

43 It ¹²is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, The first man Adam ¹³was made a living soul; the ¹⁴last Adam was made ¹⁵a quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 The ¹⁶first man is of the earth, ¹⁷earthy; the second man is the Lord from ¹⁸heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy; ¹⁹and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And ¹as we have borne the image of the earthy, ²we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that ³flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I show you a mystery. ⁴We shall not all sleep, ⁵but ⁶we shall all be changed, 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: ⁷for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and ⁸this mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death ⁹is swallowed up in victory.

55 O ¹⁰death, where is thy sting? O ¹¹grave, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sin; and ¹²the strength of sin is the law.

57 But ¹³thanks be to God, which giveth us ¹⁴the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, ¹⁵be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know ¹⁶that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

CHAPTER 16.

1 How to proceed for the relief of the brethren. 13 Admonitions, 19 and satisfactions.

NOW concerning ¹the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye.

2 Upon ²the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him his store, as ³God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I come, ⁴whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring you ⁵liberality unto Jerusalem.

4 And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

5 Now I will come unto you, ⁶where I shall pass through Macedonia, for I do pass through Macedonia.

6 And it may be that I will abide yea, and winter with you, that ye may ⁷bring me on my journey whithersoever I go.

7 For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit. But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost.

9 For ^aa great door and effectual ^bopened unto me, and ^cthere are many adversaries.

10 Now if Timotheus come, see that he may be with you without fear: for ^dhe worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.

11 Let ^eno man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.

12 As touching ^four brother ^gApollus, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

13 Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong. 14 Let all your things be done with charity.

15 I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that is the first-fruits of Achaia, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints,)

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

The apostle encourageth against troubles; 12 sheweth the sincerity of his preaching.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy ^aour brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with ^ball the saints which are in all Achaia:

2 Grace ^cbe to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed ^dbe God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, ^ethe Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;

4 Who ^fcomforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, ^xit is for your consolation and salvation, which ^yis effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, ^zit is for your consolation and salvation.

7 And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing, that ^aas ye are partakers of the sufferings, so ^bshall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of ^cour trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, inasmuch that we despaired even of life:

9 But we had the ^dsentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead:

10 Who ^kdelivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us;

11 Ye also ^lhelping together by prayer for us, that ^mfor the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

12 For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity ⁿand godly sincerity, ^onot with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.

13 For we write none other things unto you than what ye read or acknowledge; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end;

14 As also ye have acknowledged us in part, ^pthat we are your rejoicing, even as ye ^qalso are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence ^rI was minded to come unto you before, that ye might have ^sa second ^tbenefit;

16 And to pass by you into Macedonia, and ^uto come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judea.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose ^vaccording to the flesh, that with me there should be yea yea, and nay nay?

18 But as God is true, our ^wword toward you was not yea and nay.

19 For ^xthe Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and ^ySilvanus and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea.

20 For ^zall the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.

21 Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and ^{aa}hath anointed us, is God;

22 Who ^{ab}hath also sealed us, ^{ac}and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Moreover I call God for a record upon my soul, ^{ad}that to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.

24 Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by ^{ae}faith ye stand.

CHAPTER 2.

1 The reasons of Paul's not coming unto them. 6 Of the excommunicated person. 14 Success of his preaching.

BUT I determined this with myself, that I ^awould not come again to you in heaviness.

2 For if I make you sorry, who ^bhe then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this same unto you lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; ^chaving confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not ^dthat ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But ^eif any have caused grief, he hath not ^fgrieved me, but in part that I may not overcharge you all.

6 Sufficient to such a man is this ^gpunishment, which was inflicted ^hof many.

7 So ⁱthat contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him.

9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it ^jin the person of Christ;

11 Lest ^kSatan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, ^lwhen I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord, 13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish:
 16 To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things?
 17 For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we ⁴in Christ.

CHAPTER 3.

He sheweth that their gifts and graces were a sufficient commendation of his ministry.

O ^awe begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, epistles ^bof commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

2 Ye ^care our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:

3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by ^dus, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not ^ein tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.

4 And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward:

5 Not, ^fthat we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our ^hsufficiency is of God;

6 Who also hath made us able ministers of ⁱthe new testament; not ^jof the letter, but of the spirit: for ^kthe letter killeth, but ^lthe spirit ¹giveth life.

7 But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away;

8 How shall not ^mthe ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more both the ministration of ⁿrighteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great ²plainness of speech:

14 But ^qtheir minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same veil untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which veil is done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the veil is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless ^rwhen it shall turn to the Lord, ^sthe veil shall be taken away.

17 Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But we all, with open face beholding as ^tin a glass the glory of the Lord, ^uare changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as ^vby the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Paul's unwearied diligence and zeal in preaching: 7 his troubles for the same.

THEREFORE, seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not;

2 But have renounced the hidden things of ¹dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor ^ahandling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

3 But if our gospel be hid, ^bit is hid to them that are lost:

4 In whom ^cthe god of this world ^dhath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, ^ewho is the image of God, should shine unto them.

5 For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ^fourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.

6 For God, ^gwho commanded the light to shine out of darkness, ^hhath shined ⁱin our hearts, to give ^jthe light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure ^jin earthen vessels, ^kthat the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

8 We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but ³not in despair;

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;

10 Always ¹bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live are alway delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

13 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, ^mI believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

14 Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

17 For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

CHAPTER 5.

Paul, in assured hope of immortal glory, laboureth to approve himself to Christ, etc.

FOR we know that if ^aour earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have ^ba building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this ^cwe groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

3 If so be that ^dbeing clothed we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, ^ebut clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

5 Now ^fhe that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who ^galso hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always confident; knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

7 (For ^hwe walk by faith, not by sight.)

8 We are confident, I say, and ⁱwilling rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we ¹labour, that whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men: but we are made manifest unto God, and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory ²in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For ^kwhether we be beside ourselves, it is to God; or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

14 For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if ¹one died for all, then were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, ^mthat they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

16 Wherefore ⁿhenceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet ^onow henceforth know we him no more.

17 Therefore, if any man be in Christ, ³he is a new creature: ^pold things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;

19 To wit, that ⁴God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath ⁴committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are ^rambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For ^ahe hath made him to be sin for us, who ^cknew no sin; that we might be made "the righteousness of God in him.

CHAPTER 6.

Paul's sufferings and patience in the ministry. 14 Exhortation to avoid idolaters, etc.

WE then, as ^aworkers together with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

2 (For he saith, ^cI have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

3 Giving ^dno offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:

4 But in all things ¹approving ourselves as ^ethe ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in imprisonments, ²in umults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings;

6 By pureness, by knowledge, by long-suffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned,

7 By the word of truth, by ^fthe power of God, by ^gthe armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true;

9 As unknown, and ^hyet well known; ⁱas dying, and, behold, we live; ^jas chastened, and not killed;

10 As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged.

12 Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own bowels.

13 Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged.

14 Be ^lye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for ^mwhat fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

Isa. 55. 7.

are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, ^oI will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 Wherefore ^pcome out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, 18 And ^qwill be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

CHAPTER 7.

1 He exhorteth to purity of life, 3 and sheweth the source of his comfort in afflictions.

HAVING ^atherefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

3 I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.

4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great ^bis my glorying of you: ^cI am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For, ^dwhen we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we ^ewere troubled on every side; without ^fwere fightings, within were fears.

6 Nevertheless ^gGod, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus;

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more.

8 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, ^hthough I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry ⁱafter a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 For ⁱgodly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: ^jbut the sorrow of the world worketh death.

11 For behold this selfsame thing, that ye ^ksorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit ⁱwas refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth.

15 And his ²inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth ^mthe obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.

16 I rejoice therefore that ⁿI have confidence in you in all things.

CHAPTER 8.

1 He stirreth them up to contribute to the saints: 18 he commendeth Titus and others, etc.

MOREOVER, brethren, ¹we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia;

2 How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy ^aand their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their ²liberality.

3 For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power, they were willing of themselves;

4 Praying us with much entreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us ^bthe fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first ^cgave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God:

6 Inasmuch that ^dwe desired

^q Eph. 5. 15.

Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same ³grace also:

7 Therefore, as ^eye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see ^fthat ye abound in this grace also.

8 I ^gspeak not by commandment but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, ^hthat, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

10 And herein ⁱI give my advice: for this is ^jexpedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be ^kforward a year ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

12 For ^kif there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened:

14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality:

15 As it is written, ⁱHe that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

17 For indeed he accepted the exhortation: but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

18 And we have sent with him ^mthe brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;

19 And not that only, but who was also chosen ⁿof the churches to travel with us with this ⁵grace, which is administered by us ^oto the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:

20 Avoiding ^pthis, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:

21 Providing ^afor honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have often-times proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which ^bI have in you.

23 Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellow-helper concerning you; or our brethren be enquired of, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore show ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting in your behalf.

CHAPTER 9.

He sheweth why he sent the brethren, 6 and stirreth them up to give bountifully, as a likely means to increase their store.

NOW as touching ^athe ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you:

2 For I know ^bthe forwardness of your mind, ^cfor which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that ^dAchaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many.

3 Yet ^ehave I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready:

4 Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your ¹bounty, whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.

6 But ^fthis I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

7 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for ^hGod loveth a cheerful giver.

8 And ⁱGod is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:

15 Thanks be unto God ^pfor his unspeakable gift.

CHAPTER 10.

He wisheth for no cause to exert his spiritual power and authority, etc.

NOW ^aI Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who ¹in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you:

2 But I beseech you, ^bthat I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which ²think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:

4 (For ^cthe weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty ³through God ^ato the pulling down of strong holds;)

5 Casting ^edown ⁴imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

6 And ^fhaving in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when ^gyour obedience is fulfilled.

7 Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? ^hIf any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are ⁱwe Christ's.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed :

9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.

10 For his letters, ⁵ say they, are weighty and powerful; but this bodily presence is weak, and his ⁶ speech contemptible.

11 Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.

12 For ⁷ we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, ⁸ are not wise.

13 But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the ⁷ rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you; ^m for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ:

15 Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, ⁿ of other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be ⁸ enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly, 16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's ⁹ line of things made ready to our hand.

17 But ^o he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

18 For ^p not he that commendeth himself is approved, but ^q whom the Lord commendeth.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Paul unwillingly entereth into a commendation of himself with the other apostles: 7 he declineth being chargeable: 23 he sheweth his sufferings for the gospel.

WOULD to God ye could bear with me a little in ^a my folly: and indeed ¹ bear with me.

2 For I am ^b jealous over you with godly jealousy: for ^c I have espoused you to one husband, ^d that I may present you ^e as a chaste virgin to Christ.

be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or ^y ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another ^z gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear ² with him.

5 For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

6 But though I be rude in speech, yet not in ¹ knowledge: but we have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence ^j in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, ^k I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me ^l the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself ^m from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.

10 As ⁿ the truth of Christ is in me, ³ no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? ^o because I love you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, that I ^p may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory they may be found even as we.

13 For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into ^q an angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose ^r end shall be according to their works.

16 I say again, Let no man think me a fool: if otherwise, yet as a fool ⁴ receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

17 That which I speak, ^s I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, ^t in this confidence of boasting.

18 Seeing ^u that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

19 For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise.

20 For ye suffer, ^v if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

21 I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. Howbeit whereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.

22 Are they Hebrews? ^aso am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I. 23 Are they ministers of Christ? I speak as a fool,) I am more: ^vin labours more abundant, ^zin stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft.

24 Of the Jews five times received forty stripes ^asave one.

25 Thrice was I ^bbeaten with rods, once was ^cI stoned, thrice I ^dsuffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep;

26 In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, ^ein perils by mine own countrymen, ^fin perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren;

27 In weariness and painfulness, watchings often, ^gin hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

28 Besides those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, ^hthe care of all the churches.

29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not?

30 If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.

31 The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, ⁱwhich is blessed forevermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 In ^jDamascus the governor under Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascenes with a garri- son, desirous to apprehend me;

33 And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAPTER 12.

He chooseth to commend his apostleship, not by revelations, 9 but by his infirmities, 11 blaming them for forcing this boasting.

It is not expedient for me doubt- less to glory. ¹I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one ^bcaught up to the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;)

4 How that he was caught up ^cinto paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not ²lawful for a man to utter.

5 Of such an one will I glory: ^dyet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For ^ethough I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me ^{to be}, or ^{that} he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a ^fthorn in the flesh, ^gthe messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 For ^hthis thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, ⁱMy grace is sufficient for thee; for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that ^jthe power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Therefore ^kI take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ's sake: for ^lwhen I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you; for ^min nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.

12 Truly ⁿthe signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 For ^owhat is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except ^{it be} that I ^pmyself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.

14 Behold, ^qthe third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for ^rI seek not yours, but you: ^sfor the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And ¹I will very gladly spend and be spent for ²you; though ³the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

16 But be it so, ⁴I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.

17 Did ⁵I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

18 I ⁶desired Titus, and with him I sent a brother. Did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 Again, ⁷think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? ⁸we speak before God in Christ: ⁹but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that ¹⁰I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:

21 And lest, when I come again, my God will ¹¹humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness, and ¹²fornication, and lasciviousness, which they have committed.

CHAPTER 13.

1 He threateneth obstinate sinners: 5 he adviseth them to a trial of their faith.

THIS is ¹the third time I am coming to you. ²In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 I ³told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them ⁴which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, I will not spare:

3 Since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in ¹me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty ²in you.

4 For ³though he was crucified through weakness, yet ⁴he liveth by the power of God. For ⁵we also are weak ⁶in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God to-ward you.

5 Examine ⁷yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, ⁸how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be ⁹reprobates?

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though ¹⁰we be as reprobates.

8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

9 For we are glad ¹¹when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, ¹²even ¹³your perfection.

10 Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present ¹⁴I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction.

11 Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, ¹⁵be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love ¹⁶and peace shall be with you.

12 Greet one another with an holy kiss.

13 All the saints salute you.

14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.

The second epistle to the Corinthians was written from Philippi, a city of Macedonia, by Titus and Lucas.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE GALATIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Paul's salutation: 6 he wondereth that they had so soon left the truth of the gospel, etc.

2 And all the brethren ⁷which are with me, ⁸unto the churches of Galatia:

3 Grace ⁹and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ,

4 Who ¹⁰gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us ¹¹from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father:

To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

Which is not another; but there are some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

But though I, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.

For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it:

And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers.

But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace,

To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood:

Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.

Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days.

But other of the apostles saw none, save James the Lord's brother.

Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not.

Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia;

CHAPTER 2.

1 He sheweth when and for what purpose he went up to Jerusalem, 14 Of justification by faith, and not by works.

THEN fourteen years after I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.

2 And I went up by revelation, and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain.

3 But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:

4 And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage:

5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6 But of those who seemed to be somewhat, whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth no man's person: for they who seemed to be somewhat in conference added nothing to me:

7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter;

8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles:)

9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

10 Only they would that we should remember the poor; the same which I also was forward to do.

11 But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certain came from James, ^phe did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly ^qaccording to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, If ^rthou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

15 We ^swho are Jews by nature, and not ^tsinners of the Gentiles, 16 Knowing ^uthat a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by ^vthe faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for ^wby the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, ^xis therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

19 For I ^ythrough the law ^zam dead to the law, that I might ^alive unto God.

20 I am ^bcrucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh ^cI live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for ^dif righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by / the flesh?

4 Have ^yye suffered ¹so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.

5 He therefore ^hthat ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as Abraham believed God, and it was ²accounted to him for righteousness.

7 Know ye therefore that ⁱthey which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, i In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, ^kCursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The ^ljust shall live by faith.

12 And ^mthe law is not of faith: but, The man ⁿthat doeth them shall live in them.

13 Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, ^oCursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

14 That ^pthe blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the ^qpromise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; ^rThough it be but a man's ³covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.

16 Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which ^sis Christ.

17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, ^twhich was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, ^uthat it should make the promise of none effect,

8 For if ^vthe inheritance be of the law, it ^wis no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.
9 Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and was ^vordained by angels in the hand of ^aa mediator.

10 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one; ^a but God is one.

11 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for there had been a law given which should have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

12 But the scripture hath concluded us under sin, that the promise by the faith of Jesus Christ might be given them that believe.

13 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

14 Wherefore ^bthe law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that ^cwe might be justified by faith.

15 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

16 For ye ^dare all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

17 For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

18 There ^eis neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all ^fone in Christ Jesus.

19 And ^gif ye be Christ's, then ye are Abraham's seed, and ^hheirs according to the promise.

CHAPTER 4.

The Jews were for a while under the law, but Christ came to redeem, and to give liberty to Jews and Gentiles the adoption of sons. 11 Paul's tender regard for them.

1 NOW I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;

2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of his father.

3 Even so we, when we were children, were ^ain bondage under the elements of the world:

4 But ^bwhen the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made ^cof a woman, ^dmade under the law,

6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.

7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; ^gand if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

8 Howbeit then, ^hwhen ye knew not God, ye ⁱdid service unto them which by nature are no gods.

9 But now, ^jafter that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, ^khow turn ye ^lagain to ^mthe weak and beggarly ⁿelements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

10 Ye ^oobserve days, and months, and times, and years.

11 I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as ^pI am; for I am as ye are: ye have not injured me at all.

13 Ye know how ^qthrough infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you ^rat the first.

14 And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me ^sas an angel of God, ^teven ^uas Christ Jesus.

15 ^vWhere is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it ^whad been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

17 They ^xzealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude ^yyou, that ye might affect them.

18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

19 My ^zlittle children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you, 20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for ^aI stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons; ^bthe one by a bondmaid, ^cthe other by a free-woman.

23 But he ^dwho was of the bond-woman was ^eborn after the flesh;

but ²he of the free-woman was by promise.

24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two ⁷covenants; the one from the mount ⁸Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar.

25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and ⁹answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

26 But ¹⁰Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

27 For it is written, ¹¹Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.

28 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the ¹²children of promise.

29 But as then ¹³he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now.

30 Nevertheless what saith ¹⁴the scripture? Cast out the bond-woman and her son: for ¹⁵the son of the bond-woman shall not be heir with the son of the free-woman.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bond-woman, but of the free.

CHAPTER 5.

1 He moveth them to maintain their Christian liberty, 3 and not to observe circumcision, 13 but rather love one another. 19 The works of the flesh; 22 the fruits of the Spirit.

STAND fast therefore in ¹⁶the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with ¹⁷the yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ¹⁸ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

3 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, ¹⁹that he is a debtor to do the whole law.

4 Christ ²⁰is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye ²¹are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit ²²wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

12 I ⁷⁸would they were even cut off which trouble you.

13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only ⁷⁹use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.

14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ⁸⁰ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

17 For ⁸¹the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other; so ⁸²that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But ⁸³if ye be led by the Spirit ye are not under the law.

19 Now ⁸⁴the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strifes, seditions, heresies,

21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that ⁸⁵they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But ⁸⁶the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, ⁸⁷faith, 23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

24 And they that are Christ's ⁸⁸have crucified the flesh with the ⁸⁹affections and lusts.

25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

26 Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

CHAPTER 6.

He willeth them to reform the faulty with gentleness, and to bear one another's burdens; 6 to be liberal to their teachers, 9 and not to be weary in well-doing.

BRETHREN, ¹if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye ^awhich are spiritual restore such an one ^bin the spirit of meekness; considering yourself, ^clest thou also be tempted. Bear ^dye one another's burdens, and so fulfil ^ethe law of Christ.

For ^fif a man think himself to be nothing, when he ^gis nothing, he deceiveth himself.

But ^hlet every man prove his own work, and then shall he have boasting in himself alone, and ⁱnot another.

For ^jevery man shall bear his own burden.

For ^ohe that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

men, especially unto them who are of ^cthe household of faith.

11 Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.

12 As many as desire to make a fair show in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; ^aonly lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.

13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

14 But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by ^bwhom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.

15 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but ^ca new creature.

16 And ^das many as walk according to this rule, peace ^ebe on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

17 From henceforth let no man trouble me: for ^fI bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

18 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ ^gbe with your spirit. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE EPHESIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

He willeth God for spiritual blessings, and for redemption by his grace through Christ.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints which are at Ephesus: ^aand the faithful in Christ Jesus: Grace ^bbe to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

Blessed ^cbe the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly ^dplaces in Christ: According as ^ehe hath chosen us in him ^fbefore the foundation of the world, that we should ^gbe holy and without blame before him in love:

5 Having ^apredestinated us unto ^bthe adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, ^caccording to the good pleasure of his will,

6 To ^dthe praise of the glory of his grace, wherein ^ehe hath made us accepted in the ^fBeloved:

7 In ^gwhom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to ^hthe riches of his grace;

8 Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence;

9 Having ⁱmade known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure ^jwhich he hath purposed in himself:

by the church the manifold wisdom

CHAPTER 4.

1 He exhorteth to unity; 24 to put on the new man.

I THEREFORE, the prisoner ¹ of the Lord,) beseech you that ^a ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,

2 With ^b all lowliness and meekness, with long-suffering, forbear-ing one another in love;

3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit ^c in the bond of peace.

4 There ^d is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling;

5 One ^e Lord, one faith, ^f one baptism,

6 One ^g God and Father of all, who is above all, and ^h through all, and in you all.

7 But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

8 Wherefore he saith, ⁱ When he ascended up on high, ^j he led ²captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.

9 (Now ^kthat he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?

10 He that descended is the same also that ^lascended up far above all heavens, that he might ³fill all things.)

11 And ^mhe gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;

12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, ⁿfor the edifying of ^othe body of Christ:

13 Till we all come ⁴in the unity of the faith, ^pand of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the ⁵stature of the fulness of Christ:

14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every ^qwind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

15 But ⁶speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:

16 From ^rwhom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind,

18 Having ^sthe understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the ⁷blindness of their heart:

19 Who ^tbeing past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

20 But ye have not so learned Christ;

21 If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus:

22 That ye put off, concerning the former conversation, the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;

23 And ^ube renewed in the spirit of your mind;

29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good ¹⁰to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

30 And ^wgrieve not the Holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you with all malice:

32 And be ye kind one to another tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

CHAPTER 5.

² He exhorteth to love; ³ to flee fornication and all uncleanness; ¹⁵ to walk with prudence.

BE ^aye therefore followers of God, as dear children;

2 And ^bwalk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God ^cfor a sweet-smelling savour.

3 But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints;

4 Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, ^dwhich are not convenient; but rather giving of thanks.

5 For this ye know, that no whore-monger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath ^eany inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

6 Let ^fno man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of ¹disobedience.

7 Be not ye therefore partakers with them.

For ^g ye were sometimes darks, but now ^h are ye light in the Lord: walk as children ⁱ of light; (For the fruit of the Spirit is in goodness and righteousness and truth.)

Proving ^j what is acceptable to the Lord.

And ^k have no fellowship with unfruitful works of darkness, rather ^l reprove them.

For it is a shame even to speak those things which are done of man in secret.

But ^m all things that are ⁿ revealed are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.

Wherefore ^o he saith, ^p Awake thou that sleepest, and ^q arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee life.

See then that ye walk circumpectly, not as fools, but as wise, redeeming the time, because days are evil.

Wherefore ^r be ye not unwise, but understanding what ^s the will of the Lord is.

And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit;

Speaking to yourselves ^t in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to your heart to the Lord;

Giving ^u thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ; Submitting ^v yourselves one to another in the fear of God.

Wives, ^w submit yourselves to your own husbands, as unto the Lord.

For the husband is the head of the church, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body.

Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so ^x let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.

Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and himself for it;

That he might sanctify and cleanse ^y it with the washing of water ^z by the word,

That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.

28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself.

29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:

30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.

32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

33 Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

CHAPTER 6.

1 The relative duties of children; 4 of parents; 5 of servants; 9 of masters.

CHILDREN, ^a obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

2 Honour ^b thy father and mother; (which is the first commandment with promise;)

3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

4 And, ^c ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but ^d bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

5 Servants, be obedient to them that are ^e your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ;

6 Not with eye-service, as men-pleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;

7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:

8 Knowing ^f that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.

9 And, ye ^g masters, do the same things unto them, ^h forbearing threatening: knowing that ⁱ your Master also is in heaven; neither ^j is there respect of persons with him.

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

11 Put ^k on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

12 For we wrestle not against ³flesh and blood, but against ¹principalities, against powers, against ²the rulers of the darkness of this world, against ⁴spiritual wickedness in ⁵high places.

13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and ⁶having done all, to stand.

14 Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and ^khaving on the breastplate of righteousness;

15 And ⁴your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

16 Above all, taking ^mthe shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

20 For which I am an ambassador ⁷in bonds; that ⁸therein ^pI may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

21 But that ye also may know our affairs, and how I do, ^qTychicus, beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things:

22 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that ye might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts.

PHILIPPIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Paul's thankfulness and prayer to God for them: 21 his readiness to glorify Christ.

PAUL and Timotheus, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the ¹bishops and deacons:

2 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I ^athank my God upon every ²remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

5 For ^byour fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun ^ca good work in you ³will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because ⁴I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in ^dmy bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ^eye all are ⁵partakers of my grace.

8 For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that ^fyour love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all ⁶judgment;

10 That ^gye may ⁷approve things that ⁸are excellent; ^hthat ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ;

11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, ⁱwhich are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things ^{which happened} unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;

13 So that my bonds ⁹in Christ are manifest ^jin all ¹⁰the palace and ¹¹in all other places;

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and ^kstrife; and some also of good will:

3 The one preach Christ of consolation, not sincerely, supposing add affliction to my bonds :

7 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the spel.

8 What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or truth, Christ is preached; and therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

9 For I know that this shall turn my salvation ⁱthrough your prayer, and the supply of ^mthe spirit of Jesus Christ,

10 According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that ⁿin nothing I shall be ashamed, but that ^tshall boldness, as always, so now so Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or death.

11 For to me to live is Christ, and die is gain.

12 But if I live in the flesh, this the fruit of my labour : yet what shall choose I wot not.

13 For ^oI am in a strait betwixt ^oo, having a desire to ^pdepart, and to be with Christ; which is far better:

Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.

15 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith;

16 That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again.

17 Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ:

that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in the spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel;

18 And in nothing ^qterrified by our adversaries : which is to them evident token of perdition, but of you of salvation, and that of God.

19 For unto you it is given in the half of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake; love, if ^aany fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies, 2 Fulfil ^bye my joy, ^cthat ye be like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

3 Let ^dnothing be done through strife or vain-glory; but ^ein lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

4 Look ^fnot every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5 Let ^gthis mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus :

6 Who, ^hbeing in the form of God, thought ⁱit not robbery to be equal with God;

7 But ^jmade himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form ^kof a servant, and ^lwas made in the ^llikeness of men :

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and ^mbecame obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

9 Wherefore God also ⁿhath highly exalted him, and ^ogiven him a name which is above every name :

10 That ^pat the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

11 And ^qthat every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling:

13 For ^rit is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

14 Do all things without murmurings and disputings:

15 That ye may be blameless and ²harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ³ye shine as lights in the world;

16 Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

17 Yea, and if I be ⁴offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy and rejoice with you all.

18 For the same cause also do ye joy and rejoice with me.

19 ⁵But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort when I know your state.

20 For I have no man ⁶like-minded, who will naturally care for your state.

21 For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.

22 But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.

24 But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.

25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, and companion in labour, and fellow-soldier, but your messenger, and he that ministered to my wants.

26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and ⁷hold such in reputation:

30 Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, ⁸to supply your lack of service toward me.

2 To beware of false teachers. 12 The apostle's anxiety for the heavenly prize.

FINALLY, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2 Beware ^aof dogs, beware of evil workers, ^bbeware of the concision.

3 For we are ^cthe circumcision, which worship ^dGod in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law blameless.

7 But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.

8 Yea doubtless, and I count all things ^{but} loss ^afor the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them ^{but} dung, that I may win Christ,

9 And be found in him, not ^{having} mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but ^{that} which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God ^{by} faith;

10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and ^{the} fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;

12 Not as though I had already ^{attained}, either were already ^{perfect}; but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but ^{this} one thing I ^{do}, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching ^{forth} unto those things which are before, 14 I ^{press} toward the mark to the prize of ^{the} high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

15 Let us therefore, as many as be ^{perfect}, ^{be} thus minded: and if any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.

17 Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye ^{have} us for ensample.

18 (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, ^{that they are} the enemies of the cross of Christ:

19 Whose end is destruction, whose god is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.)

20 For ^{our} conversation is in heaven; from whence also we ^{look} for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ.

21 Who ^{will} shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like to his glorious body, ^x according to the working whereby he is able to subdue all things unto himself.

CHAPTER 4.

General exhortations: 10 his joy for their liberality.

HEREFORE, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord.

And I entreat thee also, true fellow, help those women which laboured with ^b me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with my fellow-labourers, whose names are in the ^c book of life.

Rejoice in the Lord always: and in I say, Rejoice.

Let your moderation be known unto all men. ^d The Lord is at hand.

Be ^e careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And ^f the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; ^g where be ye a virtue, and if there any praise, think on these things. Those things, which ye have learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the end of peace shall be with you.

But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last ^h your labour of me ⁱ hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but lacked opportunity.

27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ ¹⁰ in you, the hope of glory:

28 Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus:

29 Whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

CHAPTER 2.

He exhorteth them to constancy in Christ

FOR I would that ye knew what great ¹ conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;

2 That ² their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all ³ riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgment of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ;

²In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words.

For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ.

As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him;

Rooted and built up in him, and abounding in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

Beware ³lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after ⁴the tradition of men, or the ⁵rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

For ⁶in him dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead bodily.

And ⁷ye are complete in him, which ⁸is the head of all principality and power:

In whom also ye are ⁹circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ:

Buried ¹with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through ²the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead.

And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses;

Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took you out of the way, nailing it to his cross;

And, ³having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

Let no man therefore ⁴judge you of meat, or in drink, or ⁵in respect of ⁶an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days:

Which ⁷are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.

Let no man ⁸beguile you of your reward ⁹in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his carnal mind, 21 (Touch not; taste not; handle not;

22 Which all are to perish with the using;) after the commandments and doctrines of men?

23 Which things have indeed a show of wisdom in will-worship and humility, and ¹⁰neglecting of the body; not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh.

CHAPTER 3.

1 He exhorteth to be heavenly-minded.
18 Sundry relative duties.

IF ye then ¹be risen with Christ, seek those ²things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

2 Set your ³affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

3 For ⁴ye are dead, ⁵and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 When ⁶Christ, who is your life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in ⁷glory.

5 Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry:

6 For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience.

7 In the which ye also walked sometime, when ye lived in them.

8 But ⁹now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.

9 Lie ¹not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds;

10 And have put on the new man, which is ²renewed in knowledge after the image of him that ³created him:

11 Where there is neither ⁴Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: ⁵but Christ is all, and in all.

12 Put on therefore, ⁶as the elect of God, holy and beloved, ⁷bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, long-suffering; 13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a ²quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.

14 And above all these things ²put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness.

15 And let ⁴the peace of God rule in your hearts, ²to the which also ye are called in ⁶one body; and be ye thankful.

16 Let ⁴the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

17 And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

18 Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.

19 Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them.

20 Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well-pleasing unto the Lord.

21 Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

22 Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eye-service, as men-pleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God:

23 And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men;

24 Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ.

25 But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons.

MASTERS, ^agive unto your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

Paul sheweth his remembrance of them in thanksgiving and prayer.

PAUL, and ^aSilvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians which is ^bin God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;

Remembering without ceasing your work of ^cfaith, ^dand labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father;

Knowing, brethren ¹beloved, your election of God.

For ^four gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in ^gthe Holy Ghost, ^hand with much assurance; as ye ⁱknow of manner of men we were among you for your sake.

And ye became followers of us, of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Ghost:

So that ye were ensamples to them that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

For from you ^jsounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith to God-ward spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing.

For they themselves show of us of manner of entering in unto you, and how ye turned from God from idols to serve the living and true God;

And to ^kwait for his Son ^lfrom heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come.

CHAPTER 2.

^a Philippi, we were bold in our God ^bto speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention.

3 For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:

4 But as ^cwe were allowed of God to ^dbe put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, which ^etrieth our hearts.

5 For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloak of covetousness; God is witness:

6 Nor ^fof men sought we glory, neither of you, nor ^{yet} of others, when we might have ¹been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ.

7 But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing ^gto have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our ^hown souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because ⁱwe would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10 Ye ^{are} witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

11 As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father ^{doth} his children, 12 That ^jye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it ^knot as the word of men, but, as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

14 For ye, brethren, became followers of the ^lchurches of God which in Judea are in Christ Jesus: for ^mye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, ⁿeven as they have of the Jews:

15 Who both killed the Lord Jesus^o and their own prophets, and have² persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men:

16 Forbidding^p us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved,^q to fill up their sins alway: ^rfor the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.

18 Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but ^sSatan hindered us.

19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of³ rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming?

20 For ye are our glory and joy.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Why Paul sent Timothy to them: 6 his good report a consolation to him.

WHEREFORE, when we could no longer forbear,^a we thought it good to be left at Athens alone,

2 And sent^b Timotheus, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellow-labourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:

3 That ^cno man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that ^dwe are appointed thereunto.

4 For ^everily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

5 For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, ^flest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and ^gour labour be in vain.

6 But ^hnow when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, ⁱas we also to see you:

7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith:

8 For now we live, if ye ^jstand fast in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God;

12 And the Lord make you^m to increase and abound in love of one toward another, and towardⁿ men, even as we do toward you:

13 To the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ^l with all his saints.

CHAPTER 4.

1 He exhorteth to go on in godliness. The saints' resurrection, and Christ's second coming.

FURTHERMORE then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and^a to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is^b the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication:

4 That^c every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour;

5 Not in the lust of concupiscence even as the Gentiles^d which know not God:

6 That^e no man go beyond and defraud his brother^f in any matter, because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.

7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanness,^g but unto holiness.

8 He^h therefore thatⁱ despiseth despiseth not man, but God,^k which hath also given unto us his Holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love ye need not that I write unto you, for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another.

10 And indeed ye do it toward the brethren which are in Macedonia; but we beseech you brethren, that ye increase more and more;

11 And that ye study to be quiet and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;

12 That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack^o of nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even ^kas others which have no hope.

14 For ^lif we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

15 For this we say unto you ^mby the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

16 For ⁿthe Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them ^oin the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so ^pshall we ever be with the Lord.

18 Wherefore ^qcomfort one another with these words.

CHAPTER 5.

^rHe sheweth that Christ's second coming will be sudden, and exhorteth to watch: 14 divers precepts.

BUT of ^athe times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 For yourselves know perfectly, ^bthat the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety, then ^csudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

4 But ^dye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

5 Ye are all ^ethe children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

6 Therefore let us not sleep, as ^fdo others; but let us watch and be sober.

7 For ^gthey that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken ^hare drunken in the night.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Paul's good opinion of their faith, love, and patience: 6 of God's punishing their enemies, and recompensing their sufferings.

PAUL, ^aand Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the ^bThessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

2 Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith ^cgroweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth;

4 So that ^dwe ourselves glory in you in the churches of God ^efor your patience and faith ^fin all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure:

5 Which is ^ga manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted ^hworthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer:

CHAPTER 2.

1 He warneth against the surmise that the day of Christ was at hand; 3 that it would be preceded by a great apostasy.

NOW we beseech you, brethren by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, ^aand by our gathering together unto him,

2 That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter, as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.

3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come except ^bthere come a falling away first, and ^cthat man of sin be revealed, the ^dson of perdition;

4 Who opposeth and ^eexalteth himself above ^fall that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what ¹withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For ²the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way:

8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom ^hthe Lord shall consume ⁱwith the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy ^jwith the brightness of his coming:

9 Even him, whose coming is ^kafter the working of Satan with all power ^land signs and lying wonders,

10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in ^mthem that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And ⁿfor this cause God shall send them strong delusion, ^othat they should believe a lie:

12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you brethren beloved of the Lord because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth:

4 Whereunto he called you by his gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

5 Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold ^p the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or by our epistle.

Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work.

CHAPTER 3.

Paul craveth their prayers: 3 he testifieth confidence in them: 6 divers precepts.

FINALLY, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord ¹ may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you:

And that we may be delivered from ² unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith.

But the Lord is faithful, who will stablish you, and ^a keep you from evil.

And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.

And ^b the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God, and ³ into the patient waiting for Christ.

Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ^c ye withdraw yourselves ^d from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after 7 For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you;

8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but ^e wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you:

9 Not / because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ^g example unto you to follow us.

10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, ^h that if any would not work, neither should he eat.

11 For we hear that there are some which walk among you ⁱ disorderly, working not at all, but are busy-bodies.

12 Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, ^j that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

13 But ye, brethren, ^k be not weary in well-doing.

14 And if any man obey not our word ^l by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.

15 Yet ^m count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY.

CHAPTER 1.

Paul remindeth Timothy of his charge. The scope of the law is also the design of the gospel.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ ^a by the commandment ^b of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which ^c is our hope,

Unto ^d Timothy, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, ^e when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that ^f they teach no other doctrine,

4 Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do.

5 Now ^athe end of the commandment is charity ^bout of a pure heart, and ^cof a good conscience, and ^dof faith unfeigned:

6 From which some ¹having swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling;

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that ¹the law is good, if a man use it lawfully;

9 Knowing ¹this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but ^kfor the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for man-slayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for men-stealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine;

11 According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, ¹for that he counted me faithful, ^mputting me into the ministry;

13 Who ⁿwas before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because ^oI did it ignorantly in unbelief.

14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith ^pand love which is in Christ Jesus.

15 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that ^qChrist Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might show forth all long-suffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

17 Now unto ^rthe King eternal, ^simmortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, ^taccording to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare;

CHAPTER 2.

¹ He exhorteth to pray and give thanks for all men. ² How women ought to be attired.

I ¹EXHORT therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men;

2 For ^akings, and ^bfor all that are in ²authority; that we may lead quiet and peaceable life in ³godliness and honesty.

3 For this is ^cgood and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour;

4 Who ^dwill have all men to be saved, and ^eto come unto the knowledge of the truth.

5 For ^fthere is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus;

6 Who gave himself a ransom for all, ^gto be testified in due time.

7 Whereunto I am ordained preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not;) teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that men pray ^hevery where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

9 In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with ⁱbroidered hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

10 But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

11 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

12 But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

13 For Adam was first formed, then Eve.

14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.

15 Notwithstanding she shall be saved in ^ja child-bearing, if she continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

CHAPTER 3.

How bishops, 8 deacons, 11 and their wives, should be qualified. 16 Important truths of Christian revelation.

THIS is a true saying. If a man desire the office of a ^a bishop, desireth a good work.

A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, ¹ of good behaviour, even to hospitality, apt to teach; ² Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but content, not a brawler, not covetous;

One ^b that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity;

(For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)

Not ³ a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

Likewise must the deacons be blameless, not double tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;

Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

Even so must their wives be blameless, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.

For they that have ⁴ used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great godliness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ⁵ ground of the faith.

And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: ⁶ God manifest in the flesh, ^d justified in the Spirit, ^e seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles,

CHAPTER 4.

Various precepts for Timothy's direction.

NOW the Spirit ^a speaketh expressly, that ^b in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed ^c to seducing spirits, ^d and doctrines of devils;

² Speaking lies in hypocrisy; ^e having their conscience seared with a hot iron;

³ Forbidding ^f to marry, ^g and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created ^h to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

⁴ For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving;

⁵ For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

⁶ If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up ⁱ in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

⁷ But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness.

⁸ For bodily exercise profiteth ¹ little; but godliness is profitable unto all things, having ^k promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

⁹ This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation.

¹⁰ For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, ^l who is the Saviour of all men, especially of those that believe.

¹¹ These things command and teach.

¹² Let ^m no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

¹³ Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

¹⁴ Neglect ⁿ not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee ^o by prophecy, ^p with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.

¹⁵ Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear ² to all.

¹⁶ Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both ²save thyself, and them that hear thee.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Rules to be observed in admonishing.
22 Not to ordain any rashly.

REBUKE ^anot an elder, but entreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren;

2 The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

3 Honour widows that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to show ¹piety at home, and ^bto requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But she that liveth ²in pleasure is dead while she liveth.

7 And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.

8 But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own ³house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be ⁴taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man,

10 Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged ^cstrangers, if she ^dhave washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

11 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry;

12 Having ^edamnation, because they have cast off their first faith.

13 And ^fwithal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.

14 I ^gwill therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, ^hgive none occasion to the adversary ⁱto speak reproachfully.

15 For some are already turned aside after Satan.

16 If ^jany man or woman that believeth have widows, let them

20 Them ^mthat sin rebuke before all, that others ⁿalso may fear.

21 I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things ⁷without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.

23 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake, and thine often infirmities.

24 Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after.

25 Likewise also ^qthe good works of some are manifest beforehand, and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

CHAPTER 6.

1 The duty of servants. 3 Of corrupt teachers.

2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them ^cbecause they are brethren; but rather do them service, because they are ¹faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.

3 If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness;

4 He is ²proud, ^dknowing nothing, but ³doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmises,

6 ² The husbandman that labour-eth must be first partaker of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ ^uthe seed of David ^vwas raised from the dead according ^wto my gospel.

9 Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil-doer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, ^ythat they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

11 ^hIt is a faithful saying: For ⁱwe be dead with ^jhim, we shall also live with ^khim:

12 If ^jwe suffer, we shall also reign with ^khim: ^kif we deny ^lhim, he also will deny ^mus:

13 If ^lwe believe not, ^{yet} ⁿhe abideth faithful: ^mhe cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put ^othem in remembrance, ^pcharging ^qthem before the Lord that ^othey strive not about words to no profit, ^{but} to the subverting of the hearers.

15 Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

16 But ^rshun profane and vain babblings; for they will increase unto more ungodliness.

17 And their word will eat as doth a ³canker: of whom is ^qHymeneus and Philetus;

18 Who concerning the truth have erred, saying ^rthat the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless ^sthe foundation of God standeth ^tsure, having this seal, ^tThe Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work.

22 Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

23 But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.

24 And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, ⁵ patient,

25 In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;

26 And that they may ⁶ recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are ⁷ taken captive by him at his will.

CHAPTER 3.

He foretelleth the wickedness in the last days.

THIS know also, that ^a in the last days perilous times shall come.

2 For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, ^b disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

3 Without natural affection, truce-breakers, ¹ false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,

4 Traitors, heady, high-minded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;

5 Having a form of godliness, but denying the ^c power thereof: from such turn away.

6 For ^d of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts,

7 Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 Now ^f as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, ² reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as ^g theirs also was.

10 But ³ thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, long-suffering, charity, patience, 11 Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me ^h at Antioch, ⁱ at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: ^j but out of them all the Lord delivered me.

15 And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, ^l which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

17 That ⁿ the man of God may be perfect, ^t thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

CHAPTER 4.

Paul's solemn charge to Timothy.

I CHARGE thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom;

2 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, ^a rebuke, exhort, with ^b all long-suffering and doctrine.

3 For the time will come when they will not endure ^c sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

4 And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and ^d shall be turned unto fables.

5 But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of ^e an evangelist, ¹ make full proof of thy ministry.

6 For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.

7 I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:

8 Henceforth there is laid up for me ^f a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

9 Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me:

CHAPTER 1.

5 Why Titus was left in Crete. 6 How ministers should be qualified, etc.

PAUL, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, ^aand the acknowledging of the truth ^bwhich is after godliness;

2 ¹In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised ^cbefore the world began;

4 To ^eTitus, mine own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest ^fset in order the things that are ²wanting, and ^gordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee:

self-willed, not soon angry, ⁱnot given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre;

8 But a lover of hospitality, a lover of ³good men, sober, just, holy, temperate;

9 Holding fast the faithful word ⁴as he hath been taught, that he may be able ^jby sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.

10 For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, ^kespecially they of the circumcision:

11 Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert ^lwhole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

12 One ^mof themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

14 Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments ⁿof men, that turn from the truth.

15 Unto ^othe pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing ure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

6 They ^p profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work ^s reprobate.

CHAPTER 2.

Directions given to Titus. 11 What the gospel teacheth.

BUT speak thou the things which become ^a sound doctrine: That the aged men be ¹ sober, ² have, temperate, sound in faith, ³ charity, in patience. The ^b aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness, not ³ false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

That they may teach the young women to be ⁴ sober, to love their husbands, to love their children, ⁵ To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, ^c obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

Young men likewise exhort to be ⁵ sober-minded.

In ^d all things showing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine ^e showing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity, Sound ^f speech, that cannot be condemned; ^g that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not answering again;

Not purloining, but showing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

1 For the grace of God ⁷ that bringeth salvation ^h hath appeared unto all men,

2 Teaching us that, ⁱ denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;

3 Looking for that blessed ^j hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ:

4 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself ^k a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

5 These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Titus is yet further directed by Paul, both concerning the things he should teach, and not teach.

PUT them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, ^a to be ready to every good work,

2 To ^b speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, showing all meekness unto all men.

3 For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

4 But after that the kindness and ¹ love of God our Saviour toward man appeared,

5 Not ^c by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by ^d the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;

6 Which ^e he shed on us ² abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour;

7 That, being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

8 This is ^a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.

9 But ^f avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.

10 A man that is an heretic ^g after the first and second admonition ^h reject;

11 Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, ⁱ being condemned of himself.

12 When I shall send Artemas unto thee, or ^j Tychicus, be diligent to come unto me to Nicopolis: for I have determined there to winter.

13 Bring Zenas the lawyer and ^k Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.

14 And let ours also learn to ³ maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be ^l not unfruitful.

15 All that are with me salute thee. Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

It was written to Titus, ordained the first bishop of the church of the Cretians, from Nicopolis of Macedonia.

 4 Being made so much better than the angels, as ¹he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.
 5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, ²Thou art my son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, ³I will be to him Father, and he shall be to me a son?
 6 ⁴And again, when he bringeth in the first-begotten into the world, he saith, And ⁵let all the angels of God worship him.
 7 And ⁶of the angels he saith, Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.
 8 But unto the Son he saith, ⁷O Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: sceptre of ⁸righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom.
 9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, ⁹even thy God, ¹⁰hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

 9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels ⁴for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.
 10 For ⁵it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the Captain of their salvation ⁶perfect through sufferings.
 11 For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause ⁷he is not ashamed to call them brethren, 12 Saying, ⁸I will declare thy name unto my brethren; in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.
 13 And again, ⁹I will put my trust in him. And again, ¹⁰Behold I and the children which God hath given me.
 14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;
 15 And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.
 16 For verily ¹¹he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham.
 17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful High Priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

18 For in that he himself hath suffered, being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAPTER 3.

Christ is showed to be more worthy than Moses.

WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the ^aApostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus;

2 Who was faithful to him that ¹appointed him, as also ^bMoses was faithful in all his house.

3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as ^che who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house.

4 For every house is builded by some man; but ^dhe that built all things is God.

5 And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, ^efor a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after;

6 But Christ as a Son over his own house; whose ^fhouse are we, ^gif we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end.

7 Wherefore (as ^hthe Holy Ghost saith, To-day ⁱif ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness;

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway err in their heart; and they have not known my ways.

11 So I sware in my wrath, ²They shall not enter into my rest.)

12 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.

13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called To-day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end;

15 While it is said, To-day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

16 For ^jsome, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcases fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?

19 So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

CHAPTER 4.

The Christians' rest to be obtained by faith.

LET us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but ¹the word preached did not profit them, ²not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

3 For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, "As I have sworn in my wrath, If they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, ^bAnd God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, ^cand they to whom ³it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief.

7 (Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To-day, after so long a time; as it is said, ^dTo-day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if ⁴Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore a ⁵rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.)

11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of ⁶unbelief.

12 For the word of God is ^equick, and powerful, and sharper than ^fany two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a ^gdiscerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. ¹³ Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

¹⁴ Seeing then that we have a great High Priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.

¹⁵ For ^hwe have not a high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but ⁱwas in all points tempted like as we are, ^jyet without sin.

¹⁶ Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

CHAPTER 5.

Of the priesthood of Christ.

FOR every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

Who ¹can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity.

² And ^bby reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

³ And ^cno man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as ^dwas Aaron.

⁴ So ^ealso Christ glorified not himself to be made an High Priest; but he that said unto him, ^fThou art my Son, to-day have I begotten thee.

⁵ As he saith also in another place, Thou art a Priest for ever, after the order of Melchisedec.

⁶ Who in the days of his flesh, when he had ^hoffered up prayers and supplications, with ⁱstrong crying and tears, unto ^jhim that was able to save him from death, and was heard ²in that he feared: ⁸ Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience ^kby the things which he suffered;

⁹ And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;

¹³ For every one that useth milk ³is unskilful in the word of righteousness; for he is a babe.

¹⁴ But strong meat belongeth to them that are ⁴of full age, even those who by reason ⁵of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

CHAPTER 6.

Exhortation to be stedfast in the faith.

THEREFORE leaving ¹the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God, ² Of ^athe doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, ^cand of resurrection of the dead, ^dand of eternal judgment.

³ And this will we do, ^eif God permit.

⁴ For fit is impossible for those ^gwho were once enlightened, and have tasted of ^hthe heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost,

⁵ And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,

⁶ If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; ⁱseeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

⁷ For the earth, which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them ²by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God:

⁸ But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.

⁹ But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

¹⁰ For ^jGod is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have showed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that every one of you do show the same diligence ^kto the full assurance of hope unto the end:

12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit ^lthe promises.

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he ^mswore by himself, 14 Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men verily swear by the greater; and ⁿan oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

17 Wherein God, willing more abundantly to show unto ^othe heirs of promise ^pthe immutability of his counsel, ^qconfirmed it by an oath:

18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope ^rset before us:

19 Which ^shope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, ^tand which entereth into that within the veil;

20 Whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made an High Priest for ever, after the order of Melchisedec.

patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 And verily ^ethey that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham.

6 But he whose ²descent is not counted from them received tithes of Abraham, and blessed ^dhim that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them of ^ewhom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And, as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father when Melchisedec met him.

11 If ^ftherefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is evident that ^gour Lord sprang out of Judah; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident ^hfor that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another Priest.

16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.

17 For he testifieth, ⁱThou art a Priest for ever, after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before, for ^jthe weakness and unprofitableness thereof.

19 For ^jthe law made nothing perfect; ^kbut the bringing in of ^ka better hope did: by the which ^lwe draw nigh unto God.

20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made Priest;

21 (For those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, The Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a Priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec:)

22 By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament.

23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death:

24 But this man, because he ⁿcontinueth ever, hath ^san unchangeable priesthood.

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them to ⁶the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth ^oto make intercession for them.

26 For such an High Priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens;

27 Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, ²first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself.

28 For the law maketh ^tmen high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is ⁷consecrated for evermore.

CHAPTER 8.

The excellency of Christ's ministry.

NOW of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such an High Priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens;

2 A minister ¹of the sanctuary, and of the ^btrue tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it ^cis of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

4 For if he were on earth he should not be a priest, seeing that ²there are priests that offer gifts according to the law:

5 Who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: ^efor, See, saith he, that

6 But now ^fhath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the Mediator of a better ³covenant, which was established upon better promises.

7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For, finding fault with them, he saith, ^gBehold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will ⁴put my laws into their mind, and write them ⁵in their hearts; and ^hI will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:

11 And ⁱthey shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

13 In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away.

CHAPTER 9.

1 By the imperfection of the legal sacrifices, 11 he sheweth the efficacy of Christ's blood.

THEN verily the first covenant had also ¹ordinances of divine service, and ^aa worldly sanctuary.

2 For ^bthere was a tabernacle made; the first, wherein was the candlestick, and the ^ctable, and the shewbread; which is called ²the Sanctuary.

3 And ^dafter the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all;

4 Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was ^ethe golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and ^gthe tables of the covenant;

5 And ^hover it the cherubim of glory shadowing the mercyseat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, ⁱthe priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God:

7 But into the second ^jwent the high priest alone ^konce every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people:

8 The ^lHoly Ghost thus signifying, that the ^lway into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

9 Which ^mwas a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, ⁿthat could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience;

10 Which stood only in ^omeats and drinks, and ^pdivers washings, ^qand carnal ^rordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come an High Priest of ^sgood things to come, ^tby a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building:

12 Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but ^uby his own blood he entered in ^vonce into the holy place, having ^wobtained eternal redemption for us.

13 For if ^xthe blood of bulls and of goats, and ^ythe ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh;

14 How much more ^zshall the blood of Christ, ^awho through the eternal Spirit offered ^bhimself without ^cspot to God, purge ^dyour conscience from dead ^eworks to ^fserve the living God!

15 And ^gfor this cause he is the Mediator of the new testament, ^hthat by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they ⁱwhich are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity ^jbe the death of the testator.

CHAP. 10.

^t Col. 2.17.

17 For ^aa testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

18 Whereupon ^bneither the first testament was ^cdedicated without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with ^dwater, and ^escarlet wool, and ^fhyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people, 20 Saying, ^gThis is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.

21 Moreover ^hhe sprinkled likewise with blood both the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and ⁱwithout shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was therefore necessary that ^jthe patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For ^kChrist is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now ^lto appear in the presence of God for us:

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once ^min the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment;

28 So ⁿChrist was once ^ooffered to bear the sins of many: and unto them that look for him shall he ^pappear the second time without sin unto salvation.

CHAPTER 10.

1 The law-sacrifices ineffectual to take away sins. 10 By the offering of Christ's body once for all we obtain perfect remission.

FOR the law having ^aa shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.

2 For then ¹would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

3 But ^bin those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.

4 For ^cit is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

5 Wherefore, when he cometh into the world, he saith, ^dSacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body ²hast thou prepared me:

6 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law;

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By ^ethe which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering tentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:

12 But ^fthis man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God;

13 From henceforth expecting ^htill his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

15 Whereof ⁱthe Holy Ghost also is witness to us: for after that he had said before,

16 This ^jis the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 ^kAnd their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where remission of these things there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, ¹⁰ Or, that ye have in yourselves, or, for yourselves.

20 By ^aa new and living way, which he hath ^bconsecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;

21 And ^chaving an High Priest over the house of God;

22 Let us draw near with a true heart, ^din full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our ^ebodies washed with pure water.

23 Let us hold fast the profession of ^four faith without wavering; for ^ghe is faithful that promised;

24 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works:

25 Not ^hforsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting ⁱone another: and ^jso much the more as ye see ^kthe day approaching.

26 For ^lif we sin wilfully ^mafter that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, 27 But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and ⁿfiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

28 He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses:

29 Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and ^ohath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, ^pand hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?

30 For we know him that hath said, Vengeance ^qbelongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, ^rThe Lord shall judge his people.

31 ^sIt ^tis a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 But ^ucall to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured ^va great fight of afflictions;

33 Partly, whilst ye were made a gazingstock both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, whilst ^wye became companions of them that were so used.

34 For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and ^xtook joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing ^yin yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward.

36 For ^eye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ^fye might receive the promise.

37 For ^gyet a little while, and ^hhe that shall come will come, and will not tarry.

38 Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition, but of them that believe to the saving of the soul.

CHAPTER 11.

1 The nature of faith. 6 Without faith we cannot please God: 7 the fruits of faith.

NOW faith is the ¹substance of things hoped for, the evidence ^aof things not seen.

2 For by it the elders obtained a good report.

3 Through faith we understand that the worlds ^bwere framed by the word of God; so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

4 By faith ^cAbel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he, being dead, ²yet speaketh.

5 By faith ^dEnoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

6 But ^ewithout faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

7 By faith ^fNoah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, ³moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of ^gthe righteousness which is by faith.

8 By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in ^htabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

10 For he looked for a city which hath foundations, ^awhose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith also ^jSara herself received strength to conceive seed, and ^kwas delivered of child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised.

12 Therefore sprang there even one, and ^lhim as good as dead, many as the stars of the sky, multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea-shore innumerable.

13 These all died ⁴in faith, not having received the promises, ^mbut having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and ⁿconfessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things ^odeclare plainly that they seek country.

15 And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned:

16 But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed ^pto be called their God; for ^qhe hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith ^rAbraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promise ^soffered up his only-begotten son.

18 ⁵Of whom it was said, ^tThat Isaac shall thy seed be called:

19 Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.

20 By faith ^uIsaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.

21 By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, blessed ^vboth the sons of Joseph; and worshipped, ^wleaning upon the top of his staff.

22 By faith ^xJoseph, when he died, ⁶made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

23 By faith ^yMoses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's ^zcommandment.

24 By faith Moses, when he was me to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter;

 6 Choosing ^arather to suffer reproach with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;
 7 Esteeming the reproach ⁷of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward.
 8 By faith ^bhe forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is visible.
 9 Through faith ^che kept the Passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the first-born should touch them.
 10 By faith they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do were drowned.
 11 By faith ^dthe walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.
 12 By faith ^ethe harlot Rahab perished not with them ⁸that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace.
 13 And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of Gideon, and of ⁹Barak, and ^hof Samson, and of ⁱJephthae; of ^jDavid also, and ^kSamuel, and of the prophets:
 14 Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped ^lthe mouths of lions,
 15 Quenched ^mthe violence of fire, escaped the ⁿedge of the sword, ^oout of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned ^pto flight the armies of the aliens.
 16 Women ^qreceived their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:
 17 And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover ^rof bonds and imprisonment:
 18 They ^twere stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: ^uthey wandered about in sheep-skins and goat-skins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

CHAPTER 12.

Exhortation to faith and godliness.

WHEREFORE, seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,

2 Looking ^aunto Jesus the ¹author and finisher of our faith; ^bwho for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, ^cand is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 For ^dconsider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ^eye be wearied and faint in your minds.

4 Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, My ^fson, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:

6 For ^gwhom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof ^hall are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

10 For they verily for a few days chastened us ²after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, ⁱthat we might be partakers of his holiness.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth ^jthe peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

12 Wherefore ¹lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

13 And make ³straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; ¹but let it rather be healed.

14 Follow peace with all men, and holiness, ^mwithout which no man shall see the Lord:

15 Looking diligently lest any man ⁴fail of the grace of God; ⁿlest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

16 Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, ^owho for one morsel of meat sold his birth-right.

17 For ye know how that afterward, when he ^pwould have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no ⁵place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

18 For ye are not come unto ^qthe mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard entreated ^rthat the word should not be spoken to them any more:

20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart:

21 And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake:)

22 But ye are come ^sunto mount Sion, and ^tunto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, ^uand to an innumerable company of angels,

23 To the general assembly and church of the first-born, which are ^vwritten in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men ^wmade perfect, 24 And to Jesus the Mediator of the new ^xcovenant, and to ^ythe blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than ^zthat of Abel.

25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh: for if they escaped not who refused him ^ythat spake on earth, much more shall not we escape if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven:

JAMES.

CHAPTER 1.

The apostle's address: 2 he exhorteth to patience in affliction, 5 to pray in faith.

JAMES, ^aa servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, ^bto the twelve tribes which ^care scattered abroad, greeting.

My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations;

Knowing this, that the trying of our faith worketh patience.

But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

If ^dany of you lack wisdom, ^elet m ask of God, that giveth to all en liberally, and upbraideth not;
and it shall be given him.

But ^glet him ask in faith, nothg wavering. For he that waver-h is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

For let not that man think that e shall receive any thing of the ord.

A double-minded man is unable in all his ways.

Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted;

10 But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it wither-eth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

12 Blessed ^his the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive ⁱthe crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with ²evil, neither tempteth he any man;

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

15 Then, when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin; and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Do not err, my beloved brethren.

17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, ^jwith whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

18 Of ^khis own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first-fruits ^lof his creatures.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath:

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the ingrafted word, ^mwhich is able to save your souls.

22 But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

23 For ⁿif any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass:

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But ^owhoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, ^pthis man shall be blessed in his ^qdeed.

26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

27 Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, ^rTo visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, ^sand to keep himself unspotted from the world.

1 We must not regard the rich, and despise the poor. 10 The guilt of any one breach of the law. 14 Faith without works is dead.

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, ^athe Lord of glory, with ^brespect of persons.

2 For if there come unto your ¹assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here ²in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren,

6 But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme thy worthy name by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, ^eThou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

9 But if ye have respect to persons ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he ^fis guilty of all.

11 For ^hhe that said, ^gDo not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit not adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as the law that shall be judged by the law of liberty.

13 For he shall have judgment without mercy that hath showed no mercy; and mercy ^hrejoiceth against judgment.

14 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

15 If a brother or sister be naked and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being ⁱalone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: show me thy faith ^jwithout thy works, and I will show thee my faith by my works.

19 Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: ^kthe devil also believeth, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith ^jwithout works is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, ^jwhen he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

22 ⁸Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, ^k Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called ^l the Friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that by works man is justified, and not by faith only.

25 Likewise also, ^m was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

CHAPTER 3.

We must not rashly or arrogantly reprove others. 2 The importance of governing the tongue. 13 How true wisdom will manifest itself, in opposition to strife and envy.

MY brethren, ^a be not many masters, knowing ^b that we shall receive the greater ¹ condemnation. ² For ^c in many things we offend ¹¹. ^d If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which although they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold how great ² a matter a little fire kindleth!

6 And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that ¹ it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For every ⁴ kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been named of ⁵ mankind:

8 But the tongue can no man tame; ¹ it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.

9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are ⁹ made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same ⁶ place sweet water and bitter?

13 Who ^h is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him show out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom.

14 But if ye have ⁱ bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.

15 This ^j wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, ⁷ sensual, devilish.

16 For ^k where envying and strife is, there is ⁸ confusion and every evil work.

17 But ^l the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, ⁹ without partiality, ^m and without hypocrisy.

18 And ⁿ the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Our evil lusts cause contention: 7 how we may overcome them, and gain God's favour.

FROM whence come wars and ¹ fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your ² lusts that war in your members?

2 Ye lust, and have not: ye ³ kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ^a ask not.

3 Ye ^b ask, and receive not, ^c because ye ask amiss, that ye cannot consume ¹ it upon your ⁴ lusts.

4 Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that ^d the friendship of the world is enmity with God? ^e whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

5 Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, ^f The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth ⁵ to envy?

6 But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, ^g God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist ^h the devil, and he will flee from you.

8 Draw ⁱ nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double-minded.

9 Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

10 Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

11 Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

12 There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?

13 Go to now, ye that say, To-day or to-morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain:

14 Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? ⁶It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

15 For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.

16 But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil.

17 Therefore ^kto him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Wicked rich men warned of God's judgments. 7 Of patience. 13 We ought to pray in adversity.

GO to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

2 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten.

3 Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye ^ahave heaped treasure together for the last days.

4 Behold, ^bthe hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth; and ^cthe cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth.

5 Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

6 Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you.

8 Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for ^ethe coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

9 ²Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the Judge ^fstandeth before the door.

10 Take, ^gmy brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.

11 Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of ^hthe patience of Job, and have seen ⁱthe end of the Lord; that ^jthe Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

12 But above all things, my brethren, swear ^knot, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms.

14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the ^lelders of the church; and let them pray over him, ^manointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; ⁿand if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.

16 Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The ^oeffectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

17 Elias was a man subject to like passions as we are, and ^phe prayed earnestly that it might not rain; and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months.

18 And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him;

20 Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall ^qsave a soul from death, and ^rshall hide a multitude of sins.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER.

CHAPTER 1.

The apostle's address: 3 he blesseth God for their hope of a blessed immortality: 5 he sheweth that their salvation in Christ had been foretold by the prophets of old: 13 and exhorteth them to a godly conversation suitable to their calling and redemption by Christ: 22 and to mutual love.

PETER, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers ^a scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, Elect ^b according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, ^c through notification of the Spirit, unto obedience and ^d sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his ¹ abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope, by ² the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven ² for you.

Who ³ are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time:

Wherein ⁴ ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations;

That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though ⁵ it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ:

Whom ⁶ having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with ⁷ unspeakable and full of glory:

Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

Of ⁸ which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you:

Searching what, or what manner of time, ⁹ the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand ¹⁰ the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.

evil-doers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold glorify God ^Pin the day of visitation

13 Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, a supreme;

14 Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evil-doers, and for the praise of them that do well.

15 For so is the will of God, that with well-doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:

16 As free, and not ^eusing your liberty for a cloak of maliciousness, but as the servants of God.

17 ⁷Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king.

18 Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

19 For this is ⁸thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully.

20 For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is ⁹acceptable with God.

21 For even hereunto were ye called; because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps:

22 Who ⁹did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth;

23 Who, ⁷when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but ¹¹committed himself to him that judgeth righteously:

24 Who his own self bare our sins in his own body ¹²on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: ^eby whose stripes ye were healed.

25 For ^tye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned ^uunto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

CHAPTER 3.

1 He teacheth the duty of wives and husbands, 8 exhorting all men to unity and love, 14 and to suffer boldly for righteousness sake: 19 he declareth also the benefits of Christ toward the old world.

LIKEWISE, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives;

2 While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear.

3 Whose ^cadorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

4 But let it be ^dthe hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

5 For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands:

6 Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him ^elord: whose ^ldaughters ye are as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

7 Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; ^fthat your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous:

9 Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are hereunto called, ^gthat ye should inherit a blessing.

10 For ^hhe that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile:

11 Let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and pursue it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, ⁱand his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is ^jagainst them that do evil.

13 And ^kwho is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good?

14 But ^land if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled; that is in you with meekness and ⁴fear;

16 Having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evil-doers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye ⁿsuffer for well-doing, than for evil-doing.

18 For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death ^oin the flesh, but ^pquickened by the Spirit:

19 By ^qwhich also he went and preached unto the spirits ^rin prison;

20 Which sometime were disobedient, when once the long-suffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark ^swas a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water.

21 The ^tlike figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ:

22 Who is gone into heaven, and ^uis on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

CHAPTER 4.

1 He exhorteth them to cease from sin by the example of Christ. 7 By the approaching end of all things he exhorteth them to sobriety, charity, etc. 12 Sundry motives of comfort under persecution.

FORASMUCH then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he ^athat hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin:

2 That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God.

3 For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries:

4 Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you:

5 Who shall give account to him that is ready ^bto judge the quick and the dead.

6 For, for this cause ^c was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 But ^d the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer.

8 And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for ^e charity ¹ shall cover the multitude of sins.

9 Use hospitality one to another without ^f grudging.

10 As ^g every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.

11 If ^h any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that ⁱ God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ; ^j to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you:

13 But rejoice, inasmuch as ^k ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

14 If ^l ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for ^m the Spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evil-doer, or as a busybody in other men's matters.

16 Yet if ⁿ any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but ^o let him glorify God on this behalf.

17 For the time is come ^p that judgment must begin at the house of God: and ^q if it first begin at us, ^r what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?

18 And ^s if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?

19 Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God ^t commit the keeping of their souls to him in well-doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

CHAPTER 5.

1 The elders exhorted to feed the flock of Christ; 5 the younger to obey the elder; 8 and all to be sober, watchful, and stedfast in the faith; 9 to resist the cruel adversary the devil, etc.

The elders which are among you I exhort, who am also ^a an elder, and ^b a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also ^c a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed:

2 Feed ^d the flock of God ¹ which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind;

3 Neither as ² being lords over ^e God's heritage, but being examples to the flock.

4 And when ^f the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.

5 Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, ^g all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth ^h grace to the humble.

6 Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time:

7 Casting ⁱ all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

8 Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:

9 Whom resist steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

10 But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you.

11 To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 By ^j Silvanus, a faithful brother unto you, as I suppose, I have ^k written briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God wherein ye stand.

13 The church that is at ^l Babylon, elected together with you, saluteth you; and so doth ^m Marcus my son.

14 Greet ye one another with a kiss of charity. Peace be with you all that are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

CHAPTER 1.

saluting the Christians, he admonisheth them of the gifts and promises of the Gospel: 5 he exhorteth them to add to their faith such virtues as would make it fruitful: 12 he remembereth them thereof, knowing his dissolution to be near.

IMON PETER, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained ^a like precious faith with us through the righteousness ¹ of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ:

Grace and peace be multiplied to you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord.

According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us ² to glory and virtue:

Whereby ^d are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

And besides this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge;

And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness;

And to godliness brotherly kindness; and ^g to brotherly kindness charity.

For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be ³ barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

But he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.

Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall:

For ^k so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye

13 Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance;

14 Knowing ¹ that shortly I must put off ^{this} my tabernacle, even as ^m our Lord Jesus Christ hath showed me.

15 Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.

16 For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eye-witnesses of his majesty.

17 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This ² is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in ³ the holy mount.

19 We have also ^a more sure ² word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and ² the day-star arise in your hearts:

20 Knowing this first, that ² no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.

21 For ² the prophecy came not ⁴ in old time by the will of man; ¹ but holy men of God spake as ^{they} were moved by the Holy Ghost.

CHAPTER 2.

1 He foretelleth them of the appearance of false teachers, the impiety of them and their followers, and the judgments that would overtake them. 7 The godly shall be delivered, as Lot was out of Sodom. 10 The manners of those profane and blasphemous seducers described.

BUT ^a there were false prophets also among the people, even as ^b there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord ^c that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2 And many shall follow their ¹ pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

3 And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

4 For if God spared not ^athe angels ^ethat sinned, but ^fcast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment;

5 And spared not the old world, but saved Noah, ^gthe eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly;

6 And ^hturning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly;

7 And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked;

8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;)

9 The ⁱLord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished:

10 But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise ^jgovernment. Presumptuous are they, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities:

11 Whereas ^kangels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation ^lagainst them before the Lord.

12 But these, ^mas natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption;

13 And ⁿshall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure ^oto riot in the day-time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while they ^pfeast with you;

17 These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

18 For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that ^pwere ^qclean escaped from them who live in error.

19 While they promise thee ^rliberty, they themselves are ^sthe servants of corruption: for whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For ^tif, after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

21 For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

22 But it is happened unto thee according to the true proverb, "The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire."

CHAPTER 3.

1 The certainty of Christ's coming judgment. 7, 10 How the world shall be destroyed. 11 An exhortation to godliness.

THIS second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in which ^a"I stir up your pure mind by way of remembrance;

2 That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, ^band of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

3 Knowing ^cthis first, that the shall come in the last days scoffing, ^dwalking after their own lusts,

4 And saying, ^e"Where is the romise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth ¹standing out of the water and in the water:

6 Whereby ²the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished:

7 But the heavens and the earth which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness: but is ³long-suffering to us-ward, not ⁴willing that any should perish, but ⁵that all should come to repentance.

10 But "the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which ⁶the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements all melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burnt up.

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of 14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

15 And account that "the long-suffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdom given unto him, hath written unto you;

and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

4 And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full.

5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

8 If ⁸we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Christ is our advocate and propitiation.

3 To know God aright is to keep his commandments. 18 To beware of seducers; 20 from whose deceits the godly are safely preserved by faith and holiness of life.

MY little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin,^a we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:

2 And ^bhe is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but ^calso for the sins of the whole world.

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But whoso ^dkeepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.

6 He ^ethat saith he abideth in him ought himself ^falso so to walk, even as he walked.

7 Brethren, ^gI write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which ^hye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Again, ⁱa new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: ^jbecause the darkness is past, and the ^ktrue light now shineth.

9 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.

10 He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and ^lthere is none ¹occasion of stumbling in him:

11 But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and ^mwalketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, because ⁿyour sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him ^othat is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

14 I have written unto you fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning.

have written unto you, young men, because ^pye are strong, and ^qword of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 Love not the world, neither things that are in the world. For any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, ^rand the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God ^sabideth forever.

18 Little children, ^tit is the last time: and as ye have heard ^uthat antichrist shall come, ^veven now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for ^wif they had been of us, they would ^xno doubt have continued with us: but ^ythey went out, that ^zthey might be made manifest that they were not all of us.

20 But ^{aa}ye have an unction ^{ab}from the Holy One, and ^{ac}ye know all things.

21 I have not written unto you, because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? he is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.

23 Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father [but] ^{ad}he that acknowledgeth the Son ^{ae}hath the Father also.

24 Let that therefore abide in you, which ye ^{af}have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ^{ag}ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

25 And ^{ah}this is the promise that he hath promised us, ^{ai}even eternal life.

26 These things have I written unto you concerning them that seduce you.

27 But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye^g need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing^h teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in² him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, ye may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one that doeth righteousness is born of him.

CHAPTER 3.

He declareth the singular love of God toward us in making us his sons; 3 we therefore ought obediently to keep his commandments, 11 and to love one another with true brotherly kindness.

BEHOLD what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that^a we should be called the sons of God! therefore the world knoweth us not, ^bbecause it knew him not.

2 Beloved, now are we the sons of God; and ^cit doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, ^dwe shall be like him; for ^ewe shall see him as he is.

3 And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.

5 And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin.

6 Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you: he^h that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.

8 Heⁱ that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

9 Whosoever^k is born of God doth not commit sin; for^l his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

11 For this is the¹ message that ye heard from the beginning,^m that we should love one another.

12 Not asⁿ Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

13 Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

14 We know that we have passed from death unto life because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death.

15 Whosoever^o hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that^p no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

16 Hereby^q perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 But^r whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?

18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed, and in truth.

19 And hereby we know^s that we are of the truth, and shall² assure our hearts before him.

20 For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloved,^t if our heart condemn us not,^u then have we confidence toward God.

22 And^v whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments,^w and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

23 And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.

24 And he that keepeth his commandments^x dwelleth in him, and he in him. And^y hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

CHAPTER 4.

1 He warneth them to try, by certain rules, the spirits that pretend to come from God: 7 and presseth the obligation of mutual love upon Christians, from the example and commandment of God.

BELOVED,^a believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God; because ^bmany false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every ^cspirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God:

3 And ^devery spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world.

4 Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is he that is in you, than ^ehe that is in the world.

5 They ^fare of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and ^gthe world heareth them.

6 We are of God: ^hhe that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we ⁱthe spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not knoweth not God; for ^jGod is love.

9 In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.

10 Herein is love, ^knot that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

12 No ^lman hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

13 Hereby ^mknow we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

14 And ⁿwe have seen and do testify that the ^oFather sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

15 Whosoever ^pshall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is ^qour love made perfect, that we ^rmay have boldness in the day of judgment: ^rbecause as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

19 We love him, because he first loved us.

20 If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

21 And ^sthis commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.

CHAPTER 5.

1 He that loveth God loveth his children and keepeth his commandments. 4 True faith will overcome the world. 11 Believers have eternal life through Christ. 18 they are distinguished from the world by abstaining from sin, and by a right knowledge of God. 21 A caution against idolatry.

W^HOSOEVER ^abelieveth that ^bJesus is the Christ is born of God: ^cand every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him.

2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.

3 For ^dthis is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and ^ehis commandments are not grievous.

4 For ^fwhatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but ^ghe that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is he that came ^hby water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And ⁱit is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For there ^jare three that bear record in heaven, the Father, ^kthe Word, and the Holy Ghost: ^land these three are one.

8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If we receive ^mthe witness of men, the witness of God is greater: ⁿfor this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son.

10 He that believeth on the Son of God hath ^othe witness in himself: he that believeth not God ^phath made him a liar; because he be-leaveth not the record that God gave of his Son.

11 And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

12 He ^rthat hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.

13 These ^athings have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God, ^tthat ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

14 And this is the confidence that we have ⁱⁿ him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us.

15 And if we know that he hear-eth, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

and there is a sin not unto death.

Gaius and Demetrius commended.

THE elder unto the ^awell-beloved Gaius, whom I love ¹in the truth.

2 Beloved, I ²wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

3 For I rejoiced greatly when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as ^bthou walkest in the truth.

4 I have no greater joy than to hear that my ^cchildren walk in truth.

5 Beloved, thou ^ddoest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers:

6 Which have borne witness of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey ³after a godly sort, thou shalt do well:

7 Because that for his name's sake they went forth, ^etaking nothing of the Gentiles.

JUDE, the servant of Jesus Christ, ^aand brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and ^bpreserved in Jesus Christ, ^cand called:

2 Mercy unto you, and peace, and love, be multiplied.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward ^hdestroyed them that believed not.

6 And ⁱthe angels which kept not their ¹first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains, under darkness, ^junto the judgment of the great day.

CHAPTER 1.

The preface. 7 The coming of Christ. 9 Vision of the Son of man.

THE Revelation of Jesus Christ, "which God gave unto him, to show unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and b he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John:

Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things "that he saw.

Blessed d is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

JOHN to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace be unto you, and peace, from him *"which is, and f which was, and which is to come; and *"from the seven Spirits which are before his throne;

And from Jesus Christ, "who is the faithful Witness, and the first-begotten of the dead, and the Prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, 6 And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

7 Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

8 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

9 I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet, 11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea.

12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned I saw seven golden candlesticks;

13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire;

15 And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters.

16 And he had in his right hand seven stars; and out of his mouth went a sharp two-edged sword; and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first and the last:

18 I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death.

19 Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter;

20 The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches; and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches.

CHAPTER 2.

What John was commanded to write to the churches of 1 Ephesus, 8 Smyrna, 12 Pergamos, 18 and Thyatira.

Unto the angel of the church of Ephesus write; These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks;

2 I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars. 3 And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

4 Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitanes, which I also hate.

7 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

8 And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things saith the First and the Last, which was dead, and is alive;

9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich,) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.

0 Fear ^a none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: ^o be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee ^p a crown of life.

1 He ^q that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the ^r second death.

2 And to the angel of the church at Pergamos write; These things saith he ^s which hath ^t the sharp sword with two edges;

3 I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my name, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

4 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of ^v Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, ^w to eat things sacrificed unto idols, ^x and to commit fornication.

5 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate.

6 Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and ^y will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

7 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone ^z a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

8 And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira write; These things saith the Son of God, ^a who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass;

9 I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last be more than the first.

10 Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou ferrest that woman ^b Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants

23 And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that ^d I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and ^e I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

24 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known ^f the depths of Satan, as they speak; ^g I will put upon you none other burden.

25 But that which ye have already hold fast till I come.

28 And I will give him ^k the morning star.

CHAPTER 3.

What John was commanded to write to the angels of the churches of 1 Sardis, 7 Philadelphia, 14 and Laodicea.

AND unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, ^a and art dead.

2 Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

3 Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard; and hold fast, and repent. ^b If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 Thou hast ^c a few names even in Sardis which have not ^d defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me ^e in white: for they are worthy.

5 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will ^fnot blot out his name out of the book ^gof life, but ^hI will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he ⁱthat is holy, ^jhe that is true, he that hath ^kthe key of David, ^lhe that openeth, and no man shutteth; ^mand shutteth, and no man openeth;

8 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee ⁿan open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

9 Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, ^oI will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, ^pI also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.

11 Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

12 Him that overcometh will I make ^qa pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and ^rI will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is ^snew Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God; and ^tI will write upon him my new name.

13 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

14 And unto the angel of the church ¹of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the ^uAmen, the faithful and true ^vWitness, ^wthe beginning of the creation of God;

15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.

16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.

17 Because thou sayest, ^xI am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and

CHAPTER 4.

1 The throne of God. 4 The four and twenty elders, etc.

AFTER this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will show thee things which must be hereafter.

2 And immediately ^aI was in the Spirit: and, behold, ^ba throne was set in heaven, and ^cone sat on the throne.

3 And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: and ^dthere was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.

4 And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices: ^eand ^fthere were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.

6 And before the throne ^gthere was a ^hsea of glass like unto crystal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts, full of eyes before and behind.

7 And ^g the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

8 And the four beasts had each of them six ^h wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.

9 And when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever,

10 The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying, 11 Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

CHAPTER 5.

Of the book sealed with seven seals.

1 And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne ^a a book written within and on the back side, sealed ^b with seven seals. 2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

3 And ^c no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, ^d the Lion of the tribe of Juda, ^e the Root of David, hath ^f prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.

6 And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood ^g a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven ^h eyes, which are ⁱ the seven spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.

7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them ^j harps, and golden vials full of ^k odours, ^l which are the prayers of saints.

9 And ^m they sung a new song, saying, Thou ⁿ art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and ^o hast redeemed us to God by thy blood ^p out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;

10 And ^q hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.

11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ^r ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;

12 Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

13 And ^s every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, ^t Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, ^u be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, ^v and unto the Lamb, for ever and ever.

14 And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

CHAPTER 6.

The opening of six of the seals in order.

1 And I saw when the Lamb ^a opened one of the seals; and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come and see.

2 And I saw, and behold ^a a white horse: and ^b he that sat on him had a bow; ^c and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And ^d there went out another horse ^e that was red: and ^f power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a ^ablack horse: and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, ¹A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and ^fsee thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given ²unto them over the fourth part of the earth, ^gto kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, ^hand with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under ⁱthe altar ^jthe souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for ^kthe testimony which they held:

10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, ^lHow long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that ^mthey should rest yet for a little season, until their fellow-servants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal; ⁿand, lo, there was a great earthquake; and ^othe sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;

13 And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her ³untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.

14 And ^pthe heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain ^qand island were moved out of their places.

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bond-man, and every free-man, ^rhid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

16 And said to the mountains and

CHAPTER 7.

The servants of God who were sealed on their foreheads.

AND after these things I saw four ^aangels ^bstanding on the four corners of the earth, ^cholding the four winds of the earth, that ^dthe wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Saying, ^dHurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed ^ethe servants of our God in ^ftheir foreheads.

4 And ^gI heard the number of them which were sealed: and ^hthere were sealed an ⁱhundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Nephthalim were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelve thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelve thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After this I beheld, and, lo, ^aa great multitude, which no man could number, ^bof all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, ^cclothed with white robes, and palms in their hands;

10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation ^dto our God ^ewhich sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

11 And ^fall the angels stood round out the throne, and about the ders, and the four beasts, and 1 before the throne on their faces,

d worshipped God,

2 Saying, ^o Amen: Blessing, and ory, and wisdom, and thanks-ving, and honour, and power, and ight, be unto our God for ever d ever. Amen.

3 And one of the elders answered, ying unto me, What are these hich are arrayed in white robes?
d whence came they?

4 And I said unto him, Sir, thou west. And he said to me,
These are they which came out of eat tribulation, and have ² washed eir robes, and made them white the blood of the Lamb.

5 Therefore are they before the rone of God, and serve him day d night in his temple: and he at sitteth on the throne shall well among them.

6 They ^a shall hunger no more, ither thirst any more; ^t neither all the sun light on them, nor y heat.

7 For the Lamb which is in the idst of the throne ^a shall feed em, and shall lead them unto ing fountains of waters; and od shall wipe away all tears from eir eyes.

CHAPTER 8.

1 The seventh seal opened. 6 Great plagues.

ND when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence heaven about the space of half hour.

And ^a I saw the seven angels hich stood before God; ^b and to em were given seven trumpets.

And another ^c angel came and ood at the altar, having a golden nser; and there was given unto m much ^d incense, that he should ffer it with ^e the prayers of all ints upon the ^f golden altar which as before the throne.

And ^g the smoke of the incense, hich came with the prayers of the ints, ascended up before God out the angel's hand.

And the angel took the censer, d filled it with fire of the altar, and st it ² into the earth: and ^h there ere voices, and thunderings, and htnings, ⁱ and an earthquake.

And the seven angels which had

7 The first angel sounded, ¹ and part ³ of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea
⁴ became blood;

9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters:

11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood: ⁵ and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And ⁶ the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

13 And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!

CHAPTER 9.

The sounding of the fifth angel.

AND the fifth angel sounded, ^a and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of ^b the bottomless pit.

2 And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose ^c a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke locusts upon ^d the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 And it was commanded them ^e that they should not hurt ^f the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not ^uthe seal of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, ^hbut that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

6 And in those days ⁱshall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And ^jthe shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and ^kon their heads were as it were crowns like gold, ^land their faces were as the faces of men.

8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and ^mtheir teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle.

10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months.

11 And ⁿthey had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name ¹Apollyon.

12 One ^owoe is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound ²in the great river Euphrates.

15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared ²for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.

16 And ³the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: ⁴and I heard the number of them.

21 Neither repented they of the murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of the thefts.

CHAPTER 10.

1 An angel appeareth with a book. 8 John is commanded to eat the book and prophesy.

AND I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven clothed with a cloud; ^aand a rainbow was upon his head, and ^bhis face was as it were the sun, and ^chis feet as pillars of fire:

2 And he had in his hand a little book open: ^dand he set his right foot upon the sea, and ^ehis left foot on the earth,

3 And cried with a loud voice, ^fwhen a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven ^gthunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, ^hseal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And sware by him that ⁱliveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, ^jthat there should be time no longer:

7 But ^kin the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets

And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

CHAPTER 11.

The two witnesses prophecy, etc.

AND there was given me ^aa reed like unto a rod: and the angel said, saying, Rise, ^band measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

But ^cthe court which is without the temple ¹leave out, and measure not; for ^dit is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they ^etread under foot ^fforty and two months.

And ²I will give power unto my two witnesses, ^hand they shall prophesy ⁱa thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.

These are the ^jtwo olive trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.

And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: ^land if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

These ^mhave power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and ⁿhave power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

And when they ^oshall have finished their testimony, ^pthe beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

10 And ^vthey that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth.

11 And after three days and an half ^wthe Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them.

12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And ^xthey ascended up to heaven ^yin a cloud; and their enemies beheld them.

13 And the same hour was there a great earthquake, ^zand the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain ³of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14 The second woe is past; and, behold, the third woe cometh quickly.

15 And the seventh angel sounded; and there ^awere great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; ^band he shall reign for ever and ever.

16 And the four and twenty elders which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God, 17 Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned.

18 And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, ^cand the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldst give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great; and shouldst destroy them which ^ddestroy the earth.

19 And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was ^eseen in his temple the ark of his testament: and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail.

CHAPTER 12.

Of the woman clothed with the sun.

AND there appeared a great ¹wonder in heaven; a ^awoman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:

2 And she being with child cried, travailing ^bin birth, and pained to be delivered.

3 And there appeared another ²wonder in heaven; and behold ^ca great red dragon, having ^dseven heads and ten horns, ^eand seven crowns upon his heads.

4 And ^fhis tail drew the third part of the ^gstars of heaven, ^hand did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, ⁱfor to devour her child as soon as it was born.

5 And she brought forth a man-child, who ^jwas to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there ^ka thousand two hundred and threescore days.

7 And there was war in heaven: ^lMichael and his angels fought against the ^mdragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,

8 And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.

9 And ⁿthe great dragon was cast out, that ^oold serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he ^pwas cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, ^qNow is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, ^rwhich accused them before our God day and night.

11 And ^sthey overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; ^tand they loved not their lives unto the death.

12 Therefore rejoice, ^{ye} heavens, and ye that dwell in them. ^uWoe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath,

CHAPTER 13.

Of the beast with seven heads and ten horns.

AND I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw ^aa beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ^bten crowns, and upon his heads the ^cname of blasphemy.

2 And ^dthe beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as ^ethe feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and ^fthe dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his heads as it were ^gwounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and ^hall the world wondered after the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, ⁱWho is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

5 And there was given unto him ^ja mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him ^kto continue ^lforty and two months.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, ^mand his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

7 And it was given unto him ⁿto make war with the saints, and to ercome them: and power was en him over all kindreds, and ngues, and nations.

tience and the faith of the saints.

And I beheld another beast ming up out of the earth; and spake as a dragon.

And he exerciseth all the power the first beast before him, and useth the earth and them which vell therein to worship the first aled.

And ^ohe doeth great wonders,
o that he maketh fire come down

And deceiveth them that dwell acles which he had power to do em that dwell on the earth, that ey should make an image to the

And he had power to give ^llife four thousand, ^bhaving his Father's name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps:

3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders:
and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

4 These are they which were not defiled with women; ^cfor they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These ^lwere redeemed from among men, ^dbeing the first-fruits unto God and to the Lamb.

5 And ^ein their mouth was found no guile: for ^fthey are without fault before the throne of God.

6 And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, ^ghaving the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,

7 Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: ^hand worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

8 And there followed another angel, saying, ⁱBabylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive ^jhis mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

10 The same ^kshall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

11 And ^lthe smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

12 Here ^mis the patience of the saints: here ⁿare ^mthey that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, "Blessed are the dead" which die in the Lord² from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that³ they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

14 And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like unto⁴ the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, "Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest⁵ of the earth is³ ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, "Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into⁶ the great wine-press of the wrath of God.

20 And⁷ the wine-press was trodden without⁸ the city, and blood came out of the wine-press, even unto the horse-bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

CHAPTER 15.

The seven angels with the seven last plagues.

AND I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, seven angels having the seven last plagues; for⁹ in them is filled up the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were¹⁰ a sea of glass mingled with fire; and them that had gotten the victory over the beast,¹¹ and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God.

3 And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, "Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just¹ and true are thy ways, thou King of² saints.

4 Who³ shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and behold, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:

6 And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in⁴ pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 And⁵ one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, which liveth for ever and ever.

8 And⁶ the temple was filled with smoke from⁷ the glory of God, and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

CHAPTER 16.

The seven angels pour out their vials.

AND I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which⁸ had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and⁹ it became as the blood of a dead man;¹⁰ and every living soul died in the sea.

4 And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which¹¹ art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus:

6 For¹² they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgments.

8 And the fourth angel poured at his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to smite men with fire.

And men were ¹scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and ^kthey repented not to give him glory.

And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon ^lthe seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain,

And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.

And the sixth angel poured out his vial ^mupon the great river Euphrates; and ⁿthe water thereof was dried up, that ^othe way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

And I saw three unclean ^pspirits like frogs come out of the mouth of ^qa dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

For ^rthey are the spirits of devils, working ^smiracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth, and of the whole world, to gather them to the ^tbattle of that great day of God Almighty.

Behold, ^uI come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, ^vlest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon.

And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done.

And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, ^wsuch as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.

And ^xthe great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

And ^yevery island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

And ^zthere fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every

CHAPTER 17.

The woman arrayed in purple and scarlet.

AND there came ^aone of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will show unto thee the judgment of ^bthe great whore that ^csitteth upon many waters:

2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and ^dthe inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the spirit into the ^ewilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon ^fa scarlet-coloured beast, full ^gof names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

4 And the woman ^hwas arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and ⁱdecked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls, ^jhaving a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:

5 And upon her forehead was a name written, ^kMYSTERY, BABYLON ^lTHE GREAT, ^mTHE MOTHER OF ⁿHARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of ^othe martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and ^pshall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, (whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world,) when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And ^qhere is the mind which hath wisdom. ^rThe seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10 And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

12 And ^qthe ten horns which thou sawest, are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

13 These have ^rone mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

14 These ^sshall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: ^tfor he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and ^uthey that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

15 And he saith unto me, ^vThe waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, ^ware peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, ^xthese shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate ^yand naked, and shall eat her flesh, and ^zburn her with fire.

17 For ^aGod hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, ^buntil the words of God shall be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest ^cis that great city, ^dwhich reigneth over the kings of the earth.

CHAPTER 18.

The fall of Babylon.

AN*D* after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; ^aand the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, ^bBabylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and ^cis become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and ^da cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the ¹abundance of her delicacies.

5 For ¹her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 Reward ²her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: ³the cup which she hath filled fill ⁴her double.

7 How ⁵much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, ⁶so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit ⁷queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8 Therefore shall her plague come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: ⁹for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

9 And ¹⁰the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, ¹¹shall bewail her, and lament for her: when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, ¹²"Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.

11 And ¹³the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more;

12 The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all ¹⁴thyings of wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass and iron, and marble,

13 And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and ¹⁵slaves, and ¹⁶souls of men.

14 And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all.

The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing, And saying, Alas, alas, that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

For in one hour so great riches come to nought. And every master, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off, and cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, That city is like unto this great city!

And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.

Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her.

And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus saith God, a violence shall that great city bylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee;

And the light of a candle shall be found no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.

And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.

CHAPTER 19.

great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

3 And again they said, Alleluia! And her smoke rose up for ever and ever.

4 And the four and twenty elders, and the four beasts, fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen, Alleluia!

5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great.

6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia! for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

7 Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

8 And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

9 And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God.

10 And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse: and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True; and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

12 His eyes were as a flame of fire. And on his head were many crowns: and he had a name written that no man knew but he himself:

13 And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God.

14 And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

15 And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the wine-press of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

16 And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, ⁹ KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, ² Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;

18 That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

19 And ^a I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.

20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These ^b both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.

21 And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.

the word of God, and ^h which I not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, in their hands; and they lived ⁱ reigned with Christ a thousand years.

5 But the rest of the dead lived again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is he that has part in the first resurrection: such the ^j second death hath power, but they shall be priests ^k God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison,

8 And shall ^l go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, ^m Gog and Magog ⁿ to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

9 And ^o they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and a fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.

10 And the devil, that deceiveth them, was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face ^p the earth and the heaven fled away; ^q and there was found no place for them.

12 And ^r I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God: ^s and the books were opened; and ^t another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, ^u according to their works.

13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

14 And ^v death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

15 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

CHAPTER 21.

Description of the heavenly Jerusalem.

AND ^aI saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more ^bsea.

And I John saw ^cthe holy city, ^dJerusalem, coming down from heaven, prepared ^eas a bride adorned for her husband.

And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold, ^fthe tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

And ^gGod shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and ^hthere shall be no more death, ⁱneither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

And ^jhe that sat upon the throne said, Behold, ^kI make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: these words are true and faithful.

And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. ^lI will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.

He that ^movercometh shall inherit all things; and ⁿI will be his God, and he shall be my son.

But ^othe fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all unclean, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

And there came unto me one of the seven angels, which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will show thee the bride, the Lamb's wife.

And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me ^pthat great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,

Having the glory of God: and the light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal;

And had a wall great and high, and twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel:

13 On the east, three gates; on the north, three gates; on the south, three gates; and on the west, three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and ^pin them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me ^qhad a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lieth four-square, and the length is as large as the breadth. And he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19 And ^rthe foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcidony; the fourth, an emerald;

20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl: ^sand the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

22 And ^tI saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

23 And ^uthe city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

24 And ^vthe nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it; and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

25 And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for ^wthere shall be no night there.

26 And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

27 And ^xthere shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination or maketh a lie; but they which are written in the Lamb's ^ybook of life.

CHAPTER 22.

1 The river and tree of life. 3 The glorious state of God's servants.

AND he showed me ^aa pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.

2 In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the ^btree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were ^cfor the healing of the nations.

3 And ^dthere shall be no more curse: but the ^ethrone of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him:

4 And ^fthey shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads.

5 And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for ^gthe Lord God giveth them light: and ^hthey shall reign for ever and ever.

6 And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true: and the ⁱLord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to show unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

7 Behold, I come quickly: blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.

8 And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which showed me these things.

9 Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.

lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide ⁵ the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years:

15 And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so.

16 And God made two great lights; the greater light ⁶ to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also.

17 And God ^l set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth,

18 And to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good.

19 And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

20 ¶ And God said, ^m Let the waters bring forth abundantly the ⁷ moving creature that hath ⁸ life, and ⁹ fowl that may fly above the earth in the ¹⁰ open firmament of heaven.

21 And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

22 And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the earth.

23 And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

24 ¶ And God said, ⁿ Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind: and it was so.

25 And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

26 ¶ And God said, ^o Let us make man ^p in our image, after our likeness: and let them have ^q dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

27 So God created man ^q in his own image

1 The creation of heaven and earth, 3 of the light, 6 of the firmament: 9 the earth separated from the waters, 11 and made fruitful. 14 The creation of the sun, moon, and stars, 20 of the fish and fowl, 24 of beasts and cattle. 26 Creation of man in the image of God; and his blessing. 29 The appointment of food.

IN ^a the beginning ^b God created the heaven and the earth.

2 And the earth was ^c without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. ^d And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

3 ¶ ^e And God said, Let there be light: and there was light.

4 And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the ¹ light from the darkness.

5 And God called the light ^f Day, and the darkness he called Night.

2 And the evening and the morning were the first day.

6 ¶ And God said, ^g Let there be a ³ firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.

7 And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so.

8 And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.

9 ¶ And God said, ^h Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so.

10 And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good.

11 And God said, ⁱ Let the earth bring forth ⁴ grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding ^j fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so.

12 And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

13 And the evening and the morning were the third day.

14 ¶ And God said, ^k Let there be image, in the "image of God created he him; " male and female created he them.

28 And "God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that ¹¹ moveth upon the earth.

29 ¶ And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb ¹² bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat.

30 And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is ¹³ life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so.

31 And God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

CHAPTER 2.

1 The first sabbath. 8 The garden of Eden. 17 The tree of knowledge forbidden. 19 The creatures named. 21 The making of woman, and institution of marriage.

THUS the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them.

2 " And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made.

3 And God ^b blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it; because that in it he had rested from all his work which God ^c created and made.

4 ¶ These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens,

5 And every plant of the field before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew: for the "LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground.

6 But ² there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground.

7 And the LORD God formed man ³ of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

8 ¶ And the LORD God planted "a garden eastward in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed.

9 And out of the ground made the LORD God to "grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food; " the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

10 And "a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and became into four heads.

11 The name of the first is Pison: that is it which compasseth the whole land of "Havilah, where there is gold;

12 And the gold of that land is good: there is bdellium and the onyx stone.

13 And the name of the second river is Gihon: the same is it that compasseth the whole land of "Ethiopia.

14 And the name of the third river is "Hiddekel: that is it which goeth "toward the east of Assyria. And the fourth river is Euphrates.

15 And the LORD God took "the man, and put him into the garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it.

16 And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden "thou mayest freely eat:

17 But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof "thou shalt surely die.

18 ¶ And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help "meet for him.

19 And out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and "brought them unto Adam to see what he would call them: and whatsoever "Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof.

20 And Adam "gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field: but for Adam there was not found an help meet for him.

21. And the LORD God caused a "deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof;

22 And the rib, which the LORD God had taken from man, "made he a woman, and ^mbrought her unto the man.

23 And Adam said, This is now ⁿbone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh : she shall be called ¹³Woman, because she was taken out of ¹⁴Man.

24 ^oTherefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife : and ^pthey shall be one flesh.

25 And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

CHAPTER 3.

1 The serpent deceiveth Eve. 6 Man's fall : 9 God arraigneth them. 14 The serpent cursed ; his overthrow by the woman's seed. 16 Mankind's punishment ; and loss of paradise.

NOW the serpent was more ^asubtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, ¹hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?

2 And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden :

3 ^bBut of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die.

4 And the serpent said unto the woman, ^cYe shall not surely die :

5 For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.

6 And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was ²pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make ^{one}wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her ; ^dand he did eat.

7 And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked ; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves ³aprons.

8 And they heard the voice ^eof the LORD God walking in the garden in the ⁴cool of the day : and Adam and his wife ^fhid themselves from the presence of the LORD God amongst the trees of the garden.

9 And the LORD God called unto Adam, and said unto him, ^gWhere art thou?

^p ver. 5.

11 And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldst not eat?

12 And the man said, ⁱThe woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat.

13 And the LORD God said unto the woman, What is this that thou hast done? And the woman said, The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat.

14 And the LORD God said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field ; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and ^jdust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life :

15 And I will put ^kenmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed ; ^lit shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.

16 Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception ; in ^msorrow thou shalt bring forth children ; and thy desire shall be ⁵to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee.

17 And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it : cursed is the ground for thy sake ; ⁿin sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life ;

18 Thorns also and thistles shall it ⁶bring forth to thee ; and thou shalt eat the herb of the field ;

19 In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground ; for out of it wast thou taken : for dust thou art, ^oand unto dust shalt thou return.

20 And Adam called his wife's name ⁷Eve ; because she was the mother of all living.

21 Unto Adam also and to his wife did the LORD God make coats of skins, and clothed them.

22 ¶ And the LORD God said, ^pBehold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil : and now, lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live for ever :

23 Therefore the LORD God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till the ground from whence he was taken.

24 So he drove out the man; and he placed at the east of the garden of Eden cherubim, and a flaming sword which turned every way, ²to keep the way of the tree of life.

1 The birth of Cain and Abel. 8 The murder of Abel. 11 The curse of Cain. 17 Enoch, the first city built. 19 Lamech and his two wives. 25 Seth and Enos born.

AND Adam knew Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bare ¹Cain, and said, I have gotten a man from the LORD.

2 And she again bare his brother ²Abel. And Abel was a ³keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.

3 And ⁴in process of time it came to pass, that Cain brought of the fruit of the ground an offering unto the LORD.

4 And Abel, he also brought of the ⁵firstlings of his ⁵flock and of the fat thereof. And the LORD ⁶had respect unto Abel and to his offering:

5 But ⁶unto Cain and to his offering he had not respect. And Cain was very wroth, and his countenance fell.

6 And the LORD said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen?

7 If thou doest well, shalt thou not ⁶be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the door. And ⁷unto thee shall be his desire, and thou shalt rule over him.

8 And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and ⁸slew him.

9 And the LORD said unto Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, I know not: Am I my brother's keeper?

10 And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother's ⁸blood ⁹crieth unto me from the ground.

11 And now art thou ⁹cursed from the earth, which hath opened her ⁹mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thy hand;

12 When thou tillest the ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto thee her strength; a fugitive and a vagabond shalt thou be in the earth.

13 And Cain said unto the LORD, ⁹My punishment is greater than I can bear.

14 Behold, thou hast driven me out this day from the face of the earth; and from thy face shall I be hid; and I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond in the earth; and I shall come to pass, that every one that findeth me shall slay me.

15 And the LORD said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. And the LORD ¹⁵set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him.

16 ¶ And Cain went out from the presence of the LORD, and dwelt in the land of Nod, on the east of Eden.

17 And Cain knew his wife; and she conceived, and bare ¹⁷Enoch, and he builded a city, and ¹⁷called the name of the city, after the name of his son, Enoch.

18 And unto Enoch was born Irad, and Irad begat Mehujael: and Mehujael begat Methusael: and Methusael begat ¹⁸Lamech.

19 ¶ And Lamech took unto him two wives: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah.

20 And Adah bare Jabal: he was the father of such as dwell in tents, and of such as have cattle.

21 And his brother's name was Jubal: he was the father of all such as handle the harp and organ.

22 And Zillah, she also bare Tubal-cain, an ²²instructor of every artificer in brass and iron: and the sister of Tubal-cain was Naamah.

23 And Lamech said unto his wives, Adah and Zillah, hear my voice; ye wives of Lamech, hearken unto my speech: for ²³I have slain a man to my wounding, and a young man ²³to my hurt:

24 If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold, truly Lamech seventy and sevenfold.

25 ¶ And Adam knew his wife again; and she bare a son, and called his name ²⁵Seth: For God, said she, hath appointed me another seed instead of Abel, whom Cain slew.

26 And to Seth, to him also there was born a son; and he called his name ²⁶Enos: then began men to ²⁶call upon the name of the LORD.

CHAPTER 5.

1 The genealogy, age, and death of the patriarchs, from Adam unto Noah. 24 The godliness and translation of Enoch.

THIS is ¹the book of the generations of Adam. In the day that God created man, ^b in the likeness of God made he him;

2 Male and female created he them; and blessed them, and called their name Adam, in the day when they were created.

3 ¶ And Adam lived an hundred and thirty years, and begat a son in his own likeness, after his image; and called his name Seth:

4 And the days of Adam after he had begotten Seth were eight hundred years: and he begat sons and daughters:

5 And all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years: ^c and he died.

6 ¶ And Seth lived an hundred and five years, and begat Enos:

7 And Seth lived after he begat Enos eight hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters:

8 And all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years: and he died.

9 ¶ And Enos lived ninety years, and begat ¹ Cainan:

10 And Enos lived after he begat Cainan eight hundred and fifteen years, and begat sons and daughters:

11 And all the days of Enos were nine hundred and five years: and he died.

12 ¶ And Cainan lived seventy years, and begat ² Mahalaleel:

13 And Cainan lived after he begat Mahalaleel eight hundred and forty years, and begat sons and daughters:

14 And all the days of Cainan were nine hundred and ten years: and he died.

15 ¶ And Mahalaleel lived sixty and five years, and begat Jared:

16 And Mahalaleel lived after he begat ³ Jared eight hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters:

17 And all the days of Mahalaleel were eight hundred ninety and five years: and he died.

18 ¶ And Jared lived an hundred sixty and two years, and he begat ^d Enoch:

19 And Jared lived after he begat Enoch eight hundred years, and begat sons and daughters:

20 And all the days of Jared were nine hundred sixty and two years: and he died.

21 ¶ And Enoch lived sixty and five years, and begat ^e Methuselah:

CHAPTER 6.

1 The wickedness of the world, which provoketh God's wrath, and causeth the flood.
8 Noah findeth grace. 14 The order, form, and use of the ark.

AND it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them,

2 That ^a the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they ^b took them wives of all which they chose.

3 And the LORD said, ^c My Spirit shall not always strive with man, ^d for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years.

4 There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown.

5 ¶ And ^eGod saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that ¹every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil ²continually.

6 And it ^grepented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it ^hgrieved him at his heart.

7 And the LORD said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; ³both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them.

8 But Noah ⁱfound grace in the eyes of the LORD.

9 ¶ These are the generations of Noah: Noah was a just man and ⁴perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God.

10 And Noah begat three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

11 The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence.

12 And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.

13 And God said unto Noah, ^kThe end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them ⁵with the earth.

14 Make thee an ark of gopher wood; ⁶rooms shalt thou make in the ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch.

15 And this is the fashion which thou shalt make it of: The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits.

16 A window shalt thou make to the ark, and in a cubit shalt thou finish it above; and the door of the ark shalt thou set in the side thereof; with lower, second, and third stories shalt thou make it.

17 ^lAnd, behold, I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven; and every thing that is in the earth ^mshall die.

18 But with thee will I establish my covenant; and thou shalt come into the ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee.

22 ^bThus did Noah; ^caccording to all that God commanded him, so did he.

CHAPTER 7.

1 Noah, with his family, and the living creatures, enter into the ark. 17 The beginning, increase, and continuance of the flood. 21 All flesh destroyed.

AND the LORD said unto Noah, ^aCome thou and all thy house into the ark: for thee have I seen ^brighteous before me in this generation.

2 Of every ^cclean beast thou shalt take to thee by ¹sevens, the male and his female: and of beasts that are not clean by two, the male and his female.

3 Of fowls also of the air by sevens, the male and the female; to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth.

4 For yet seven days, and ^dI will cause it to rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights; and every living substance that I have made will I ²destroy from off the face of the earth.

5 And Noah did according unto ^eall that the LORD commanded him.

6 And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the earth.

7 And Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood.

8 Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowls, and of every thing that creepeth upon the earth,

9 There went in two and two unto Noah into the ark, the male and the female, as God had commanded Noah.

10 And it came to pass ³after seven days, that the waters of the flood were upon the earth.

11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the ⁴fountains of the great deep broken up, and the ⁴windows of heaven were opened.

12 And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

13 In the selfsame day entered Noah, and Shem, and Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, into the ark:

14 They, and every beast after his kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, every bird of every ⁵sort.

15 And they went in unto Noah into the ark, two and two of all flesh, wherein is the breath of life.

16 And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and the LORD ¹shut him in.

17 And the flood was forty days upon the earth; and the waters increased, and bare up the ark, and it was lift up above the earth.

18 And the waters prevailed, and were increased greatly upon the earth; ²and the ark went upon the face of the waters.

19 And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth; ³and all the high hills that were under the whole heaven were covered.

20 Fifteen cubits upward did the waters prevail; and the mountains were covered.

21 And ⁴all flesh died that moved upon the earth, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of beast, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, and every man:

22 All in whose ⁵nostrils was ⁶the breath of life, of all that was in the dry land, died.

23 And every living substance was destroyed which was upon the face of the ground, both man, and cattle, and the creeping things, and the fowl of the heaven; and they were destroyed from the earth: and ⁷Noah only remained alive, and they that were with him in the ark.

24 ⁸And the waters prevailed upon the earth an hundred and fifty days.

CHAPTER 8.

1 The waters asswage. 4 The ark resteth on Ararat. 13 The earth dried. 15 Noah goeth forth of the ark, 20 buildeth an altar, and offereth sacrifice. 21 God promiseth to curse the earth no more.

the cattle that was with him in the ark: and God ¹made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters asswaged;

2 The ²fountains also of the deep and the windows of heaven were stopped, and the ³rain from heaven was restrained;

3 And the waters returned from off the earth ⁴continually: and after the end of ⁵the hundred and fifty days the waters were abated.

4 And the ark rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, upon the mountains of Ararat.

5 And the waters ⁶decreased continually until the tenth month: in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, were the tops of the mountains seen.

6 ¶ And it came to pass at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the ⁷window of the ark which he had made:

7 And he sent forth ⁸a raven, which went forth ⁹to and fro, until the waters were dried up from off the earth.

8 Also he sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from off the face of the ground;

9 But the dove ¹⁰found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him into the ark, for the waters were on the face of the whole earth: then he put forth his hand, and took her, and ¹¹pulled her in unto him into the ark.

10 And he stayed yet other seven days; and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark;

11 And the dove came in to him in the evening; and, lo, in her mouth was an ¹²olive leaf pluckt off: so Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth.

12 And he stayed yet other seven days; and sent forth the dove; which returned not again unto him any more.

13 ¶ And it came to pass in the six hundredth and first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from off the earth: and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and, behold, the face of the ground was dry.

14 And in the second month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, was the earth dried.

15 ¶ And God spake unto Noah, saying,

16 Go forth of the ark, thou, and thy wife, and thy sons, and thy sons' wives with thee.

17 Bring forth with thee every living thing that is with thee, of all flesh, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth; that they may breed abundantly in the earth, and be fruitful, and multiply upon the earth.

18 And Noah went forth, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him:

19 Every beast, every creeping thing, and every fowl, and whatsoever creepeth upon the earth, after their kinds, went forth out of the ark.

20 ¶ And Noah builded an altar unto the LORD; and took of every clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered burnt offerings on the altar.

21 And the LORD smelled a sweet savour; and the LORD said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake; for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth; neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have done.

22 While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease.

CHAPTER 9.

1 God blesseth Noah. 4 Blood and murder are forbidden. 8 God's covenant, 13 signified by the rainbow. 23 Noah is drunken, and mocked by Ham: 25 he pronounceth a curse on Canaan, and blessings on Shem and on Japheth: 29 he dieth.

AND ^a God blessed Noah and his sons, and said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth.

2 And ^b the fear of you and the dread of you shall be upon every beast of the earth, and upon every fowl of the air, upon all that moveth upon the earth, and upon all the fishes of the sea; into your hand are they delivered.

3 Every moving thing that liveth shall be ^c meat for you; even as the green herb have I given you all things.

4 But flesh with ^d the life thereof, which is the blood thereof, shall ye not eat.

5 And surely your blood of your lives will I require; at the hand of ^e every beast will I require it, and at the hand of ^f man; at the hand of every man's ^g brother will I require the life of man.

6 ^h Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed for in the ⁱ image of God made he man.

7 And you, be ye fruitful, and multiply; bring forth abundantly in the earth, and multiply therein.

8 ¶ And God spake unto Noah, and to his sons with him, saying,

9 And I, behold, I establish my covenant with you, and with your seed after you;

10 And with ^j every living creature that is with you, of the fowl, of the cattle, and of every beast of the earth with you; from all that go out of the ark, to every beast of the earth.

11 And I will establish my covenant with you; neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of a flood; neither shall there any more be a ^k flood to destroy the earth.

12 And God said, This is the ^l token of the covenant which I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations:

13 I do set my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth.

14 And it shall come to pass, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the bow shall be seen in the cloud:

15 And I will remember my covenant, which is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh; ^m and the waters shall no more become a flood to destroy all flesh.

16 And the bow shall be in the cloud; and I will look upon it, that I may remember the ⁿ everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is upon the earth.

17 And God said unto Noah, This is the token of the covenant, which I have established between me and all flesh that is upon the earth.

18 ¶ And the sons of Noah, that went forth of the ark, were Shem, and Ham, and Japheth: and Ham is the ^o father of ¹ Canaan.

19 These are the three sons of of Noah: and ^p of them was the whole earth overspread.

20 ¶ And Noah began to be an husbandman, and he planted a vineyard:

21 And he drank of the wine, and was drunken; and he was uncovered within his tent.

22 And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brethren without.

23 And ^aShem and Japheth took a garment, and laid it upon both their shoulders, and went backward, and covered the nakedness of their father; and their faces were backward, and they saw not their father's nakedness.

24 And Noah awoke from his wine, and knew what his younger son had done unto him.

25 And he said, ^tCursed be Canaan: a servant of ^uservants shall he be unto his brethren.

26 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Shem; and Canaan shall be ²his servant.

27 God shall ³enlarge Japheth, and he shall ^dwell in the tents of Shem; and Canaan shall be his servant.

28 And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years:

29 And all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years: and he died.

CHAPTER 10.

1 The generations of Noah. 2 The sons of Japheth, 6 and of Ham. 8 Nimrod the first monarch. 15 The descendants of Canaan. 21 The sons of Shem.

NOW these are the generations of the sons of Noah; Shem, Ham, and Japheth: and unto them were sons born after the flood.

2 The ^asons of Japheth; Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras.

3 And the sons of Gomer; Ashkenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah.

4 And the sons of Javan; Elishah, and Tarshish, ¹Kittim, and ²Dodanim.

5 By these were the isles of the Gentiles divided in their lands; every one after his tongue, after their families, in their nations.

6 ¶ And the sons of Ham; Cush, and Mizraim, and Phut, and Canaan.

7 And the sons of Cush; Seba, and Havilah, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and Sabtecha: and the sons of Raamah; Sheba, and Dedan.

8 And Cush begat Nimrod: he began to be a mighty one in the earth.

9 He was a mighty hunter before the LORD: wherefore it is said, Even as Nimrod the mighty hunter ^bbefore the LORD.

10 And the beginning of his ^ckingdom was ³Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.

11 Out of that land ⁴went forth Asshur, and builded Nineveh, and ⁵the city Rehoboth, and Calah,

12 And Resen between Nineveh and Calah: the same is a great city

13 And Mizraim begat Ludim, and Ananim, and Lehabim, and Naphtuhim, 14 And Pathrusim, and Casluhim, (dout of whom came Philistim,) and Caphtorim.

15 ¶ And Canaan begat ⁶Sidon his first-born, and Heth,

16 And the Jebusite, and the Amorite, and the Girgashite,

17 And the Hivite, and the Arkite, and the Sinite,

18 And the Arvadite, and the Zemarite, and the Hamathite: and afterward were the families of the Canaanites spread abroad.

19 ^eAnd the border of the Canaanites was from Sidon, as thou comest to Gerar, unto ⁷Gaza; as thou goest, unto Sodom, and Gomorrah, and Admah, and Zeboim, even unto Lasha.

20 These are the sons of Ham, after their families, after their tongues, in their countries, and in their nations.

21 ¶ Unto Shem also, the father of all the children of Eber, the brother of Japheth the elder, even to him were ^{children} born.

22 The ^{children} of Shem; Elam, and Asshur, and ⁸Arphaxad, and Lud, and Aram.

23 And the children of Aram; Uz, and Hul, and Gether, and Mash.

24 And Arphaxad begat ⁹Salah; and Salah begat Eber.

25 ^hAnd unto Eber were born two sons: the name of one was ¹⁰Peleg; for in his days was the earth divided; and his brother's name was Joktan.

26 And Joktan begat Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah.

27 And Hadoram, and Uzal, and Diklah,

28 And Obal, and Abimael, and Sheba,

29 And Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab: all these were the sons of Joktan.

30 And their dwelling was from Mesha, as thou goest, unto Sephar, a mount of the east.

31 These are the sons of Shem, after their families, after their tongues, in their lands, after their nations.

32 These are the families of the sons of Noah, after their generations, in their nations: and by these were the nations divided in the earth after the flood.

1 One language in the world. 3 The building of Babel, and confusion of tongues. 10 The generations of Shem, 27 and of Terah. 31 Terah goeth from Ur to Haran.

AND the whole earth ^awas of one ¹language, and of one ²speech.

2 And it came to pass, as they journeyed ³from the east, that they found a plain in the land of ^bShinar; and they dwelt there.

3 And ⁴they said one to another, Go to, let us make brick, and ⁵burn them thoroughly. And they had brick for stone, and slime had they for mortar.

4 And they said, Go to, let us build us a city, and a tower whose top ⁶may reach ^cunto heaven; and let us make us ^da name, lest we be ^escattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.

5 And the LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded.

6 And the LORD said, Behold, the people ^fis one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have ^gimagined to do.

7 Go to, ^hlet us go down, and there confound their language, that they may ⁱnot understand one another's speech.

8 So the LORD scattered them abroad from thence ^jupon the face of all the earth: and they left off to build the city.

9 Therefore is the name of it called ^kBabel; ^lbecause the LORD did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the LORD scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth.

12 And Arphaxad lived five and thirty years, and begat ^mSalah:

22 And Serug lived thirty years, and begat Nahor:

23 And Serug lived after he begat Nahor two hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

24 And Nahor lived nine and twenty years, and begat ^rTerah:

25 And Nahor lived after he begat Terah an hundred and nineteen years, and begat sons and daughters.

26 And Terah lived seventy years, and begat ^sAbram, Nahor, and Haran.

27 ¶ Now these are the generations of Terah: Terah begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran; and Haran begat ^tLot.

28 And Haran died before his father Terah in the land of his nativity, in Ur of the Chaldees.

29 And Abram and Nahor took them wives: the name of Abram's wife was ^uSarai; and the name of Nahor's wife, ^vMilcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah, and the father of Iscah.

30 But Sarai was ^wbarren; she had no child.

31 And Terah took Abram his son, and Lot the son of Haran his son's son, and Sarai his daughter-in-law, his son Abram's wife; and they ¹went forth with them from Ur of the Chaldees, to go into the land of ²Canaan; and they came unto ¹²Haran, and dwelt there.

32 And the days of Terah were two hundred and five years: and Terah died in Haran.

CHAPTER 12.

God calleth Abram, and blesseth him with a promise of Christ: 4 he departs from Haran. 6 Canaan promised.

NOW the ^aLORD had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will show thee:

2 And I will make of thee ^ba great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing:

3 And I will ^cbless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and ^din thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

4 So Abram departed, as the LORD had spoken unto him; and Lot went with him: and Abram was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Haran.

5 And Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all their substance that they had gathered, and the souls that they had gotten in ^eHaran; and they went forth to go ^finto the land of Canaan; and into the land of Canaan they came.

6 ¶ And Abram passed through the land unto the place of ¹Sichem, unto the plain of ²Moreh. And the Canaanite was then in the land.

7 And the LORD ^happeared unto Abram, and said, ⁱUnto thy seed will I give this land: and there builded he an ^jaltar unto the LORD, who appeared unto him.

8 And he removed from thence unto a mountain on the east of Beth-el, and pitched his tent, having Beth-el on the west, and ²Hai on the east: and there he builded an altar unto the LORD, and called upon the name of the LORD.

9 And Abram journeyed, ³going ^kon still toward the south.

the famine was ^ugrievous in the land.

11 And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into Egypt, that he said unto Sarai his wife, Behold now, I know that thou art ^va fair woman to look upon:

12 Therefore it shall come to pass, when the Egyptians shall see thee, that they shall say, This is his wife: and they ^wwill kill me, but they will save thee alive.

13 ^xSay, I pray thee, ^ythou art my sister: that it may be well with me for thy sake; and my soul shall live because of thee.

14 ¶ And it came to pass, that when Abram was come into Egypt, the Egyptians beheld the woman, that she was very fair.

15 ^zThe princes also of Pharaoh saw her, and commended her before Pharaoh: and the woman was taken into Pharaoh's house.

16 And he entreated Abram well for her sake: and he had sheep, and oxen, and he-asses, and men-servants, and maid-servants, and she-asses, and camels.

17 And the LORD ¹plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram's wife.

18 And Pharaoh called Abram, and said, ²What is this that thou hast done unto me? why didst thou not tell me that she was thy wife?

19 Why saidst thou, She is my sister? so I might have taken her to me to wife: now therefore behold thy wife, take her, and go thy way.

20 And ³Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him: and they sent him away, and his wife, and all that he had.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Abram and Lot return from Egypt: 7 they part asunder. 10 Lot goes to Sodom. 14 God's promise renewed to Abram. 18 He goeth to Hebron, and there builds an altar.

AND Abram went up out of Egypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him, into the south.

2 And Abram was ^avery rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold.

3 And he went on his journeys from the south even to Beth-el, unto the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Beth-el and Hai;

4 Unto the place of the ^baltar, which he had made there at the first: and there Abram called on the name of the LORD.

5 ¶ And Lot also, which went with Abram, had flocks, and herds, and tents.

6 And the land was ^cnot able to bear them, that they might dwell together: for their substance was great, so that they could not dwell together.

7 And there was a ^dstrife between the herdmen of Abram's cattle and the herdmen of Lot's cattle. And the Canaanite and the Perizzite dwelt then in the land.

8 And Abram said unto Lot, ^eLet there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdmen and thy herdmen; for we be ¹brethren.

9 ^fIs not the whole land before thee? separate thyself, I pray thee, from me: ^gif thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if thou depart to the right hand, then I will go to the left.

10 And Lot lifted up his eyes, ^hand beheld all the ⁱplain of Jordan, that it was well watered every where, before the LORD ^jdestroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, even as the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt, as thou comest unto ^kZoar.

11 Then Lot chose him all the plain of Jordan; and Lot journeyed east: and they separated themselves the one from the other.

12 Abram dwelt in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelt in the ^lcities of the plain, and pitched his tent toward Sodom.

13 But ^mthe men of Sodom were wicked, and ⁿsinners before the LORD exceedingly.

14 ¶ And the LORD said unto Abram, after that Lot was separated from him, ^oLift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art ^pnorthward, and southward, and eastward, and westward;

15 For all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it, and to thy ^qseed for ever.

16 And I will make thy seed as the ^rdust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed also be numbered.

17 Arise, walk through the land, in the length of it, and in the breadth of it; for I will give it unto thee.

CHAPTER 14.

1 The battle of four kings against five. 12 Lot taken prisoner, 14 is rescued by Abram. 18 Melchizedek blesseth Abram: 20 Abram giveth him tithes.

AND it came to pass in the days of Amraphel king of ^aShinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of ^bElam, and Tidal king of nations;

2 That these ^cmade war with Bera king of Sodom, and with Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of ^dAdmah, and Shemeber king of Zebaiim, and the king of Bela, which is ^eZoar.

3 All these were joined together in the vale of Siddim, ^fwhich is the salt sea.

4 Twelve years they served Chedorlaomer, and in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

5 And in the fourteenth year came Chedorlaomer, and the kings that were with him, and smote the Rephaims in Ashteroth Karnaim, and the Zuzims in Ham, and the Emims in ¹Shaveh Kiriathaim,

6 And the Horites in their mount Seir, unto ²El-paran, which is by the wilderness.

7 And they returned, and came to En-mishpat, which is ³Kadesh, and smote all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites, that dwelt in Hazezon-tamar.

8 And there went out the king of Sodom, and the king of Gomorrah, and the king of Admah, and the king of Zebaiim, and the king of Bela, (the same is Zoar); and they joined battle with them in the vale of Siddim;

9 With Chedorlaomer the king of Elam, and with Tidal king of nations, and Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar; four kings with five.

10 And the vale of Siddim was full of ⁴slimepits; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, and fell there; and they that remained fled to the ⁵mountain.

11 And they took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their victuals, and went their way.

12 And they took Lot, Abram's ⁶brother's son, ⁷who dwelt in Sodom, and his goods, and departed.

13 ¶ And there came one that had escaped, and told Abram the Hebrew ; for he dwelt in the plain of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol, and brother of Aner : and these were confederate with Abram.

14 And when Abram heard that his brother was taken captive, he armed his ⁴trained servants, ^uborn in his own house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued them unto Dan.

15 And he divided himself against them, he and his servants, by night, and ^osmote them, and pursued them unto Hobah, which is on the left hand of Damascus.

16 And ^phe brought back all the goods, and also brought again his brother Lot, and his goods, and the women also, and the people.

17 ¶ And the king of Sodom went out to meet him after his return from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer, and of the kings that were with him, at the valley of Shaveh, which is the ^qking's dale.

18 And ^rMelchizedek king of Salem brought forth bread and wine : and he was ^sthe priest of the most high God.

19 And he blessed him, and said, Blessed be Abram of the most high God, possessor of heaven and earth :

20 And blessed be the most high God, which hath delivered thine enemies into thy hand. And he gave him ^ttithes of all.

21 And the king of Sodom said unto Abram, Give me the ^vpersons, and take the goods to thyself.

22 And Abram said to the king of Sodom, ^wI have lift up mine hand unto the LORD, the most high God, ^vthe possessor of heaven and earth,

23 That ^wI will not take from a thread even to a shoelatchet, and that I will not take any thing that is thine, lest thou shouldest say, I have made Abram rich :

24 Save only that which the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men which went with me, Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre ; let them take their portion.

CHAPTER 15.

^a in a vision, saying, ^b Fear not, Abram : I am thy shield, and thy ^c exceeding great reward.

2 And Abram said, Lord God, what wilt thou give me, seeing I go childless, and the steward of my house is this Eliezer of Damascus?

3 And Abram said, Behold, to me thou hast given no seed : and, lo, one born in my house is mine heir.

4 And, behold, the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, This shall not be thine heir ; but he that ^d shall come forth out of thine own bowels shall be thine heir.

5 And he brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now toward heaven, and ^e tell the stars, if thou be able to number them : and he said unto him, ^f So shall thy seed be.

6 And ^g he believed in the LORD ; and he ^h counted it to him for righteousness.

7 And he said unto him, I am the LORD that ⁱ brought thee out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give thee this land to inherit it.

8 And he said, Lord God, ^j where-by shall I know that I shall inherit it?

9 And he said unto him, Take me an heifer of three years old, and a she-goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtle-dove, and a young pigeon.

10 And he took unto him all these, and divided them in the midst, and laid each piece one against another : but the birds divided he not.

11 And when the fowls came down upon the carcases, Abram drove them away.

12 And when the sun was going down, a ^k deep sleep fell upon Abram ; and, lo, an horror of great darkness fell upon him.

13 And he said unto Abram, Know of a surety that ^l thy seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, and shall serve them ; and they shall ^m afflict them ⁿ four hundred years ;

14 And also ^o that nation, whom they shall serve, will I judge : and afterward shall they come out with great substance.

15 And thou shalt go to thy fathers in peace ; thou shalt be ^p buried in a good old age.

16 But in the fourth generation they shall come hither again : for the iniquity of the Amorites ^q is not yet full.

17 And it came to pass, that, when the sun went down, and it was dark, behold a smoking furnace, and ¹a burning lamp that passed between those pieces.

18 In that same day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, Unto thy seed ^ahave I given this land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river, the river Euphrates:

19 The Kenites, and the Kenizzites, and the Kadmonites,

20 And the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Rephaims, 21 And the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Girgashites, and the Jebusites.

CHAPTER 16.

1 Sarai, being barren, giveth Hagar to Abram. 6 Hagar fleeth from her mistress, 9 is sent back by an angel to submit to her. 15 Ishmael is born.

NOW Sarai, Abram's wife, ^abare him no children: and she had an handmaid, an Egyptian, whose name was ¹Hagar.

2 And Sarai said unto Abram, Behold now, the LORD hath ^brestrained me from bearing: I pray thee, go in unto my maid; it may be that I may ²obtain children by her. And Abram hearkened to the voice of Sarai.

3 And Sarai, Abram's wife, took Hagar her maid, the Egyptian, after Abram had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife.

4 And he went in unto Hagar, and she conceived: and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was ^cdespised in her eyes.

5 And Sarai said unto Abram, My wrong ^{be} upon thee: I have given my maid into thy bosom; and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes: ^dthe LORD judge between me and thee.

6 But Abram said unto Sarai, Behold, thy maid is in thy hand; do to her ³as it pleaseth thee. And when Sarai ⁴dealt hardly with her, she fled from her face.

7 ¶ And the angel of the LORD found her by a fountain of water in the wilderness, by the fountain in the way to ^eShur.

8 And he said, Hagar, Sarai's maid, whence camest thou? and whither wilt thou go? And she said, I flee from the face of my mistress Sarai.

1 The covenant is renewed. 5 Abram's name changed. 9 Circumcision instituted. 16 Isaac with a numerous issue is promised.

AND when Abram was ninety years old and nine, the LORD appeared to Abram, and said unto him, I am the Almighty God: ^awalk before me, and be thou ^bperfect.

2 And I will make my ^ccovenant between me and thee, and will multiply thee exceedingly.

3 And Abram ^dfell on his face: and God talked with him, saying,

5 Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram, but thy name shall be ³Abraham; for a father of many nations have I made thee.

And I will give unto thee, and thy seed after thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession; and I will be their God.

¶ And God said unto Abraham, Thou shalt keep my covenant therefore, thou, and thy seed after thee in their generations.

¶ This is my covenant, which ye shall keep, between me and you and thy seed after thee; Every man-child among you shall be circumcised.

¶ And ye shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin; and it shall be a token of the covenant betwixt me and you.

¶ And he that is eight days old shall be circumcised among you, every man-child in your generations, he that is born in the house, or bought with money of any stranger, which is not of thy seed.

¶ He that is born in thy house, and he that is bought with thy money, must needs be circumcised: and my covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.

¶ And the uncircumcised man-child, whose flesh of his foreskin is not circumcised, that soul shall be cut off from his people; he hath broken my covenant.

¶ And God said unto Abraham, As for Sarai thy wife, thou shalt not call her name Sarai, but ⁶Sarah shall her name be.

¶ And I will bless her, and I will give thee a son also of her; yea, I will bless her, and she shall ⁷be a mother of nations; kings of people shall be of her.

CHAPTER 18.

1 Abraham entertaineth three angels. 9 Sarah reproved. 17 Destruction of Sodom revealed to Abraham: 23 he intercedes for it.

AND the LORD ^aappeared unto him in the plains of Mamre: and he sat in the tent door in the heat of the day;

2 And he lift up his eyes and looked, and lo, ^bthree men stood by him: and, when he saw ^cthem, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself toward the ground,

3 And said, My Lord, if now I have found favour in thy sight, pass not away, I pray thee, from thy servant:

4 Let a little water, I pray you, be fetched, and ^dwash your feet. and rest yourselves under the tree:

5 And I will fetch a morsel of bread, and ^ecomfort ye your hearts; after that ye shall pass on: for therefore ^fare ye come to your servant. And they said, So do, as thou hast said.

6 And Abraham hastened into the tent unto Sarah, and said, ^gMake ready quickly three measures of fine meal, knead it, and make cakes upon the hearth.

7 And Abraham ran unto the herd, and fetched a calf tender and good, and gave it unto a young man; and he hasted to dress it.

8 And he took butter, and milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree, and they did eat.

9 ¶ And they said unto him, Where is Sarah thy wife? And he said, Behold, ^ein the tent.

10 And he said, I will certainly return unto thee according to the time of life; and, lo, Sarah thy wife ^fshall have a son. And Sarah heard it in the tent door, which was behind him.

11 Now Abraham and Sarah were ^gold and well stricken in age; and it ceased to be with Sarah after the ^hmanner of women.

12 Therefore Sarah laughed within herself, saying, ⁱAfter I am waxed old shall I have pleasure, my ^jlord being old also?

13 And the LORD said unto Abraham, Wherefore did Sarah laugh, saying, Shall I of a surety bear a child, which am old?

14 Is any thing ^ktoo hard for the LORD? At the time appointed I will return unto thee, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son.

15 Then Sarah denied, saying, I laughed not; for she was afraid. And he said, Nay; but thou didst laugh.

16 ¶ And the men rose up from thence, and looked toward Sodom: and Abraham went with them to bring them on the way.

17 And the LORD said, ^lShall I hide from Abraham that thing which I do;

18 Seeing that Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall ^mbe blessed in him?

19 For I know him, that he ⁿwill command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the LORD, to do justice and judgment; that the LORD may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him.

22 And the men turned their face from thence, and went toward Sodom: but Abraham stood yet before the ^bLORD.

23 ¶ And Abraham drew near, and said, ^cWilt thou also destroy the righteous with the wicked?

24 Peradventure there be ^dfifty righteous within the city: wilt thou also destroy and not spare the place for the fifty righteous that are therein?

25 That be far from thee to do after this manner, to slay the righteous with the wicked: and that the ^erighteous should be as the wicked, that be far from thee: ^fShall not the Judge of all the earth do right?

26 And the LORD said, ^gIf I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sakes.

27 And Abraham answered and said, ^hBehold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the LORD, which am but ⁱdust and ashes:

31 And he said, Behold now, ^mI have taken upon me to speak unto the LORD: Peradventure there shall be twenty found there. And he said, I will not destroy it for twenty's sake.

32 And he said, ⁿOh let not the LORD be angry, and I will speak yet but this once: Peradventure ten shall be found there. And he said, ^oI will not destroy it for ten's sake.

33 And the LORD went his way, as soon as he had left communing with Abraham: and Abraham returned unto his place.

not entertaineth two angels. 4 The vicious sodomites stricken with blindness. 17 He is directed to flee to the mountain. 26 Sodom and Gomorrah destroyed. 26 Lot's wife punished. 31 Origin of Moab and Ammon.

AND there came ^atwo angels to Sodom at even; and Lot sat at the gate of Sodom: and Lot seeing them rose up to meet them; and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground;

And he said, Behold now, my lords, ^bturn in, I pray you, into your servant's house, and tarry all night, and wash your feet, and ye shall rise up early, and go on your ways. And they said, Nay; ^cbut we will abide in the street all night.

And he pressed upon them greatly; and they turned in unto him, and entered into his house; and he made them a feast, and did eat unleavened bread, and they did eat.

¶ But, before they lay down, the men of the city, even the men of Sodom, compassed the house round, both old and young, all the people from every quarter:

And they called unto Lot, and said unto him, ^fWhere are the men which came in to thee this night? bring them out unto us, that we may know them.

And ^gLot went out at the door unto them, and shut the door after him,

And said, I pray you, brethren, do not so wickedly.

Behold now, I have two daughters which have not known man; let me, I pray you, bring them out unto you, and do ye to them as is good in your eyes: only unto these men do nothing; for ^htherefore came they under the shadow of my roof.

And they said, Stand back. And they said again, This one fellow came in to sojourn, and he will needs be a judge: now will we deal worse with thee than with them. And they pressed sore upon the man, even Lot, and came near to break the door.

But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the door.

And they smote the men that were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great; so that they wearied themselves to find the door.

12 ¶ And the men said unto Lot, Hast thou here any besides? son-in-law, and thy sons, and thy daughters, and whatsoever thou hast in the city, ⁱbring them out of this place:

13 For we will destroy this place, because the cry of them is waxen great before the face of the LORD; and the LORD hath ^msent us to destroy it.

14 And Lot went out, and spake unto his sons-in-law, which ⁿmarried his daughters, and said, ^oUp, get you out of this place; for the LORD will destroy this city. But he seemed ^pas one that mocked unto his sons-in-law.

15 ¶ And when the morning arose, then the angels hastened Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters, which ¹are here: lest thou be consumed in ²the iniquity of the city.

16 And, while he lingered, the men laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters; ^qthe LORD being merciful unto him: and they brought him forth, and set him without the city.

17 And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth abroad, that he said, ^rEscape for thy life; ^slook not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the plain; escape to the mountain, lest thou be consumed.

18 And Lot said unto them, Oh! not so, my lord:

19 Behold now, thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, and ^tthou hast magnified thy mercy, which thou hast showed unto me in saving my life; and I cannot escape to the mountain, lest some evil take me, and I die:

20 Behold now, this city is near to flee unto, and it is a little one: Oh! let me escape thither, (is it not a little one?) and my soul shall live.

21 And he said unto him, See, I have accepted ³thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow this city, for the which thou hast spoken.

22 Haste thee, escape thither; for I cannot do any thing till thou be come thither. Therefore the name of the city was ^ucalled ⁴Zoar.

23 The sun was ⁵risen upon the earth when Lot entered into Zoar.

24 Then ^vthe LORD rained upon

Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven;

25 And he overthrew those cities, and all ¹⁰the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground.

26 But his wife ^alooked back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt.

27 And Abraham gat up early in the morning to the place where ⁹he stood before the LORD:

28 And he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain, and beheld, and, lo, ^athe smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace.

29 ¶ And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God ^aremembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in the which Lot dwelt.

30 ¶ And Lot went up out of Zoar, and ^bdwelt in the mountain, and his two daughters with him; for he feared to dwell in Zoar: and he dwelt in a cave, he and his two daughters.

31 And the first-born said unto the younger, Our father is old, and there is not a man in the earth ^cto come in unto us after the manner of all the earth:

32 Come, ^dlet us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, ^ethat we may preserve seed of our father.

33 And they made their father drink wine that night: and the first-born went in, and lay with her father; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

34 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the first-born said unto the younger, Behold, I lay yesternight with my father: let us make him drink wine this night also; and go thou in, and lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father.

35 And they made their father drink wine that night also: and the younger arose, and lay with him; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

36 Thus were both the daughters of Lot with child by their father.

37 And the first-born bare a son, and called his name Moab: the

CHAPTER 20.

1 Abraham denieth his wife, and Abimelech taketh her: 14 he restoreth her with presents.

AND Abraham journeyed from ^athence toward the south country, and dwelled between Kadesh and Shur, and sojourned in ^bGerar.

2 And ^cAbraham said of Sarah his wife, She is my sister: and Abimelech king of Gerar sent and ^dtook Sarah.

3 But God ^ecame to Abimelech / in a dream by night, and said to him, Behold, thou art but ⁹a dead man, for the woman which thou hast taken; for she is ^{1a}a man's wife.

4 But Abimelech had not come near her: and he said, Lord, ^hwilt thou slay also a righteous nation?

5 Said he not unto me, She is my sister? and she, even she herself said, He is my brother: in the ²integrity of my heart, and innocency of my hands, have I done this.

6 And God said unto him in a dream, Yea, I know that thou didst this in the integrity of thy heart; for I also ⁱwithheld thee from sinning against me: therefore suffered I thee not to touch her.

7 Now therefore restore the man his wife; for he is a prophet, and ^jhe shall pray for thee, and thou shalt live: and if thou restore her not, know thou that thou shalt surely die, thou, and all that are thine.

8 Therefore Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ears: and the men were sore afraid.

9 Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said unto him, What hast thou done unto us? and what have I offended thee, that thou hast brought on me and on my kingdom ^{ka}a great sin? thou hast done deeds unto me that ought not to be done.

10 And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What sawest thou, that thou hast done this thing?

11 And Abraham said, Because I thought; Surely the fear of God is not in this place; and they will slay me for my wife's sake.

12 And ^myet indeed she is my sister; she is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife.
13 And it came to pass, when ⁿGod caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said unto her, This is thy kindness which thou shalt show unto me; at every place whither we shall come, say of me, He is my brother.

14 And Abimelech took ^psheep, and oxen, and men-servants, and women-servants, and gave them unto Abraham, and restored him Sarah his wife.

15 And Abimelech said, ^qBehold, my land is before thee: dwell where it pleaseth thee.

16 And unto Sarah he said, Behold, I have given thy ^rbrother a thousand pieces of silver: behold, he is to thee a covering of the eyes, unto all that are with thee, and with all other: thus she was reproved.

17 So Abraham ^sprayed unto God: and God healed Abimelech, and his wife, and his maid-servants; and they bare children.

18 For the LORD had ^tfast closed up all the wombs of the house of Abimelech because of Sarah, Abraham's wife.

5 And Abraham was an hundred years old when his son Isaac was born unto him.

weaned: and Abraham made a great feast the same day that Isaac was weaned.

9 ¶ And Sarah saw the ⁱson of Hagar the Egyptian, which she had born unto Abraham, ^jmocking.

10 Wherefore she said unto Abraham, ^kCast out this bond-woman and her son: for the son of this bond-woman shall not be heir with my son, ^leven with Isaac.

11 And the thing was very ^mgrievous in Abraham's sight because of his son.

12 And God said unto Abraham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight because of the lad, and because of thy bond-woman; in all that Sarah hath said unto thee, hearken unto her voice; for ⁿin Isaac shall thy seed be called.

13 And also ^oof the son of the bond-woman will I make a nation, because he is thy seed.

14 And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread and a bottle of water, and gave it unto Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, and the child, and ^psent her away. And she departed, and wandered in the wilderness of Beer-sheba.

15 And ^qthe water was spent in the bottle, and she cast the child under one of the shrubs.

16 And she went, and sat her down over against him a good way off, as it were a bow-shot; for she said, ^rLet me not see the death of the child. And she sat over against him, and lift up her voice, and wept.

17 And ^sGod heard the voice of the lad; and the angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven, and said unto her, What aileth thee, Hagar? fear not; for God hath heard the voice of the lad where he is.

18 Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him in thine hand; for ^tI will make him a great nation.

19 And God ^uopened her eyes, and she saw a well of water; and she went and filled the bottle with water, and gave the lad drink.

20 And ^vGod was with the lad; and he grew, and ^wdwelt in the wilderness, and became an archer.

21 And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran: and his mother took him a wife out of the ^xland of Egypt.

22 ¶ And it came to pass at that time, that ^yAbimelech and Phicol the chief captain of his host spake unto Abraham, saying, ^y God is with thee in all that thou doest :

23 Now therefore ^z swear unto me here by God, ¹ that thou wilt not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son's son : but according to the kindness that I have done unto thee, thou shalt do unto me, and to the land wherein thou hast sojourned.

24 And Abraham said, I will swear.

25 And Abraham reproved Abimelech because of a well of water, which Abimelech's servants had ^a violently taken away.

26 And Abimelech said, ^b I wot not who hath done this thing ; neither didst thou tell me, neither yet heard I of it, but to-day.

27 And Abraham took sheep and oxen, and gave them unto Abimelech ; and both of them ^c made a covenant.

28 And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves.

29 And Abimelech said unto Abraham, ^d What mean these seven ewe lambs which thou hast set by themselves ?

30 And he said, For these seven ewe lambs shalt thou take of my hand, that ^e they may be a witness unto me, that I have digged this well.

31 Wherefore he ^f called that place ² Beer-sheba ; because there they swear both of them.

32 Thus they made a covenant at Beer-sheba : then Abimelech rose up, and Phichol the chief captain of his host, and they returned into the ^g land of the Philistines.

33 ¶ And Abraham planted a ³ grove in Beer-sheba, and called there on the name of the LORD, the ^h everlasting God.

34 And Abraham sojourned in the Philistines' land many days.

3 And Abraham ^d rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son, and claveth wood for the burnt offering, and rose up, and went unto the place of which God had told him.

4 Then on the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place afar off.

5 And Abraham said unto his young men, Abide ye here with the ass ; and I and the lad will go yonder and worship, and come again to you.

6 And Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering, and ^e laid it upon Isaac his son ; and he took the fire in his hand, and a knife ; and they went both of them together.

7 And Isaac spake unto Abraham his father, and said, My father : and he said, ² Here am I, my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood ; but where is the ³ lamb for a burnt offering ?

8 And Abraham said, My son, ^f God will provide himself a lamb for a burnt offering : so they went both of them together.

9 And they came to the place which God had told him of ; and Abraham built an altar there, and laid the wood in order, and ^g bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar upon the wood.

10 And Abraham ^h stretched forth his hand, and took the knife to slay his son.

11 And the angel of the LORD called unto him out of heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham : and he said, Here am I.

12 And he said, ⁱ Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him : for now ^j I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son, from me.

13 And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold behind him a ram caught in a thicket by his horns : and Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering ^k in the stead of his son.

14 And Abraham called the name of that place ⁴ Jehovah-jireh : as it is said to this day, In the mount of the LORD it shall be seen.

15 And the angel of the LORD called unto Abraham out of heaven the second time,

16 And said, ^l By myself have I

18 And ^pin thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; ^qbecause thou hast obeyed my voice.

19 So Abraham returned unto his young men, and they rose up and went together to Beer-sheba; and Abraham dwelt at Beer-sheba.

20 ¶ And it came to pass after these things, that it was told Abraham, saying, Behold, ^rMilcah, she hath also born children unto thy brother Nahor;

21 ^sHuz his first-born, and Buz his brother, and Kemuel the father of Aram, 22 And Chesed, and Hazo, and Pildash, and Jidlaph, and Bethuel.

send me good speed this day, and show kindness unto my master Abraham.

13 Behold, I stand here by the well of water; and the daughters of the men of the city come out to draw water:

14 And let it come to pass, that the damsel to whom I shall say, Let down thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drink; and she shall say, Drink, and I will give thee: camels drink also: let the same be she ⁴that thou hast appointed for thy servant Isaac; and ⁷thereby shall I know that thou hast showed kindness unto my master.

15 ¶ And it came to pass, ⁸before he had done speaking, that, behold, Rebekah came out, who was born to Bethuel, son of ¹Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, with her pitcher upon her shoulder.

16 And the damsel was ⁹very ⁴fair to look upon, a virgin, neither had any man known her: and she went down to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came up.

17 And the servant ran to meet her, and said, ¹⁰Let me, I pray thee, drink a little water of thy pitcher.

18 And she said, ¹¹Drink, my lord: and she hastened, and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink.

19 And when she had done giving him drink, she said, I will draw water for thy camels also, until they have done drinking.

20 And she hastened, and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again unto the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels.

21 And the man ¹²wondering at her held his peace, to wit whether the LORD had made his journey prosperous or not.

22 And it came to pass, as the camels had done drinking, that the man took a golden ¹³earring ³of half a shekel weight, and two bracelets for her hands of ten shekels weight of gold;

23 And said, Whose daughter art thou? tell me, I pray thee: is there room in thy father's house for us to lodge in?

24 And she said unto him, I am the daughter of Bethuel the son of Milcah, which she bare unto Nahor.

25 She said moreover unto him ¹⁴We have both straw and provender enough, and room to lodge in.

6 And the man ^abowed down his ad, and worshipped the LORD.
7 And he said, ^bBlessed be the LORD God of my master Abraham, who hath not left destitute my master of ^chis mercy and his truth:
being in the way, ^dthe LORD led me to the house of my master's brethren.
8 And the damsel ran, and told the name of her mother's house these things.
9 ¶ And Rebekah had a brother, and his name was ^eLaban: and Laban ran out unto the man, unto the well.
10 And it came to pass, when he saw the earring, and bracelets upon his sister's hands, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, Thus spake the man unto me, that he came unto the man; and, behold, he stood by the camels at the well.
11 And he said, Come in, ^fthou blessed of the LORD; wherefore standest thou without? for I have prepared the house, and room for the camels.
12 And the man came into the house: and he ungirded his camels, and ^ggave straw and provender for the camels, and water to wash his feet, and the men's feet that were with him.
13 And there was set meat before him to eat: but he said, ^hI will not eat, until I have told mine errand.
And he said, Speak on.
14 And he said, I am Abraham's servant.
15 And the LORD hath ⁱblessed my master greatly; and he is become great: and he hath given him locks, and herds, and silver, and gold, and men-servants, and maidservants, and camels, and asses.
16 And Sarah my master's wife bare a son to my master when she was old: and ^junto him hath he given all that he hath.
17 And my master ^kmade me swear, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I am well:
18 But thou shalt go unto my master's house, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son.
19 And I said unto my master, peradventure the woman will not follow me.
20 And ^lhe said unto me, The LORD, before whom ^oI walk, will send his ^pangel with thee, and prosper thy way; and thou shalt take a wife for my son of my kindred, and of my father's house:

41 ^qThen shalt thou be clear from this my oath, when thou comest to my kindred; and if they give not thee one, thou shalt be clear from my oath.

42 And I came this day unto the well, and said, ^rO LORD God of my master Abraham, if now thou do ^sprosper my way which I go:

43 ^tBehold, I stand by the well of water; and it shall come to pass, that when the virgin cometh forth to draw water, and I say to her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher to drink;

44 And she say to me, ^uBoth drink thou, and I will also draw for thy camels: let the same be the woman whom the LORD hath appointed out for my master's son.

45 And ^vbefore I had done ^wspeaking in mine heart, behold, Rebekah came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down unto the well, and drew water: and I said unto her, Let me drink, I pray thee.

46 And she made haste, and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: so I drank, and she made the camels drink also.

47 And I asked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? And she said, The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bare unto him: and I put the ^xearring upon her face, and the bracelets upon her hands.

48 And I ^ybowed down my head, and worshipped the LORD, and blessed the LORD God of my master Abraham, which had ^zled me in the right way to take my master's brother's daughter unto his son.

49 And now if ye will ^{aa}deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me:
and if not, tell me; that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left.

50 Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, ^{ab}The thing proceedeth from the LORD: we cannot speak unto thee bad or good.

51 Behold, Rebekah is ^{ac}before thee, take her, and go, and let her be thy master's son's wife, as the LORD hath spoken.

52 And it came to pass, that, when

Abraham's servant heard their words, he worshipped the LORD, bowing himself to the earth.

53 And the servant brought forth ^ajewels of silver, and ^bjewels of gold, and raiment, and gave them to Rebekah: he gave also to her brother and to her mother ^cprecious things.

54 And they did eat and drink, he and the men that were with him, and tarried all night: and they rose up in the morning; and he said, ^fSend me away unto my master.

55 And her brother and her mother said, Let the damsel abide with us ⁷a few days, at the least ten; after that she shall go.

56 And he said unto them, Hinder me not, seeing the LORD hath ^gprospered my way; send me away that I may go to my master.

57 And they said, We will call the damsel, and enquire at her mouth.

58 And they called Rebekah, and said unto her, Wilt thou go with this man? And she said, I will go.

59 And they sent away Rebekah their sister, and her ^hnurse, and Abraham's servant, and his men.

60 And they blessed Rebekah, and said unto her, Thou art our sister, be thou ⁱthe mother of thousands of millions, and let thy ^jseed possess the gate of those which hate them.

61 ¶ And Rebekah arose, and her damsels, and they rode upon the camels, and followed the man: and the servant took Rebekah, and went his way.

62 And Isaac came from the way of the well ^kLahai-roi; for he dwelt in the south country.

63 And Isaac went out ⁸to ^lmeditate in the field at the even-tide: and he lifted up his eyes, and saw, and, behold, the camels were coming.

64 And Rebekah lifted up her eyes, and when she saw Isaac, she lighted ^moff the camel.

65 For she had said unto the servant, What man is this that walketh in the field to meet us? And the servant had said, It is my master: therefore she took a ⁿveil, and covered herself.

66 And the servant told Isaac all things that he had done.

67 And Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent, and took Rebekah, and she became his wife; and he loved her: and Isaac was ^ocomforted after his mother's death.

CHAPTER 25.

1 The sons of Abraham by Keturah: 7 age and death. 12 The generation Ishmael. 23 The birth of Esau & Jacob. 29 Esau selleth his birthright.

THEN again Abraham took a wife, and her name was Keturah.

2 And she bare him ^aZimran, a Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah.

3 And Jokshan begat Sheba & Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were Asshurim, and Letushim, and Leummim.

4 And the sons of Midian; Ephraim, and Ephraim, and Hanoth, and Adah, and Eldaah. All these were the children of Keturah.

5 And Abraham ^bgave all that he had unto Isaac.

6 But unto the sons of his concubines, which Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts, and ^csent them away from Isaac his son, while he yet lived, eastward, unto the ^deast country.

7 And these are the days of the years of Abraham's life which he lived, an hundred threescore and fifteen years.

8 Then Abraham gave up his ghost, and died in ^ea good old age, an old man, and full of years; and was ^fgathered to his people.

9 And his sons ^gIsaac and Ishmael buried him ^hin the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron the son of Zohar the Hittite, which is before Mamre;

10 The ⁱfield which Abraham purchased of the sons of Heth: the same was Abraham buried, and Sarah his wife.

11 And it came to pass after the death of Abraham, that God blessed his son Isaac: and Isaac dwelt in the well ^jLahai-roi.

12 ¶ Now these are the ^kgenerations of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's handmaid, bare unto Abraham:

13 And these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their name according to their generations: the first-born of Ishmael, Nebajoth; and Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam;

14 And Mishma, and Dumah, and Massa,

15 ^lHadad, and Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah:

16 These are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names, by the towns, and by their castles; ^mtwelve princes according to their nations.

And these are the years of the of Ishmael, an hundred and ty and seven years: and he ve up the ghost and died, and gathered unto his people.

And they dwelt from ¹Havilah o Shur, that is before Egypt, as u goest toward Assyria: and he ed in the ²presence of all his thren.

³And these are the generations saac. Abraham's son: Abraham gat Isaac:

And Isaac was forty years old en he took ⁴Rebekah to wife, the ughter of Bethuel the Syrian of an-aram, the ⁵sister to Laban Syrian.

And Isaac ⁶entreated the LORD his wife, because she was bar-: and the LORD was ⁷entreated him, and Rebekah his wife neceived.

And the children struggled ether within her; and she said, it be so, why am I thus? And went to ⁸enquire of the LORD.

And the LORD said unto her, ⁹Nations are in thy womb, and ¹⁰manner of people shall be arated from thy bowels; and ¹¹one people shall be stronger in the other people; and the er shall serve the younger.

And when her days to be de-ered were fulfilled, behold, there e twins in her womb.

And the first came out red, ¹²all erlike an hairy garment; and they led his name Esau.

And after that came his brother , and ¹³his hand took hold on au's heel; and ¹⁴his name was ed Jacob: and Isaac was three- re years old when she bare m.

And the boys grew: and Esau as a ¹⁵cunning hunter, a man of the d; and Jacob was ¹⁶a plain man, welling in tents.

And Isaac loved Esau, because e did ¹⁷eat of his venison: /but ebekah loved Jacob.

And Jacob sod pottage: and n came from the field, and he s faint:

And Esau said to Jacob, Feed I pray thee, ¹⁸with that same red tage; for I am faint: therefore s his name called ¹⁹Edom.

And Jacob said, Sell me this y birthright.

CHAPTER 26.

1 Isaac because of famine goeth to Gerar: 23 God appeareth to him at Beer-sheba, and blesseth him. 26 Abimelech's covenant with him.

AND there was a famine in the land, besides ²the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went unto ³Abimelech king of the Philistines unto Gerar. 2 And the LORD appeared unto him, and said, Go not down into Egypt; dwell in the ⁴land which I shall tell thee of:

3 ⁵Sojourn in this land, and ⁶I will be with thee, and ⁷I will bless thee; for unto thee, and unto thy seed, ⁸I will give all these countries; and I will perform ⁹the oath which I swore unto Abraham thy father;

4 And ¹⁰I will make thy seed to multiply as the stars of heaven, and will give unto thy seed all these countries; and ¹¹in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed;

5 ¹²Because that Abraham obeyed my voice, and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws.

6 ¹³And Isaac dwelt in Gerar:

7 And the men of the place asked him of his wife; and he said, ¹⁴She is my sister: for ¹⁵he feared to say, She is my wife; lest, said he, the men of the place should kill me for Rebekah; because she was ¹⁶fair to look upon.

8 And it came to pass, when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked out at a window, and saw, and, behold, Isaac was sporting with Rebekah his wife.

9 And Abimelech called Isaac, and said, Behold, of a surety she is thy wife; and how saidst thou, She is my sister? And Isaac said unto him, Because I said, Lest I die for her.

10 And Abimelech said, What is this thou hast done unto us? one of the people might lightly have lien with thy wife, and ¹⁷thou shouldest have brought guiltiness upon us.

11 And Abimelech charged all his people, saying, He that ^utoucheth this man or his wife shall surely be put to death.

12 Then Isaac sowed in that land, and ¹received in the same year ^aan hundredfold: and the LORD ^rblessed him:

13 And the man ^awaxed great, and ²went forward, and grew until he became very great:

14 For he had possession of flocks, and possession of herds, and great store of ³servants: and the Philistines ^tenvied him.

15 For all the wells ^uwhich his father's servants had digged in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines had stopped them, and filled them with earth.

16 And Abimelech said unto Isaac, Go from us; for ^vthou art much mightier than we.

17 ¶ And Isaac departed thence, and pitched his tent in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt there.

18 And Isaac digged again the wells of water which they had digged in the days of Abraham his father; for the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham: ^wand he called their names after the names by which his father had called them.

19 And Isaac's servants digged in the valley, and found there a well of ⁴springing water.

20 And the herdmen of Gerar ^xdid strive with Isaac's herdmen, saying, The water is ours: and he called the name of the well ⁵Esek; because they strove with him.

21 And they digged another well, and strove for that also: and he called the name of it ⁶Sitnah.

22 And he removed from thence, and digged another well; and for that they strove not: and he called the name of it ⁷Rehoboth; and he said, For now the LORD hath made room for us, and we shall be ^vfruitful in the land.

23 And he went up from thence to Beer-sheba.

24 And the LORD appeared unto him the same night, and said, ⁱI am the God of Abraham thy father: ^afear not, for ^bI am with thee, and will bless thee, and multiply thy seed, for my servant Abraham's sake.

25 And he ^cbuilded an altar there, and ^dcalled upon the name of the LORD, and pitched his tent there, and there Isaac's servants digged well.

26 ¶ Then Abimelech went to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath one of his friends, and Phichol the chief captain of his army.

27 And Isaac said unto them, Wherefore come ye to me, seeing ^eye hate me, and have sent me away from you?

28 And they said, ⁸We saw certainly that the LORD ⁱwas with thee: and we said, Let there be now an oath betwixt us, ^{even} betwixt us and thee, and let us make a covenant with thee;

29 ⁹That thou wilt do us no hurt, as we have not touched thee, and as we have done unto thee nothing but good, and have sent thee away in peace: ⁹thou art now thine own, blessed of the LORD.

30 And ^hhe made them a feast, and they did eat and drink.

31 And they rose up betimes in the morning, and ⁱswore one to another: and Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace.

32 And it came to pass the same day, that Isaac's servants came, and told him concerning the well which they had digged, and said unto him, We have found water.

33 And he called it ¹⁰Shebah, ^jtherefore the name of the city is Beer-sheba unto this day.

34 ¶ ^kAnd Esau was forty years old when he took to wife Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Bashemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite:

CHAPTER 27.

¹ Isaac sendeth Esau for venison. ⁶ Jacob, instructed by Rebekah, obtaineth the blessing: ³⁴ Esau's complaint: ⁴¹ he threateneth Jacob's life.

AND it came to pass, that when Isaac was old, and ^ahis eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called Esau his eldest son, and said unto him, My son: and he said unto him, Behold, ^{here} am I.

2 And he said, Behold now, I am old, ^bI know not the day of my death.

3 ^cNow therefore take, I pray thee, thy weapons, thy quiver and thy bow, and go out to the field, and ¹take me ^{some} venison;

And make me savoury meat, such as I love, and bring it to me, that I may eat; that my soul ^dmay bless thee before I die.

And Rebekah heard when Isaac spake to Esau his son. And Esau went to the field to hunt for venison, and to bring it.

¶ And Rebekah spake unto Jacob her son, saying, Behold, I heard my father speak unto Esau thy brother, saying,

Bring me venison, and make me savoury meat, that I may eat, and bless thee before the LORD before my death.

Now therefore, my son, ^eobey my voice according to that which I command thee.

Go now to the flock, and fetch me from thence two good kids of the goats; and I will make them ^fsavoury meat for thy father, such as he loveth:

¶ And thou shalt bring it to thy father, that he may eat, and that he may bless thee before his death.

¶ And Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, Behold, ^hEsau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man:

¶ My father peradventure will feel me, and I shall seem to him as a deceiver; and I shall bring ^jan curse upon me, and not a blessing.

¶ And his mother said unto him, Upon me be thy curse, my son: only obey my voice, and go fetch me them.

¶ And he went, and fetched, and brought them to his mother: and his mother ^kmade savoury meat, such as his father loved.

¶ And Rebekah took ^ltwo goodly raiment of her eldest son Esau, which were with her in the house, and put them upon Jacob her younger son:

¶ And she put the skins of the goats upon his hands, and upon the smooth of his neck:

¶ And she gave the savoury meat and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Jacob.

¶ And he came unto his father, and said, My father: and he said, Where art thou; who art thou, my son?

¶ And Jacob said unto his father, I am Esau thy first-born; ⁿI have come according as thou badest me: see, I pray thee, sit and eat of my venison, ^othat thy soul may bless me.

20 And Isaac said unto his son, How is it that thou hast found it so quickly, my son? And he said, Because the ^pLORD thy God brought it ^qto me.

21 And Isaac said unto Jacob, Come near, I pray thee, that I ^rmay feel thee, my son, whether thou be my very son Esau or not.

22 And Jacob went near unto Isaac his father; and he felt him, and said, The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau.

23 And he discerned him not, because ^shis hands were hairy, as his brother Esau's hands: so he blessed him.

24 And he said, Art thou my very son Esau? And he said, ^tI am.

25 And he said, Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son's venison, ^uthat my soul may bless thee. And he brought it near to him, and he did eat: and he brought him wine, and he drank.

26 And his father Isaac said unto him, Come near now, and kiss me, my son.

27 And he came near, and kissed him: and he smelled the smell of his raiment, and blessed him, and said, See, ^vthe smell of my son is as the smell of a field which the LORD hath blessed:

28 Therefore ^wGod give thee of the dew of heaven, and the ^xfatness of the earth, and ^yplenty of corn and wine:

29 ^zLet people serve thee, and nations bow down to thee: be lord over thy brethren, and ^alet thy mother's sons bow down to thee: ^bcursed be every one that curseth thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee.

30 ¶ And it came to pass, as soon as Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob was yet scarce gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting.

31 And he also had made savoury meat, and brought it unto his father, and said unto his father, Let my father arise, and ^ceat of his son's venison, that thy soul may bless me.

32 And Isaac his father said unto him, Who art thou? And he said, I am thy son, thy first-born, Esau.

33 And Isaac ^dtrembled very exceedingly, and said, Who? where is he that hath ⁵taken venison, and brought it me, and I have eaten of all before thou camest, and have blessed him? yea, ^dand he shall be blessed.

34 And when Esau heard the words of his father, ^ehe cried with a great and exceeding bitter cry, and said unto his father, Bless me, even me also, O my father!

35 And he said, Thy brother came ^fwith subtilty, and hath taken away thy blessing.

36 And he said, ^gIs not he rightly named ⁶Jacob? for he hath supplanted me these two times: ^hhe took away my birthright; and, behold, now he hath taken away my blessing. And he said, Hast thou not reserved a blessing for me?

37 And Isaac answered and said unto Esau, ⁱBehold, I have made him thy lord, and all his brethren have I given to him for servants; and with ^jcorn and wine have I ⁷sustained him: and what shall I do now unto thee, my son?

38 And Esau said unto his father, Hast thou but one blessing, my father? bless me, even me also, O my father! And Esau lifted up his voice, ^kand wept.

39 And Isaac his father answered and said unto him, Behold, ^lthy dwelling shall be ⁸the fatness of the earth, and of the dew of heaven from above;

40 And by thy sword shalt thou live, and ^mshalt serve thy brother; and ⁿit shall come to pass when thou shalt have the dominion, that thou shalt break his yoke from off thy neck.

41 ¶ And Esau ^ohated Jacob because of the blessing wherewith his father blessed him: and Esau said in his heart, ^pThe days of mourning for my father are at hand; ^qthen will I slay my brother Jacob.

42 And these words of Esau her elder son were told to Rebekah: and she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said unto him, Behold, thy brother Esau, as touching thee, doth ^rcomfort himself, purposing to kill thee.

43 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice; and arise, flee thou to Laban my brother to ^sHaran;

44 And tarry with him a few days, until thy brother's fury turn away;

CHAPTER 28.

1 Jacob is blessed, and sent to Padan-aram: 10 his vision, and God's promise in a dream. 18 The stone at Beth-el 20 Jacob's vow.

AND Isaac called Jacob, and ^ablessed him, and charged him, and said unto him, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan.

2 Arise, go to Padan-aram, to the house of Bethuel thy mother's father; and take thee a wife from thence of the daughters of Laban thy mother's brother.

3 ^bAnd God Almighty bless thee, and make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, that thou mayest be ¹a multitude of people;

4 And give thee ^cthe blessing of Abraham, to thee, and to thy seed with thee; that thou mayest inherit the land ²wherein thou art ^da stranger, which God gave unto Abraham.

5 And Isaac sent away Jacob: and he went to Padan-aram unto Laban, son of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, Jacob's and Esau's mother.

6 ¶ When Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob, and sent him away to Padan-aram, to take him a wife from thence; and that, as he blessed him, he gave him a charge, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan;

7 And that Jacob obeyed his father and his mother, and was gone to Padan-aram;

8 And Esau seeing ^ethat the daughters of Canaan ³pleased not Isaac his father;

9 Then went Esau unto Ishmael, and took unto the wives which he had ^fMahalath the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham's son, the ^gsister of Nebajoth, to be his wife.

10 ¶ And Jacob went out from Beer-sheba, and went toward ^hHaran.

11 And he lighted upon a certain and tarried there all night, because the sun was set; and he took of the stones of that place, and put them for his pillows, and lay down in that place to sleep.

2 And he dreamed, and behold a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: and hehold the angels of God ascending and descending on it.

3 And, behold! the LORD stood over it, and said, I am the LORD God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: the land where thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed;

4 And thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth; and thou shalt spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south: and in thee and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed.

5 And, behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest, and will bring thee again into this land; for I will not leave thee, until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of.

6 And Jacob awaked out of his sleep, and he said, Surely the LORD is in this place: and I knew it not. 7 And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful is this place! this is none other but the house of God: and this is the gate of heaven.

8 And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put for his pillows, and set up for a pillar, and poured oil upon the top of it.

9 And he called the name of that place Beth-el; but the name of that place was called Luz at the first.

10 And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on,

11 So that I come again to my father's house in peace, then shall the LORD be my God:

12 And this stone, which I have set for a pillar, shall be God's house: and of all that thou shalt give me I will surely give the tenth into thee.

a month of days.

THEN Jacob ¹went on his journey, and came into the land of the ²people of the east.

2 And he looked, and behold a well in the field, and, lo, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks; and a great stone was upon the well's mouth.

3 And thither were all the flocks gathered: and they rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone again upon the well's mouth in his place.

4 And Jacob said unto them, My brethren, whence be ye? And they said, Of Haran are we.

5 And he said unto them, Know ye Laban the son of Nahor? And they said, We know him.

6 And he said unto them, Is he well? And they said, He is well: and, behold, Rachel his daughter cometh with the sheep.

7 And he said, Lo, it is yet high day, neither is it time that the cattle should be gathered together: water ye the sheep, and go and feed them.

8 And they said, We cannot, until all the flocks be gathered together, and till they roll the stone from the well's mouth; then we water the sheep.

9 And while he yet spake with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep: for she kept them.

10 And it came to pass, when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, that Jacob went near, and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother.

11 And Jacob kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice, and wept.

12 And Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's brother, and that he was Rebekah's son: and she ran and told her father.

13 And it came to pass, when Laban heard the tidings of Jacob his sister's son, that he ran to meet him, and embraced him, and kissed him, and brought him to his house. And he told Laban all these things.

14 And Laban said to him, Surely thou art my bone and my flesh. And he abode with him the space of a month.

15 And Laban said unto Jacob, Because thou art my brother, shouldest thou therefore serve me for nought? tell me, what shall thy wages be?

16 And Laban had two daughters: the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.

17 Leah was tender-eyed; but Rachel was beautiful and well-favoured.

18 And Jacob loved Rachel; and said, I will serve thee seven years for Rachel thy younger daughter.

19 And Laban said, It is better that I give her to thee, than that I should give her to another man: abide with me.

20 And Jacob *s*erved seven years for Rachel; and they seemed unto him but a few days, for the love he had to her.

21 ¶ And Jacob said unto Laban, Give me my wife, for my days are fulfilled, that I may go in unto her.

22 And Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made a feast.

23 And it came to pass in the evening, that he took Leah his daughter, and brought her to him; and he went in unto her.

24 And Laban gave unto his daughter Leah Zilpah his maid for an handmaid.

25 And it came to pass, that in the morning, behold, it was Leah: and he said to Laban, What is this thou hast done unto me? did not I serve with thee for Rachel? wherefore then hast thou beguiled me?

26 And Laban said, It must not be so done in our country, to give the younger before the first-born.

27 Fulfil her week, and we will give thee this also for the service which thou shalt serve with me yet seven other years.

28 And Jacob did so, and fulfilled her week: and he gave him Rachel his daughter to wife also.

29 And Laban gave to Rachel his daughter Bilhah his handmaid to be her maid.

30 And he went in also unto Rachel, and he loved also Rachel more than Leah, and served with him yet seven other years.

31 ¶ And when the LORD saw that Leah was hated, he opened her womb: but Rachel was barren.

32 And Leah conceived, and bare a son, and she called his name Reuben: for she said, Surely the LORD hath looked upon my afflict-

CHAPTER 30.

1 Rachel's grief for her barrenness: 5 Bilhah beareth Dan and Naphtali: 9 Zilpah beareth Gad and Asher: 17 Leah beareth Issachar, Zebulun, and Dinah: 22 Rachel beareth Joseph.

AND when Rachel saw that she bare Jacob no children, Rachel envied her sister; and said unto Jacob, Give me children, or else die.

2 And Jacob's anger was kindled against Rachel: and he said, Am I in God's stead, who hath withheld from thee the fruit of the womb?

3 And she said, Behold my maid Bilhah, go in unto her; and she shall bear upon my knees, that may also have children by her.

4 And she gave him Bilhah her handmaid to wife: and Jacob went in unto her.

5 And Bilhah conceived, and bare Jacob a son.

6 And Rachel said, God hath judged me, and hath also heard my voice, and hath given me a son: therefore called she his name Dan.

7 And Bilhah, Rachel's maid, conceived again, and bare Jacob second son.

8 And Rachel said, With great wrestlings have I wrestled with my sister, and I have prevailed: and she called his name Naphtali.

9 When Leah saw that she had left bearing, she took Zilpah her maid, and gave her Jacob to wife.

10 And Zilpah, Leah's maid, bare Jacob a son.

11 And Leah said, A troop cometh, and she called his name Gad.

12 And Zilpah, Leah's maid, bare Jacob a second son.

3 And Leah said, ^oHappy am I, for the daughters ^twill call me blessed; and she called his name Asher.

4 ¶ And Reuben went in the days of wheat harvest, and found ^tmandrakes in the field, and brought them unto his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, ^mGive me, I pray thee, of thy son's mandrakes.

5 And she said unto her, ⁿIs it a small matter that thou hast taken my husband? and wouldest thou take away my son's mandrakes so? And Rachel said, Therefore shall he lie with thee to-night for my son's mandrakes.

6 And Jacob came out of the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him, and said, Thou must come in unto me; for surely I have hired thee with my son's mandrakes. And he lay with her that night.

7 And God hearkened unto Leah, and she conceived, and bare Jacob the fifth son.

8 And Leah said, God hath given me my hire, because I have given my maiden to my husband: and he called his name ^sIssachar.

9 And Leah conceived again, and bare Jacob the sixth son.

10 And Leah said, God hath rewarded me with a good dowry; now will my husband dwell with me, because I have born him six sons: and she called his name ^zZebulun.

11 And afterwards she bare a daughter, and called her name Dinah.

12 ¶ And God ^oremembered Rachel, and God hearkened to her, and ^popened her womb.

13 And she conceived, and bare a son; and said, God hath taken away ^qmy reproach:

14 And she called his name Joseph; and said, ^rThe LORD shall add to me another son.

15 ¶ And it came to pass, when Rachel had born Joseph, that Jacob said unto Laban, ^sSend me away, that I may go unto ^tmine own place, and to my country.

16 Give me my wives and my children, ^ufor whom I have served thee, and let me go: for thou knowest my service which I have done thee.

learned by experience that the LORD hath blessed me ^ufor thy sake.

28 And he said, ^xAppoint me thy wages, and I will give it.

29 And he said unto him, ^yThou knowest how I have served thee, and how thy cattle was with me.

30 For it was little which thou hadst before I came, and it is now increased unto a multitude; and the LORD hath blessed thee ^zsince my coming: and now when shall I ^aprovide for mine own house also?

31 And he said, What shall I give thee? And Jacob said, Thou shalt not give me any thing. If thou wilt do this thing for me, I will again feed and keep thy flock:

32 I will pass through all thy flock to-day, removing from thence all the speckled and spotted cattle, and all the brown cattle among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats: and ^q*of such* shall be my hire.

33 So shall my ^brighteousness answer for me ^lin time to come, when it shall come for my hire before thy face: every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and brown among the sheep, that shall be counted stolen with me.

34 And Laban said, Behold, I would it might be according to thy word.

35 And he removed that day the he-goats that were ringstraked and spotted, and all the she-goats that were speckled and spotted, and every one that had some white in it, and all the brown among the sheep, and gave them into the hand of his sons.

36 And he set three days' journey betwixt himself and Jacob: and Jacob fed the rest of Laban's flocks.

37 ¶ And ^cJacob took him rods of green poplar, and of the hazel and chesnut tree; and piled white strakes in them, and made the white appear which was in the rods.

38 And he set the rods which he had piled before the flocks in the gutters in the watering troughs when the flocks came to drink, that they should conceive when they came to drink.

39 And the flocks conceived before the rods, and brought forth cattle ringstraked, speckled, and spotted.

40 And Jacob did separate the lambs, and set the faces of the flocks toward the ringstraked and all the brown in the flock of Laban; and he put his own flocks by themselves, and put them not unto Laban's cattle.

41 And it came to pass, whensoever the stronger cattle did conceive, that Jacob laid the rods before the eyes of the cattle in the gutters, that they might conceive among the rods.

42 But when the cattle were feeble, he put them not in: so the feeble were Laban's, and the stronger Jacob's.

43 And the man ^dincreased exceedingly, and ^ehad much cattle, and maid-servants, and men-servants, and camels, and asses.

1 Jacob departeth secretly from Laban. 19 Rachel stealeth away her father's images. 22 Laban pursueth Jacob. 44 their covenant at Gilead.

AND he ^aheard the words of Laban's sons, saying, Jacob hath taken away all that was our father's; and of that which was our father's hath he gotten all this ^bglory.

2 And Jacob beheld ^cthe countenance of Laban, and, behold, it was not ^dtoward him ^eas before.

3 And the LORD said unto Jacob, ^fReturn unto the land of thy fathers, and to thy kindred; and I will be with thee.

6 And ⁱye know that with all my power I have served your father.

7 And your father hath deceived me, and ^jchanged my wages ^kten times; but God ^lsuffered him not to hurt me.

8 If he said thus, ^mThe speckled shall be thy wages; then all the cattle bare speckled: and if he said thus, The ringstraked shall be thy hire; then bare all the cattle ringstraked.

9 Thus God hath ⁿtaken away the cattle of your father, and given them to me.

10 And it came to pass at the time that the cattle conceived, that I lifted up mine eyes, and saw in a dream, and, behold, the ²rams which leaped upon the cattle we ringstraked, speckled, and grised.

11 And ³the angel of God spake unto me in a dream, saying, Jacob and I said, Here am I.

12 And he said, Lift up now thine eyes and see, all the rams which leap upon the cattle are ringstraked, speckled, and grised: for ⁴I have seen all that Laban doeth unto thee.

13 I am the God of Beth-el, ⁵where thou anointedst the pillar, and where thou vowedst a vow unto me: now ⁶arise, get thee out from this land, and return unto the land of thy kindred.

14 And Rachel and Leah answered and said unto him, ⁷Is there yet any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house?

15 Are we not counted of him strangers? for ⁸he hath sold us, and hath quite devoured also our money.

16 For all the riches which God hath taken from our father, that is ours, and our children's: now therefore whatsoever God hath said unto thee, do.

17 ¶ Then Jacob rose up, and sent his sons and his wives upon camels;

18 And he carried away all his cattle, and all his goods which he had gotten, the cattle of his getting which he had gotten in Padan-aram, for to go to Isaac his father in the land of Canaan.

19 And Laban went to shear his sheep: and Rachel had stolen the ⁹images that were her father's.

20 And Jacob stole away ¹⁰unawares to Laban the Syrian, in that he told him not that he fled.

21 So he fled with all that he had, and he rose up, and passed over the river, and ¹¹set his face toward the mount Gilead.

22 And it was told Laban on the third day that Jacob was fled.

23 And he took his ¹²brethren with him, and pursued after him seven days' journey; and they overtook him in the mount Gilead.

24 And God ¹³came to Laban the Syrian in a dream by night, and said unto him, Take heed that thou ¹⁴speak not to Jacob ¹⁵either good or bad.

25 ¶ Then Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the mount: and Laban with his brethren pitched in the mount of lead.

3 And Laban said to Jacob, What hast thou done, that thou hast taken away unawares to me, and carried away my daughters, as captives taken with the sword?

7 Wherefore didst thou flee away secretly, and steal away from me; and didst not tell me, that I might have sent thee away with mirth, and with songs, with tabret, and with harp?

8 And hast not suffered me to see my sons and my daughters? Thou hast now done foolishly in doing.

9 It is in the power of my hand to do you hurt: but the God of our father spake unto me yesterday, saying, Take thou heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad.

10 And now, though thou wouldest have hurt me, because thou sore hatedst after thy father's house, wherefore hast thou stolen my daughters?

11 And Jacob answered and said to Laban, Because I was afraid: for peradventure thou wouldest have taken me by force thy daughters from me.

12 With whomsoever thou findest thy gods, let him not live: before my brethren discern thou what is true with me, and take it to thee. For Jacob knew not that Rachel had stolen them.

13 And Laban went into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the two maid-servants' tents; but he found them not. Then went he out of Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent.

14 Now Rachel had taken the images, and put them in the camel's furniture, and sat upon them. And Laban searched all the tent, but found them not.

15 And she said to her father, Let not displease my lord that I cannot rise up before thee; for the custom of women is upon me. And he searched, but found not the images.

16 And Jacob was wroth, and spoke with Laban: and Jacob answered and said to Laban, What is my trespass? what is my sin, that thou hast so hotly pursued after me?

37 Whereas thou hast searched all my stuff, what hast thou found of all thy household stuff? set it here before my brethren and thy brethren, that they may judge between us both.

38 This twenty years have I been with thee; thy ewes and thy she-goats have not cast their young, and the rams of thy flock have I not eaten.

39 That which was torn of beasts I brought not unto thee; I bare the loss of it; of my hand didst thou require it, whether stolen by day, or stolen by night.

40 Thus I was; in the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night; and my sleep departed from mine eyes.

41 Thus have I been twenty years in thy house; I served thee four teen years for thy two daughters, and six years for thy cattle: and thou hast changed my wages ten times.

42 Except the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the Fear of Isaac, had been with me, surely thou hadst sent me away now empty. God hath seen mine affliction and the labour of my hands, and rebuked thee yesternight.

43 And Laban answered and said unto Jacob, These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and these cattle are my cattle, and all that thou seest is mine: and what can I do this day unto these my daughters, or unto their children which they have born?

44 Now therefore come thou, let us make a covenant, I and thou; and let it be for a witness between me and thee.

45 And Jacob took a stone, and set it up for a pillar.

46 And Jacob said unto his brethren, Gather stones; and they took stones, and made an heap: and they did eat there upon the heap.

47 And Laban called it Jegar-sahadutha: but Jacob called it Galed.

48 And Laban said, This heap is a witness between me and thee this day. Therefore was the name of it called Galed;

49 And Mizpah; for he said, The LORD watch between me and thee, when we are absent one from another.

50 If thou shalt afflict my daughters, or if thou shalt take other wives besides my daughters, no man is with us; see, God is witness betwixt me and thee.

51 And Laban said to Jacob, Behold this heap, and behold this pillar, which I have cast betwixt me and thee;

52 This heap be witness, and this pillar be witness, that I will not pass over this heap to thee, and that thou shalt not pass over this heap and this pillar unto me, for harm.

the people that was with him, and the flocks, and herds, and the camels, into two bands;

8 And said, If Esau come to the one company, and smite it, then the other company which is left shall escape.

9 ¶ And Jacob said, ¹⁰O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, the LORD ^mwhich saidst unto me, Return unto thy country, and to thy kindred, and I will deal well with thee:

10 ³I am not ⁿworthy of the least of all the ^omercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast showed unto thy servant; for with my ^pstaff I passed over this Jordan, and now I am become two bands.

11 ⁴Deliver me, I pray thee, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau: for I fear him, lest he will come and smite me, and ⁷the mother ⁴with the children.

12 And ⁸thou saidst, I will surely do thee good, and make thy seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.

13 ¶ And he lodged there that same night; and took of that which came to his hand a ^tpresent for Esau his brother;

14 Two hundred she-goats, and twenty he-goats, two hundred ewes, and twenty rams, 15 Thirty milch camels with their colts, forty kine, and ten bulls, twenty she-asses, and ten foals.

16 And he delivered them into the hand of his servants, every drove by themselves; and said unto his servants, Pass over before me, and put a space betwixt drove and drove.

17 And he commanded the fore most, saying, When Esau my brother meeteth thee, and asketh thee, saying, Whose art thou? and whither goest thou? and whose are these before thee?

18 Then thou shalt say, They be thy servant Jacob's; it is a present sent unto my lord Esau: and, behold, also he is behind us.

19 And so commanded he the second, and the third, and all that followed the droves, saying, On this manner shall ye speak unto Esau, when ye find him.

20 And say ye moreover, Behold, thy servant Jacob is behind us. For he said, I will ^uappease him with the present that goeth before me, and afterward I will see his ace; peradventure he will accept of me.

21 So went the present over before him: and himself lodged that night in the company.

22 And he rose up that night, and took his two wives, and his two women-servants, and his eleven sons, and ^vpassed over the ford ^uabbok.

23 And he took them, and ^csent them over the brook, and sent over at he had.

24 ¶ And Jacob was left alone; and there wrestled a man with him until the ⁷breaking of the day.

25 And when he saw that he prevailed not against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh; and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was out of joint as he wrestled with him.

26 And ^xhe said, Let me go, for the day breaketh. And he said, ^yI will not let thee go, except thou bless me.

27 And he said unto him, What is thy name? And he said, Jacob.

28 And he said, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but ⁸Israel: for as a prince hast thou ^zpower with God and ^awith men, and hast prevailed.

29 And Jacob asked him, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, thy name. And he said, ^bWherefore is it that thou dost ask after my name? And he blessed him there.

30 And Jacob called the name of the place ⁹Peniel: for ^cI have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved.

31 And as he passed over Peniel the sun rose upon him, and he halted upon his thigh.

32 Therefore the children of Israel eat not of the sinew which shrank, which is upon the hollow of the thigh, unto this day: because he touched the hollow of Jacob's thigh in the sinew that shrank.

3 And he passed over before them, and ^bbowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother.

4 ^cAnd Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, ^dand fell on his neck, and kissed him: and they wept.

5 And he lifted up his eyes, and saw the women and the children; and said, Who are those ¹with thee? And he said, The children ^ewhich God hath graciously given thy servant.

6 Then the handmaidens came near, they and their children, and they bowed themselves:

7 And Leah also with her children came near, and bowed themselves: and after came Joseph near and Rachel, and they bowed themselves.

8 And he said, ²What meanest thou by fall this drove which I met? And he said, These are ^gto find grace in the sight of my lord.

9 And Esau said, I have enough, my brother; ³keep that thou hast unto thyself.

11 Take, I pray thee, ⁱmy blessing that is brought to thee; because God hath dealt graciously with me, and because I have ⁴enough. ^jAnd he urged him, and he took it.

12 And he said, Let us take our journey, and let us go, and I will go before thee.

13 And he said unto him, My lord knoweth that the children are tender, and the flocks and herds with young are with me; and if men should overdrive them one day, all the flock will die.

14 Let my lord, I pray thee, pass over before his servant; and I will lead on softly, according ⁵as the cattle that goeth before me and the children be able to endure, until I come unto my lord ^kunto Seir.

15 And Esau said, Let me now ⁶leave with thee some of the folk that are with me. And he said, ⁷What needeth it? ^llet me find grace in the sight of my lord.

16 ¶ So Esau returned that day on his way unto Seir.

17 And Jacob journeyed to ^mSuccoth, and built him an house, and made booths for his cattle: therefore the name of the place is called ^sSuccoth.

18 ¶ And Jacob came to ⁿShalem a city of ⁹Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan-aram; and pitched his tent before the city.

19 And ^ohe bought a parcel of a field, where he had spread his tent, at the hand of the children of ¹⁰Hamor, Shechem's father, for an hundred ¹¹pieces of money.

7 And the sons of Jacob came out of the field when they heard it: and the men were grieved, and they were ^fvery wroth, because he had ⁹wrought folly in Israel, in lying with Jacob's daughter; ^hwhich thing ought not to be done.

8 And Hamor communed with them, saying, The soul of my son Shechem longeth for your daughter: I pray you give her him to wife.

dwell and ^ktrade ye therein, and ^lget you possessions therein.

11 And Shechem said unto his father and unto her brethren, Let me find grace in your eyes, and what ye shall say unto me I will give.

12 Ask me never so much ^mdowry and gift, and I will give according as ye shall say unto me: but give me the damsel to wife.

13 And the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father ⁿdeceitfully, and said, because he had defiled Dinah their sister:

14 And they said unto them, We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one that is uncircumcised, for ^othat were a reproach unto us.

15 But in this will we consent unto you: If ye will be as we be, then every male of you be circumcised:

16 Then will we give our daughters unto you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people.

17 But if ye will not hearken unto us, to be circumcised; then will we take our daughter, and we will be gone.

18 And their words pleased Hamor, and Shechem, Hamor's son.

19 And the young man deferred not to do the thing, because he had delight in Jacob's daughter: and he was ^pmore honourable than all the house of his father.

20 And Hamor and Shechem his son came unto the ^qgate of their city, and communed with the men of their city, saying, 21 These men are peaceable with us; therefore let them dwell in the land, and trade therein; for the land, behold, it is large enough for them; let us take their daughters to us for wives, and let us give them our daughters.

22 Only herein will the men consent unto us for to dwell with us, to be one people, if every male among us be circumcised, as the men of the land are circumcised.

23 Shall not their cattle and their substance and every beast of their be ours? only let us consent unto them, and they will dwell with us.

24 And unto Hamor, and unto Shechem his son, hearkened all that ^rwent out of the gate of the city; and every male was circum-ised, all that went out of the gate of his city.

25 ¶ And it came to pass on the third day, when they were sore, that two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brethren, took each man his sword, and came upon the city boldly, and slew all the males.

26 And they slew Hamor and Shechem his son with the ³edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went out.

27 The sons of Jacob came upon her, and slew her, and spoiled the city, because they had defiled their sister.

28 They took their sheep, and their oxen, and their asses, and that which was in the city, and that which was in the field,

29 And all their wealth, and all their little ones, and their wives took they captive, and spoiled even all that was in the house.

30 And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, ¹Ye have ²troubled me ³to make me to stink among the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites: ⁴and being few in number, they shall overthrow themselves together against me, and slay me; and I shall be destroyed, I and my house.

31 And they said, ⁵Should he deal with our sister as with an harlot?

CHAPTER 35.

God sendeth Jacob to Beth-el. 9 God blesseth him there. 16 Rachel beareth Benjamin, and dies. 23 The sons of Jacob. 28 Isaac's death.

AND God said unto Jacob, Arise, and go up to ^aBeth-el, and dwell there; and make there an altar unto God, ^bthat appeared unto thee when thou fleddest from the face of Esau thy brother.

Then Jacob said unto his ^dhousehold, and to all that were with him, ^eIt away ^fthe strange gods that are among you, and ^gbe clean, and change your garments:

And let us arise, and go up to Beth-el; and I will make there an altar unto God, ^hwho answered me the day of my distress, ⁱand was with me in the way which I went.

And they gave unto Jacob all the strange gods which were in their hand, and all their ⁱearrings, which were in their ears; and Jacob hid them under ^jthe oak which was by Shechem.

5 And they journeyed: and ^kthe terror of God was upon the cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Jacob.

6 ¶ So Jacob came to ^lLuz, which is in the land of Canaan, that is, Beth-el, he, and all the people that were with him.

7 And he ^mbuilt there an altar, and called the place ¹El-beth-el; because ⁿthere God appeared unto him, when he fled from the face of his brother.

8 But ^oDeborah, Rebekah's nurse died, and she was buried beneath Beth-el under an oak: and the name of it was called ²Allon-bac-huth.

9 ¶ And ^pGod appeared unto Jacob again, when he came out of Padan-aram, and blessed him.

10 And God said unto him, Thy name is Jacob: ^qthy name shall not be called any more Jacob, but ^rIsrael shall be thy name: and he called his name Israel.

11 And God said unto him, ^sI am God Almighty; be fruitful and multiply; a ^tnation, and a company of nations, shall be of thee, and kings shall come out of thy loins;

12 And the land ^uwhich I gave Abraham and Isaac, to thee I will give it, and to thy seed after thee will I give the land.

13 And God ^vwent up from him in the place where he talked with him.

14 And Jacob ^wset up a pillar in the place where he talked with him, ^{even}a pillar of stone: and he poured a drink offering thereon, and he poured oil thereon.

15 And Jacob called the name of the place where God spake with him, ^xBeth-el.

16 ¶ And they journeyed from Beth-el; and there was but ³a little way to come to Ephrath: and Rachel travailed, and she had hard labour.

17 And it came to pass, when she was in hard labour, that the midwife said unto her, Fear not; ^ythou shalt have this son also.

18 And it came to pass, as her soul was in departing, for she died, that she called his name ⁴Ben-oni: but his father called him ⁵Benjamin.

19 And ²Rachel died, and was buried in the way to ^aEphrath, which is Beth-lehem.

20 And Jacob set a pillar upon her grave: that is the pillar of Rachel's grave ^bunto this day.

21 ¶ And Israel journeyed, and spread his tent beyond ^cthe tower of Edar.

22 And it came to pass, when Israel dwelt in that land, that Reuben went and ^dlay with Bilhah his father's concubine: and Israel heard it. Now the sons of Jacob were twelve:

23 The sons of Leah; ^eReuben, Jacob's first-born, and Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Zebulun:

24 The sons of Rachel; Joseph and Benjamin:

25 And the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's handmaid; Dan and Naphtali:

26 And the sons of Zilpah, Leah's handmaid; Gad and Asher: these are the sons of Jacob, which were born to him in Padan-aram.

27 ¶ And Jacob came unto Isaac his father unto Mamre, unto the ^fcity of Arba, which is Hebron, where Abraham and Isaac sojourned.

^r For their riches were more than that they might dwell together; and ^sthe land wherein they were strangers could not bear them because of their cattle.

8 Thus dwelt Esau in ^tmount Seir: ^uEsau is Edom.

9 ¶ And these are the generations of Esau the father of ^vthe Edomites in mount Seir:

10 These are the names of Esau's sons; ^wEliphaz the son of Adah the wife of Esau, Reuel the son of Bashemath the wife of Esau.

11 And the sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, ^xZepho, and Gatam and Kenaz.

12 And Timna was concubine to Eliphaz, Esau's son; and she bare to Eliphaz ^yAmalek: these were the sons of Adah, Esau's wife.

13 And these are the sons of Reuel; Nahath, and Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah: these were the sons of Bashemath, Esau's wife.

14 And these were the sons of Aholibamah the daughter of Anah the daughter of Zibeon, Esau's wife: and she bare to Esau Jeush and Jaalam, and Korah.

15 ¶ These were dukes of the sons of Esau: the sons of Eliphaz the first-born son of Esau; duke Teman, duke Omar, duke Zepho, duke Kenaz, 16 Duke Korah, duke Gatam, and duke Amalek: these are the dukes that came of Eliphaz in the land of Edom; these were the sons of Adah.

17 And these are the sons of Reuel, Esau's son; duke Nahath, duke Zerah, duke Shammah, duke Mizzah: these are the dukes that came of Reuel in the land of Edom: these are the sons of Bashemath, Esau's wife.

18 And these are the sons of Aholibamah, Esau's wife; duke Jeush, duke Jaalam, duke Korah: these were the dukes that came of Aholibamah the daughter of Anah, Esau's wife.

19 These are the sons of Esau, who is Edom, and these are their dukes.

20 ¶ ^mThese are the sons of Seir the Horite, who inhabited the land; Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, and Anah, 21 And Dishon, and Ezer, and Dishan: these are the dukes of the Horites, the children of Seir in the land of Edom.

22 And the children of Lotan were Hori and ⁴Hemam; and Lotan's sister was Timna.

²³ And the children of Shobal were these; ⁵Alvan, and Manahath, and Ebal, ⁶Shepho, and Onam.

²⁴ And these are the children of Zibeon; both Ajah and Anah: this was that Anah that found the mules in the wilderness, as he fed the asses of Zibeon his father.

²⁵ And the children of Dishan were these; Dishon, and Aholibamah the daughter of Anah.

²⁶ And these are the children of Dishon; ⁷Hemdan, and Eshban, and Ithran, and Cheran.

²⁷ The children of Ezer are these; Bilhan, and Zaavan, and ⁸Akan.

²⁸ The children of Dishan are these; Uz, and Aran.

²⁹ These are the dukes that came of the Horites; duke Lotan, duke Shobal, duke Zibeon, duke Anah, ³⁰ Duke Dishon, duke Ezer, duke Dishan: these are the dukes that came of Hori, among their dukes in the land of Seir.

³¹ ¶ And ⁹these are the kings that reigned in the land of Edom, before there reigned any ¹⁰king over the children of Israel.

³² And Bela the son of Beor reigned in Edom: and the name of his city was Dinhabah.

³³ And Bela died, and Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his stead.

³⁴ And Jobab died, and Husham of the land of Temani reigned in his stead.

³⁵ And Husham died, and Hadad the son of Bedad, who smote Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his stead: and the name of his city was Avith.

³⁶ And Hadad died, and Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his stead.

³⁷ And Samlah died, and Saul of Rehoboth by the river reigned in his stead.

³⁸ And Saul died, and Baal-hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his stead.

³⁹ And Baal-hanan the son of Achbor died, and ¹¹Hadar reigned in his stead: and the name of his city was Pau; and his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.

CHAPTER 37.

² Joseph hated of his brethren: ⁵ his two dreams: ¹⁸ his brethren conspire his death. ²³ He is cast into a pit. ²⁵ They sell him to the Ishmeelites, ³⁶ who sell him to Potiphar in Egypt.

AND Jacob dwelt in the land ¹wherein his father was a stranger, in the land of Canaan.

² These are the generations of Jacob. Joseph, being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brethren; and the lad was with the sons of Bilhah, and with the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives: and Joseph brought unto his father ⁴their evil report.

³ Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was ⁵the son of his old age: and he made him a coat of ²many colours.

⁴ And when his brethren saw that their father loved him more than all his brethren, they ⁶hated him, and could not speak peaceably unto him.

⁵ ¶ And Joseph dreamed a dream, and he told it his brethren: and they hated him yet the more.

⁶ And he said unto them, Hear, I pray you, this dream which I have dreamed:

⁷ For, ¹behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and, lo, my sheaf arose, and also stood upright; and, behold, your sheaves stood round about, and made obeisance to my sheaf.

⁸ And his brethren said to him, Shalt thou indeed reign over us? or shalt thou indeed have dominion over us? And they hated him yet the more for his dreams, and for his words.

⁹ And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it his brethren, and said, Behold, I have dreamed a dream more; and, behold, ⁶the sun, and the moon, and the eleven stars, made obeisance to me.

¹⁰ And he told it to his father, and to his brethren: and his father rebuked him, and said unto him, What is this dream that thou hast dreamed? Shall I and thy mother and thy brethren indeed come to bow down ourselves to thee to the earth?

11 And ^uhis brethren envied him; but his father ^hobserved the saying.

12 ¶ And his brethren went to feed their father's flock in Shechem.

13 And Israel said unto Joseph, Do not thy brethren feed the flock in Shechem? come, and I will send thee unto them. And he said to him, Here am I.

14 And he said to him, Go, I pray thee, ³see whether it be well with thy brethren, and well with the flocks; and bring me word again. So he sent him out of the vale of ⁱHebron, and he came to Shechem.

15 And a certain man found him, and, behold, he was wandering in the field: and the man asked him, saying, What seekest thou?

16 And he said, I seek my brethren: tell me, I pray thee, where they feed their flocks.

17 And the man said, They are departed hence; for I heard them say, Let us go to Dothan. And Joseph went after his brethren, and found them in ^kDothan.

18 ¶ And when they saw him afar off, even before he came near unto them, they ^lconspired against him to slay him.

19 And they said one to another, Behold, This ⁴dreamer cometh.

20 ^mCome now therefore, and let us slay him, and cast him into some pit; and we will say, Some evil beast hath devoured him: and we shall see what will become of his dreams.

21 And ⁿReuben heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands; and said, Let us not kill him.

22 And Reuben said unto them, Shed not blood, but cast him into this pit that is in the wilderness, and lay no hand upon him; that he might rid him out of their hands, to deliver him to his father again.

23 ¶ And it came to pass, when Joseph was come unto his brethren, that they stripped Joseph out of his coat, his coat of many ⁵colours that was on him;

24 And they took him, and cast him into a pit: and the pit was empty, there was no water in it.

34 And Jacob ^orent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his loins, and mourned for his son many days.

35 And all his sons and all his daughters ^prose up to comfort him; but he refused to be comforted, and he said, For ^qI will go down into the grave unto my son mourning. Thus his father wept for him.

2 And Judah ^bsaw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite, whose name was ^cShuah; and he took her, and went in unto her.

3 And she conceived, and bare a son; and he called his name Er.

4 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and she called his name Onan.

5 And she yet again conceived, and bare a son; and called his name Shelah: and he was at Chezib when she bare him.

6 And Judah ^gtook a wife for Er his first-born, whose name was Tamar.

7 And ^hEr, Judah's first-born, was tricked in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD slew him.

8 And Judah said unto Onan, Go a unto ⁱthy brother's wife, and marry her, and raise up seed to thy brother.

9 And Onan knew that the seed should not be ^khis: and it came to pass, when he went in unto his brother's wife, that he spilled it on the ground, lest that he should give seed to his brother.

10 And the thing which he did displeased the LORD: wherefore he slew ^lhim also.

11 Then said Judah to Tamar his daughter-in-law, ^mRemain a widow at thy father's house, till Shelah my son be grown: for he said, Lest peradventure he die also, as his brethren did. And Tamar went and dwelt ⁿin her father's house.

12 ¶ And ²in process of time the daughter of Shuah, Judah's wife, died; and Judah ^owas comforted, and went up unto his sheep-shearers to Timnath, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite.

13 And it was told Tamar, saying, Behold, thy father-in-law goeth up to Timnath to shear his sheep.

14 And she put her widow's garments off from her, and covered her with a veil, and wrapped herself, and ^qsat in ³an open place, which is by the way to Timnath: for she saw ^rthat Shelah was grown, and she was not given unto him to wife.

23 And Judah said, Let her take it to her, lest we ⁶be shamed: behold, I sent this kid, and thou hast not found her.

24 ¶ And it came to pass, about three months after, that it was told Judah, saying, Tamar thy daughter-in-law hath ^wplayed the harlot; and also, behold, she is with child by whoredom. And Judah said, Bring her forth, ^xand let her be burnt.

25 When she was brought forth, she sent to her father-in-law, saying, By the man whose these are ^{am} I with child: and she said, ^yDiscern, I pray thee, whose are these, the signet, and bracelets, and staff.

26 And Judah ^zacknowledged them, and said, ^aShe hath been more righteous than I; because that ^bI gave her not to Shelah my son. And he knew her again ^cno more.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, in the time of her travail, that, behold, twins were in her womb.

28 And it came to pass, when she travailed, that the one put out his hand: and the midwife took and bound upon his hand a scarlet thread, saying, This came out first.

29 And it came to pass, as he drew back his hand, that, behold, his brother came out: and she said, ⁷How hast thou broken forth? this breach be upon thee: therefore his name was called ⁸Pharez.

30 And afterward came out his brother, that had the scarlet thread upon his hand: and his name was called Zarah.

CHAPTER 39.

1 Joseph, advanced in Potiphar's house, resisteth his mistress's temptation: 13 he is falsely accused, 20 and imprisoned: 21 God is with him there.

AND Joseph was brought down to Egypt; and ^aPotiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, captain of the guard, an Egyptian, ^bbought him of the hands of the Ishmeelites, which had brought him down thither.

2 And ^cthe LORD was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man; and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian.

3 And his master saw that the LORD was with him, and that the LORD ^dmade all that he did to prosper in his hand.

4 And Joseph ^efound grace in his sight, and he served him: and he made him ^foverseer over his house, and all that he had he put into his hand.

5 And it came to pass, from the time that he had made him overseer in his house, and over all that he had, that ^gthe LORD blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake; and the blessing of the LORD was upon all that he had in the house, and in the field.

6 And he left all that he had in Joseph's hand; and he knew not ought he had, save the bread which he did eat. And Joseph ^hwas a goodly person, and well-favoured.

7 ⁱAnd it came to pass after these things, that his master's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph; and she said, ^jLie with me.

8 But he refused, and said unto his master's wife, Behold, my master wotteth not what is with me in the house, and he hath committed all that he hath to my hand; then can I do this great wickedness and ^ksin against God?

10 And it came to pass, as she spake to Joseph day by day, that he hearkened not unto her, to lie by her, or to be with her.

11 And it came to pass about this time, that Joseph went into the house to do his business; and there was none of the men of the house there within.

12 And ^lshe caught him by his garment, saying, Lie with me: and he left his garment in her hand, and fled, and got him out.

13 And it came to pass, when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, and was fled forth,

14 That she called unto the men of her house, and spake unto them, saying, See, he hath brought in an Hebrew unto us to mock us; he came in unto me to lie with me, and I cried with a ^mloud voice:

15 And it came to pass, when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled, and got him out.

16 And she laid up his garment by her until his lord came home.

17 And she ⁿspake unto him according to these words, saying, The Hebrew servant, which thou hast brought unto us, came in unto me to mock me:

18 And it came to pass, as I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled out.

19 And it came to pass, when his master heard the words of his wife, which she spake unto him, saying, After this manner did thy servant to me, that his ^owrath was kindled.

20 And Joseph's master took him, and ^pput him into the ^qprison, a place where the king's prisoners were bound: and he was there in the prison.

21 But the LORD was with Joseph, and ^rshowed him mercy, and ^sgave him favour in the sight of the keeper of the prison.

22 And the keeper of the prison ^tcommitted to Joseph's hand ^uall the prisoners that were in the prison; and whatsoever they did there, he was the doer of it.

23 The keeper of the prison looked not to any thing that was under his hand; because ^vthe LORD was with him, and that which he did, the LORD made it to prosper.

CHAPTER 40.

The butler and baker of Pharaoh are imprisoned; 4 Joseph hath charge of them; 5 he interpreteth their dreams. 23 The ingratitude of the butler.

AND it came to pass after these things, that the ^abutler of the king of Egypt and his baker had offended their lord the king of Egypt.

2 And Pharaoh was ^bwroth against two of his officers, against the chief of the butlers, and against the chief of the bakers.

3 And he put them in ward in the house of the captain of the guard, unto the prison, the place where Joseph was bound.

4 And the captain of the guard charged Joseph with them, and he served them: and they continued season in ward.

5 ¶ And they dreamed a dream both of them, each man his dream on one night, each man according to the interpretation of his dream, the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, which were bound in the prison.

6 And Joseph came in unto them in the morning, and looked upon them, and, behold, they were sad.

7 And he asked Pharaoh's officers, that were with him in the ward of his lord's house, saying, Wherefore look ye so sadly to-day?

8 And they said unto him, ^dWe have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter of it. And Joseph said unto them, ^eDo not interpretations belong to God? tell me them, I pray you.

9 And the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, In my dream, behold, a vine was before me;

10 And in the vine were three branches: and it was as though it budded, and her blossoms shot forth; and the clusters thereof brought forth ripe grapes:

11 And Pharaoh's cup was in my hand: and I took the grapes, and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand.

12 And Joseph said unto him, This is the interpretation of it: The three branches are three days:

15 For indeed I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews; and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon.

16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said unto Joseph, I also was in my dream, and, behold, I had three ⁴white baskets on my head:

17 And in the uppermost basket there was of all manner of ⁵bakemeats for Pharaoh; and the birds did eat them out of the basket upon my head.

18 And Joseph answered and said, This is the interpretation thereof: The three baskets are three days:

19 Yet within three days shall Pharaoh ⁶lift up thy head from off thee, and shall hang thee on a tree; and the birds shall eat thy flesh from off thee.

20 ¶ And it came to pass the third day, which was Pharaoh's ^kbirthday, that he ⁱmade a feast unto all his servants: and he ⁷lifted ^mup the head of the chief butler and of the chief baker among his servants.

CHAPTER 41.

1 Pharaoh's two dreams: 25 Joseph interpreteth them: 33 he giveth Pharaoh counsel. 33 Joseph is advanced. 33 The famine beginneth.

AND it came to pass at the end of two full years, that Pharaoh dreamed: and, behold, he stood by the river.

2 And, behold, there came up out of the river seven well-favoured kine and fat-fleshed; and they fed in a meadow.

3 And, behold, seven other kine came up after them out of the river, ill-favoured and lean-fleshed; and stood by the other kine upon the brink of the river.

4 And the ill-favoured and leanfleshed kine did eat up the seven well-favoured and fat kine. So Pharaoh awoke.

5 And he slept and dreamed the second time: and, behold, seven ears of corn came up upon one stalk, ¹rank and good.

6 And, behold, seven thin ears and blasted with the east wind sprung up after them.

7 And the seven thin ears devoured the seven rank and full ears. And Pharaoh awoke, and, behold, it was a dream.

8 And it came to pass in the morning, ^athat his spirit was troubled; and he sent and called for all ^bthe magicians of Egypt, and all the ^cwise men thereof; and Pharaoh told them his dreams; but there was none that could interpret them unto Pharaoh.

9 ¶ Then spake the chief butler unto Pharaoh, saying, I do remember my faults this day:

10 Pharaoh was ^dwroth with his servants, ^eand put me in ward in the captain of the guard's house, both me and the chief baker:

11 And ^fwe dreamed a dream in one night, I and he; we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream.

12 And ^gthere was there with us a young man, an Hebrew, ^hservant to the captain of the guard; and we told him, and he ⁱinterpreted to us our dreams; to each man according to his dream he did interpret.

13 And it came to pass, ^jas he interpreted to us, so it was; me he restored unto mine office, and him he hanged.

14 ¶ ^kThen Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and ^lthey ²brought him hastily ^mout of the dungeon: and he shaved himself, and changed his raiment, and came in unto Pharaoh.

15 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I have dreamed a dream, and there is none that can interpret it: ⁿand I have heard say of thee, that ³thou canst understand a dream to interpret it.

16 And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, ^o*It is not in me:* ^pGod shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace.

out of the river seven kine, fat fleshed and well-favoured; and they fed in a meadow:

19 And, behold, seven other kine came up after them, poor and very ill-favoured and lean-fleshed, such as I never saw in all the land of Egypt for badness:

20 And the lean and the ill-favoured kine did eat up the first seven fat kine:

21 And when they had ⁴eaten them up, it could not be known that they had eaten them; but they were still ill-favoured, as at the beginning. So I awoke.

22 And I saw in my dream, and, behold, seven ears came up in one stalk, full and good:

23 And, behold, seven ears, ⁵withered, thin, and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them:

24 And the thin ears devoured the seven good ears. And ⁶I told this unto the magicians; but there was none that could declare it to me.

25 ¶ And Joseph said unto Pharaoh, The dream of Pharaoh is one: ⁷God hath showed Pharaoh what he is about to do.

26 The seven good kine are seven years; and the seven good ears are seven years: the dream is one.

27 And the seven thin and ill-favoured kine that came up after them are seven years; and the seven empty ears, blasted with the east wind, shall be ⁸seven years of famine.

28 This is the thing which I have spoken unto Pharaoh: What God is about to do he sheweth unto Pharaoh.

29 Behold, there come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt:

30 And there shall arise after them seven years of famine; and all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt; and the famine ⁹shall consume the land;

31 And the plenty shall not be known in the land by reason of that famine following; for it shall be very ⁶grievous.

32 And for that the dream was doubled unto Pharaoh twice; it is because the thing is ⁷established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass.

33 Now therefore let Pharaoh look out a man discreet and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt.

34 Let Pharaoh do this, and let him appoint ⁸ officers over the land, and take up the fifth part of the land of Egypt in the seven plentiful years.

35 And let them gather all the food of those good years that come, and lay up corn under the hand of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities.

36 And that food shall be for store to the land against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of Egypt; that the land ⁹ perish not through the famine.

37 ¶ And the thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants.

38 And Pharaoh said unto his servants, Can we find such a one as this is, a man ¹⁰ in whom the Spirit of God is?

39 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Forasmuch as God hath showed thee all this, there is none so discreet and wise as thou art:

40 Thou shalt be over my house, and according unto thy word shall all my people ¹¹ be ruled: only in the throne will I be greater than thou.

41 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, See, I ¹² have set thee over all the land of Egypt.

42 And Pharaoh ¹³ took off his ring from his hand, and put it upon Joseph's hand, and arrayed him in vestures of ¹⁴ fine linen, ¹⁵ and put a gold chain about his neck:

43 And he made him to ride in the second chariot which he had; and they cried before him, ¹⁶ Bow the knee: and he made him ruler over all the land of Egypt.

44 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Am Pharaoh, and without thee shall no man lift up his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt.

45 And Pharaoh called Joseph's name ¹⁷ Zaphnath-paaneah; and he gave him to wife Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah ¹⁸ priest of On. And Joseph went out over all the land of Egypt.

46 And Joseph was thirty years old when he ¹⁹ stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt.

47 And in the seven plentiful years the earth brought forth by handfuls.

48 And he gathered up all the food of the seven years, which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up the food in the cities: the food of the field, which was round about every city, laid he up in the same.

49 And Joseph gathered corn ¹² as the sand of the sea, very much, until he left numbering; for it was without number.

50 ¹³ And unto Joseph were born two sons before the years of famine came, which Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah ¹⁴ priest of On bare unto him.

51 And Joseph called the name of the first-born ¹⁵ Manasseh: For God, said he, hath made me forget all my toil, and all my father's house.

52 And the name of the second called he ¹⁶ Ephraim: For God hath caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction.

53 ¶ And the seven years of plentifulness that was in the land of Egypt were ended.

54 ¹⁷ And the seven years of dearth began to come, according as Joseph had said: and the dearth was in all lands; but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.

55 And when all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread: and Pharaoh said unto all the Egyptians, Go unto Joseph; what he saith to you, do.

56 And the famine was over all the face of the earth. And Joseph opened ¹⁸ all the storehouses, and ¹⁹ sold unto the Egyptians; and the famine waxed sore in the land of Egypt.

57 And ²⁰ all countries came into Egypt to Joseph for to buy corn; because that the famine was so sore in all lands.

CHAPTER 42.

1 Jacob sendeth his ten sons to buy corn in Egypt: 17 they are imprisoned by Joseph for spies: 21 their remorse for Joseph: 25 their return.

NOW when ¹ Jacob saw that there was corn in Egypt, Jacob said unto his sons, Why do ye look one upon another?

2 And he said, Behold, I have heard that there is corn in Egypt: get you down thither, and buy for us from thence; that we may ² live, and not die.

3 ¶ And Joseph's ten brethren went down to buy corn in Egypt.

4 But Benjamin, Joseph's brother,

Jacob sent not with his brethren : for he said, ^c Lest peradventure mischief befall him.

5 And the sons of Israel came to buy corn among those that came : for the famine was ^d in the land of Canaan.

6 And Joseph was the governor ^e over the land, and he it was that sold to all the people of the land : and Joseph's brethren came, and bowed down themselves before him with their faces to the earth.

7 And Joseph saw his brethren, and he knew them, but made himself strange unto them, and spake ¹ roughly unto them ; and he said unto them, Whence come ye ? And they said, From the land of Canaan to buy food.

8 And Joseph knew his brethren, but they knew not him.

9 And Joseph ^g remembered the dreams which he dreamed of them, and said unto them, Ye are spies ; to see the nakedness of the land ye are come.

10 And they said unto him, Nay, my lord, but to buy food are thy servants come.

11 We are all one man's sons : we are true men, thy servants are no spies.

12 And he said unto them, Nay, but to see the nakedness of the land ye are come.

13 And they said, Thy servants are twelve brethren, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan ; and, behold, the youngest is this day with our father, and one ^h is not.

14 And Joseph said unto them, That is it that I spake unto you, saying, Ye are spies :

15 Hereby ye shall be proved : ⁱ By the life of Pharaoh ye shall not go forth hence, except your youngest brother come hither.

16 Send one of you, and let him fetch your brother, and ye shall be ² kept in prison, that your words may be proved, whether there be any truth in you : or else, by the life of Pharaoh surely ye are spies.

17 And he ³ put them all together into ward three days.

18 And Joseph said unto them the third day, This do, and live ; ^j for I fear God :

19 If ye be true men, let one of your brethren be bound in the house of your prison : go ye, carry corn for the famine of your houses :

26 And they laded their asses with the corn, and departed thence.

27 And as ^q one of them opened his sack, to give his ass provender in the inn, he espied his money : for, behold, it was in his sack's mouth.

28 And he said unto his brethren, My money is restored ; and, lo, it is even in my sack : and their heart ⁵ failed them, and they were afraid, saying one to another, What is this that God hath done unto us ?

29 ^q And they came unto Jacob their father unto the land of Canaan, and told him all that befell unto them ; saying,

30 The man, ^r who is the lord of the land, ^s spake ⁶ roughly to us, and took us for spies of the country.

31 And we said unto him, We are true men ; we are no spies :

32 We be twelve brethren, sons of our father : one is not, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan.

33 And the man, the lord of the country, said unto us, ^u Hereby shall I know that ye are true men ; leave one of your brethren here with me, and take food for the famine of your households, and be gone ;

34 And bring your youngest brother unto me: then shall I know that ye are no spies, but that ye are true men: so will I deliver you your brother, and ye shall ¹traffic in the land.

35 And it came to pass as they emptied their sacks, that, behold, every man's bundle of money was ²in his sack: and when both they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid.

36 And Jacob their father said unto them, Me have ye ³bereaved of my children: Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye will take Benjamin away: all these things are against me.

37 And Reuben spake unto his father, saying, Slay my two sons, if I bring him not to thee: deliver him into my hand, and I will bring him to thee again.

38 And he said, My son shall not go down with you; for his ⁴brother is dead, and he is left alone: ⁵if mischief befall him by the way in which ye go, then shall ye bring down my grey hairs with sorrow to the grave.

CHAPTER 43.

Jacob is hardly persuaded to send Benjamin. 15 Joseph entertaineth his brethren: 19 their fears: 31 he maketh them a feast.

AND the famine was ^asore in the land.

2 And it came to pass, when they had eaten up the corn which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said unto them, Go again, buy us a little food.

3 And Judah spake unto him, saying, The man ¹did solemnly protest unto us, saying, Ye shall not see my face, except your ^bbrother be with you.

4 If thou wilt send our brother with us, we will go down and buy thee food:

5 But if thou wilt not send him, we will not go down: for the man said unto us, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.

6 And Israel said, Wherefore dealt I so ill with me, as to tell the man whether ye had yet a brother?

7 And they said, The man ²asked us straitly of our state, and of our kindred, saying, Is your father yet alive? have ye another brother? and we told him according to the tenor of these words: ³could we certainly know that he would say, Bring your brother down?

8 And Judah said unto Israel his father, Send the lad with me, and we will arise and go; that we may live, and not die, both we, and thou, and also our little ones.

9 I will be surety for him; of my hand shalt thou require him: ¹if I bring him not unto thee, and set him before thee, then let me bear the blame for ever:

10 For except we had lingered, surely now we had returned ²this second time.

11 And their father Israel said unto them, If it must be so now, do this; take of the best fruits in the land in your vessels, and ³carry down the man a present, a little ⁴balm, and a little honey, spices, and myrrh, nuts, and almonds.

12 And take double money in your hand: and the money ⁵that was brought again in the mouth of your sacks, carry it again in your hand; peradventure it was an oversight:

13 Take also your brother, and arise, go again unto the man:

14 And God Almighty give you mercy before the man, that he may send away your other brother, and Benjamin: ⁶If ⁷I be bereaved of my children, I am bereaved.

15 ¶ And the men took that present, and they took double money in their hand, and Benjamin; and rose up, and went down to Egypt, and stood before Joseph.

16 And when Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the ⁸ruler of his house, Bring these men home, and ⁹slay, and make ready; for these men shall ¹⁰dine with me at noon.

17 And the man did as Joseph bade; and the man brought the men into Joseph's house.

18 And the men were afraid, because they were brought into Joseph's house; and they said, Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time are we brought in; that he may ¹¹seek occasion against us, and fall upon us, and take us for bond-men, and our asses.

19 And they came near to the steward of Joseph's house, and they communed with him at the door of the house,

20 And said, O sir, ¹²we came indeed down at the first time to buy food:

21 And it came to pass, when we came to the inn, that we opened our sacks, and, behold, every man's money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight: and we have brought it again in our hand.

22 And other money have we brought down in our hands to buy food: we cannot tell who put our money in our sacks.

23 And he said, Peace be to you, fear not: your God, and the God of your father, hath given you treasure in your sacks: ¹¹I had your money. And he brought Simeon out unto them.

24 And the man brought the men into Joseph's house, and gave them water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their asses provender.

25 And they made ready the present against Joseph came at noon: for they heard that they should eat bread there.

26 And when Joseph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house, and ¹²he bowed themselves to him to the earth.

27 And he asked them of their ¹²welfare, and said, ¹³*Is* your father well, the old man ¹⁴of whom ye spake? is he yet alive?

28 And they answered, Thy servant our father is in good health, he is yet alive. ¹⁵And they bowed down their heads, and made obeisance.

29 And he lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Benjamin, ¹⁶his mother's son, and said, Is this your younger brother, ¹⁷of whom ye spake unto me? And he said, God be gracious unto thee, my son.

30 And Joseph made haste; for ¹⁸his bowels did yearn upon his brother: and he sought where to weep; and he entered into his chamber, and ¹⁹wept there.

31 And he washed his face, and went out, and refrained himself, and said, Set on ²⁰bread.

32 And they set on for him by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians which did eat with him by themselves: because the Egyptians might not eat bread with the Hebrews; for that is ²¹an abomination unto the Egyptians.

CHAPTER 44.

¹ Joseph's policy to stay Benjamin. Judah's humble supplication to Joseph.

AND he commanded ¹the steward of his house, saying, Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every man money in his sack's mouth.

2 And put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, and his corn money. And he did according to the word that Joseph had spoken.

3 As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their asses.

4 And when they were gone out of the city, and not yet far off, Joseph said unto his steward, Up follow after the men; and whosoever thou dost overtake them, say unto them, Wherefore have ye rewarded evil for good?

5 Is not this it in which my lord drinketh, and whereby indeed ²divineth? Ye have done evil in so doing.

6 And he overtook them, and he spake unto them these same words.

7 And they said unto him, Wherefore saith my lord these words? God forbid that thy servants should do according to this thing.

8 Behold, ³the money which we found in our sacks' mouths we brought again unto thee out of the land of Canaan: how then should we steal out of thy lord's house silver or gold?

9 With whomsoever of thy servants it be found, ⁴both let him die, and we also will be my lord's bond-men.

10 And he said, Now also let it be according unto your words: he with whom it is found shall be my servant; and ye shall be blameless.

11 Then they speedily took down every man his sack to the ground, and opened every man his sack.

12 And he searched, and began at the eldest, and left at the youngest, and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

13 Then they ⁵rent their clothes nd laded every man his ass, and returned to the city.

14 And Judah and his brethren came to Joseph's house; for he was there: and they ^afell before him on the ground.

15 And Joseph said unto them, What deed is this that ye have done? wot ye not that such a man as I can certainly ³divine?

16 And Judah said, ^eWhat shall we say unto my lord? what shall we speak? or how shall we clear ourselves? God hath found out the iniquity of thy servants: behold, we are my lord's servants, both we, and he also with whom the cups were found.

17 And he said, ^gGod forbid that I should do so: but the man in whose hand the cup is found, he shall be my servant; and as for you, get you up in peace unto your father.

18 ¶ Then Judah came near unto him, and said, Oh my lord, let thy servant, I pray thee, speak a word in my lord's ears, and ^hlet not thine anger burn against thy servant: for thou ⁱart even as Pharaoh.

19 My lord asked his servants, saying, Have ye a father, or a brother?

20 And we said unto my lord, We have a father, an old man, and ^ja child of his old age, a little one; and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loveth him.

21 And thou saidst unto thy servants, ^kBring him down unto me, that I may set mine eyes upon him.

22 And we said unto my lord, The lad cannot leave his father: or if he should leave his father, ^lhis father would die.

23 And thou saidst unto thy servants, ⁱExcept your youngest brother come down with you, ye shall see my face no more.

24 And it came to pass, when we came up unto thy servant my father, he told him the words of my lord.

25 And ^mour father said, Go again, and buy us a little food.

26 And we said, We cannot go down: if our youngest brother be with us, then will we go down: for we may not see the man's face, except our youngest brother be with us.

27 And thy servant my father said unto us, Ye know that ⁿmy wife bare me two sons:

CHAPTER 45.

¹ Joseph maketh himself known to his brethren, and comforteth them in God's providence. ⁹ He sendeth for his father.

THEN Joseph could not refrain himself before all them that stood by him; and he cried, Cause every man to go out from me. And there stood no man with him while Joseph made himself known unto his brethren.

2 And he ¹wept aloud: and the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard.

3 And Joseph said unto his brethren, ^aI am Joseph: doth my father yet live? And his brethren could not answer him; for they were ²troubled at his presence.

4 And Joseph said unto his brethren, Come near to me, I pray you. And they came near. And he said, I am Joseph your brother, ^bwhom ye sold into Egypt.

5 Now therefore ^cbe not grieved ³nor angry with yourselves that ye sold me hither; for ^dGod did send me before you to preserve life.

6 For these two years hath the famine been in the land: and yet there are five years, in the which there shall neither be earing nor harvest.

7 And God sent me before you ⁴to preserve you a posterity in the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance.

8 So now, it was not you that sent me hither, but God: and he hath made me ^aa father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Egypt.

9 Haste ye, and go up to my father, and say unto him, Thus saith thy son Joseph, God hath made me lord of all Egypt: come down unto me, tarry not:

10 And thou shalt dwell in the land of Goshen, and thou shalt be near unto me, thou, and thy children, and thy children's children, and thy flocks, and thy herds, and all that thou hast:

11 And there will I nourish thee; for ⁹yet there are five years of famine; lest thou, and thy household, and all that thou hast, come to poverty.

12 And, behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is ^hmy mouth that speaketh unto you.

13 And ye shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that ye have seen; and ye shall haste and ⁱbring down my father hither.

14 And he fell upon his brother Benjamin's neck, and wept; and Benjamin wept upon his neck.

15 Moreover, he kissed all his brethren, and wept upon them: and after that his brethren talked with him.

16 ¶ And the fame thereof was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, Joseph's brethren are come: and it ⁵pleased Pharaoh well, and his servants.

17 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Say unto thy brethren, This do ye; lade your beasts, and go, get you unto the land of Canaan;

18 And take your father, and your households, and come unto me: and I will give you the good of the land of Egypt, and ye shall eat ^jthe fat of the land.

19 Now thou art commanded, this do ye; take you wagons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones, and for your wives, and bring your father, and come.

22 To all of them he gave each man changes of raiment; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred ^jpieces of silver, and five changes of raiment.

23 And to his father he sent after this manner; ten asses ⁸laden with the good things of Egypt, and ten she-asses laden with corn and bread, and meat for his father by the way.

24 So he sent his brethren away, and they departed: and he said unto them, See that ye fall not out by the way.

25 And they went up out of Egypt, and came into the land of Canaan unto Jacob their father, 26 And told him, saying, Joseph is yet alive, and he is governor over all the land of Egypt. ^kAnd ⁹Jacob's heart fainted, for he believed them not.

27 And they told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said unto them: and when he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived:

CHAPTER 46.

1 Jacob is comforted by God at Beer-sheba: 5 he goeth into Egypt: 8 the number of his family: 28 Joseph meeteth him.

AND Israel took his journey with ^Aall that he had, and came to ^aBeer-sheba, and offered sacrifices ^bunto the God of his father Isaac.

2 And God spake unto Israel ^cin the visions of the night, and said, Jacob, Jacob. And he said, Here ^dam I.

3 And he said, I am God, ^dthe God of thy father: fear not to go down into Egypt; for I will there ^emake of thee a great nation.

4 I will go down with thee into Egypt; and I will also surely ^fbring thee up again: and ^hJacob shall put his hand upon thine eyes.

5 And ⁱJacob rose up from Beer-sheba: and the sons of Israel carried Jacob their father, and their little ones, and their wives, in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry him.

6 And they took their cattle, and their goods, which they had gotten ²⁶ ^x All the souls that came with Jacob into Egypt, which came out of his ¹¹ loins, besides Jacob's sons' wives, all the souls were threescore and six.

²⁷ And the sons of Joseph, which were born him in Egypt, were two souls : ^b all the souls of the house of Jacob, which came into Egypt, were threescore and ten.

²⁸ ¶ And he sent Judah before him unto Joseph, ^c to direct his face unto Goshen ; and they came into the land of Goshen.

²⁹ And Joseph made ready his chariot, and went up to meet Israel his father, to Goshen, and presented himself unto him ; and he fell on his neck, and wept on his neck a good while.

³⁰ And Israel said unto Joseph, ^d Now let me die, since I have seen thy face, because thou art yet alive.

³¹ And Joseph said unto his brethren, and unto his father's house, I will go up, and show Pharaoh, and say unto him, My brethren, and my father's house, which were in the land of Canaan, are come unto me ;

³² And the men are shepherds, for ¹² their trade hath been to feed cattle ; and they have brought their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have.

³³ And it shall come to pass, when Pharaoh shall call you, and shall say, ^e What is your occupation ?

³⁴ That ye shall say, Thy servants' trade hath been about cattle ^f from our youth even until now, both we and also our fathers : that ye may dwell in the land of Goshen : for every shepherd is ^g an abomination unto the Egyptians.

CHAPTER 47.

¹ Joseph presenteth five of his brethren, 7 and his father, before Pharaoh : 11 he giveth them habitation and maintenance.

THEN Joseph ^a came and told Pharaoh, and said, My father and my brethren, and their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have, are come out of the land of Canaan ; and, behold, they are in ^b the land of Goshen.

2 And he took some of his brethren, even five men, and ^cpresented them unto Pharaoh.

3 And Pharaoh said unto his brethren, ^dWhat is your occupation? And they said unto Pharaoh, ^eThy servants are shepherds, both we, and also our fathers.

4 They said, moreover, unto Pharaoh, ^fFor to sojourn in the land are we come; for thy servants have no pasture for their flocks; ^gfor the famine is sore in the land of Canaan: now therefore, we pray thee, let thy servants ^hdwell in the land of Goshen.

5 And Pharaoh spake unto Joseph, saying, Thy father and thy brethren are come unto thee:

6 ⁱThe land of Egypt is before thee: in the best of the land make thy father and brethren to dwell; ^jin the land of Goshen let them dwell: and if thou knowest any men of activity among them, then make them ^krulers over my cattle.

7 And Joseph brought in Jacob his father, and set him before Pharaoh: and Jacob blessed Pharaoh.

8 And Pharaoh said unto Jacob, ^lHow old art thou?

9 And Jacob said unto Pharaoh, ^mThe days of the years of my pilgrimage are an hundred and thirty years: ⁿfew and evil have the days of the years of my life been, and ^ohave not attained unto the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage.

10 And Jacob ^pblessed Pharaoh, and went out from before Pharaoh.

11 ¶ And Joseph placed his father and his brethren, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of ^qRameses, ^ras Pharaoh had commanded.

12 And Joseph nourished his ^sfather, and his brethren, and all his father's household, with bread, ^taccording to their families.

13 ¶ And there was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very sore, ^uso that the land of Egypt, and all the land of Canaan, fainted by reason of the famine.

14 ^vAnd Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the corn which they bought: and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house.

15 And when money failed in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came unto Joseph, and said, Give us bread: for ^{aa}why should we die in thy presence? for the money faileth.

16 And Joseph said, Give you cattle; and I will give you for your cattle, if money fail.

17 And they brought their cattle unto Joseph: and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for horses; and for the flocks, and for the cattle of the herds, and for the asses; and he ^{ab}fed them with bread for all their cattle for that year.

18 When that year was ended, they came unto him the second year, and said unto him, We will not hide it from my lord, how that our money is spent; my lord also hath our herds of cattle: there is not ought left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies and our lands:

19 Wherefore shall we die before thine eyes, both we and our land? buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants unto Pharaoh; and give us seed, that we may live, and not die, that the land be not desolate.

20 And Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh; for the Egyptians sold every man his field, because the famine prevailed over them: so the land became Pharaoh's.

21 And as for the people, he removed them to cities from one end of the borders of Egypt even to the other end thereof.

22 ^{ac}Only the land of the ^{ad}priests bought he not: for the priests had a portion assigned them of Pharaoh, and did eat their portion which Pharaoh gave them; wherefore they sold not their lands.

23 Then Joseph said unto the people, Behold, I have bought you this day and your land for Pharaoh: lo, here is seed for you, and ye shall sow the land.

24 And it shall come to pass in the increase, that ye shall give the fifth part unto Pharaoh; and four parts shall be your own, for seed of the field, and for your food, and for them of your households, and for food for your little ones.

25 And they said, Thou hast saved ur lives: "let us find grace in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's servants.

26 And Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt unto this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth part: ^aexcept the land of the priests only, which became not Pharaoh's.

27 ¶ And Israel ^ddwelt in the land of Egypt, in the country of Goshen; and they had possessions therein, and ^egrew, and multiplied exceedingly.

28 And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years: so ^ethe whole age of Jacob was an hundred forty and seven years.

29 And the time ^adrew nigh that Israel must die: and he called his son Joseph, and said unto him, If now I have found grace in thy sight, ^bput, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh, and ^cdeal kindly and truly with me; ^dbury me not, I pray thee, in Egypt:

30 But ^eI will lie with my fathers; and thou shalt carry me out of Egypt, and ^fbury me in their burying-place. And he said, I will do as thou hast said.

31 And he said, Swear unto me. And he sware unto him. And ^gIsrael bowed himself upon the bed's head.

3 And Jacob said unto Joseph, God Almighty appeared unto me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me,

7 And as for me, when I came from Padan, ^dRachel died by me in the land of Canaan in the way, when yet there was but a little way to come unto Ephrath: and I buried her there in the way of Ephrath; the same is Beth-lehem.

8 And Israel beheld Joseph's sons, and said, Who are these?

9 And Joseph said unto his father, ^eThey are my sons, whom God hath given me in this place. And he said, Bring them, I pray thee, unto me, and ^fI will bless them.

10 Now ^jthe eyes of Israel were ¹dim for age, so that he could not see. And he brought them near unto him; and ^hhe kissed them, and embraced them.

11 And Israel said unto Joseph, ⁱI had not thought to see thy face; and, lo, God hath showed me also thy seed.

12 And Joseph brought them out from between his knees, and he bowed himself with his face to the earth.

13 And Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand toward Israel's left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand toward Israel's right hand, and brought them near unto him.

14 And Israel stretched out his right hand, and laid it upon Ephraim's head, who was the younger, and his left hand upon Manasseh's head, guiding his hands wittingly; for Manasseh was the first-born.

15 ¶ And ^jhe blessed Joseph, and said, God, before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac did walk, the God which fed me all my life long unto this day, 16 The Angel ^kwhich redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and let ^lmy name be named on them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and let them ²grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth.

17 And when Joseph saw that his father ^mlaid his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, it ³displeased him; and he held up his father's hand, to remove it from Ephraim's head, to remove it from Ephraim's head unto Manasseh's head.

18 And Joseph said unto his father, Not so, my father: for this is the first-born; put thy right hand upon his head.

19 And his father refused, and said, I know it, my son, I know it: he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great; but truly ^hhis younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a ⁴multitude of nations.

20 And he blessed them that day, saying, ^oIn thee shall Israel bless, saying, God make thee as Ephraim, and as Manasseh: and he set Ephraim before Manasseh.

21 And Israel said unto Joseph, Behold, I die; but ^pGod shall be with you, and bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

22 Moreover ^qI have given to thee one portion above thy brethren, which I took out of the hand ^rof the Amorite with my sword and with my bow.

6 And Pharaoh said, Go up and bury thy father, according as he made thee swear.

7 ¶ And Joseph went up to bury his father: and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt,

8 And all the house of Joseph, and his brethren, and his father's house: only their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds, they left in the land of Goshen.

9 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen: and it was a very great company.

10 And they came to the threshing-floor of Atad, which is beyond Jordan, and there they ^gmourned with a great and very sore lamentation: ^hand he made a mourning for his father seven days.

11 And when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning in the floor of Atad, they said, This is a grievous mourning to the Egyptians: wherefore the name of it was called ²Abel-mizraim, which is beyond Jordan.

12 And his sons did unto him according as he commanded them:

15 ¶ And when Joseph's brethren saw that their father was dead, they said, Joseph will peradventure hate us, and will certainly requite us all the evil which we did unto him.

16 And they ³sent a messenger unto Joseph, saying, Thy father did command before he died, saying, 17 So shall ye say unto Joseph, Forgive, I pray thee now, the trespass of thy brethren, and their sin; ^kfor they did unto thee evil: and now, we pray thee, forgive the trespass of the servants of ^lthe God of thy father. And Joseph wept when they spake unto him.

us, and so get them up out of the land.

11 Therefore they did set over them taskmasters ⁱto afflict them with their ^jburdens. And they built for Pharaoh treasure cities Pithom ^kand Raamses.

12 ²But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew. And they were grieved because of the children of Israel.

13 And the Egyptians made the children of Israel to serve with rigour:

14 And they ¹made their lives bitter with hard bondage, ^min mortar, and in brick, and in all manner of service in the field: all their service, wherein they made them serve, was with rigour.

15 ^rAnd the king of Egypt spake to the Hebrew midwives; of which the name of the one was Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah;

16 And he said, When ye do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them upon the stools, if it be a son, then ye shall kill him; but if it be a daughter, then she shall live.

17 But the midwives ⁿfeared God, and did not ^oas the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the men-children alive.

18 And the king of Egypt called for the midwives, and said unto them, Why have ye done this thing, nd have saved the men-children live?

19 And ^pthe midwives said unto Pharaoh, Because the Hebrew women are not as the Egyptian women; for they are lively, and are delivered ere the midwives come in unto them.
20 ^qTherefore God dealt well with the midwives: and the people multiplied, and waxed very mighty.
21 And it came to pass, because the midwives feared God, ^rthat he made them houses.
22 And Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, Every son that is born ye shall cast into the river, and every daughter ye shall save alive.

CHAPTER 2.

Moses is born, and laid among the flags: 6 he is found, and brought up by Pharaoh's daughter. 21 He marryeth Zipporah.

AND there went ^aa man of the house of Levi, and took to wife a daughter of Levi.
2 And the woman conceived, and bare a son: and ^bwhen she saw him that he was a goodly child, she hid him three months.
3 And when she could not longer hide him, she took for him an ark of bulrushes, and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and put the child therein; and she laid it in the flags by the river's brink.
4 ^cAnd his sister stood afar off, to wit what would be done to him.
5 ¶ And the ^ddaughter of Pharaoh came down to wash herself at the river; and her maidens walked along by the river's side; and when she saw the ark among the flags, she sent her maid to fetch it.
6 And when she had opened it, she saw the child: and, behold, the babe wept. And she had compassion on him, and said, This is one of the Hebrews' children.
7 Then said his sister to Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go and call to thee a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for thee?
8 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Go. And the maid went and called the child's mother.
9 And Pharaoh's daughter said unto her, Take this child away, and nurse it for me, and I will give thee thy wages. And the woman took the child, and nursed it.
10 And the child grew, and she brought him unto Pharaoh's daugh-

11 ¶ And it came to pass in those days, ^ewhen Moses was grown, that he went out unto his brethren, and looked on their burdens: and he spied an Egyptian smiting an Hebrew, one of his brethren.
12 And he looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no man, he slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand.
13 And when he went out the second day, behold, two men of the Hebrews strove together: and he said to him that did the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellow?
14 And he said, Who made thee ²a prince and a judge over us? Intendest thou to kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian? And Moses feared, and said, Surely this thing is known.
15 Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian: and he sat down by ^fa well.
16 ^gNow the ³priest of Midian had seven daughters: ^hand they came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock.
17 And the shepherds came and drove them away: but Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock.
18 And when they came to ⁴Reuel their father, he said, How is it that ye are come so soon to-day?
19 And they said, An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and also drew water enough for us, and watered the flock.
20 And he said unto his daughters, And where is he? why is it that ye have left the man? call him, that he may ⁱeat bread.
21 And Moses was content to dwell with the man: and he gave Moses Zipporah his daughter.
22 And she bare him a son, and he called his name ⁴Gershom: ^kfor he said, I have been ⁴a stranger in a strange land.
23 ¶ And it came to pass ^min process of time, that the king of Egypt died: and the children of Israel ⁿsighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried; and ^otheir cry came up unto God by reason of the bondage.

24 And God ^pheard their groaning, and God ^qremembered his ^rcovenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob.

25 And God ^slooked upon the children of Israel, and God ^thad respect unto them.

1 Moses keepeth Jethro's flock; God appeareth unto him in a burning bush, 7 and sendeth him to deliver Israel. 19 Pharaoh's obstinacy.

NOW Moses kept the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian: and he led the flock to the back side of the desert, and came to ^athe mountain of God, even to Horeb.

2 And ^bthe Angel of the LORD appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush: and he looked, and, behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed.

3 And Moses said, I will now turn aside, and see this ^cgreat sight, why the bush is not burnt.

4 And when the LORD saw that he turned aside to see, God called ^dunto him out of the midst of the bush, and said, Moses, Moses. And he said, Here am I.

5 And he said, Draw not nigh hither: ^eput off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground.

6 Moreover he said, ^fI am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face; for ^ghe was afraid to look upon God.

7 ¶ And the LORD said, I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their taskmasters; for ^hI know their sorrows;

8 And ⁱI am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land ^kunto a good land and a large, unto a land ^lflowing with milk and honey; unto the place of the ^mCanaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

17 And I have said, ^{ae}I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt unto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, unto a land flowing with milk and honey.

three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.

19 And I am sure that the king of Egypt will not let you go, ¹no, not by a mighty hand.

20 And I will stretch out my hand, and smite Egypt with ²all my wonders which I will do in the midst thereof: and ³after that he will let you go.

21 And ⁴I will give this people favour in the sight of the Egyptians: and it shall come to pass, that, when ye go, ye shall not go empty:

22 ⁵But every woman shall borrow of her neighbour, and of her that sojourneth in her house, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment: and ye shall put them upon your sons, and upon your daughters; and ⁶ye shall spoil ⁷the Egyptians.

AND Moses answered and said, But, behold, they will not believe me, nor hearken unto my voice: for they will say, The LORD hath not appeared unto thee.

2 And the LORD said unto him, What is that in thine hand? And he said, A rod.

3 And he said, Cast it on the ground. And he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from before it.

4 And the LORD said unto Moses, Put forth thine hand, and take it by the tail. And he put forth his hand, and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand:

5 That they may ⁸believe that the LORD God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath appeared unto thee.

6 ¶ And the LORD said furthermore unto him, Put now thine hand unto thy bosom. And he put his hand into his bosom: and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous ⁹as snow.

7 And he said, Put thine hand into thy bosom again. And he put his hand into his bosom again; and plucked it out of his bosom, and, behold, ¹⁰it was turned again as his other flesh.

10 ¶ And Moses said unto the LORD, O my Lord, I am not ³eloquent, neither ⁴heretofore, nor since thou hast spoken unto thy servant; but ⁵I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue.

11 And the LORD said unto him, Who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I the LORD?

15 And thou shalt speak unto him, and ⁹put words in his mouth: and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and ¹⁰will teach you what ye shall do.

19 And the LORD said unto Moses in Midian, Go, return into Egypt: for ¹³all the men are dead which sought thy life.

20 And Moses took his wife and his sons, and set them upon an ass, and he returned to the land of Egypt: and Moses took the ^{rod} of God in his hand.

2 And Pharaoh said, ^b Who is the LORD, that I should obey his voice to let Israel go? I know not the LORD, ^c neither will I let Israel go.

3 And they said, ^d The God of the Hebrews hath met with us: let us go, we pray thee, three days' journey into the desert, and sacrifice unto the LORD our God; lest he fall upon us with pestilence, or with the sword.

4 And the king of Egypt said unto them, ^e Wherefore do ye Moses and Aaron, let the people from their works? get you unto your burdens.

5 And Pharaoh said, Behold, the people of the land now are ^u many, and ye make them rest from their burdens.

6 And Pharaoh commanded the same day the ^h taskmasters of the people, and their officers, saying,

7 Ye shall no more give the people straw to make brick, as heretofore: let them go and gather straw for themselves.

8 And the tale of the bricks, which they did make heretofore, ye shall lay upon them; ye shall not diminish ^{ought} thereof: for they be idle; therefore they cry, saying, Let us go and sacrifice to our God.

9 ¹ Let there more work be laid upon the men, that they may labour therein; and let them not regard vain words.

10 ¶ And the ⁱ taskmasters of the people went out, and their officers, and they spake to the people, saying, Thus saith Pharaoh, I will not give you straw.

11 Go ye, get you straw where ye can find it: yet not ought of your work shall be diminished.

12 So the people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble instead of straw.

13 And the taskmasters hasted them, saying, Fulfil your works, ^{your} ² daily tasks, as when there was straw.

14 ^j And the officers of the children of Israel, which Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over them, were beaten, and demanded, Wherefore have ye not fulfilled your task in making brick both yesterday and to-day, as heretofore?

15 ¶ Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried unto Pharaoh, saying, Wherefore dealest thou thus with thy servants?

6 There is no straw given unto my servants, and they say to us, Take brick: and, behold, thy servants are beaten; but the fault is in thine own people.

7 But he said, Ye are idle, ye are idle: therefore ye say, Let us go and do sacrifice to the LORD.

8 Go therefore now and work: for there shall no straw be given you, yet shall ye deliver the tale of bricks.

9 And the officers of the children of Israel did see that they were in evil case, after it was said, Ye shall not diminish ought from your bricks of your daily task.

10 ¶ And they met Moses and Aaron, who stood in the way, as they came forth from Pharaoh:

11 And they said unto them, The LORD look upon you, and judge: because ye have made our savour to be abhorred in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to slay us.

12 And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, Lord, wherefore hast thou so evil entreated this people? why is it that thou hast sent me?

13 For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in thy name, he hath done evil to this people; neither hast thou delivered thy people at all.

whom the Egyptians keep in bondage; and I have remembered my covenant.

6 Wherefore say unto the children of Israel, I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and I will redeem you with a stretched-out arm, and with great judgments:

7 And I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God: and ye shall know that I am the LORD your God, which bringeth you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians.

8 And I will bring you in unto the land, concerning the which I did swear to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and I will give it you for an heritage: I am the LORD.

9 ¶ And Moses spake so unto the children of Israel: but they hearkened not unto Moses for anguish of spirit, and for cruel bondage.

10 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

11 Go in, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, that he let the children of Israel go out of his land.

12 And Moses spake before the LORD, saying, Behold, the children of Israel have not hearkened unto me; how then shall Pharaoh hear me, who am of uncircumcised lips?

13 And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, and gave them a charge unto the children of Israel, and unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

14 ¶ These be the heads of their fathers' houses: The sons of Reuben the first-born of Israel; Hanoch, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi: these be the families of Reuben.

15 And the sons of Simeon; Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanitish woman: these are the families of Simeon.

16 And these are the names of the sons of Levi according to their generations; Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari: and the years of the life of Levi were an hundred thirty and seven years.

17 The sons of Gershon; Libni and Shimi, according to their families.

18 And ^qthe sons of Kohath; Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel. And the years of the life of Kohath were an hundred thirty and three years.

19 And the sons of Merari; Mahli and Mushi: these are the families of Levi according to their generations.

20 And ^rAmram took him Jochebed his father's sister to wife; and she bare him Aaron and Moses: and the years of the life of Amram were an hundred and thirty and seven years.

21 And ^tthe sons of Izhar; Korah, and Nepheg, and Zichri.

22 And ^uthe sons of Uzziel; Mishael, and Elzaphan, and Zithri.

23 And Aaron took him Elisheba, daughter of ^vAmminadab, sister of Naashon, to wife; and she bare him ^wNadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

24 And the ^wsons of Korah; Assir, and Elkanah, and Abiasaph: these are the families of the Korhites.

25 And Eleazar, Aaron's son, took him ^xone of the daughters of Putiel to wife; and ^xshe bare him Phin-eas: these are the heads of the fathers of the Levites, according to their families.

26 These are that Aaron and Moses, to whom the LORD said, Bring out the children of Israel from the land of Egypt, according to their ^yarmies.

27 These are they which ^zspake to Pharaoh king of Egypt, ^ato bring out the children of Israel from Egypt: these are that Moses and Aaron.

28 ¶ And it came to pass, on the day when the LORD spake unto Moses in the land of Egypt, 29 That the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, I am the LORD: ^bspeak thou unto Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I say unto thee.

30 And Moses said before the LORD, Behold, I am of uncircumcised lips, and how shall Pharaoh hearken unto me?

2 Thou shalt speak all that I command thee; and Aaron thy brother shall speak unto Pharaoh, that he send the children of Israel out of his land.

3 And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and ^bmultiply my ^csigns and my wonders in the land of Egypt.

4 But Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you, ^dthat I may lay my hand upon Egypt, and bring forth mine armies, and my people the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt ^eby great judgments.

5 And the Egyptians ^fshall know that I am the LORD, when I ^gstretch forth mine hand upon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them.

6 And Moses and Aaron did as the LORD commanded them, so did they.

7 And Moses was ^hfour-score year old, and Aaron four-score and three years old, when they spake unto Pharaoh.

8 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

9 When Pharaoh shall speak unto you, saying, ⁱShow a miracle for you: then thou shalt say unto Aaron, ^jTake thy rod, and cast it before Pharaoh, and it shall become a serpent.

10 ¶ And Moses and Aaron went in unto Pharaoh, and they did so as the LORD had commanded: and Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh, and before his servants, and it ^kbecame a serpent.

11 Then Pharaoh also ^lcalled the wise men and ^mthe sorcerers: now the magicians of Egypt, they also ⁿdid in like manner with their enchantments.

12 For they cast down every man his rod, and they became serpents: but Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods.

13 And he hardened Pharaoh's heart, that he hearkened not unto them; ^oas the LORD had said.

14 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, ^pPharaoh's heart is hardened, he refuseth to let the people go.

15 Get thee unto Pharaoh in the morning; lo, he goeth out unto the water; and thou shalt stand by the river's brink against he come; and ^qthe rod which was turned to a serpent shalt thou take in thine hand.

16 And thou shalt say unto him, the LORD God of the Hebrews hath said unto thee, saying, Let my people go, ^athat they may serve me in the wilderness: and, behold, ^btherto thou wouldest not hear.

7 Thus saith the LORD, In this thou shalt know that I am the LORD: behold, I will smite with the rod that is in mine hand upon the waters which are in the river, and they shall be turned ^ato blood.

8 And the fish that is in the river shall die, and the river shall stink; and the Egyptians shall ^aloathe to drink of the water of the river.

9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and ^astretch out thine hand upon the waters of Egypt, upon their streams, upon their rivers, and upon their ponds, and upon all their ^bpools of water, that they may become blood; and that there may be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood, and in vessels of stone.

10 And Moses and Aaron did so, as the LORD commanded; and he lifted up the rod, and smote the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants; and all the ^awaters that were in the river were turned to blood.

11 And the fish that was in the river died; and the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink of the water of the river: and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.

12 And the magicians of Egypt did so with their enchantments: and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, neither did he hearken unto them; as the LORD had said.

13 And Pharaoh turned and went to his house, neither ^adid he set his heart to this also.

14 And all the Egyptians digged round about the river for water to drink; for they could not drink of the water of the river.

15 And seven days were fulfilled, after that the LORD had smitten the river.

2 And if thou ^brefuse to let them go, behold, I will smite all thy borders with ^cfrogs:

3 And the river shall bring forth frogs abundantly, which shall go up and come into thine house, and into ^dthy bed-chamber, and upon thy bed, and into the house of thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thine ovens, and into thy ^ekneading troughs:

4 And the frogs shall come up both on thee, and upon thy people, and upon all thy servants.

5 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, ^aStretch forth thine hand with thy rod over the streams, over the rivers, and over the ponds, and cause frogs to come up upon the land of Egypt.

6 And Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt; and the frogs came up, and covered the land of Egypt.

7 ^aAnd the magicians did so with their enchantments, and brought up frogs upon the land of Egypt.

8 ¶ Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, ^bEntreat the LORD, that he may take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may do sacrifice unto the LORD.

9 And Moses said unto Pharaoh, ^cGlory over me: ^dwhen shall I entreat for thee, and for thy servants, and for thy people, ^eto destroy the frogs from thee and thy houses, that they may remain in the river only?

10 And he said, ^fTo-morrow. And he said, Be it according to thy word; that thou mayest know that ^gthere is none like unto the LORD our God.

11 And the frogs shall depart from thee, and from thy houses, and from thy servants, and from thy people; they shall remain in the river only.

12 And Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh: and Moses ^hcried unto the LORD because of the frogs which he had brought against Pharaoh.

13 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the villages, and out of the fields.

14 And they gathered them together upon heaps; and the land stank.

15 But when Pharaoh saw that there was ^krespite, ^lhe hardened his heart, and hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

16 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch out thy rod, and smite the dust of the land, that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

17 And they did so: for Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth, and ^mit became lice in man and in beast; all the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

18 And ⁿthe magicians did so with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they ^ocould not: so there were lice upon man and upon beast.

19 Then the magicians said unto Pharaoh, This is ^pthe finger of God: and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said

20 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, ^qRise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh; lo, he cometh forth to the water; and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Let my people go, that they may serve me:

21 Else, if thou wilt not let my people go, behold, I will send ^rswarms of flies upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy houses: and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground whereon they are.

22 And ^sI will sever in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there; to the end thou mayest know that I am the LORD in the midst of the earth.

23 And I will put ^ta division between my people and thy people: ^uto-morrow shall this sign be.

24 And the LORD did so: and ^vthere came a grievous swarm of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants' houses, and into all the land of Egypt: the land was ^wcorrupted by reason of the swarm of flies.

25 ¶ And Pharaoh called for Moses and for Aaron, and said, Go ye, sacrifice to your God in the land.

29 And Moses said, Behold, I go out from thee, and I will entreat the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, to-morrow: but let not Pharaoh deal deceitfully any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.

30 And Moses went out from Pharaoh, and entreated the LORD

CHAPTER 9.

1 The murrain of beasts. 8 The plague of boils and blains, 22 of hail. 24 Pharaoh sueth to Moses, 35 but yet he hardened.

THEN the LORD said unto Moses, ^{an}Go in unto Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

2 For if thou ^{ao}refuse to let them go, and wilt hold them still,

3 Behold, the ^{ap}hand of the LORD is upon thy cattle which is in the field, upon the horses, upon the asses, upon the camels, upon the oxen, and upon the sheep: ^{aq}they shall be a very grievous murrain.

4 And ^{ar}the LORD shall sever between the cattle of Israel and the cattle of Egypt: and there shall nothing die of all that is the children's of Israel.

5 And the LORD appointed a set time, saying, To-morrow the LORD shall do this thing in the land.

6 And the LORD did that thing on the morrow, and ^{as}all the cattle of Egypt died: but of the cattle of the children of Israel died not one.

7 And Pharaoh sent, and, behold, there was not one of the cattle of the Israelites dead. And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the people go.

¶ And the LORD said unto Moses and unto Aaron, Take to you handfuls of ashes of the furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it toward heaven in the sight of Pharaoh. And it shall become small dust all the land of Egypt, and shall be a boil breaking forth with blains upon man, and upon beast, throughout all the land of Egypt.

And they took ashes of the furnace, and stood before Pharaoh; and Moses sprinkled it up toward heaven; and it became a boil breaking forth with blains upon man and upon beast.

And the magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils; for the boil was upon the magicians, and upon all the Egyptians. And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had spoken unto Moses.

¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

For I will at this time send all my plagues upon thine heart, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people; that thou mayest know that there is none like me in all the earth.

For now I will stretch out my hand, that I may smite thee and thy people with pestilence; and thou shalt be cut off from the earth.

And in very deed for this cause have I raised thee up, for to show thee my power; and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth.

As yet exaltest thou thyself against my people, that thou wilt not let them go?

Behold, to-morrow about this time I will cause it to rain a very grievous hail, such as hath not been in Egypt since the foundation thereof even until now.

Send therefore now, and gather thy cattle, and all that thou hast in the field; for upon every man and beast which shall be found in the field, and shall not be brought home, the hail shall come down upon them, and they shall die.

20 He that feared the word of the LORD among the servants of Pharaoh made his servants and his cattle flee into the houses:

21 And he that regarded not the word of the LORD left his servants and his cattle in the field.

22 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch forth thine hand toward heaven, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, upon man, and upon beast, and upon every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt.

23 And Moses stretched forth his rod toward heaven; and the LORD sent thunder and hail, and the fire ran along upon the ground; and the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt.

24 So there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail, very grievous, such as there was none like it in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.

25 And the hail smote throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and beast; and the hail smote every herb of the field, and brake every tree of the field.

26 Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were, was there no hail.

27 ¶ And Pharaoh sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and said unto them, I have sinned this time: the LORD is righteous, and I and my people are wicked.

28 Entreat the LORD (for it is enough) that there be no more mighty thunderings and hail; and I will let you go, and ye shall stay no longer.

29 And Moses said unto him, As soon as I am gone out of the city, I will spread abroad my hands unto the LORD; and the thunder shall cease, neither shall there be any more hail; that thou mayest know how that the earth is the LORD's.

30 But as for thee and thy servants, I know that ye will not yet fear the LORD God.

31 And the flax and the barley was smitten; for the barley was in the ear, and the flax was bolted.

32 But the wheat and the rye were not smitten; for they were not grown up.

33 And Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and spread abroad his hands unto the LORD; and the thunders and hail ceased, and the rain was not poured upon the earth.

34 And when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders were ceased, he sinned yet more, and hardened his heart, he and his servants.

35 And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, neither would he let the children of Israel go; as the LORD had spoken ⁵ by Moses.

⁴ God threateneth to send locusts. ¹² The plague of locusts, 21 of darkness. ²⁴ Pharaoh saith to Moses: ²⁷ his heart is yet hardened.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Go in unto Pharaoh: ^a for I have hardened his heart, and the heart of his servants, that ^b I might show these my signs before him:

2 And that ^c thou mayest tell in the ears of thy son, and of thy son's son, what things I have wrought in Egypt, and my signs which I have done among them; that ye may know how that I am the LORD.

3 And Moses and Aaron came in unto Pharaoh, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, How long wilt thou refuse to ^d humble thyself before me? let my people go, that they may serve me:

4 Else, if thou refuse to let my people go, behold, to-morrow will I bring the ^e locusts into thy coast:

6 And they ^h shall fill thy houses, and the houses of all thy servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians; which neither thy fathers, nor thy fathers' fathers have seen, since the day that they were upon the earth unto this day. And he turned himself, and went out from Pharaoh.

7 And Pharaoh's servants said unto him, How long shall this man be ^h a snare unto us? let the men go, that they may serve the LORD their God: knowest thou not yet that Egypt is destroyed?

brought again unto Pharaoh: and he said unto them, Go, serve the LORD your God: ² but who are the that shall go?

9 And Moses said, We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds will we go: for ³ we must hold a feast unto the LORD.

10 And he said unto them, Let the LORD be so with you, as I will let you go, and your little ones look to it; for evil is before you.

11 Not so: go now ye that are men, and serve the LORD; for that ye did desire. And they were driven out from Pharaoh's presence.

12 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch ^k out thine hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up upon the land of Egypt, and ^l eat every herb of the land, ^{even} all that the hail hath left.

13 And Moses stretched forth his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east wind upon the land all that day, and all that night; and when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts.

14 And ^m the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested in all the coasts of Egypt: very grievous ^{were} they; ⁿ before them there were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be such.

15 For they ^o covered the face of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened; and they ^p did eat every herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left: and there remained not any green thing in the trees, or in the herbs of the field, through all the land of Egypt.

16 ¶ Then Pharaoh ³ called for Moses and Aaron in haste; and he said, ^q I have sinned against the LORD your God, and against you.

17 Now therefore forgive, I pray thee, my sin only this once, and ^r entreat the LORD your God, that he may take away from me this death only.

18 And he ^s went out from Pharaoh, and entreated the LORD.

19 And the LORD turned a mighty strong west wind, which took away the locusts, and ^t cast them ^{into} the Red sea; there remained not one locust in all the coasts of Egypt.

20 But the LORD "hardened Pharaoh's heart, so that he would not let the children of Israel go.

21 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, "Stretch out thine hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, even darkness which may be felt. 22 And Moses stretched forth his hand toward heaven; and there was a ^wthick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days:

23 They saw not one another, neither rose any from his place for three days: ^xbut all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings.

24 ¶ And Pharaoh called unto Moses, and said, Go ye, serve the LORD; only let your flocks and your herds be stayed: let your little ones also go with you.

25 And Moses said, Thou must give ⁶us also sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice unto the LORD our God.

26 Our cattle also shall go with us; there shall not an hoof be left behind: for thereof must we take to serve the LORD our God; and we know not with what we must serve the LORD until we come thither.

27 ¶ But the LORD ^zhardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let them go.

28 And Pharaoh said unto him, Get thee from me, take heed to thyself, see my face no more: for in that day thou seest my face thou shalt die.

29 And Moses said, Thou hast spoken well, I ^awill see thy face again no more.

favour in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover the man ^dMoses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants, and in the sight of the people.

4 ¶ And Moses said, Thus saith the LORD, About ^emidnight will I go out into the midst of Egypt:

5 And ^fall the first-born in the land of Egypt shall die, from the first-born of Pharaoh that sitteth upon his throne, even unto the first-born of the maid-servant that is behind the mill; and all the first-born of beasts.

8 And all these thy servants shall come down unto me, and bow down themselves unto me, saying, Get thee out, and all the people ²that follow thee: and after that I will go out. And he went out from Pharaoh in ³a great anger.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you; that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.

10 And Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh: and the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, so that he would not let the children of Israel go out of his land.

CHAPTER 12.

1 The beginning of the year changed. 3 The passover instituted. 29 The first-born of Egypt are slain. 31 The Israelites are driven out of the land.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying,

2 This ^amonth shall be unto you the beginning of months: it shall be the first month of the year to you.

3 ¶ Speak ye unto all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth day of this month they shall take to them every man a ¹lamb, according to the house of their fathers, a lamb for an house.

4 And if the household be too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbour next unto his house take it according to the number of the souls: every man according to his eating shall make your count for the lamb.

5 Your lamb shall be ^b without blemish, a male ² of the first year: ye shall take it out from the sheep, or from the goats:

6 And ye shall keep it up until the ^cfourteenth day of the same month: and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it ³ in the evening.

7 And they shall take of the blood, and strike it on the two side posts and on the upper door post of the houses, wherein they shall eat it.

8 And they shall eat the flesh in that night, roast with fire, and ^d unleavened bread; and with bitter herbs they shall eat it.

9 Eat not of it raw, nor sodden at all with water, but roast with fire; his head with his legs, and with the purtenance thereof.

10 And ^eye shall let nothing of it remain until the morning; and that which remaineth of it until the morning ye shall burn with fire.

11 And thus shall ye eat it; with your loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and ye shall eat it in haste: ^fit is the LORD's passover.

12 For I ^gwill pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the first-born in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and ^hagainst all the ⁴gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am the LORD.

13 And ⁱthe blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you ⁵ to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt.

14 And this day shall be unto you for a memorial; and ye shall keep it a ^jfeast to the LORD throughout your generations; ye shall keep it a feast by an ordinance for ever.

15 ¶ Seven ^kdays shall ye eat unleavened bread; even the first day ye shall put away leaven out of your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, ^lthat soul shall be cut off from Israel.

16 And in the first day there shall be an holy convocation, and in the seventh day there shall be an holy convocation to you; no manner work shall be done in them, say that which every ⁶man must eat that only may be done of you.

17 And ye shall observe the ⁷feast of unleavened bread; for ^min the selfsame day have I brought you armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore shall ye observe this day in your generations by an ordinance for ever.

18 In ⁿthe first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at even, ye shall eat unleavened bread, until the one and twentieth day of the month at even.

19 Seven ^odays shall there be no leaven found in your houses: for whosoever eateth that which is leavened, ^peven that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he be a stranger or born in the land.

20 Ye shall eat nothing leavened in all your habitations shall ye eat unleavened bread.

21 ¶ Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel, and said unto them.

^q Draw out and take you a ⁷lamb according to your families, and kill the passover.

22 And ye shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and strike the lintel and the two side posts with the blood that is in the basin; and none of you shall go out at the door of his house until the morning.

23 For the LORD will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the LORD will pass over the door, and ^rwill not suffer ⁸the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you.

24 And ye shall observe this thing ⁹for an ordinance to thee and to thy sons for ever.

25 And it shall come to pass, when ye be come to the land which the LORD will give you, according as he hath promised, that ye shall keep this service.

26 And ^tit shall come to pass, when your children shall say unto you, What mean ye by this service?

27 That ye shall say, It is the sacrifice of the LORD's passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, and delivered our houses. And the people bowed the head and worshipped.

28 And the children of Israel went way, and did as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

29 ¶ And it came to pass, that at midnight the ¹ LORD smote all the first-born in the land of Egypt, from the first-born of Pharaoh that sat on his throne unto the first-born of the captive that was in the ² dun-geon; and all the first-born of cattle. 30 And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt; for there was not a house where there was not one dead.

31 ¶ And he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, and get you forth from among my people, ³ both ye and the children of Israel; and go, serve the LORD, as ye have said.

32 Also take your flocks and your herds, as ye have said, and be gone; and ⁴ bless me also.

33 And ⁵ the Egyptians were urgent upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste; for they said, ⁶ We be all dead men.

34 And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their kneading troughs being bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders.

35 And the children of Israel did according to the word of Moses; and they ⁷ borrowed of the Egyptians ⁸ jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment.

36 And the LORD gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they lent unto them such things as they required: and ⁹ they spoiled the Egyptians.

37 ¶ And ¹⁰ the children of Israel journeyed from ¹¹ Rameses to Succoth, about ¹² six hundred thousand on foot that were men, besides children.

38 And ¹³ a mixed multitude went up also with them; and flocks and herds, even very much cattle.

39 And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth out of Egypt, for it was not leavened; because they ¹⁴ were thrust out of Egypt, and could not tarry, neither had they prepared for themselves any victual.

Egypt, was ⁴² four hundred and thirty years.

41 And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, even the selfsame day it came to pass, that all ⁴³ the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt.

42 It is ⁴⁴ a night to be much observed unto the LORD for bringing them out from the land of Egypt: this is that night of the LORD to be observed of all the children of Israel in their generations.

43 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses and Aaron, This is ⁴⁵ the ordinance of the passover: There shall no stranger eat thereof:

44 But every man's servant that is bought for money, when thou hast ⁴⁶ circumcised him, then shall he eat thereof.

45 A ⁴⁷ foreigner and an hired servant shall not eat thereof.

46 In one house shall it be eaten: thou shalt not carry forth ought of the flesh abroad out of the house; ⁴⁸ neither shall ye break a bone thereof.

47 All the congregation of Israel shall ⁴⁹ keep it.

48 And ⁵⁰ when a stranger shall sojourn with thee, and will keep the passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it; and he shall be as one that is born in the land: for no uncircumcised person shall eat thereof.

49 One ⁵¹ law shall be to him that is home-born, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among you.

50 Thus did all the children of Israel; as the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

51 And it came to pass the selfsame day, that the LORD did bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt by ⁵² their armies.

CHAPTER 13.

1 The first-born sanctified to God. 3 The memorial of the passover is commanded to be observed yearly. 17 The Israelites go out of Egypt.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Sanctify ³ unto me all the first-born, whatsoever openeth the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and of beast: it is mine.

3 ¶ And Moses said unto the people, ⁴ Remember this day, in which ye came out from Egypt, out of the house of ¹bondage; for by ^cstrength of hand the LORD brought you out from this place: there shall no leavened bread be eaten.

4 This ^dday came ye out, in the month Abib.

5 And it shall be, when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which he sware unto thy fathers to give thee, a land flowing with milk and honey, that thou shalt keep this service in this month.

6 Seven ^edays thou shalt eat unleavened bread, and in the seventh day shall be a feast to the LORD.

7 Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days; and there shall no leavened bread be seen with thee, neither shall there be leaven seen with thee in all thy quarters.

8 And thou shalt ^fshow thy son in that day, saying, This is done because of that which the LORD did unto me when I came forth out of Egypt.

9 And it shall be for a ^gsign unto thee upon thine hand, and for a memorial between thine eyes, that the LORD's law may be in thy mouth: for with a strong hand hath the LORD brought thee out of Egypt.

10 Thou shalt therefore keep this ordinance in his season from year to year.

11 ¶ And it shall be, when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, as he ^hsware unto thee and to thy fathers, and shall give it thee, 12 That ⁱthou shalt ²set apart unto the LORD all that openeth the matrix, and every firstling that cometh of a beast which thou hast; the males shall be the LORD's.

13 And every firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a ³lamb; and if thou wilt not redeem it, then thou shalt break his neck: and all the first-born of man among thy children ^jshalt thou redeem.

14 ¶ And ^kit shall be when thy son asketh thee ⁴in time to come, saying, What is this? that thou shalt say unto him, By strength of hand the LORD brought us out from Egypt, from the house of bondage:

the land of Egypt, both the first-born of man, and the first-born of beast: therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all that openeth the matrix being males; but all the first-born of my children I redeem.

16 And it shall be for ^aa token upon thine hand, and for frontlet between thine eyes: for by strength of hand the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt.

17 ¶ And it came to pass, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God led them not through the way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, Lest peradventure the people repent ^mwhen they see war, and ⁿthey return to Egypt:

18 But God ^oled the people about through the way of the wilderness of the Red sea. And the children of Israel went up ⁵harnessed out of the land of Egypt.

19 And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him: for he had straitly sworn the children of Israel, saying, ²God will surely visit you; and ye shall carry up my bones away hence with you.

20 ¶ And ^qthey took their journey from Succoth, and encamped in Etham, in the edge of the wilderness.

21 And ^rthe LORD went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; to go by day and night:

22 He ^stook not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from before the people.

CHAPTER 14.

1 God instructeth the Israelites. 5 Pharaoh pursueth. 10 The Israelites murmur. 21 They pass through the Red sea.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, that they turn and encamp before ^aPi-hahiroth, between ^bMigdol and the sea, over against Baal-zephon: before it shall ye encamp by the sea.

3 For Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, ^cThey are entangled in the land, the wilderness hath shut them in.

4 And ^dI will harden Pharaoh's heart, that he shall follow after them; and I ^ewill be honoured upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host; that the Egyptians may know that am the LORD. And they did so. ¶ And it was told the king of Egypt that the people fled: and the heart of Pharaoh and of his servants was turned against the people, and they said, Why have we done this, that we have let Israel go from serving us?

And he made ready his chariot, and took his people with him:

And he took six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and captains over every one of them.

And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued after the children of Israel: and the children of Israel went out with an high hand.

But the Egyptians pursued after them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his army, and overtook them encamping by the sea, beside Pi-hahiroth, before Baal-zephon.

¶ And when Pharaoh drew nigh, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and, behold, the Egyptians marched after them; and they were sore afraid: and the children of Israel cried out unto the LORD.

And they said unto Moses, Because there were no graves in Egypt, hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness? wherefore hast thou dealt thus with us, to carry us forth out of Egypt?

Is not this the word that we did tell thee in Egypt, saying, Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians? For it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness.

¶ And Moses said unto the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD, which he will show to you to-day: for the Egyptians whom ye have seen to-day, ye shall see them again no more for ever.

The LORD shall fight for you, and ye shall hold your peace.

¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Wherefore criest thou unto me? speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward:

But lift thou up thy rod, and stretch out thine hand over the sea, and divide it; and the children of Israel shall go on dry ground through the midst of the sea.

Ne. 9. 11.

17 And I, behold, I will ^oharden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall follow them: and I will get me honour upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

18 And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I have gotten me honour upon Pharaoh, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

19 ¶ And ^pthe angel of God, which went before the camp of Israel, removed and went behind them; and the pillar of the cloud went from before their face, and stood behind them:

20 And it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel; and ^qit was a cloud and darkness to them, but it gave light by night to these: so that the one came not near the other all the night.

21 And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea dry land, and the waters were ^rdivided.

22 And ^sthe children of Israel went into the midst of the sea upon the dry ground: and the waters were ^ta wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

23 ¶ And the Egyptians pursued, and went in after them to the midst of the sea, even all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen.

24 And it came to pass, that in the morning watch the LORD looked unto the host of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and of the cloud, and troubled the host of the Egyptians,

25 And took off their chariot wheels, ²that they drave them heavily: so that the Egyptians said, Let us flee from the face of Israel; for the LORD fighteth for them against the Egyptians.

26 And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand over the sea, that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen.

27 And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea ^ureturned to his strength when the morning appeared; and the Egyptians fled against it; and the LORD ³overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.

28 And ^vthe waters returned, and covered the chariots, and the horse-men, and all the host of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them; there remained not so much as one of them.

29 But ^wthe children of Israel walked upon dry land in the midst of the sea; and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

30 Thus the LORD ^xsaved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians: and Israel saw ^ythe Egyptians dead upon the sea-shore.

31 And Israel saw that great ^zwork which the LORD did upon the Egyptians: and the people feared the LORD, and ²believed the LORD, and his servant Moses.

CHAPTER 15.

1 Moses' song. 22 The people want water. 23 The bitter waters at Marah are sweetened. 27 They remove to Elim.

THEN sang ^aMoses and the children of Israel this song unto the LORD, and spake, saying, I will sing unto the LORD, for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

2 The LORD is my strength and ^bsong, and he is become my salvation: he is my God, and I will prepare him an habitation; my father's God, and I ^cwill exalt him.

3 The LORD is a man of ^dwar: the LORD is his ^ename.

4 Pharaoh's chariots and his host hath he cast into the sea: his chosen captains also are drowned in the Red sea.

5 The depths have covered them: they sank into the bottom as a stone.

6 ^fThy right hand, O LORD, is become glorious in power: thy right hand, O LORD, hath dashed in pieces the enemy

7 And in the greatness of thine excellency thou hast overthrown them that rose up against thee: thou sentest forth thy wrath, which ^gconsumed them ^has stubble.

8 And ⁱwith the blast of thy nostrils the waters were gathered together, ^jthe floods stood upright as an heap, and the depths were congealed in the heart of the sea.

9 The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will ^kdivide the spoil; my lust shall be satisfied upon them; I will draw my sword, my hand shall ^ldestroy them.

10 Thou didst blow with thy wind the sea covered them: they sank as lead in the mighty waters.

11 Who ^{is} like unto thee, O Lord among the ²gods? who ^{is} like thee glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?

12 Thou stretchedst out thy right hand, the earth swallowed them.

13 Thou in thy mercy hast redeemed the people ^{which} thou hast redeemed: thou hast guided them in thy strength unto ^{thy} habitation.

14 The ^{people} shall hear, and be afraid: sorrow ^{shall} take hold of the inhabitants of Palestina.

15 Then the dukes of Edom shall be amazed; ^{the} mighty men of Moab, trembling shall take hold upon them; all the inhabitants of Canaan shall melt away.

18 The LORD shall reign for ever and ever.

19 For the horse of Pharaoh went in with his chariots and with his horsemen into the sea, and the LORD brought again the waters of the sea upon them; but the children of Israel went on dry land in the midst of the sea.

20 ¶ And Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, ^{took} a timbrel in her hand; and all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dances.

21 And Miriam answered them, Sing ye to the LORD, for he hath triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

22 ¶ So Moses brought Israel from the Red sea; and they went out into the wilderness of Shur; and they went three days in the wilderness, and found no water.

23 ¶ And when they came to Marah, they could not drink of the waters of Marah, for they were bitter: therefore the name of it was called ^{Marah}.

4 And the people murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drink?
 5 And he ^wcried unto the LORD; and the LORD showed him a tree, ^hwhich when he had cast into the waters, the waters were made sweet: there he ^vmade for them a statute and an ordinance, and there he proved them,
 6 And said, ^aIf thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the LORD thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and he will give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of these ^bdiseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I ^cam the LORD ^cthat healeth thee.
 7 ¶ And ^dthey came to Elim, where were twelve wells of water, and threescore and ten palm trees: and they encamped there by the waters.

CHAPTER 16.

The Israelites come to Sin. 2 They murmur for bread. 25 The manna was not to be found on the sabbath.

AND they took their journey from Elim, and all the congregation of the children of Israel came unto the wilderness of ^aSin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departing out of the land of Egypt.

And the whole congregation of the children of Israel ^bmurmured against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness:

And the children of Israel said unto them, Would to God we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when ^cwe sat by the flesh pots, and when we did not bread to the full! for ye have brought us forth into this wilderness, to kill this whole assembly with hunger.

¶ Then said the LORD unto Moses, Behold, I will rain ^dbread upon heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather ^{1a}a certain rate every day, that I ^emay prove them, whether they will walk in my law, or no.

And it shall come to pass, that on the sixth day they shall prepare at which they bring in; and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily.

all the children of Israel, ^aAt even, then ye shall know that the LORD hath brought you out from the land of Egypt:

7 And in the morning, then ye shall see the ^bglory of the LORD; for that he heareth your murmurings against the LORD: and what are we, that ye murmur against us?

8 And Moses said, This shall be, when the LORD shall give you in the evening flesh to eat, and in the morning bread to the full; for that the LORD heareth your murmurings which ye murmur against him: and what are we? your murmurings are not against us, but against the LORD.

9 And Moses spake unto Aaron, Say unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, Come near before the LORD: for he hath heard your murmurings.

10 ¶ And it came to pass, as Aaron spake unto the whole congregation of the children of Israel, that they looked toward the wilderness, and, behold, the glory of the LORD appeared ^jin the cloud.

11 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

12 I ^khave heard the murmurings of the children of Israel: speak unto them, saying, ^lAt even ye shall eat flesh, and ^min the morning ye shall be filled with bread; and ⁿye shall know that I am the LORD your God.

13 And it came to pass, that at even ^othe quails came up, and covered the camp; and in the morning ^pthe dew lay round about the host.

14 And when the dew that lay was gone up, behold, upon the face of the wilderness there lay ^qa small round thing, as small as the hoar frost on the ground.

15 And when the children of Israel saw it, they said one to another, ²It is manna: for they wist not what it was. And Moses said unto them, ^rThis is the bread which the LORD hath given you to eat.

16 This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded, Gather of it every man according to his eating, ^san omer ³for every man, according to the number of your ⁴persons; take ye every man for them which are in his tents.

17 And the children of Israel did so, and gathered, some more, some less.

18 And when they did mete it with an omer, ^{the} that gathered much had nothing over, and he that gathered little had no lack: they gathered every man according to his eating.

19 And Moses said, Let no man leave of it till the morning.

20 Notwithstanding they hearkened not unto Moses; but some of them left of it until the morning, and it bred worms, and stank: and Moses was wroth with them.

21 And they gathered it every morning, every man according to his eating: and when the sun waxed hot, it melted.

22 ¶ And it came to pass, that on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for one man: and all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses.

23 And he said unto them, This is that which the LORD hath said, To-morrow is ^{the} rest of the holy sabbath unto the LORD: bake that which ye will bake to-day, and seethe that ye will seethe; and that which remaineth over lay up for you to be kept until the morning.

24 And they laid it up till the morning, as Moses bade: and it did not ^{stink}, neither was there any worm therein.

25 And Moses said, Eat that to-day; for to-day ^{is} a sabbath unto the LORD: to-day ye shall not find it in the field.

26 Six ^{days} ye shall gather it; but on the seventh day, which is the sabbath, in it there shall be none.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, that there went out some of the people on the seventh day for to gather, and they found none.

28 And the LORD said unto Moses, How long ^{will} refuse ye to keep my commandments and my laws?

29 See, for that the LORD hath given you the sabbath, therefore he giveth you on the sixth day the bread of two days: abide ye every man in his place; let no man go out of his place on the seventh day.

30 So the people rested on the seventh day.

31 And the house of Israel called the name thereof Manna: and ^{it} was like coriander seed, white; and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey.

CHAPTER 17.

1 The people murmur for water at Rephidim, and are sent to the rock in Horeb. 14 God's vengeance. 15 Moses buildeth an altar.

AND ^{all} the congregation of the children of Israel journeyed from the wilderness of Sin, after their journeys, according to the commandment of the LORD, and pitched in Rephidim: and there was no water for the people to drink.

2 Wherefore ^{the} people did chide with Moses, and said, Give us water that we may drink. And Moses said unto them, Why chide ye with me: wherefore do ye ^{tempt} the LORD?

3 And the people thirsted there for water; and the people ^{murmured} against Moses, and said, Wherefore is this that thou hast brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our cattle with thirst?

4 And Moses cried unto the LORD, saying, What shall I do unto this people? they be almost ready to ^{stone} me.

5 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go on before the people, and take with thee of the elders of Israel: and thy rod, wherewith thou ^{smotest} the river, take in thine hand, and go.

6 Behold, ^I will stand before thee there upon the rock in Horeb; and thou shalt smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel.

7 And he called the name of the place ¹Massah, and ²Meribah, because of the chiding of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the LORD, saying, Is the LORD among us, or not?

8 ¶ Then came Amalek, and fought with Israel in Rephidim.

9 And Moses said unto Joshua, Choose us out men, and go out, fight with Amalek: to-morrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the rod of God in mine hand.

10 So Joshua did as Moses had said to him, and fought with Amalek: and Moses, Aaron, and Hur, went up to the top of the hill.

11 And it came to pass, when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed; and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed.

12 But Moses' hands were heavy; and they took a stone, and put it under him, and he sat thereon; and Aaron and Hur stayed up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun.

13 And Joshua discomfited Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

14 And the LORD said unto Moses, Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua: for ^mI will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven.

15 And Moses built an altar, and called the name of it ³JEHOVAH-nissi:

16 For he said, ⁴Because ⁵the LORD hath sworn that the LORD will have war with Amalek from generation to generation.

² Eliezer; for the God of my father, said he, was mine help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh.

5 And Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, came with his sons and his wife unto Moses into the wilderness, where he encamped at the mount of God:

6 And he said unto Moses, I thy father-in-law Jethro am come unto thee, and thy wife, and her two sons with her.

7 And Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, and did obeisance, and kissed him; and they asked each other of their ³welfare; and they came into the tent.

8 And Moses told his father-in-law all that the LORD had done unto Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, and all the travail that had ⁴come upon them by the way, and how the LORD delivered them.

9 And Jethro rejoiced for all the goodness which the LORD had done to Israel, whom he had delivered out of the hand of the Egyptians.

10 And Jethro said, Blessed be the LORD, who hath delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh, who hath delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians.

11 Now I know that the LORD is ^agreater than all gods: ^bfor in the thing wherein they dealt ^cproudly he was above them.

12 And Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God: and Aaron came, and all the elders of Israel, to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law ^dbefore God.

13 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses sat to judge the people: and the people stood by Moses from the morning unto the evening.

14 And when Moses' father-in-law saw all that he did to the people, he said, What is this thing that thou doest to the people? why sittest thou thyself alone, and all the people stand by thee from morning unto even?

15 And Moses said unto his father-in-law, Because the people come unto me to enquire of God:

16 When they have ^ea matter, they come unto me; and I judge between ⁵one and another, and I do ^s make them know the statutes of God, and his laws.

17 And Moses' father-in-law said unto him, The thing that thou doest is not good.

18 ^oThou wilt surely wear away, both thou and this people that ^{is} with thee: for this thing ^{is} too heavy for thee; ^gthou art not able to perform it thyself alone.

19 Hearken now unto my voice, I will give thee counsel, and God shall be with thee: Be thou ^hfor the people to God-ward, that thou mayest ⁱbring the causes unto God:

20 And thou shalt ^jteach them ordinances and laws, and shalt show them ^kthe way wherein they must walk, and ^lthe work that they must do.

21 Moreover thou shalt provide out of all the people ^mable men, such as ⁿfear God, ^omen of truth, hating covetousness; and place ^psuch over them, to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens:

22 And let them judge the people at all seasons: ^pand it shall be, that every great matter they shall bring unto thee, but every small matter they shall judge: so shall it be easier for thyself, and they shall bear ^qthe burden with thee.

23 If thou shalt do this thing, and God command thee ^{so}, then thou shalt be able to endure, and all this people shall also go to their place in peace.

24 So Moses hearkened to the voice of his father-in-law, and did all that he had said.

25 And ^qMoses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

26 And they judged the people at all seasons: the ^rhard causes they brought unto Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves.

27 ¶ And Moses let his father-in-law depart; and ^ahe went his way into his own land.

day came they into the wilderness of Sinai.

2 For they were departed from Rephidim, and were come to the desert of Sinai, and had pitched in the wilderness: and there Israel camped before the mount.

3 And ^aMoses went up unto God, and the LORD called unto him out of the mountain, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel;

4 Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how ^bI bare you on eagles' wings, and brought you unto myself.

5 Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ^cye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for ^dall the earth is mine.

6 And ye shall be unto me ^ea kingdom of priests, and an ^fholy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

7 ¶ And Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and laid before their faces all these words which the LORD commanded him.

8 And ^gall the people answered together, and said, All that the LORD hath spoken we will do. And Moses returned the words of the people unto the LORD.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, Lo, I come unto thee ^hin a thick cloud, ⁱthat the people may hear when I speak with thee, and believe thee for ever. And Moses told the words of the people unto the LORD.

10 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Go unto the people, and ^jsanctify them to-day and to-morrow, and let them ^kwash their clothes, 11 And be ready against the third day: for the third day the LORD ^lwill come down in the sight of all the people upon mount Sinai.

12 And thou shalt set bounds unto the people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves that ye go not up into the mount, or touch the border of it: ^mwhosoever toucheth the mount shall be surely put to death:

13 There shall not an hand touch it, but he shall surely be stoned, or shot through; whether it be beast or man, it shall not live:

When the ¹ trumpet soundeth long, they shall come up to the mount.
⁴ And Moses went down from the mount unto the people, and notified the people; and they washed their clothes.
⁵ And he said unto the people: be ready against the third day: come not at your wives.
⁶ ¶ And it came to pass on the third day, in the morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the voice of the trumpet exceeding loud; so that all the people at was in the camp trembled.
⁷ And ^o Moses brought forth the people out of the camp to meet with God; and they stood at the ether part of the mount.
⁸ And ^p mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the LORD descended upon it ^q in fire: and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mount quaked greatly.
⁹ And when the voice of the trumpet sounded long, and waxed louder and louder, Moses spake, and God answered him by a voice.
¹⁰ And the LORD came down upon mount Sinai, on the top of the mount: and the LORD called Moses up to the top of the mount; and Moses went up.
¹¹ And the LORD said unto Moses, come down, ² charge the people, lest they break through unto the LORD to gaze, and many of them perish.
¹² And let the priests also, which come near to the LORD, ^v sanctify themselves, lest the LORD ^w break forth upon them.
¹³ And Moses said unto the LORD, the people cannot come up to mount Sinai: for thou chargedst us, saying, ^x Set bounds about the mount, and sanctify it.
¹⁴ And the LORD said unto him. Away, get thee down, and thou shalt come up, thou, and Aaron with thee: but let not the priests and the people break through to come up unto the LORD, lest he break forth upon them.
¹⁵ So Moses went down unto the people, and spake unto them.

² I ^b am the LORD thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, ^c out of the house of ^d bondage.
³ Thou ^d shalt have no other gods before me.
⁴ Thou ^e shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth:
⁵ Thou ^f shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am ^g a jealous God, ^h visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me;
⁶ And ⁱ showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.
⁷ Thou ^j shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain: for the LORD ^k will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.
⁸ Remember ^l the sabbath day, to keep it holy.
⁹ Six ^m days shalt thou labour and do all thy work:
¹⁰ But the ⁿ seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, ^o nor thy stranger that is within thy gates:
¹¹ For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.
¹² ¶ Honour ^p thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.
¹³ Thou ^q shalt not kill.
¹⁴ Thou ^r shalt not commit adultery.

¹⁷ Thou ^t shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, thou ^u shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbour's.
¹⁸ ¶ And ^v all the people saw the thunderings, and the lightnings, and the noise of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking: and when the people saw it, they removed, and stood afar off.

19 And they said unto Moses, "Speak thou with us, and we will hear: but let not God speak with us, lest we die.

20 And Moses said unto the people, Fear not: "for God is come to prove you, and "that his fear may be before your faces, that ye sin not.

21 And the people stood afar off: and Moses drew near unto the thick darkness where God was.

22 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Thus thou shalt say unto the children of Israel, Ye have seen that I have talked with you from heaven.

23 Ye shall not make with me gods of silver, neither shall ye make unto you gods of gold.

24 An altar of earth thou shalt make unto me, and shalt sacrifice thereon thy burnt offerings, and thy peace offerings, thy sheep, and thine oxen. In all "places where I record my name I will come unto thee, and I will "bless thee.

25 And "if thou wilt make me an altar of stone, thou shalt not "build it of hewn stone: for if thou lift up thy tool upon it, thou hast polluted it.

6 Then his master shall bring him unto the "judges; he shall al- bring him to the door, or unto the door post; and his master shall bore his ear through with an awl, and he shall serve him for ever.

7 ¶ And if a man "sell his daughter to be a maid-servant, she shall not go out as the men-servants do.

8 If she "please not her master who hath betrothed her to himself, then shall he let her be redeemed: to sell her unto a strange nation he shall have no power, seeing he hath dealt deceitfully with her.

9 And if he have betrothed her unto his son, he shall deal with her after the manner of daughters.

10 If he take him another "wife; he food, her raiment, "and her duty of marriage, shall he not diminish.

11 And if he do not these three unto her, then shall she go out free without money.

12 ¶ He "that smiteth a man's head that he die, shall be surely put to death.

13 And "if a man lie not in wait, but God "deliver him into his hand, then "I will appoint thee a place whither he shall flee.

14 But if a man come "presumptuously upon his neighbour, to slay him with guile; thou "shalt take him from mine altar, that he may die.

15 And he that smiteth his father or his mother shall be surely put to death.

16 ¶ And "he that stealeth a man, and selleth "him, or if he be "found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death.

17 ¶ And "he that "curseth his father or his mother shall surely be put to death.

19 If he rise again, and walk abroad "upon his staff, then shall he that smote "him be quit: only he shall pay for "the loss of his time, and shall cause "him to be thoroughly healed.

20 ¶ And if a man smite his servant, or his maid, with a rod, and he die under his hand; he shall be surely "punished.

21 Notwithstanding, if he continue a day or two, he shall not be punished: for "he is his money.

22 ¶ If men strive, and hurt a man with child, so that her fruit depart from her, and yet no mischief follow: he shall be surely punished, according as the woman's husband will lay upon him; and he shall pay as the judges determine.

23 And if any mischief follow, then thou shalt give life for life,

24 Eye for eye, tooth for tooth, and for hand, foot for foot,

25 Burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.

CHAPTER 22.

1 Laws concerning theft; 5 damage; 7 trusts and trespasses; 14 borrowing; 16 fornication; 20 idolatry; 21 strangers, widows, etc.

¶ If a man shall steal an ox, or a sheep, and kill it, or sell it; he shall restore five oxen for an ox, and ^afour sheep for a sheep.

2 If a thief be found ^bbreaking up, and be smitten that he die, there shall ^cno blood be shed for him.

3 If the sun be risen upon him, there shall be blood shed for him; for he should make full restitution: if he have nothing, then he shall be ^dsold for his theft.

4 If the ^etheft be certainly ^efound in his hand alive, whether it be ox, or ass, or sheep, he shall ^frestore double.

5 ¶ If a man shall cause a field or vineyard to be eaten, and shall put in his beast, and shall feed in another man's field; of the best of his own field, and of the best of his own vineyard, shall he make restitution.

6 ¶ If fire break out, and catch in thorns, so that the stacks of corn, or the standing corn, or the field, be consumed therewith; he that kindled the fire shall surely make restitution.

7 ¶ If a man shall deliver unto his neighbour money or stuff to keep, and it be stolen out of the man's house; if the thief be found, let him pay double.

8 If the thief be not found, then the master of the house shall be brought unto the judges, to see whether he have put his hand unto his neighbour's goods.

9 For all manner of trespass, whether it be for ox, for ass, for sheep, for raiment, or for any manner of lost thing, which another challengeth to be his, the ^gcause of both parties shall come before the judges; and whom the judges shall condemn, he shall pay double unto his neighbour.

10 If a man deliver unto his neighbour an ass, or an ox, or a sheep, or any beast, to keep; and it die, or be hurt, or driven away, no man seeing it:

11 Then shall an ^hoath of the LORD be between them both, that he hath not put his hand unto his neighbour's goods; and the owner of it shall accept thereof, and he shall not make it good.

12 And ¹if it be stolen from him, he shall make restitution unto the owner thereof.

13 If it be torn in pieces, then let him bring it for witness, and he shall not make good that which was torn.

14 ¶ And if a man borrow ought of his neighbour, and it be hurt, or die, the owner thereof being not with it; he shall surely make it good.

15 But if the owner thereof be with it, he shall not make it good: if it be hired thing, it came for his hire.

16 ¶ And ¹if a man entice a maid that is not betrothed, and lie with her; he shall surely endow her to be his wife.

17 If her father utterly refuse to give her unto him, he shall ³pay money according to the ^kdowry of virgins.

18 ¶ Thou ¹shalt not suffer a witch to live.

19 ¶ Whosoever lieth with a beast shall surely be put to death.

20 ¶ He ^mthat sacrificeth unto any god, save unto the LORD only, he shall be utterly destroyed.

21 ¶ Thou ⁿshalt neither vex a stranger, nor oppress him: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

22 Ye ^oshall not afflict any widow, or fatherless child.

23 If thou afflict them in any wise, and they ^pcry at all unto me, I will surely hear ^qtheir cry;

24 And my ^rwrath shall wax hot, and I will kill you with the sword; and ^syour wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless.

25 ¶ If ^tthou lend money to any of my people that is poor by thee, thou shalt not be to him as an usurer, neither shalt thou lay upon him usury.

26 If ^uthou at all take thy neighbour's raiment to pledge, thou shalt deliver it unto him by that the sun goeth down:

27 For that is his covering only, it is his raiment for his skin: wherein shall he sleep? and it shall come to pass, when he crieth unto me, that I will hear; for I am gracious.

28 ¶ Thou ^vshalt not revile the ⁴gods, nor curse the ruler of thy people.

29 ¶ Thou shalt not delay to offer ⁵the first ^wof thy ripe fruits, and of thy ⁶liquors: the first-born of thy sons shalt thou give unto me.

4 ¶ Three ^otimes thou shalt keep feast unto me in the year.

5 Thou shalt keep the feast of unleavened bread : (thou shalt eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded thee, in the time appointed of the month Abib ; for in the month thou camest out from Egypt ; and none shall appear before me empty :)

6 And ^pthe feast of harvest, the first-fruits of thy labours, which thou hast sown in thy field : and the feast of ingathering, which is at the end of the year, when thou hast gathered in thy labours out of thy field.

7 Three times in the year all thy sacrifices shall appear before the Lord thy God.

8 Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread ; neither shall the fat of my ⁷sacrifice remain until the morning.

9 The ^qfirst of the first-fruits of thy land thou shalt bring into the house of the Lord thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's milk.

10 ¶ Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the land which I have prepared.

11 Beware of him, and obey his voice, provoke ^rhim not ; for he will not pardon your transgressions : for ^rmy name is in him.

12 But if thou shalt indeed obey his voice, and do all that I speak ; then ^uI will be an enemy unto thine enemies, and an ^sadversary unto thine adversaries.

13 For mine Angel shall go before thee, and ^vbring thee in unto the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Canaanites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites ; and I will cut them off.

14 Thou shalt not ^wbow down to other gods, nor serve them, nor do after their works ; but thou shalt utterly overthrow them, and quite break down their images.

15 And ye shall ^xserve the Lord your God, and he ^yshall bless thy bread, and thy water ; and ^zI will make sickness away from the midst of thee.

CHAPTER 24.

1 Moses is called up into the mountain.

3 The people promise obedience. 4 He builds an altar. 9 The glory of God appears.

AND he said unto Moses, Come ^uup unto the Lord, thou, and Aaron, ^aNadab, and Abihu, ^band seventy of the elders of Israel ; and worship ye afar off.

2 And Moses alone shall come near the Lord ; but they shall not come nigh, neither shall the people go up with him.

3 ¶ And Moses came and told the people all the words of the Lord, and all the judgments : and all the people answered with one voice, and said, All the words which the Lord hath said will we do.

4 And Moses ^cwrote all the words of the Lord, and rose up early in the morning, and builded an altar under the hill, and twelve ^dpillars, according to the twelve tribes of Israel.

5 And he sent young men of the children of Israel, which offered burnt offerings, and sacrificed peace offerings of oxen unto the LORD.

6 And Moses took half of the blood, and put it in basins; and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar.

7 And he took the book of the covenant, and read in the audience of the people: and they said, All that the LORD hath said will we do, and be obedient.

8 And Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold the blood of the covenant, which the LORD hath made with you concerning all these words.

9 ¶ Then went up Moses, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel;

10 And they saw the God of Israel: and there was under his feet as it were a paved work of a sapphire stone, and as it were the body of heaven in his clearness.

11 And upon the nobles of the children of Israel he laid not his hand: also they saw God, and did eat and drink.

12 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Come up to me into the mount, and be there: and I will give thee tables of stone, and a law, and commandments which I have written; that thou mayest teach them.

13 And Moses rose up, and his minister Joshua: and Moses went up into the mount of God.

14 And he said unto the elders, Tarry ye here for us, until we come again unto you: and, behold, Aaron and Hur are with you: if any man have any matters to do, let him come unto them.

15 ¶ And Moses went up into the mount, and a cloud covered the mount.

16 And the glory of the LORD abode upon mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days: and the seventh day he called unto Moses out of the midst of the cloud.

17 And the sight of the glory of the LORD was like devouring fire on the top of the mount in the eyes of the children of Israel.

18 And Moses went into the midst of the cloud, and gat him up into the mount: and Moses was in the mount forty days and forty nights.

CHAPTER 25.

1 What the Israelites must offer for the making of the tabernacle. 10 The form of the ark, etc.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring me a offering: of every man that giveth it willingly with his heart ye shall take my offering.

3 And this is the offering which ye shall take of them; gold, and silver, and brass,

4 And blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats hair,

5 And rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, and shittim wood,

6 Oil for the light, spices for anointing oil, and for sweet incense,

7 Onyx stones, and stones to be set in the ephod, and in the breastplate.

8 And let them make me a sanctuary; that I may dwell among them.

9 According to all that I show thee, after the pattern of the tabernacle, and the pattern of all the instruments thereof, even so shall ye make it.

10 ¶ And they shall make an ark of shittim wood: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.

11 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, within and without shalt thou overlay it; and shalt make upon it a crown of gold round about.

12 And thou shalt cast four rings of gold for it, and put them in the four corners thereof; and two rings shall be in the one side of it, and two rings in the other side of it.

13 And thou shalt make staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold.

14 And thou shalt put the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, that the ark may be borne with them.

15 The staves shall be in the rings of the ark; they shall not be taken from it.

16 And thou shalt put into the ark the testimony which I shall give thee.

17 ¶ And ^hthou shalt make a mercyseat of pure gold: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof.

18 And thou shalt make two cherubim of gold, of beaten work shalt thou make them, in the two ends of the mercyseat.

19 And make one cherub on the one end, and the other cherub on the other end; ^{even} ¹of the mercyseat shall ye make the cherubim on the two ends thereof.

20 And ⁱthe cherubim shall stretch forth their wings on high, covering the mercyseat with their wings, and their faces shall look one to another; toward the mercyseat shall the faces of the cherubim be.

21 And ^jthou shalt put the mercyseat above upon the ark; and in the ark thou shalt put the testimony that I shall give thee.

22 And ^kthere I will meet with thee, and I will commune with thee from above the mercyseat, from ^lbetween the two cherubim which are upon the ark of the testimony, of all things which I will give thee in commandment unto the children of Israel.

23 ¶ Thou ^mshalt also make a table of shittim wood: two cubits shall be the length thereof, and a cubit be the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.

24 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, and make thereto a crown of gold round about.

25 And thou shalt make unto it a border of an hand-breadth round about, and thou shalt make a golden crown to the border thereof round about.

26 And thou shalt make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings in the four corners that are in the four feet thereof.

27 Over against the border shall the rings be for places of the staves to bear the table.

28 And thou shalt make the staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold, that the table may be borne with them.

29 And thou shalt make ⁿthe dishes thereof, and spoons thereof, and covers thereof, and bowls thereof, ²to cover withal: of pure gold shalt thou make them.

30 And thou shalt set upon the table shewbread ^obefore me alway.

¹ The ten curtains of the tabernacle. ⁷ The eleven curtains of goats' hair. ³¹ The veil for the ark. ³⁶ The hanging for the door.

MOREOVER ^athou shalt make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with ^bcherubim of ¹cunning work shalt thou make them.

² The length of one curtain shall be eight and twenty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: and every one of the curtains shall have one measure.

³ The five curtains shall be ^ccoupled together one to another; and other five curtains shall be coupled one to another.

4 And thou shalt make ^d loops of blue upon the edge of the one curtain, from the selvedge in the coupling; and likewise shalt thou make in the uttermost edge of another curtain, in the coupling of the second.

5 Fifty loops shalt thou make in the one curtain, and fifty loops shalt thou make in the edge of the curtain that is in the coupling of the second, that the loops may take hold one of another.

6 And thou shalt make fifty taches of gold, and couple the curtains together with the taches; and it shall be one tabernacle.

7 ¶ And ^e thou shalt make curtains of goats' hair to be a covering upon the tabernacle; eleven curtains shalt thou make.

8 The length of one curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: and the eleven curtains shall be all of one measure.

9 And thou shalt couple five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves, and shalt double the sixth curtain in the fore front of the tabernacle.

10 And thou shalt make fifty loops on the edge of the one curtain that is outmost in the coupling, and fifty loops in the edge of the curtain which coupleth the second.

11 And thou shalt make fifty taches of brass, and put the taches into the loops, and couple the ² tent together, that it may be one.

12 And the remnant that remaineth of the curtains of the tent, the half-curtain that remaineth shall hang over the back side of the tabernacle.

13 And a cubit on the one side, and a cubit on the other side, ³ of that which remaineth in the length of the curtains of the tent, it shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle on this side and on that side, to cover it.

14 And ^f thou shalt make a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering above of badgers' skins.

15 ¶ And thou shalt make boards for the tabernacle of shittim wood standing up.

31 ¶ And ^k thou shalt make a veil of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, of cunning work with cherubim shall it be made:

32 And thou shalt hang it upon four pillars of shittim wood overlaid with gold: their hooks shall be of gold, upon the four sockets of silver.

And thou shalt hang up the veil under the taches, that thou mayest hang in thither within the veil ¹the ark of the testimony: and ^mthe veil shall divide unto you between ⁿthe holy place and the most holy.

And ^othou shalt put the mercy-seat upon the ark of the testimony in the most holy place.

And ^pthou shalt set the table without the veil, and the ^qcandlestick over against the table on the side of the tabernacle toward the south: and thou shalt put the table on the north side.

¶ And ^rthou shalt make an hanging for the door of the tent, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needle-work.

And thou shalt make for the hanging five ^spillars of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold: and their hooks shall be of gold: and thou shalt cast five sockets of brass for them.

4 And these are the garments which they shall make; a breastplate, and an ephod, and a robe, and a broidered coat, a mitre, and a girdle: and they shall make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, and his sons, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office.

5 And they shall take gold, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen.

6 ¶ And ^e they shall make the ephod of gold, of blue, and of purple, of scarlet, and fine twined linen, with cunning work.

7 It shall have the two shoulder-pieces thereof joined at the two edges thereof; and so it shall be joined together.

8 And the ^f curious girdle of the ephod, which is upon it, shall be of the same, according to the work thereof; even of gold, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 And thou shalt take two onyx stones, and grave on them the names of the children of Israel:

10 Six of their names on one stone, and the other six names of the rest on the other stone, according to their birth.

11 With the work of an engraver in stone, like the engravings of a signet, shalt thou engrave the two stones with the names of the children of Israel: thou shalt make them to be set in ouches of gold.

12 And thou shalt put the two stones upon the shoulders of the ephod for stones of memorial unto the children of Israel: and ^g Aaron

15 ¶ And ^p thou shalt make the breastplate of judgment with cunning work; after the work of the ephod thou shalt make it; of gold of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine twined linen, shalt thou make it.

16 Four-square it shall be, double doubled; a span shall be the length thereof, and a span shall be the breadth thereof.

17 And ^q thou shalt ^r set in it settings of stones, even four rows of stones: the first row shall be ^s sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle; this shall be the first row.

24 And thou shalt put the two wreathen chains of gold in the two rings which are on the ends of the breastplate.

25 And the other two ends of the two wreathen chains thou shalt fasten in the two ouches, and put them on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod before it.

26 And thou shalt make two rings of gold, and thou shalt put them upon the two ends of the breastplate, in the border thereof, which is in the side of the ephod inward.

27 And two other rings of gold thou shalt make, and shalt put on the two sides of the ephod underneath, toward the fore part thereof, over against the other couple thereof, above the curious work of the ephod.

And they shall bind the breastplate by the rings thereof unto the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it may be above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breastplate be not loosed from the ephod.

And Aaron shall ¹bear the names of the children of Israel in the breastplate of judgment upon his heart, when he goeth in unto the holy place, ²for a memorial before the LORD continually.

³¶ And ⁴thou shalt put in the breastplate of judgment the Urim and the Thummim; and they shall be upon Aaron's heart when he goeth in before the LORD: and Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel upon his heart before the LORD continually.

⁵¶ And ⁶thou shalt make the robe of the ephod all of blue.

⁷And there shall be an hole in the top of it, in the midst thereof: and it shall have a binding of woven work round about the hole of it, that it were the hole of an habergeon, that it be not rent.

⁸And ⁹beneath upon the ¹⁰hem of it thou shalt make pomegranates of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, round about the hem thereof; and bells of gold between them round about:

¹¹A golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, upon the hem of the robe round about.

¹²And it shall be upon Aaron to minister: and his sound shall be heard when he goeth in unto the holy place before the LORD, and when he cometh out, that he die not.

¹³¶ And ¹⁴thou shalt make a plate of pure gold, and grave upon it like the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

¹⁵And thou shalt put it on a blue lace, that it may be upon the mitre; and on the fore front of the mitre it shall be.

CHAPTER 29.

¹ The sacrifice and ceremonies of consecrating the priests. ⁴³ God's promise to dwell among the children of Israel.

AND this is the thing that thou shalt do unto them to hallow them, to minister unto me in the priest's office: ²Take one young bullock, and two rams without blemish, ³ 2 And ⁴unleavened bread, and cakes unleavened tempered with oil, and wafers unleavened anointed with oil: of wheaten flour shalt thou make them.

⁵ 3 And thou shalt put them into one basket, and bring them in the basket, with the bullock and the two rams.

⁶ 4 And Aaron and his sons thou shalt bring unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and ⁷thalt wash them with water.

⁸ 5 And ⁹thou shalt take the garments, and put upon Aaron the coat, and the robe of the ephod, and the ephod, and the breastplate, and gird him with ¹⁰the curious girdle of the ephod:

¹¹ 6 And thou shalt put the mitre upon his head, and put the holy crown upon the mitre.

7 Then shalt thou take the anointing oil, and pour it upon his head, and anoint him.

8 And thou shalt bring his sons, and put coats upon them.

9 And thou shalt gird them with girdles, Aaron and his sons, and put the bonnets on them: and the priest's office shall be theirs for a perpetual statute: and thou shalt consecrate Aaron and his sons.

10 And thou shalt cause a bullock to be brought before the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the bullock.

11 And thou shalt kill the bullock before the LORD, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

12 And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and put it upon the horns of the altar with thy finger, and pour all the blood beside the bottom of the altar.

13 And thou shalt take all the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul that is above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and burn them upon the altar.

14 But the flesh of the bullock, and his skin, and his dung, shalt thou burn with fire without the camp: it is a sin offering.

15 ¶ Thou shalt also take one ram; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram.

16 And thou shalt slay the ram, and thou shalt take his blood, and sprinkle it round about upon the altar.

17 And thou shalt cut the ram in pieces, and wash the inwards of him, and his legs, and put them unto his pieces, and unto his head.

18 And thou shalt burn the whole ram upon the altar: it is a burnt offering unto the LORD: it is a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

19 And thou shalt take the other ram; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram.

22 Also thou shalt take of the fat, and the rump, and the caul that covereth the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and the right shoulder: it is a ram of consecration:

23 And one loaf of bread, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer out of the basket of the unleavened bread that is before the LORD:

24 And thou shalt put all in the hands of Aaron, and in the hands of his sons; and shalt wave them as a wave offering before the LORD.

25 And thou shalt receive them in their hands, and burn them upon the altar for a burnt offering, for a sweet savour before the LORD: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

26 And thou shalt take the breast of the ram of Aaron's consecration, and wave it for a wave offering before the LORD: and it shall be the part.

27 And thou shalt sanctify the breast of the wave offering, and the shoulder of the heave offering, which is waved, and which is heaved up, of the ram of the consecration, even of that which is for Aaron, and of that which is for his sons:

28 And it shall be Aaron's and his sons' by a statute for ever from the children of Israel: for it is an heave offering: and it shall be an heave offering from the children of Israel of the sacrifice of their peace offerings, even their heave offering unto the LORD.

29 ¶ And the holy garments of Aaron shall be his sons' after him, to be anointed therein, and to be consecrated in them.

30 And that son that is priest in his stead shall put them on seven days, when he cometh into the tabernacle of the congregation to minister in the holy place.

And thou shalt take the ram for the consecration, and seethe his flesh in the holy place.
And Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the bread which is in the basket, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.
And they shall eat those things which were with the atonement was made, to consecrate and to sanctify me: but a stranger shall not eat thereof, because they are holy.
And if ought of the flesh of the consecrations, or of the bread, remain unto the morning, then thou shalt burn the remainder with fire: it shall not be eaten, because it is holy.
And thus shalt thou do unto Aaron, and to his sons, according to all things which I have commanded thee: seven days shalt thou consecrate them.
And thou shalt offer every day a bullock for a sin offering for atonement: and thou shalt cleanse the altar, when thou hast made an atonement for it, and thou shalt anoint it, to sanctify it.
Seven days thou shalt make atonement for the altar, and sanctify it: and it shall be an altar most holy: whatsoever toucheth the altar shall be holy.
Now this is that which thou shalt offer upon the altar: two lambs of the first year day by day continually.
The one lamb thou shalt offer in the morning, and the other lamb thou shalt offer at even:
And with the one lamb a tenth part of flour mingled with the fourth part of an hin of beaten oil: and the fourth part of an hin of oil for a drink offering.
And the other lamb thou shalt offer at even, and shalt do thereto according to the meat offering of the morning, and according to the drink offering thereof, for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD.
This shall be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, before the LORD: where I will meet you, to speak there unto thee.
And there I will meet with the children of Israel, and the tabernacle shall be sanctified by my presence.

1 The altar of incense. 11 The ransom of souls. 17 The brazen laver. 22 The holy anointing oil. 34 The composition of the perfume.

AND thou shalt make an altar of shittim wood shalt thou make it.

2 A cubit shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof; four-square shall it be; and two cubits shall be the height thereof: the horns thereof shall be of the same.

3 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, the top thereof, and the sides thereof round about, and the horns thereof: and thou shalt make unto it a crown of gold round about.

4 And two golden rings shalt thou make to it under the crown of it, by the two corners thereof, upon the two sides of it shalt thou make it; and they shall be for places for the staves to bear it withal.

5 And thou shalt make the staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold.

6 And thou shalt put it before the veil that is by the ark of the testimony, before the mercyseat that is over the testimony, where I will meet with thee.

7 And Aaron shall burn thereon sweet incense every morning: when he dresseth the lamps, he shall burn incense upon it.

8 And when Aaron lighteth the lamps at even, he shall burn incense upon it: a perpetual incense before the LORD throughout your generations.

9 Ye shall offer no strange incense thereon, nor burnt sacrifice, nor meat offering; neither shall ye pour drink offering thereon.

10 And Aaron shall make an atonement upon the horns of it once in a year with the blood of the sin offering of atonements; once in the year shall he make atonement upon it throughout your generations: it is most holy unto the LORD.

11 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

14 Every one that passeth among them that are numbered, from twenty years old and above, shall give an offering unto the LORD.

15 The ^jrich shall not ^sgive more, and the poor shall not ⁹give less, than half a shekel, when they give an offering unto the LORD, to make an atonement for your souls.

16 And thou shalt take the atonement money of the children of Israel, and shalt appoint it for the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; that it may be ^ka memorial unto the children of Israel before the LORD, to make an atonement for your souls.

17 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

18 Thou ⁱshalt also make a laver of brass, and his foot also of brass, to wash withal: and thou shalt put it between the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar, and thou shalt put water therein.

19 For Aaron and his sons ^mshall wash their hands and their feet thereat.

20 When they go into the tabernacle of the congregation, they shall wash with water, that they die not; or when they come near to the altar to minister, to burn offering made by fire unto the LORD:

know that I am the LORD that doth sanctify you.

14 Ye ^a shall keep the sabbath therefore; for it is holy unto you: every one that defileth it shall surely be put to death: for whosoever ^b doeth any work therein, that soul shall be cut off from among his people.

15 Six days may work be done; but in the seventh ^c is the sabbath of rest, ^d holy to the LORD: whosoever doeth any work in the sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death.

16 Wherefore the children of Israel shall keep the sabbath, to observe the sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual covenant.

17 It is ^e a sign between me and the children of Israel for ever: for ^f in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed.

18 ¶ And he gave unto Moses, when he had made an end of communing with him upon mount Sinai, ^g two tables of testimony, tables of stone, written with the finger of God.

CHAPTER 32.

1 The people in Moses' absence cause Aaron to make a calf. 19 Moses breaketh the tables. 30 Moses prayeth for the people.

AND when the people saw that Moses ^a delayed to come down out of the mount, the people gathered themselves together unto Aaron, and said unto him, Up, ^b make us gods, which shall go before us; for ^c as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

2 And Aaron said unto them, Break off the ^d golden earrings which ^e are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring ^f them unto me.

3 And all the people brake off the golden earrings which ^g were in their ears, and brought ^h them unto Aaron.

4 And ⁱ he received ^j them at their hand, and fashioned it with a graving tool, after he had made it a molten calf: and they said, These ^k be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

5 And when Aaron saw ^l it, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made ^m proclamation, and said, Tomorrow is a feast to the LORD.

6 And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.

7 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, ^gGo, get thee down; for thy people, which thou broughtest out of the land of Egypt, ^hhave corrupted themselves:

8 They have turned aside quickly out of the way which I ⁱcommanded them: they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed thereunto, and said, ^jThese be thy gods, O Israel, which have brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, ^kI have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiff-necked people:

10 Now therefore ^llet me alone, that my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them, and ^mI will make of thee a great nation.

11 And ⁿMoses besought the LORD his God, and said, LORD, why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people, which thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a mighty hand?

12 Wherefore should the Egyptians speak, and say, For mischief did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from thy fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against thy people.

13 Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, thy servants, to whom thou ^oswarest by thine own self, and saidst unto them, ^pI will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of will I give unto your seed, and they shall inherit it for ever.

14 And the LORD ^qrepented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people.

15 ¶ And ^rMoses turned, and went down from the mount, and the two tables of the testimony were in his hand: the tables were written on both their sides; on the one side and on the other were they written.

16 And the ^stables were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, graven upon the tables.

17 And when Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said unto Moses, There is a noise of war in the camp.

18 And he said, It is not the voice of them that shout for mastery, neither is it the voice of them that are for ²being overcome; but the noise of them that sing do I hear.

19 ¶ And it came to pass, as soon as he came nigh unto the camp, that he saw the calf, and the dancing: and Moses' anger waxed hot, and he cast the tables out of his hands, and brake them beneath the mount.

20 And he took the calf which they had made, and burnt it in the fire, and ground it to powder, and strawed it upon the water, and made the children of Israel drink of it.

21 And Moses said unto Aaron, ^tWhat did this people unto thee, that thou hast brought so great a sin upon them?

22 And Aaron said, Let not thy anger of my lord wax hot: ^u"the people knowest the people, that they are set on mischief.

23 For they said unto me, Make us gods which shall go before us, for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

24 And I said unto them, Whosoever hath any gold, let them break it off. So they gave it me: then I cast it into the fire, and there came out this calf.

25 ¶ And when Moses saw that the people were ^vnaked, (for Aaron ^whad made them naked unto their shame among ³their enemies,)

26 Then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, Who is on the LORD's side? let him come unto me. And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together unto him.

27 And he said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Put every man his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and ^xslay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbour.

28 And the children of Levi did according to the word of Moses, and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men.

29 ⁴For Moses had said, ⁵Consecrate yourselves to-day to the LORD, even every man upon his son, and upon his brother; that he may bestow upon you a blessing this day.

30 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses said unto the people, ⁹Ye have sinned a great sin: and now I will go up unto the LORD; ¹⁰peradventure I shall make an atonement for your sin.

31 And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made them gods of gold!

32 Yet now, if thou wilt forgive their sin—; and if not, ^ablot me, I pray thee, ^bout of thy book which thou hast written.

33 And the LORD said unto Moses, Whosoever hath sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book.

34 Therefore now go, lead the people unto the place of which I have spoken unto thee: behold, ^cmine Angel shall go before thee: nevertheless ^ein the day when I visit I will visit their sin upon them.

35 And the LORD plagued the people, because ^fthey made the calf which Aaron made.

CHAPTER 33.

¹The Lord refuseth to go with the people. ⁷The tabernacle removed out of the camp. ¹²Moses prayeth for God's presence.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Depart, and go up hence, thou and the people which thou hast brought up out of the land of Egypt, unto the land which I swore unto Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, Unto ^athy seed will I give it:

2 And I will send an Angel before thee; and ^bI will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite:

3 Unto a land flowing with milk and honey: for I will not go up in the midst of thee; for thou art a stiff-necked people; lest I consume thee in the way.

4 ¶ And when the people heard these evil tidings, they mourned: and no man did put on him his ornaments.

5 For the LORD had said unto Moses, Say unto the children of Israel, Ye are a stiff-necked people: I will come up into the midst of thee in a moment, and consume thee: therefore now put off thy ornaments from thee, that I may know what to do unto thee.

6 And the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by the mount Horeb.

7 And Moses took the tabernacle, and pitched it without the camp, afar off from the camp, and called it The Tabernacle of the Congregation. And it came to pass, that every one which sought the LORD went out unto the tabernacle of the congregation, which was without the camp.

8 And it came to pass, when Moses went out unto the tabernacle, that all the people rose up, and stood every man ⁹at his tent door, and looked after Moses, until he was gone into the tabernacle.

9 And it came to pass, as Moses entered into the tabernacle, the cloudy pillar descended, and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and the LORD ^htalked with Moses.

10 And all the people saw the cloudy pillar stand at the tabernacle door: and all the people rose up and worshipped, every man in his tent door.

11 And ⁱthe LORD spake unto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend. And he turned again into the camp: but ^jhis servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, departed not out of the tabernacle.

12 ¶ And Moses said unto the LORD, See, thou sayest unto me, Bring up this people: and thou hast not let me know whom thou wilt send with me: yet thou hast said, ^kI know thee by name, and thou hast also found grace in my sight.

13 Now therefore, I pray thee, ^lif I have found grace in thy sight, ^mshow me now thy way, that I may know thee, that I may find grace in thy sight; and consider that this nation is ⁿthy people.

14 And he said, ^oMy presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee ^prest.

15 And he said unto him, ^qIf thy presence go not with me, carry us not up hence.

16 For wherein shall it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? ^rIs it not in that thou goest with us? so ^sshall we be separated, I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth.

17 And the LORD said unto Moses,

'I will do this thing also that thou hast spoken: for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name.

18 And he said, I beseech thee, show me thy ^uglory.

19 And he said, ^vI will make all my goodness pass before thee, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before thee; ^wand will be ^xgracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy.

20 And he said, Thou canst not see my face: for ^ythere shall no man see me, and live.

21 And the LORD said, Behold, there is a place by me, and thou shalt stand upon a rock:

22 And it shall come to pass, while my glory passeth by, that I will put thee ^zin a cleft of the rock, and will ^acover thee with my hand while I pass by:

23 And I will take away mine hand, and thou shalt see my back parts; but my face shall ^bnot be seen.

3 And no man shall come up with thee, neither let any man be seen throughout all the mount; neither let the flocks nor herds feed before that mount.

4 ¶ And he hewed two tables of stone like unto the first: and Moses rose up early in the morning, and went up unto mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tables of stone.

5 And the LORD descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the LORD.

hands, and brought that which they had spun, ^bboth of blue, and purple, and of scarlet, and of fine linen.

26 And all the women whose hearts stirred them up in wisdom spun goats' hair.

27 And ^cthe rulers brought onyx stones, and stones to be set, for ephod, and for the breastplate;

28 And ^dspice, and oil for the light, and for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense.

29 The children of Israel brought a ^ewilling offering unto the LORD, every man and woman, whose hearts made them willing to bring, for the manner of work which the LORD had commanded to be made by the hand of Moses.

30 ¶ And Moses said unto the children of Israel, See, ^fthe LORD hath called by name Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah:

31 And he hath filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship.

32 And to devise curious work to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, 33 And in the cutting of stone to set them, and in carving of wood to make any manner of cunning work.

34 And he hath put in his heart that he may teach, ^gboth he, and Aholiab the son of Ahisamach, the tribe of Dan.

35 Them hath he ^hfilled with wisdom of heart, to work all manner of work of the engraver, and of the cunning workman, and of the embroiderer, in blue, and in purple, scarlet, and in fine linen, and of the weaver, ⁱeven of them that do cunning work, and of those that devise cunning work.

CHAPTER 36.

1 The offerings delivered to the workmen.

4 The liberality of the people restraining.

8 The curtains. 19 The covering. 35 The veil, etc.

THEN wrought Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every ^awise-hearted man, in whom the LORD put wisdom and understanding to know how to work all manner of work for the service of the ^bsanctuary, according to all that the LORD had commanded.

2 And Moses called Bezaleel and oliab, and every wise-hearted man, in whose heart the LORD had wisdom, even every one whose heart stirred him up to come unto the work to do it:

And they received of Moses all the offering which the children of Israel ^dhad brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, to make withal. And they brought yet unto him free offerings every morning.

¶ And all the wise men, that wrought all the work of the sanctuary, came every man from his work which they made;

And they spake unto Moses, saying, 'The people bring much more than enough for the service of the work which the LORD commanded to make.

And Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, Let either man nor woman make any more work for the offering of the sanctuary. So the people were restrained from bringing.

For the stuff they had was sufficient for all the work to make it, and too much.

¶ And every wise-hearted man among them that wrought the work of the tabernacle made ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with cherubim of cunning work made he them.

The length of one curtain was twenty and eight cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: the curtains were all of one size.

And he coupled the five curtains one unto another; and the other five curtains he coupled one unto another.

And he made loops of blue on the edge of one curtain from the edge in the coupling: likewise he made in the uttermost side of another curtain, in the coupling of the second.

Fifty ^hloops made he in one curtain, and fifty loops made he in the edge of the curtain which was in the coupling of the second: the loops held one curtain to another.

And he made fifty taches of gold, and coupled the curtains one unto another with the taches: so it became one tabernacle.

¶ And he made curtains of goats' hair for the tent over the tabernacle: eleven curtains he made them.

15 The length of one curtain was thirty cubits, and four cubits was the breadth of one curtain: the eleven curtains were of one size.

16 And he coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves.

17 And he made fifty loops upon the uttermost edge of the curtain in the coupling, and fifty loops made he upon the edge of the curtain which coupleth the second.

18 And he made fifty taches of brass to couple the tent together, that it might be one.

19 ¶ And he made a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of badgers' skins above that.

20 ¶ And he made boards for the tabernacle of ^lshittim wood, standing up.

21 The length of a board was ten cubits, and the breadth of a board one cubit and a half.

22 One board had two ¹tenons, equally distant one from another: thus did he make for all the boards of the tabernacle.

23 And he made boards for the tabernacle; twenty boards for the south side southward.

24 And forty sockets of silver he made under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.

25 And for the other side of the tabernacle, which is toward the north corner, he made twenty boards.

26 And their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

27 And for the sides of the tabernacle ²westward he made six boards.

28 And two boards made he for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides.

29 And they were ³coupled beneath, and coupled together at the head thereof; to one ring: thus he did to both of them in both the corners.

30 And there were eight boards; and their sockets were sixteen sockets of silver, ⁴under every board two sockets.

31 ¶ And he made ^mbars of shittim wood; five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle, 32 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle for the sides westward.

33 And he made the middle bar to shoot through the boards from the one end to the other.

34 And he overlaid the boards with gold, and made their rings of gold to be places for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.

35 ¶ And he made ^aa veil of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: with cherubim made he it of cunning work.

36 And he made thereunto four pillars of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold: their hooks were of gold; and he cast for them four sockets of silver.

37 ¶ And he made an ^ohanging for the tabernacle door of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, ⁵of needle-work;

38 And the five pillars of it with their hooks: and he overlaid their ^pchapters and their fillets with gold: but their five sockets were of brass.

AND ^aBezaleel made ^bthe ark of shittim wood: two cubits and a half was the length of it, and a cubit and a half the breadth of it, and a cubit and a half the height of it:

2 And he overlaid it with pure gold within and without, and made a crown of gold to it round about.

3 And he cast for it four rings of gold, to be set by the four corners of it; even two rings upon the one side of it, and two rings upon the other side of it.

4 And he made ^cstaves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold.

5 And he ^dput the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, to bear the ark.

6 ¶ And he made the ^emercyseat of pure gold: two cubits and a half was the length thereof, and one cubit and a half the breadth thereof.

7 And he made two cherubim of gold, beaten out of one piece made he them, on the two ends of the mercyseat;

9 And the ^fcherubim spread out their wings on high, and covered with their wings over the mercyseat, with their faces one to another; even to the mercyseatward were the faces of the cherubim.

10 ¶ And he made ^gthe table of shittim wood: two cubits was the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and half the height thereof:

11 And he overlaid it with pure gold, and made thereunto a crown of gold round about.

12 Also he made thereunto the border of an hand-breadth round about; and made a crown of gold for the border thereof round about.

13 And he cast for it four rings of gold, and put the rings upon the four corners that were in the four feet thereof.

14 Over against the border were the rings, the places for the staves to bear the table.

15 And he made the staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold, to bear the table.

16 And he made the vessels which were upon the table, his ^hdishes, and his spoons, and his bowls, and his covers ³to cover withal, of pure gold.

17 ¶ And he made the ⁱcandlestick of pure gold: of beaten work made he the candlestick; his shaft, and his branch, his bowls, his knops, and his flowers, were of the same.

18 And six branches going out of the sides thereof; three branches of the candlestick out of the one side thereof, and three branches of the candlestick out of the other side thereof:

19 Three bowls made after the fashion of almonds in one branch, a knop and a flower; and three bowls made like almonds in another branch, a knop and a flower: so throughout the six branches going out of the candlestick.

20 And in the candlestick were four bowls made like almonds, his knops and his flowers:

21 And a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same.

according to the six branches going out of it.

22 Their knops and their branches were of the same: all of it was one beaten work of pure gold.

23 And he made his ^kseven lamps, and his snuffers, and his snuff-dishes, of pure gold.

24 Of a talent of pure gold made he it, and all the vessels thereof.

25 ¶ And ^lhe made the incense altar of shittim wood: the length of it was a cubit, and the breadth of it a cubit; it was four-square; and two cubits was the height of it; the horns thereof were of the same.

26 And he overlaid it with pure gold, both the top of it, and the sides thereof round about, and the horns of it: also he made unto it a crown of gold round about.

27 And he made two rings of gold for it under the crown thereof, by the two corners of it, upon the two sides thereof, to be places for the staves to bear it withal.

28 And he made the staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold.

29 ¶ And he made ⁴the holy anointing oil, and the pure ^mincense of sweet spices, according to the work of the apothecary.

CHAPTER 38.

1 The altar of burnt offering. 8 The laver of brass. 9 The court. 21 The sum of that which the people offered.

AND ^ahe made the altar of burnt offering of shittim wood: five cubits was the length thereof, and five cubits the breadth thereof; it was four-square; and three cubits the height thereof.

2 And he made the horns thereof on the four corners of it; the horns thereof were of the same: and he overlaid it with brass.

3 And he made all the vessels of the altar, the pots, and the shovels, and the basins, and the flesh-hooks, and the fire-pans: all the vessels thereof made he of ^bbrass.

4 And he made for the altar a brassen grate of net-work under the compass thereof beneath unto the midst of it.

5 And he cast four rings for the four ends of the grate of brass, to be places for the staves.

6 And he made the staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with brass.

8 ¶ And he made ^cthe laver of brass, and the foot of it of brass, of the ¹looking-glasses of the women ²assembling, which assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

9 ¶ And he made ^dthe court: on the south side southward the hangings of the court were of fine twined linen, an hundred cubits:

10 Their pillars were twenty, and their brassen sockets twenty: the hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver.

11 And for the north side the hangings were an hundred cubits, their pillars were twenty, and their sockets of brass twenty; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver.

12 And for the west side were hangings of fifty cubits, their pillars ten, and their sockets ten; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver.

13 And for the east side eastward fifty cubits.

14 The hangings of the one side of the gate were fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three.

15 And for the other side of the court gate, on this hand and that hand, were hangings of fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three.

16 All the hangings of the court round about were of fine twined linen.

17 And the sockets for the pillars were of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver; and the overlaying of their chapiters of silver; and all the pillars of the court were filleted with silver.

18 And the hanging for the gate of the court was needle-work, of ^eblue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: and twenty cubits was the length, and the height in the breadth was five cubits, answerable to the hangings of the court.

19 And their pillars were four, and their sockets of brass four; their hooks of silver, and the overlaying of their chapiters and their fillets of silver.

20 And all the ^fpins of the tabernacle, and of the court round about, were of brass.

21 ¶ This is the sum of the tabernacle, even of ⁹ the tabernacle of testimony, as it was counted, according to the commandment of Moses, for the service of the Levites, ^h by the hand of Ithamar, son to Aaron the priest.

22 And ⁱ Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that the LORD commanded Moses.

23 And with him was Aholiab, son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, and a cunning workman, and an embroiderer in blue, and in purple, and in scarlet, and fine linen.

24 All the gold that was occupied for the work in all the work of the holy place, even the gold of the offering, was twenty and nine talents, and seven hundred and thirty shekels, after ^j the shekel of the sanctuary.

25 And the silver of them that were numbered of the congregation was an hundred talents, and a thousand seven hundred and threescore and fifteen shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary:

26 A ^k bekah for ³ every man, that is, half a shekel, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for every one that went to be numbered, from twenty years old and upward, for ^l six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty men.

27 And of the hundred talents of silver were cast ^m the sockets of the sanctuary, and the sockets of the veil; an hundred sockets of the hundred talents, a talent for a socket.

28 And of the thousand seven hundred seventy and five shekels he made hooks for the pillars, and overlaid their chapiters, and filleted them.

29 And the brass of the offering was seventy talents, and two thousand and four hundred shekels.

30 And therewith he made the sockets to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the brasen altar, and the brasen grate for it, and all the vessels of the altar,

31 And the sockets of the court round about, and the sockets of the court gate, and all the pins of the tabernacle, and all the pins of the court round about.

CHAPTER 39.

1 The cloths of service and holy garments. 2 The ephod. 3 The breastplate. 22 The robe of the ephod. 27 The coats, mitre, etc.

AND of ^a the blue, and purple, and scarlet, they made ^b cloths of service, to do service in the holy place, and made the holy garments for Aaron; ^c as the LORD commanded Moses.

2 And ^d he made the ephod of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

3 And they did beat the gold into thin plates, and cut it into wires, to work it in the blue, and in the purple, and in the scarlet, and in the fine linen, with cunning work.

4 They made shoulder-pieces for it, to couple it together: by the two edges was it coupled together.

5 And the curious girdle of his ephod, that was upon it, was of the same, according to the work thereof; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen; as the LORD commanded Moses.

6 ¶ And ^f they wrought ^g onyx stones inclosed in ouches of gold, graven, as signets are graven, with the ^h names of the children of Israel.

7 And he put them on the shoulders of the ephod, that they should be stones for a memorial to the children of Israel; as the LORD commanded Moses.

8 ¶ And ⁱ he made the breastplate of cunning work, like the work of the ephod; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 It was four-square; they made the breastplate double: a span was the length thereof, and a span the breadth thereof, being doubled.

10 And ^k they set in it four rows of stones: the first row was a ^l sardius, a ² topaz, and a ³ carbuncle: this was the first row.

11 And the second row, an ⁴ emerald, a ⁵ sapphire, and a ⁶ diamond.

12 And the third row, a ⁷ ligure, an ⁸ agate, and an ⁹ amethyst.

13 And the fourth row, a ¹⁰ beryl, an ¹¹ onyx, and a ¹² jasper: they were inclosed in ouches of gold in their inclosings.

14 And the stones were according to the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet, every one with his name, according to the twelve tribes.

15 And they made upon the breastplate chains at the ends, of wreathen work of pure gold.

16 And they made two ouches of gold, and two gold rings, and put be two rings in the two ends of the breastplate.

17 And they put the two wreathen chains of gold in the two rings on be ends of the breastplate.

18 And the two ends of the two wreathen chains they fastened in be two ouches, and put them on be shoulder-pieces of the ephod, before it.

19 And they made two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, upon the border of it, which was on the side of the ephod toward.

20 And they made two other golden rings, and put them on the two sides of the ephod underneath, toward be fore part of it, over against the other coupling thereof, above the curious girdle of the ephod.

21 And they did bind the breastplate by his rings unto the rings of be ephod with a lace of blue, that might be above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breastplate might not be loosed from the ephod; as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 ^c And ^hhe made the robe of the ephod of woven work, all of blue.

23 And there was an hole in the midst of the robe, as the hole of n habergeon, with a band round about the hole, that it should not end.

24 And they made upon the hems of the robe pomegranates of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined linen.

25 And they made ^m bells of pure gold, and put the bells between be pomegranates upon the hem of be robe, round about between the pomegranates;

26 A bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, round about the hem of the robe to minister in; as the LORD commanded Moses.

27 ^c And ⁿthey made coats of fine linen, of woven work, for Aaron, and for his sons, 28 And ^a a mitre of fine linen, and goodly bonnets of fine linen, and linen breeches of fine twined linen.

29 And a girdle of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, of needle-work; as the LORD commanded Moses.

30 ^r And they made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and wrote upon it a writing, like to the engravings of a signet, ^hHOLINESS TO THE LORD.

31 And they tied unto it a lace of blue, to fasten it on high upon the mitre; as the LORD commanded Moses.

32 Thus was all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation finished; and the children of Israel did ^raccording to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did they.

33 ^c And they brought ^rthe tabernacle unto Moses, the tent, and all his furniture, his tables, his boards, his bars, and his pillars, and his sockets.

34 And the covering of rams' skins dyed red, and the covering of badgers' skins, and the veil of the covering,

35 The ark of the testimony, and the staves thereof, and the mercy-seat.

36 The table, and all the vessels thereof, and the shewbread.

37 The ^rpure candlestick, with the lamps thereof, even with the "lamps to be set in order, and all the vessels thereof, and the oil for light, 38 And the golden altar, and the anointing oil, and ¹³the sweet incense, and the hanging for the tabernacle door.

39 The ^rbrass altar, and his grate of brass, his staves, and all his vessels, the laver and his foot,

40 The hangings of the court, his ^rpillars, and his sockets, and the hanging for the court gate, his cords, and his pins, and all the vessels of the service of the tabernacle, for the tent of the congregation, 41 The cloths of service to do service in the holy place, and the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and his sons' garments, to minister in the priest's office.

42 According to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel made ^rall the work.

43 And Moses did look upon all the work, and, behold, they had done it as the LORD had commanded, even so had they done it: and Moses ^bblessed them.

CHAPTER 40.

1 The tabernacle is commanded to be reared and anointed. 12 Aaron and his sons to be sanctified. 34 Cloud covereth it.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 On the first day of the ^afirst month shalt thou set up ^bthe tabernacle of the tent of the congregation.

3 And ^cthou shalt put therein the ark of the testimony, and cover the ark with the veil.

4 And ^dthou shalt bring in the table, and set ^ein order ¹the things that are to be set in order upon it; and thou shalt bring in the candlestick, and light the lamps thereof.

5 And thou shalt set the ^faltar of gold for the incense before the ark of the testimony, and put the hanging of the door to the tabernacle.

6 And thou shalt set the altar of the burnt offering before the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation.

7 And ^gthou shalt set the laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and shalt put water therein.

8 And thou shalt set up the court round about, and hang up the hanging at the court gate.

9 And thou shalt take ^hthe anointing oil, and anoint the tabernacle, and all that is therein, and shalt hallow it, and all the vessels thereof: and it shall be holy.

10 And thou shalt anoint the altar of the burnt offering, and all his vessels, and sanctify the altar: and ⁱit shall be an altar ²most holy.

11 And thou shalt anoint the laver and his foot, and sanctify it.

12 And ^jthou shalt bring Aaron and his sons unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and wash them with water.

13 And thou shalt put upon Aaron the holy garments, ^kand anoint him, and sanctify him; that he may minister unto me in the priest's office.

14 And thou shalt bring ^lhis sons, and clothe them with coats:

15 And thou shalt anoint them, as thou didst anoint their father, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office: for their anointing shall surely be ^man everlasting priesthood throughout their generations.

16 Thus did Moses: according to all that the LORD commanded him so did he.

17 ¶ And it came to pass in the first month in the second year, on the first day of the month, that ¹the tabernacle was reared up.

18 And Moses reared up the tabernacle, and fastened his sockets, and set up the boards thereof, and put in the bars thereof, and reared up his pillars.

19 And he spread abroad the tent over the tabernacle, and put the covering of the tent above upon it, as the LORD commanded Moses.

20 ¶ And he took and put the ^otestimony into the ark, and set the staves on the ark, and put the mercyseat above upon the ark:

21 And he brought the ark into the tabernacle, and ^pset up the veil of the covering, and covered the ark of the testimony; as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 ¶ And ^qhe put the table in the tent of the congregation, upon the side of the tabernacle northward without the veil.

THE THIRD BOOK OF MOSES, CALLED LEVITICUS.

CHAPTER 1.

The burnt offerings, 3 of the herd, 10 of the flocks, 14 of the fowls.

AND the LORD ^a called unto Moses, and spake unto him ^b out of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying,

Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, ^c If any man of you bring an offering unto the LORD, ye shall bring your offering of the cattle, even of the herd, and of the flock.

If his offering be a burnt sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male without blemish: he shall offer it of his own voluntary will at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD.

And ^e he shall put his hand upon the head of the burnt offering; and he shall be accepted ^f for him ^g to make atonement for him.

And he shall kill the ^h bullock before the LORD: ⁱ and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall bring the blood, and sprinkle the blood round about upon the altar that is by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

And he shall flay the burnt offering, and cut it into his pieces.

And the sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire upon the altar, and lay the wood in order upon the altar:

And the priests, Aaron's sons, shall lay the parts, the head, and the fat, in order upon the wood that is on the fire which is upon the altar:

5 And Aaron's sons ^fshall burn on the altar upon the burnt sacrifice, which is upon the wood that is on the fire: it is an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

6 ¶ And if his offering for a sacrifice of peace offering unto the LORD be of the flock, male or female, he shall offer it without ^gblemish.

7 If he offer a lamb for his offering, then shall he offer it before the LORD.

8 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of his offering, and kill it before the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron's sons shall sprinkle the blood thereof round about upon the altar.

9 And he shall offer of the sacrifice of the peace offering an offering made by fire unto the LORD; the fat thereof, and the whole rump, it shall he take off hard by the back bone; and the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards,

10 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away.

11 And the priest shall burn it upon the altar: it is the food of the offering made by fire unto the LORD.

12 ¶ And if his offering be a goat, then he shall offer it before the LORD.

13 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of it, and kill it before the tabernacle of the congregation: and the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle the blood thereof upon the altar round about.

14 And he shall offer thereof his offering, even an offering made by fire unto the LORD; the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards, concerning things which ought not to be done, and shall do against any of them:

15 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away.

3 If ^b the priest that is anointed do sin according to the sin of the people; then let him bring for his sin, which he hath sinned, a ^c young bullock without blemish unto the LORD for a sin offering.

4 And he shall bring the bullock ^d unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD; and shall lay his hand upon the bullock's head, and kill the bullock before the LORD.

5 And the priest that is anointed ^e shall take of the bullock's blood, and bring it to the tabernacle of the congregation:

6 And the priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle of the blood seven times before ^f the LORD, before the veil of the sanctuary.

7 And the priest shall ^g put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar of sweet incense before the LORD, which is in the tabernacle of the congregation; and shall pour ^h all the blood of the bullock at the bottom of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

12 Even the whole bullock shall he carry forth ^j without the camp unto a clean place, ^k where the ashes are poured out, and ^l burn him on the wood with fire: ² where the ashes are poured out shall he be burnt.

13 ¶ And ^l if the whole congregation of Israel sin through ignorance, ^m and the thing be hid from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done somewhat against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which should not be done, and are guilty;

14 When the sin, which they have sinned against it, is known, then the congregation shall offer a young bullock for the sin, and bring him before the tabernacle of the congregation.

15 And the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands upon the head of the bullock before the LORD; and the bullock shall be killed before the LORD.

28 Or if his sin, which he hath sinned, come to his knowledge, then he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a female without blemish, for his sin which he hath sinned.

29 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering, and slay the sin offering in the place of the burnt offering.

30 And the priest shall take of the blood thereof with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out all the blood thereof at the bottom of the altar.

31 And he shall take away all the fat thereof, as the fat is taken away from off the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priest shall burn it upon the altar for a sweet savour unto the LORD; and the priest shall make an atonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him.

32 And if he bring a lamb for a sin offering, he shall bring it a female without blemish.

33 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering, and slay it for a sin offering in the place where they kill the burnt offering.

34 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out all the blood thereof at the bottom of the altar:

35 And he shall take away all the fat thereof, as the fat of the lamb is taken away from the sacrifice of the peace offerings; and the priest shall burn them upon the altar, according to the offerings made by fire unto the LORD: and the priest shall make an atonement for his sin that he hath committed, and it shall be forgiven him.

CHAPTER 5.

The trespass offering of one that conceal-eth his knowledge in touching an unclean thing, 4 or in making an oath, etc.

AND if a soul sin, ^aand hear the voice of swearing, and is a witness, whether he hath seen or known of it; if he do not utter it, then he shall ^bbear his iniquity.

2 Or ^cif a soul touch any unclean thing, whether it be a carcase of an unclean beast, or a carcase of unclean cattle, or the carcase of unclean creeping things, and if it be hidden from him; he also shall be unclean, and guilty.

3 Or if he touch the ^duncleanness of man, whatsoever uncleanness it be that a man shall be defiled withal, and it be hid from him; when he knoweth of it, then he shall be guilty.

4 Or if a soul ^eswear, pronouncing with his lips ^fto do evil, or ^gto do good, whatsoever it be that a man shall pronounce with an oath, and it be hid from him; when he knoweth of it, then he shall be guilty in one of these.

5 And it shall be, when he shall be guilty in one of these things, that he shall ^hconfess that he hath sinned in that thing:

6 And he shall bring his trespass offering unto the LORD for his sin which he hath sinned, a female from the flock, a lamb, or a kid of the goats, for a sin offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sin.

7 And ⁱif ¹he be not able to bring a lamb, then he shall bring for his trespass, which he hath committed, two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons, unto the LORD; one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering.

8 And he shall bring them unto the priest, who shall offer that which is for the sin offering first, and ²wring off his head from his neck, but shall not divide it asunder:

9 And he shall sprinkle of the blood of the sin offering upon the side of the altar; and the rest of the blood shall be wrung out at the bottom of the altar: it is a sin offering.

10 And he shall offer the second for a burnt offering, according to the ³manner: and the priest shall make an atonement for him for his sin, which he hath sinned, and it shall be forgiven him.

11 But if he be not able to bring

13 And the priest shall make an atonement for him as touching his sin that he hath sinned in one of these, and it shall be forgiven him: and the remnant shall be the priest's, as a meat offering.

14 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

15 If ^ma soul commit a trespass, and sin through ignorance, in the holy things of the LORD; then ⁿhe shall bring for his trespass unto the LORD a ram without blemish out of the flocks, with thy estimation by shekels of silver, after ^othe shekel of the sanctuary, for a trespass offering:

17 ¶ And if a soul sin, and commit any of these things which are forbidden to be done by the commandments of the LORD; though ^rhe wist it not, yet is he guilty, and shall bear his iniquity.

18 And he shall bring a ram ^swithout blemish out of the flock, with thy estimation, for a trespass offering, unto the priest: and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his ignorance wherein he erred and wist it not, and it shall be forgiven him.

19 It is ^ta trespass offering: ^uhe hath certainly trespassed against the LORD.

CHAPTER 6.

1 The trespass offering for sins done unwittingly. 8 The law of the burnt offering, 14 and meat offering. 24 The law of the sin offering.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 If a soul sin, and ^acommit a trespass against the LORD, and ^blie unto his neighbour in that ^cwhich was delivered him to keep, or in ¹fellowship, or in a thing taken away by violence, or hath ^ddeceived his neighbour;

3 Or ^ehave found that which was lost, and lieth concerning it, and ^fswearth falsely; in any of all these that a man doeth, sinning therein:

4 Then it shall be, because he hath sinned, and is guilty, that he shall restore that which he took violently away, or the thing which he hath deceitfully gotten, or that which was delivered him to keep, or the lost thing which he found,

5 Or all that about which he hath sworn falsely; he shall even ^grestore it in the principal, and shall add the fifth part more thereto, and give it unto him to whom it appertaineth, ²in the day of his trespass offering.

6 And he shall bring his trespass offering unto the LORD, a ram without blemish out of the flock, with thy estimation, for a trespass offering, unto the priest:

7 And ^hthe priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD: and it shall be forgiven him for any thing of all that he hath done in trespassing therein.

8 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

9 Command Aaron and his sons, saying, This is the law of the burnt offering: It is the burnt offering, ³because of the burning upon the altar all night unto the morning, and the fire of the altar shall be burning in it.

10 And ⁱthe priest shall put on his linen garment, and his linen breeches shall he put upon his flesh, and take up the ashes which the fire hath consumed with the burnt offering on the altar, and he shall put them beside the altar.

11 And he shall put off his garments, and put on other garments, and carry forth the ashes without the camp unto a clean place.

12 And the fire upon the altar shall be burning in it; it shall not be put out: and the priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and lay the burnt offering in order upon it; and he shall burn thereon the fat of the peace offerings.

10 And every meat offering mingled with oil, and dry, shall all the sons of Aaron have, one as much as another.

11 ¶ And ^kthis is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which he shall offer unto the LORD.

12 If he offer it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mingled with oil, and unleavened wafers ¹anointed with oil, and cakes mingled with oil, of fine flour, fried.

13 Besides the cakes, he shall offer for his offering ^mleavened bread with the sacrifice of thanksgiving of his peace offerings.

14 And of it he shall offer one out of the whole oblation for an heave offering unto the LORD, ⁿand it shall be the priest's that sprinketh the blood of the peace offerings.

15 And ^othe flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten the same day that it is offered; he shall not leave any of it until the morning.

16 But ^pif the sacrifice of his offering be a vow, or a voluntary offering, it shall be eaten the same day that he offereth his sacrifice: and on the morrow also the remainder of it shall be eaten:

17 But the remainder of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burnt with fire.

18 And if ^qany of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings be eaten at all on the third day, it shall not be accepted, neither shall it be ^rimputed unto him that offereth it: it shall be an ^sabomination, and the soul that eateth of it shall bear his iniquity.

19 And the flesh that toucheth any unclean thing shall not be eaten; it shall be burnt with fire: and as for the flesh, all that be clean shall eat thereof.

20 But the soul that eateth of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings that ^tpertain unto the LORD, ^uhaving his uncleanness upon him, even that soul ^vshall be cut off from his people.

21 Moreover the soul that shall touch any unclean thing, as ^wthe uncleanness of man, or ^xany ^yunclean beast, or any ^w abominable unclean thing, and eat of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings which pertain unto the LORD, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

22 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

23 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, ^x Ye shall eat no manner of fat, of ox, or of sheep, or of goat.

24 And the fat of the ² beast that dieth of itself, and the fat of that which is torn with beasts, may be used in any other use; but ye shall in no wise eat of it.

25 For whosoever eateth the fat of the beast, of which men offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, even the soul that eateth it shall be cut off from his people.

26 Moreover ^y ye shall eat no manner of blood, whether it be of fowl or of beast, in any of your dwellings.

27 Whatsoever soul it be that eateth any manner of blood, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

anointing of his sons, out of the offerings of the LORD made by fire in the day when he presented them to minister unto the LORD in the priest's office;

36 Which the LORD commanded to be given them of the children of Israel, ^e in the day that he anointed them, ^{by} a statute for ever throughout their generations.

37 This is the law ^g of the burnt offering, of the meat offering, ^h and of the sin offering, and of the trespass offering, ⁱ and of the consecrations, and of the sacrifice of the peace offerings;

38 Which the LORD commanded Moses in mount Sinai, in the day that he commanded the children of Israel to offer their oblation unto the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Moses consecrateth Aaron and his sons in their sin offering. 31 The place and time of their consecration.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Take ^a Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments, and ^b the anointing oil, and a bullock for the sin offering, and two rams, and a basket of unleavened bread;

3 And gather thou all the congregation together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And Moses did as the LORD commanded him; and the assembly was gathered together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

5 And Moses said unto the congregation, This is the thing which the LORD commanded to be done.

6 And Moses brought Aaron and his sons, and ^c washed them with water.

7 And he put upon him the ^d coat, and girded him with the girdle, and clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod upon him, and he girded him with the curious girdle of the ephod, and bound it unto him therewith.

8 And he put the breastplate upon him; also he ^e put in the breastplate the Urim and the Thummim.

9 And ^f he put the mitre upon his head; also upon the mitre, ^g upon his fore front, did he put the golden plate, the holy crown; and the LORD ^h commanded Moses.

10 And ^h Moses took the anointing

1, and anointed the tabernacle and that was therein, and sanctified it.

1 And he sprinkled thereof upon the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all his vessels, both the ver and his foot, to sanctify them.

2 And he ¹poured of the anointing oil upon Aaron's head, and anointed him, to sanctify him.

3 And ¹Moses brought Aaron's sons, and put coats upon them, and girded them with girdles, and put bonnets upon them; as the LORD commanded Moses.

4 ¶ And ¹he brought the bullock for the sin offering: and Aaron and his sons ¹laid their hands upon the head of the bullock for the sin offering.

5 And he slew it; ^mand ¹Moses took the blood, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about with his finger, and purified the altar, and poured the blood at the bottom of the altar, and sanctified it, to make reconciliation upon it.

6 And ⁿhe took all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and Moses burned it upon the altar.

7 But the bullock, and his hide, his flesh, and his dung, he burnt with fire without the camp; as the LORD ^ocommanded Moses.

8 ¶ And ^phe brought the ram for the burnt offering: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram.

9 And he killed it; and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about.

10 And he cut the ram into pieces; and Moses burnt the head, and the pieces, and the fat.

11 And he washed the inwards and the legs in water; and Moses burnt the whole ram upon the altar: it was a burnt sacrifice for a sweet savour, and an offering made by re unto the LORD; ^qas the LORD commanded Moses.

12 ¶ And ^rhe brought the other ram, the ram of consecration: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram.

13 And he slew it; and Moses took of the blood of it, and put it upon the tip of Aaron's right ear, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

¹ He. 9. 16.

24 And he brought Aaron's sons, and Moses put of the blood upon the tip of their right ear, and upon the thumbs of their right hands, and upon the great toes of their right feet; and Moses ¹sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about.

25 And ^uhe took the fat, and the rump, and all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and the right shoulder:

26 And ^vout of the basket of unleavened bread that was before the LORD he took one unleavened cake, and a cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat, and upon the right shoulder:

27 And he put all ^wupon Aaron's hands, and upon his sons' hands, and waved them for a wave offering before the LORD.

28 And ^xMoses took them from off their hands, and burnt them on the altar upon the burnt offering: they were consecrations for ^ya sweet savour: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

29 And Moses took the breast, and waved it for a wave offering before the LORD: for of the ram of consecration it was ^zMoses' part; as the LORD commanded Moses.

30 And ^aMoses took of the anointing oil, and of the blood which was upon the altar, and sprinkled it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon his sons' garments with him; and sanctified Aaron, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him.

31 ¶ And Moses said unto Aaron and to his sons, ^bBoil the flesh at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation; and there eat it with the bread that is in the basket of consecrations, as I commanded, saying, Aaron and his sons shall eat it.

32 And ^cthat which remaineth of the flesh and of the bread shall ye burn with fire.

33 And ye shall not go out of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation in seven days, until the days of your consecration be at an end: for ^dseven days shall he consecrate you.

34 As ^ehe hath done this day, so the LORD hath commanded to do, to make an atonement for you.

35 Therefore shall ye abide at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation day and night seven days, and keep the charge of the LORD, that ye die not: for so I am commanded.

36 So Aaron and his sons did all things which the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

CHAPTER 9.

1, 8 Aaron's sin offering and burnt offering for himself and the people. 24 Fire cometh out from the Lord upon the altar.

AND ^ait came to pass on the eighth day, that Moses called Aaron and his sons, and the elders of Israel:

2 And he said unto Aaron, ^bTake thee a young calf for a sin offering, and ^ca ram for a burnt offering, without blemish, and offer them before the LORD.

3 And unto the children of Israel thou shalt speak, saying, ^dTake ye a kid of the goats for a sin offering; and a calf and a lamb, both of the first year, without blemish, for a burnt offering;

4 Also a bullock and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD; and a ^emeat offering mingled with oil: for to-day the LORD will appear unto you.

5 ¶ And they brought that which Moses commanded before the tabernacle of the congregation: and all the congregation drew near and stood before the LORD.

6 And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commanded that ye should do: and ^fthe glory of the LORD shall appear unto you.

7 And Moses said unto Aaron, Go unto the altar, and ^hoffer thy sin offering, and thy burnt offering, and make an atonement for thyself, and for the people: and ⁱoffer the offering of the people, and make an atonement for them; as the LORD commanded.

8 ¶ Aaron therefore went unto the altar, and slew the calf of the sin offering which was for himself.

9 And ^jthe sons of Aaron brought the blood unto him; and he dipped his finger in the blood, and ^kput it upon the horns of the altar, and poured out the blood at the bottom of the altar:

10 But ^lthe fat, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver of the sin offering, he burnt upon the 11 And ⁿthe flesh and the hide he burnt with fire without the camp.

12 And he slew the burnt offering; and Aaron's sons presented unto him the blood, which he sprinkled round about upon the altar.

13 And they presented the burnt offering unto him, with the piece thereof, and the head: and he burnt them upon the altar.

14 And he did wash the inward and the legs, and burnt them upon the burnt offering on the altar.

15 ¶ And ^ohe brought the people's offering, and took the goat, which was the sin offering for the people, and slew it, and offered it for sin as the first.

16 And he brought the burnt offering, and offered it according to the ¹manner.

17 And he brought the meat offering, and ²took an handful thereof, and burnt it upon the altar, ^pbeside the burnt sacrifice of the morning.

18 He slew also the bullock and the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings which was for the people; and Aaron's sons presented unto him the blood, which he sprinkled upon the altar round about,

19 And the fat of the bullock and of the ram, the rump, and that which covereth the inwards, and the kidneys. and the caul above the liver:

20 And they put the fat upon the breasts, and he burnt the fat upon the altar:

21 And the breasts and the right shoulder Aaron waved ^qfor a wave offering before the LORD; as Moses commanded.

22 And Aaron lifted up his hand toward the people, and ^rblessed them; and came down from offering of the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and peace offerings.

23 And Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and came out, and ^sblessed the people: ^tand the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the people.

24 And ^uthere came a fire out ^vfrom before the LORD, and consumed upon the altar the burnt offering and the fat: which when all the people saw, ^wthey shouted, and fell on their faces.

CHAPTER 10.

Nadab and Abihu burnt. 8 The priests forbidden wine when they enter the tabernacle. 12 The law of eating the holy things.

AND ^aNadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, took either of them a censur, and put fire therein, and burnt incense thereon, and offered strange fire before the LORD, which he commanded them not.

And there ^cwent out fire from the LORD, and devoured them; and they died before the LORD.

Then Moses said unto Aaron, ^bthis is it that the LORD spake, saying, I will be sanctified in them that come nigh me, and before all the people I will be ^cglorified. And Aaron held his peace.

And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of ^fUzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said unto them, Come near, ^gcarry your brethren from before the sanctuary out of the camp.

So they went near, and carried them in their coats out of the camp; as Moses had said.

And Moses said unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons, ^hUncover not your heads, neither rend your clothes, lest ye die, and lest ⁱwrath come upon all the people: but let your brethren, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning which the LORD hath kindled.

And ^jye shall not go out from the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: ^kfor the anointing oil of the LORD is upon you. And they did according to the word of Moses.

And the LORD spake unto Aaron, saying,

Do ^lnot drink wine nor strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee, when ye go into the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: ^mit shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations:

And that ye may ⁿput difference between holy and unholy, and between unclean and clean;

And ^othat ye may teach the children of Israel all the statutes which the LORD hath spoken unto them by the hand of Moses.

And Moses spake unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons that were left, Take ^pthe meat offering that remaineth of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and eat it without leaven beside the altar: for ^fit is most holy:

13 And ye shall eat it in the holy place, because it is thy due, and thy sons' due, of the sacrifices of the LORD made by fire: for so I am commanded.

14 And ^gthe wave breast and heave shoulder shall ye eat in a clean place; thou, and thy sons, and thy daughters with thee: for ^hthey be thy due, and thy sons' due, which are given out of the sacrifices of peace offerings of the children of Israel.

15 The heave shoulder and the wave breast shall they bring with the offerings made by fire of the fat, to wave it ⁱfor a wave offering before the LORD; and it shall be thine, and thy sons' with thee, by a statute for ever; as the LORD hath commanded.

16 And Moses diligently sought ^jthe goat of the sin offering, and, behold, it was burnt: and he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron which were left alive, saying,

17 Wherefore ^khave ye not eaten the sin offering in the holy place, seeing it is most holy, and God hath given it you to bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the LORD?

18 Behold, the blood of it was not brought in within the holy place: ye should indeed have eaten it in the holy place, ^las I commanded.

19 And Aaron said unto Moses, Behold, this ^mday have they offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD; and such things have befallen me: and ⁿif I had eaten the sin offering to-day, should ^oit have been accepted in the sight of the LORD?

20 And when Moses heard that, he was content.

CHAPTER 11.

What beasts may and what may not be eaten, etc.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and to Aaron, saying unto them,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, ^aThese are the beasts which ye shall eat among all the beasts that are on the earth.

3 Whatsoever parteth the hoof, and is cloven-footed, and cheweth the cud, among the beasts, that shall ye eat.

4 Nevertheless these shall ye not eat of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the hoof: as the camel, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he is unclean unto you.

5 And the coney, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he is unclean unto you.

6 And the hare, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he is ^bunclean unto you.

7 And the swine, though he divide the hoof, and be cloven-footed, yet he cheweth not the cud; ^che is unclean to you.

8 Of their flesh shall ye not eat, and their carcase shall ye not touch; ^dthey are unclean to you.

9 ¶ These ^eshall ye eat of all that are in the waters: whatsoever hath fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the rivers, them shall ye eat.

10 And all that have not fins and scales in the seas, and in the rivers, of all that move in the waters, and of any living thing which is in the waters, they shall be an ^fabomination unto you:

11 They shall be even an abomination unto you; ye shall not eat of their flesh, but ye shall have their carcases in abomination

12 Whatsoever hath no fins nor scales in the waters, that shall be an abomination unto you.

13 ¶ And ^gthese are they which ye shall have in abomination among the fowls; they shall not be eaten, they are an abomination: the eagle, and the ^hlossifrage, and the ⁱospray,

14 And the vulture, and the kite after his kind;

18 And the swan, and the ^jpelican, and the ^kgier eagle, 19 And the stork, the heron after her kind, and the lapwing, and the bat.

20 All ^lfowls that creep, going upon all four, shall be an abomination unto you.

21 Yet these may ye eat of every flying creeping thing that goeth upon all four, which have legs above their feet, to leap withal upon the earth;

28 And he that beareth the carcase of them shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: they are unclean unto you.

29 ¶ These also shall be ^cunclean unto you among the creeping things that creep upon the earth; the weasel, and ^dthe mouse, and the ^etortoise after his kind,

30 And the ferret, and the chameleon, and the lizard, and the ^fsnail, and the ^gmole.

31 These are unclean to you among all that creep: whosoever doth touch them, when they be dead, shall be unclean until the even.

32 And upon whatsoever any of them, when they are dead, doth fall, it shall be unclean; whether it be any vessel of wood, or raiment, or skin, or sack, whatsoever vessel it be, wherein any work is done, ^hit must be put into water, and it shall be unclean until the even; so it shall be cleansed.

33 And every earthen vessel whereinto any of them falleth, whatsoever is in it shall be unclean; and ⁱye shall break it.

34 Of all meat which may be eaten, that on which such water cometh shall be unclean; and all drink that may be drunk in every such vessel shall be unclean.

5 And every thing whereupon any part of their carcase falleth shall be unclean; whether it be oven, or ranges for pots, they shall be broken down: for they are unclean, and shall be unclean unto you.

6 Nevertheless a fountain or pit, wherein there is plenty of water, shall be clean: but that which toucheth their carcase shall be unclean.

7 And if any part of their carcase fall upon any sowing seed which is to be sown, it shall be clean.

8 But if any water be put upon the seed, and any part of their carcase fall thereon, it shall be unclean unto you.

9 And if any beast of which ye may eat die; he that toucheth the carcase thereof shall be unclean until the even.

10 And he that eateth of the carcase of it shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: he also that beareth the carcase of it shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even.

11 And every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth shall be an abomination; it shall not be eaten.

12 Whatsoever goeth upon the belly, and whatsoever goeth upon all four, or whatsoever hath more feet among all creeping things that creep upon the earth, them ye shall not eat; for they are an abomination.

13 Ye shall not make yourselves abominable with any creeping thing that creepeth, neither shall ye make yourselves unclean with them, that ye should be defiled thereby.

14 For I am the LORD your God: ye shall therefore sanctify yourselves, and ye shall be holy; for I am holy: neither shall ye defile yourselves with any manner of creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

15 For I am the LORD that bringeth you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: ye shall therefore be holy, for I am holy.

16 This is the law of the beasts, and of the fowl, and of every living creature that moveth in the waters, and of every creature that creepeth upon the earth;

17 To make a difference between the unclean and the clean, and between the beast that may be eaten and the beast that may not be eaten.

CHAPTER 12.

1 The purification of a woman after childbirth: 6 her offerings for her purifying.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a woman have conceived seed, and born a man-child: then ^a she shall be unclean seven days; ^b according to the days of the separation for her infirmity shall she be unclean.

3 And in the ^c eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised.

4 And she shall then continue in the blood of her purifying three and thirty days; she shall touch no hallowed thing, nor come into the sanctuary, until the days of her purifying be fulfilled.

5 But if she bear a maid-child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her separation: and she shall continue in the blood of her purifying threescore and six days.

6 And ^d when the days of her purifying are fulfilled, for a son, or for a daughter, she shall bring ^e a lamb ¹ of the first year for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon, or a turtle-dove, for a sin offering, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest:

7 Who shall offer it before the LORD, and make ^f an atonement for her; and she shall be cleansed from the issue of her blood. This ² is the law for her that hath born a male or a female.

8 And ³ if ² she be not able to bring a lamb, then she shall bring two turtles, or two young pigeons; the one for the burnt offering, and the other for a sin offering: and ^h the priest shall make an atonement for her, and she shall be clean.

CHAPTER 13.

The laws and tokens in discerning leprosy.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, saying,

2 When a man shall have in the skin of his flesh a ¹ rising, ^a a scab, or bright spot, and it be in the skin of his flesh ² like the plague of leprosy; ^b then he shall be brought unto Aaron the priest, or unto one of his sons the priests:

3 And the priest shall look on the plague in the skin of the flesh: and ^c when the hair in the plague is turned white, and the plague in sight be deeper than the skin of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosy: and the priest shall look on him, and pronounce him unclean.

4 If the bright spot be white in the skin of his flesh, and in sight be not deeper than the skin, and the hair thereof be not turned white; then the priest shall shut up him that hath the plague seven days:

5 And the priest shall look on him the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague in his sight be at a stay, and the plague spread not in the skin; then the priest shall shut him up seven days more:

6 And the priest shall look on him again the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague be somewhat dark, and the plague spread not in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean: it is but a scab: and he ^cshall wash his clothes, and be clean.

7 But if the scab spread much abroad in the skin, after that he hath been seen of the priest for his cleansing, he shall be seen of the priest again:

8 And if the priest see that, behold, the scab spreadeth in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is ^aa leprosy.

9 ¶ When the plague of leprosy is in a man, then he shall ^cbe brought unto the priest:

10 And if the priest see him: and, behold, if the rising be white in the skin, and it have turned the hair white, and there be ²quick raw flesh in the rising,

11 It is an old leprosy in the skin of his flesh: and the priest shall pronounce him unclean, and shall not shut him up; for he is unclean.

12 And if a leprosy break out abroad in the skin, and the leprosy cover all the skin of him that hath the plague from his head even to his foot, wheresoever the priest looketh;

13 Then the priest shall consider: and, behold, if the leprosy have covered all his flesh, he shall ³pronounce him clean that hath the plague: it is all turned white: he is clean.

14 But when raw flesh appeareth in him, he shall be unclean.

15 And the ⁹priest shall see the raw flesh, and pronounce him to be unclean: for the raw flesh is unclean: it is a leprosy.

Ez. 22. 26.

16 Or if the raw flesh turn again and be changed unto white, shall ^kcome unto the priest;

17 And the priest shall see him and, behold, if the plague be turned into white; then the priest shall pronounce him clean that hath the plague: he is clean.

18 ¶ The flesh also, in which, if in the skin thereof, was a boil, and is healed,

19 And in the place of the boil there be a white rising, or a bright spot, white, and somewhat reddish; and it be showed to the priest;

20 And if, when the priest seeth it, behold, it be in sight lower than the skin, and the hair thereof be turned white; the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague of leprosy broken out of the boil.

21 But if the priest look on it and, behold, there be no white hair therein, and if it be not lower than the skin, but be somewhat dark; then the priest shall shut him up seven days:

22 And if it spread much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague.

23 But if the bright spot stay in his place, and spread not, it is a burning boil; and the priest ^kshall pronounce him clean.

24 ¶ Or if there be any flesh, in the skin whereof there is ^aa hard burning, and the quick flesh that burneth have a white bright spot somewhat reddish, or white;

25 Then the priest shall look upon it: and, behold, if the hair in the bright spot be turned white, and if be in sight deeper than the skin, it is a leprosy broken out of the burning: wherefore the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy.

26 But if the priest look on it and, behold, there be no white hair in the bright spot, and it be not lower than the other skin, but be somewhat dark; then the priest shall shut him up seven days:

27 And the priest shall look upon him the seventh day: and if it be spread much abroad in the skin, then ^mthe priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy.

28 And if the bright spot stay in his place, and spread not in the skin, but it be somewhat dark; it is a of the burning, and the priest shall pronounce him clean: for it is inflammation of the burning.

¶ If a man or woman have a sore upon the head or the beard; Then ^a the priest shall see the sore: and, behold, if it be in sight deeper than the skin, and if it be in it a yellow thin hair; then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a dry ^o scall, even a scall upon the head or beard. And if the priest look on the face of the scall, and, behold, it be not in sight deeper than the skin, and that there is no black hair in it; then the priest shall shut up him that hath the plague seven days.

And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the plague: and, behold, if the scall spread not, nor be in it no yellow hair, the scall be not in sight deeper than the skin;

He shall be ^p shaven, but the scall shall he not shave; and the priest shall shut up him that hath the scall seven days more.

And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the scall: and, behold, if the scall be not spread in the skin, nor be in sight deeper than the skin; then the priest shall pronounce him clean: and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

But if the scall spread much in the skin after his cleansing; Then the priest shall look on the scall: and, behold, if the scall be spread in the skin, the priest shall seek for yellow hair; he is unclean.

But if the scall be in his sight deeper than the skin, and that there is black hair grown up therein; the scall is settled, he is clean: and the ^q priest shall pronounce him clean.

¶ If a man also or a woman have a bright spot in the skin of their flesh bright as snow, even white bright spots; Then the priest shall look: and, behold, if the bright spots in the skin of their flesh be darkish white; or a freckled spot that groweth in the skin; he is clean.

And the man whose ⁵ hair is fallen off his head, he is ^r bald; yet he is clean.

And he that hath his hair fallen from the part of his head toward the face, he is forehead bald: yet is he clean.

42 And if there be in the bald head, or bald forehead, a white reddish sore; it is a leprosy sprung up in his bald head, or his bald forehead.

43 Then ^a the priest shall look upon it: and, behold, if the rising of the sore be white reddish in his bald head, or in his bald forehead, as the leprosy appeareth in the skin of the flesh;

44 He is a leprous man, he is unclean: the priest shall pronounce him utterly unclean; his plague is in his head.

45 And the leper in whom the plague is, his clothes shall be rent, and his head bare, and he shall ^t put a covering upon his upper lip, and shall cry, ^u Unclean, unclean.

46 All the days wherein the plague shall be in him he shall be defiled; he is unclean: he shall dwell alone; ^v without the camp shall his habitation be.

47 ¶ The ^w garment also that the plague of leprosy is in, whether it be a woollen garment, or a linen garment,

48 Whether it be in the warp, or woof, of linen, or of woollen, whether in a skin, or in any ⁶ thing made of skin;

49 And if the plague be greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the skin, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any ⁷ thing of skin; it is a plague of leprosy, and shall be showed unto the priest.

50 And ^x the priest shall look upon the plague, and shut up it that hath the plague seven days:

51 And he shall look on the plague on the seventh day: if the plague be spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in a skin, or in any work that is made of skin; the plague is ^y a fretting leprosy; it is unclean.

52 He shall therefore burn that garment, whether warp or woof, in woollen or in linen, or any thing of skin, wherein the plague is: for it is a fretting leprosy; it shall be burnt in the fire.

53 And if the priest shall look, and, behold, the plague be not spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin;

54 Then the priest shall command that they wash the thing wherein the plague is, and he shall shut it up seven days more:

55 And the priest shall look on the plague, after that it is washed: and, behold, if the plague have not changed his colour, and the plague be not spread; it is unclean; thou shalt burn it in the fire; it is fret inward, ⁸ whether it be bare within or without.

56 And if the priest look, and, behold, the plague be somewhat dark after the washing of it; then he shall rend it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warp, or out of the woof:

57 And if it appear still in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin, it is a spreading plague: thou shalt burn that wherein the plague is with fire.

58 And the garment, either warp or woof, or whatsoever thing of skin it be, which thou shalt wash, if the plague be departed from them, then it shall be washed the second time, and shall be clean.

59 This is the law of the plague of leprosy in a garment of woollen or linen, either in the warp, or woof, or any thing of skins, to pronounce it clean, or to pronounce it unclean.

30 And he shall offer the one of ^z the turtle-doves, or of the young pigeons, such as he can get;

31 Even such as he is able to get, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, with the meat offering: and the priest shall make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed before the LORD.

32 This is the law of him in whom is the plague of leprosy, whose hand is not able to get that which pertaineth to his cleansing.

33 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

34 When ^a ye be come into the land of Canaan, which I give to you for a possession, and ^b I put the plague of leprosy in a house of the land of your possession;

35 And he that owneth the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, It seemeth to me there is as it were ^c a plague in the house:

36 Then the priest shall command that they ^e empty the house, before the priest go into it to see the plague, that ^d all that is in the house be not made unclean; and afterward the priest shall go in to see the house:

37 And he shall look on the plague: and, behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow strakes, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall;

38 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days:

39 And the priest shall come again the seventh day, and shall look: and, behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house;

40 Then ^e the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and they shall cast them into an unclean place without the city:

41 And he shall cause the house to be scraped within round about, and they shall pour out the dust that they scrape off without the city into an unclean place:

42 And they shall take other stones, and put them in the place of those stones; and he shall take other mortar, and shall plaster the house.

43 And if the plague come again, and break out in the house, after that he hath taken away the stones, and after he hath scraped the house, and after it is plastered;

44 Then the priest shall come and look, and, behold, if the plague be spread in the house, it is for a fretting leprosy in the house: it is unclean.

45 And he shall break down the house, the stones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the mortar of the house; and he shall carry them forth out of the city into an unclean place.

46 Moreover he that goeth into the house all the while that it is shut up shall be unclean ^ountil the even.

47 And he that lieth in the house shall wash his clothes; and he that eateth in the house shall wash his clothes.

48 And if the priest ⁷shall come in, and look upon it, and, behold, the plague hath not spread in the house, after the house was plastered; then the priest shall pronounce the house clean, because the plague is ^hhealed.

49 And he shall take to cleanse the house two birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop:

50 And he shall kill the one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water:

51 And he shall take the cedar wood, and the ^hhyssop, and the scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird, and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times:

52 And he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, and with the living bird, and with the cedar wood, and with the hyssop, and with the scarlet:

53 But he shall let go the living bird out of the city into the open fields, and make an atonement for the house: and it shall be clean.

54 This is the law for all manner of plague of leprosy, and ⁷scall,

55 And for the ^kleprosy of a garment, and of a house,

56 And ^lfor a rising, and for a scab, and for a bright spot;

57 To ^mteach ⁸when it is unclean, and when it is clean: this is the law of leprosy.

1, 19 The uncleanness of men and women by their issues. 13, 28 Their cleansing.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and to Aaron, saying,
2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, ^aWhen any man hath a ¹running issue out of his flesh, because of his issue he is unclean.

3 And this shall be his uncleanness in his issue: whether his flesh run with his issue, or his flesh be stopped from his issue, it is his uncleanness.

4 Every bed whereon he lieth that hath the issue is unclean; and every ²thing whereon he sitteth shall be unclean.

5 And whosoever toucheth his bed shall wash his clothes, ^band bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

6 And he that sitteth on any thing whereon he sat that hath the issue shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

7 And he that toucheth the flesh of him that hath the issue shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

8 And if he that hath the issue ^cspit upon him that is clean; then he shall wash his clothes, and ^dbathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

9 And what saddle soever he rideth upon that hath the issue shall be unclean.

10 And whosoever toucheth any thing that was under him shall be unclean until the even: and he that beareth any of those things shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

11 And whomsoever he ^etoucheth that hath the issue, and hath not rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

12 And the ^fvessel of earth that he toucheth which hath the issue shall be broken: and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.

13 And when he that hath an issue is cleansed of his issue; then ^ghe shall number to himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in running water, and shall be clean.

4 And on the eighth day he shall take to him ^atwo turtle-doves, or ^btwo young pigeons, and come before the LORD unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and give them unto the priest:

5 And the priest shall offer them. the one ^cfor a sin offering, and the other ^dfor a burnt offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD for his issue.

6 And ^eif any man's seed of copulation go out from him, then he shall wash all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the even.

7 And every garment, and every skin, whereon is the seed of copulation, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the even.

8 The woman also with whom man shall lie ^fwith seed of copulation, they shall ^gboth bathe themselves in water, and ^hbe unclean until the even.

9 ¶ And ⁱif a woman have an issue, and her issue in her flesh be blood, she shall be ^jput apart seven days; and whosoever toucheth her shall be unclean until the even.

10 And every thing that she lieth upon in her separation shall be unclean: every thing also that she toucheth upon shall be unclean.

11 And whosoever toucheth her bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe ^khimself in water, and be unclean until the even.

12 And whosoever toucheth any thing that she sat upon shall wash his clothes, and bathe ^lhimself in water, and be unclean until the even.

13 And if it be on her bed, or on any thing whereon she sitteth, when he toucheth it, he shall be unclean until the even.

14 And ^mif any man lie with her at all, and her flowers be upon him, he shall be unclean seven days; and all the bed whereon he lieth shall be unclean.

15 And ⁿif a woman have an issue of her blood many days out of the time of her separation, or if it run beyond the time of her separation; all the days of the issue of her uncleanness shall be as the days of her separation: she ^oshall be unclean.

16 Every bed whereon she lieth all the days of her issue shall be unto her as the bed of her separation: and whatsoever she sitteth upon shall be unclean, as the uncleanness of her separation.

29 And on the eighth day she shall take unto her two turtles, or two young pigeons, and bring them unto the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

30 And the priest shall offer the one ^kfor a sin offering, and the other ^lfor a burnt offering; and the priest shall make ^man atonement for her before the LORD for the issue of her uncleanness.

31 Thus shall ye ⁿseparate the children of Israel from their uncleanness; that they die not in their uncleanness, when they ^odefile my tabernacle that is among them.

32 This is the law of him that hath an issue, and of ^phim whose seed goeth from him, and is defiled therewith;

33 And of her that is sick of her flowers, and of him that hath an issue, of the man, and of the woman, and of him that lieth with her that is unclean.

CHAPTER 16.

1 How the high priest must enter into the holy place. 11 The sin offering for himself. 15 The sin offering for the people. 20 The scape-goat.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, ^aafter the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they offered before the LORD, and died;

2 And the LORD said unto Moses, Speak unto Aaron thy brother, that he ^bcome not at all times into the holy place within the veil before the mercyseat, which is upon the ark, that he die not: for ^cI will appear in the cloud upon the mercyseat.

3 Thus shall Aaron ^dcome into the holy place: ^ewith a young bullock for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering.

4 He shall put on ^fthe holy linen coat, and he shall have the linen breeches upon his flesh, and shall be girded with a linen girdle, and with the linen mitre shall he be attired: these are ^gholy garments; therefore ^hshall he wash his flesh in water, and so put them on.

5 And he shall take of ⁱthe congregation of the children of Israel two kids of the goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering.

6 And Aaron shall offer his bullock of the sin offering which ^{is} for himself, and make ^{an} atonement for himself, and for his house.

7 And he shall take the two goats, and present them before the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

8 And Aaron shall cast lots upon the two goats; one lot for the LORD, and the other lot for the ¹scape-goat.

9 And Aaron shall bring the goat upon which the LORD's ²lot ²fell, and offer him ^{for} a sin offering:

10 But the goat, on which the lot fell to be the scape-goat, shall be presented alive before the LORD, to make ^{an} atonement with him, and to let him go for a scape-goat into the wilderness.

11 And Aaron shall bring the bullock of the sin offering which ^{is} for himself, and shall make an atonement for himself, and for his house, and shall kill the bullock of the sin offering which ^{is} for himself:

12 And he shall take ^ma censer full of burning coals of fire from off the altar before the LORD, and his hands full of ⁿsweet incense beaten small, and bring ^{it} within the veil:

13 And ^ohe shall put the incense upon the fire before the LORD, ^pthat the cloud of the incense may cover the ²mercyseat that ^{is} upon the testimony, that he die not:

14 And ^rhe shall take of the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle ^{it} with his finger upon the mercyseat eastward; and before the mercyseat shall he sprinkle of the blood with his finger seven times.

15 Then ^sshall he kill the goat of the sin offering that ^{is} for the people, and bring his blood ^twithin the veil, and do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle ^{it} upon the mercyseat, and before the mercyseat:

16 And he shall ^umake an atonement for the holy ^vplace, because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and because of their transgressions in all their sins: and so shall he do for the tabernacle of the congregation that ³remaineth among them in the midst of their uncleanness.

17 And ^ethere shall be no man of the tabernacle of the congregation when he goeth in to make an atonement in the holy ^vplace, until he come out, and have made an atonement for himself, and for his household, and for all the congregation of Israel.

18 And he shall go out unto the altar that ^{is} before the LORD, and ^umake an atonement for it; and shall take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the goat, and put ^{it} upon the horns of the altar round about.

19 And he shall sprinkle of the blood upon it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and ^xhallow it from the uncleanness of the children of Israel.

20 ¶ And when he hath made an end ^yof reconciling the holy ^vplace, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar, he shall bring the live goat:

21 And Aaron shall lay both his hands upon the head of the live goat, and confess over him all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions in all their sins, ^zputting them upon the head of the goat, and shall send ^{him} away by the hand of ^aa fit man into the wilderness.

22 And the goat shall ^abear upon him all their iniquities unto a land ⁵not inhabited: and he shall let go the goat in the wilderness.

23 And Aaron shall come into the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall put off the linen garments which he put on when he went into the holy ^vplace, and shall leave them there:

24 And he shall wash his flesh with water in the holy place, and put on his garments, and come forth, and offer his burnt offering, and the burnt offering of the people, and make an atonement for himself, and for the people.

25 And ^ethe fat of the sin offering shall he burn upon the altar.

26 And he that let go the goat for the scape-goat shall wash his clothes, ^dand bathe his flesh in water, and afterward come into the camp.

27 And ^ethe bullock ^{for} the sin offering, and the goat ^{for} the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the holy ^vplace, shall ^{one} carry forth without camp; and they shall burn in fire their skins, and their flesh, and their dung.

And he that burneth them shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp.

¶ And this shall be a statute for ever unto you, that in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, ye shall afflict yourselves, and do no work at all, whether ye be one of your own country, or a stranger that sojourneth among you.

For on that day shall the priest make an atonement for you, to cleanse you, that ye may be clean from all your sins before the LORD.

It shall be a sabbath of rest unto you, and ye shall afflict yourselves, by a statute for ever.

And the priest whom he shall appoint, and whom he shall consecrate to minister in the priest's stead, in his father's stead, shall make the atonement, and shall put on the linen clothes, even the holy garments.

And he shall make an atonement for the holy sanctuary, and shall make an atonement for the tabernacle of the congregation, for the altar, and he shall make an atonement for the priests, for all the people of the congregation.

And this shall be an everlasting statute unto you, to make an atonement for the children of Israel, for all their sins, once a year. And he did as the LORD commanded Moses.

the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD, blood shall be imputed unto that man; he hath shed blood; and that man shall be cut off from among his people:

5 To the end that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices, which they offer in the open field, even that they may bring them unto the LORD, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest, and offer them for peace offerings unto the LORD.

6 And the priest shall sprinkle the blood upon the altar of the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and burn the fat for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

7 And they shall no more offer their sacrifices unto devils, after whom they have gone a whoring. This shall be a statute for ever unto them throughout their generations.

8 And thou shalt say unto them, Whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers which sojourn among you, that offereth a burnt offering or sacrifice, 9 And bringeth it not unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer it unto the LORD, even that man shall be cut off from among his people.

10 ¶ And whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, that eateth any manner of blood; I will even set my face against that soul that eateth blood, and will cut him off from among his people.

11 For the life of the flesh is in the blood: and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls: for it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul.

12 Therefore I said unto the children of Israel, No soul of you shall eat blood, neither shall any stranger that sojourneth among you eat blood.

13 And whatsoever man there be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, which hunteth and catcheth any beast or fowl that may be eaten; he shall even pour out the blood thereof, and cover it with dust.

14 For it is the life of all flesh; the blood of it is for the life thereof: therefore I said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall eat the blood of no manner of flesh : for the life of all flesh is the blood thereof : whosoever eateth it shall be cut off.

15 And ^oevery soul that eateth ²that which died of itself, or that which was torn with beasts, whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger, he shall both wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even ; then shall he be clean.

5 Ye shall therefore keep my statutes, and my judgments ; ^dwhich if a man do, he shall live in them : ^eI am the LORD.

6 ¶ None of you shall approach to any that is ¹near of kin to him, to uncover their nakedness : I am the LORD.

Rom. 1.

25, 32.

2 Again, thou shalt say to the children of Israel, ⁴Whosoever be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn in Israel that giveth any of his seed unto Molech, he shall surely be put to death: the people of the land shall stone him with stones.

3 And I will set my face against that man, and will cut him off from among his people; because he hath given of his seed unto Molech, to ⁶defile my sanctuary, and to profane my holy name.

4 And if the people of the land in any ways hide their eyes from that man, when he giveth of his seed unto Molech, and kill him not;

5 Then I will set my face against that man, and ⁶against his family, and will cut him off, and all that do go a whoring after him, to commit whoredom with Molech, from among their people.

6 ¶ And ⁶the soul that turneth after such as have familiar spirits, and after wizards, to go a whoring after them, I will even set my face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people.

7 Sanctify ⁷yourselves therefore, and be ye holy: for I am the LORD your God.

8 And ye shall keep my statutes, and do them: ⁹I am the LORD which sanctify you.

9 ¶ For ⁴every one that curseth his father or his mother shall be surely put to death: he hath cursed his father or his mother; his ¹blood shall be upon him.

10 ¶ And ⁴the man that committeth adultery with another man's wife, even he that committeth adultery with his neighbour's wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death.

11 And ⁴the man that lieth with his father's wife hath uncovered his father's nakedness: both of them shall surely be put to death: their blood shall be upon them.

12 And if a man lie with his daughter-in-law, both of them shall surely be put to death: they have wrought confusion; their blood shall be upon them.

13 ¶ If ⁴a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

And ^m if a man take a wife and her mother, it is wickedness: they shall be burnt with fire, both he and his mother: that there be no wickedness among you.

And ⁿ if a man lie with a beast, he shall surely be put to death: and ye shall slay the beast.

And if a woman approach unto any beast, and lie down thereto, thou shalt kill the woman and the beast: they shall surely be put to death: their blood shall be upon them.

And ^o if a man shall take his sister, his father's daughter, or his mother's daughter, and see her nakedness, and she see his nakedness; it is a wicked thing; and they shall be cut off in the sight of their people: he hath uncovered his sister's nakedness; he shall bear his iniquity.

And ^p if a man shall lie with a woman having her sickness, and shall uncover her nakedness, he shall be cut off from among their people, because he hath discovered her fountain, and he hath uncovered the fountain of her blood: and both of them shall be cut off from among their people.

And ^q thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mother's sister, nor of thy father's sister; nor he uncovereth his near kin: they shall bear their iniquity.

And if a man shall lie with his uncle's wife, he hath uncovered his uncle's nakedness: they shall bear their sin; they shall die childless.

And ^r if a man shall take his brother's wife, it is ²an unclean thing; he hath uncovered his brother's nakedness: they shall be childless.

² Ye shall therefore keep all my statutes, and all my judgments, and do them; that the land, which I bring you to dwell therein, be ye not out.

And ye shall not walk in the manners of the nations which I have brought out before you: for they committed all these things, and therefore I abhorred them.

But ^s I have said unto you, Ye shall not inherit their land, and I will give it unto you to possess it, and it shall floweth with milk and honey: I am the LORD your God, which have separated you from other people.

Ye ^t shall therefore put difference between clean beasts and unclean, and between unclean fowls

CHAPTER 21.

¹ Of the priests' mourning: ⁶ of their holiness: ⁷, ¹³ of their marriages. ¹⁶ The priests that have blemishes must not minister in the sanctuary.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, ¹ Speak unto the priests the sons of Aaron, and say unto them, There shall none be defiled for the dead among his people:

² But for his kin that is near unto him, that is, for his mother, and for his father, and for his son, and for his daughter, and for his brother, ³ And for his sister a virgin, that is nigh unto him, which hath had no husband; for her may he be defiled.

⁴ But ¹ he shall not defile himself, being a chief man among his people, to profane himself.

⁵ They ^b shall not make baldness upon their head, neither shall they shave off the corner of their beard, nor make any cuttings in their flesh.

⁶ They shall be holy unto their God, and not ^c profane the name of their God: for the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and the ^d bread of their God, they do offer: therefore they shall be holy.

⁷ They ^e shall not take a wife that is a whore, or profane; neither shall they take a woman put away from her husband: for he is holy unto his God.

⁸ Thou shalt sanctify him therefore: for he offereth the bread of thy God: he shall be holy unto thee: ⁹ for I the LORD, which sanctify you, am holy.

⁹ And ^h the daughter of any priest, if she profane herself by playing the whore, she profaneth her father: she shall be burnt with fire.

¹⁰ ¶ And ⁱ the that is the high priest among his brethren, upon whose head the anointing oil was poured, and that is consecrated to put on the garments, ^kshall not uncover his head, nor rend his clothes;

11 Neither shall he ^lgo in to any dead body, nor defile himself for his father, or for his mother;

12 Neither ^mshall he go out of the sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his God; for ⁿthe crown of the anointing oil of his God is upon him: I am the LORD.

13 And ^ohe shall take a wife in her virginity.

14 A widow, or a divorced woman, or profane, or an harlot, these shall he not take; but he shall take a virgin of his own people to wife.

15 Neither shall he profane his seed among his people: for ^pI the LORD do sanctify him.

16 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

17 Speak unto Aaron, saying, Whosoever he be of thy seed in their generations that hath any blemish, let him not ^qapproach to offer the ²bread of his God:

18 For whatsoever man he be that hath a blemish, he shall not approach; a blind man, or a lame, or he that hath a flat nose, or any thing ^rsuperfluous,

19 Or a man that is broken-footed, or broken-handed,

20 Or crook-backed, or a ³dwarf, or that hath a blemish in his eye, or be scurvy, or scabbed, or ^shath his stones broken:

21 No man that hath a blemish of the seed of Aaron the priest shall come nigh to offer the offerings of the LORD made by fire: he hath a blemish; he shall not come nigh to offer the bread of his God.

22 He shall eat the bread of his God, both of the ^tmost holy, and of the ^uholy;

23 Only he shall not go in unto the veil, nor come nigh unto the altar, because he hath a blemish; that he profane not my sanctuaries: for I the LORD do sanctify them.

24 And Moses told it unto Aaron, and to his sons, and unto all the children of Israel.

2 Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, that they ^aseparate themselves from the holy things of the children of Israel, and that they profane not my holy name in the things which they ^bhallow unto me: I am the LORD.

3 Say unto them, Whosoever be of all your seed among you, generations, that goeth unto the holy things, which the children of Israel hallow unto the LORD, hallowing ^chis uncleanness upon him, that soul shall be cut off from my presence: I am the LORD.

4 What man soever of the seed of Aaron is a leper, or hath ^da running issue, he shall not eat of the holy things, ^euntil he be clean. And whoso toucheth any thing that is unclean ^fby the dead, or a man whose seed goeth from him;

5 Or ^gwhosoever toucheth a creeping thing, whereby he may be made unclean, or ^ha man of whom he may take uncleanness, whosoever uncleanness he hath;

6 The soul which hath touched any such shall be unclean unto me, even, and shall not eat of the holy things, unless he ⁱwash his flesh with water.

7 And when the sun is down, he shall be clean, and shall afterwards eat of the holy things, because ^jit is his food.

8 That ^kwhich dieth of itself, or is torn ^lwith beasts, he shall not eat thereof, lest he defile himself therewith: I am the LORD.

9 They shall therefore keep my ordinance, ^mlest they bear sin for it, and die therefore, if they profane it: I the LORD do sanctify them.

10 There shall no ⁿstranger eat of the holy thing: a sojourner of the land, a priest, or an hired servant, shall not eat of the holy thing.

11 But if the priest buy a soul ²with his money, he shall eat of it, and he that is born in his house: they shall eat of his meat.

12 If the priest's daughter also be married unto ³a stranger, she may not eat of an offering of the holy things.

13 But if the priest's daughter be a widow, or divorced, and have no child, and ⁴is returned unto her father's house, ⁵as in her youth, she shall eat of her father's meat; but there shall no stranger eat thereof.

14 And ⁶if a man eat of the holy ing unwittingly, then he shall at the fifth part thereof unto it, and shall give it unto the priest for the holy thing.

And ⁷they shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, which they offer unto the LORD;

Or ⁸suffer them to bear the iniquity of trespass when they eat their holy things: for I the LORD sanctify them.

¶ And the LORD spake unto
Moses, saying,

Speak unto Aaron, and to his sons, and unto all the children of Israel, and say unto them, ¹Whatsoever he be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers in Israel, that will offer his oblation for all his sins, and for all his free-will offerings, which they will offer unto the LORD for a burnt offering; ²Ye shall offer at your own will a male without blemish, of the sheep, of the sheep, or of the goats.

But ³whatsoever hath a blemish, that shall ye not offer; for it shall not be acceptable for you.

And whosoever offereth a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD to ⁴accomplish his vow, or a free-will offering in beeves or sheep, it shall be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no blemish therein.

Blind, or broken, or maimed, or having a wen, or scurvy, or lamed, ye shall not offer these unto the LORD, nor make an offering by fire of them upon the altar unto the LORD.

Either a bullock or a ⁶lamb that hath anything ⁷superfluous or lacking in his parts, that mayest thou offer for a free-will offering; but for a vow it shall not be accepted.

Ye shall not offer unto the LORD that which is bruised, or crushed, or broken, or cut; neither shall ye make ⁸any offering thereof for your land.

Neither ⁹from a stranger's hand shall ye offer the bread of your vow of any of these; because their corruption is in them, and blem-

1 Of sundry feasts. 3 The sabbath. 4 The passover. 26 The day of atonement, etc.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, Concerning the feasts of the LORD, which ye shall ³proclaim to be holy convocations, even these are my feasts.

3 Six ⁴days shall work be done:
but the seventh day is the sabbath of rest, an holy convocation; ye shall do no work therein: it is the ⁵sabbath of the LORD in all your dwelling.

4 ¶ These ⁶are the feasts of the LORD, even holy convocations, which ye shall proclaim in their seasons.

5 In ⁷the fourteenth day of the first month at even is the LORD's passover.

6 And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread unto the LORD:
seven days ye must eat unleavened bread.

7 In ⁸the first day ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work therein.

8 But ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD seven days: in the seventh day is an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto
Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, ⁹ When ye be come into the land which I give unto you, and shall reap the harvest thereof, then ye shall bring a ¹sheaf of ²the first-fruits of your harvest unto the priest:

11 And he shall ¹wave the sheaf before the LORD, to be accepted for you: on the morrow after the sabbath the priest shall wave it.

12 And ye shall offer that day when ye wave the sheaf an he-lamb without blemish of the first year for a burnt offering unto the LORD.

13 And the meat offering thereof shall be two tenth deals of fine flour mingled with oil, an offering made by fire unto the LORD for a sweet savour: and the drink offering thereof shall be of wine, the fourth part of an hin.

14 And ye shall eat neither bread, nor parched corn, nor green ears, until the selfsame day that ye have brought an offering unto your God: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

15 ¶ And ye shall count unto you from the morrow after the sabbath, from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the wave offering; seven sabbaths shall be complete:

16 Even unto the morrow after the seventh sabbath shall ye number ²fifty days; and ye shall offer a new meat offering unto the LORD.

17 Ye shall bring out of your habitations two wave loaves of two tenth deals: they shall be of fine flour; they shall be baked with leaven; they are ¹the first-fruits unto the LORD.

18 And ye shall offer with the bread seven lambs without blemish of the first year, and one young bullock, and two rams: they shall be for a burnt offering unto the LORD, with their meat offering and their drink offerings, even an offering made by fire, of sweet savour unto the LORD.

19 Then ye shall sacrifice ^mone kid of the goats for a sin offering, and two lambs of the first year for a sacrifice of peace offerings.

20 And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the first-fruits, for a wave offering before the LORD, with the two lambs: ⁿthey shall be ²holy to the LORD for the priest.

28 And ye shall do no work in that same day; for it is a day of atonement, to make an atonement for you before the LORD your God.

29 For whatsoever soul it be that shall not be afflicted in that same day, ¹he shall be cut off from among his people.

30 And whatsoever soul it be that doeth any work in that same day, the same soul will I destroy from among his people.

31 Ye shall do no manner of work: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

32 It shall be unto you a sabbath of rest, and ye shall afflict your souls in the ninth day of the month, even, from even unto even, shall ye celebrate your sabbath.

33 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

34 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, ^aThe fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the feast of tabernacles for seven days unto the LORD.

35 On the first day shall be an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

3 Seven days ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD: ^aon the eighth day shall be a holy convocation unto you; and ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD: it is a ^asolemn assembly; and ye shall do no servile work therein.

7 These are the feasts of the LORD, which ye shall proclaim to the LORD, which ye shall proclaim to the LORD, to offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, a burnt offering, and a meat offering, a sacrifice, and drink offerings, every thing upon his day: 8 Beside the sabbaths of the LORD, and beside your gifts, and beside all your vows, and beside your free-will offerings, which ye shall give unto the LORD.

9 Also in the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when ye have ^agathered in the fruit of the land, ye shall keep a feast unto the LORD seven days: on the first day shall it be a sabbath, and on the eighth day shall be a sabbath.

10 And ^aye shall take you on the first day the ^bboughs of goodly trees, of palm trees, and of boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook: ^aand ye shall rejoice before the LORD your God seven days.

11 And ye shall keep it a feast unto the LORD seven days in the year. ^aIt shall be a statute for ever in your generations: ye shall celebrate it in the seventh month.

12 Ye shall dwell in booths seven days: all that are Israelites born shall dwell in booths;

13 That ^ayour generations may know that I made the children of Israel to dwell in booths, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

congregation, shall Aaron order it from the evening unto the morning before the LORD continually: ^ait shall be a statute for ever in your generations.

4 He shall order the lamps upon ^bthe pure candlestick before the LORD continually.

5 ^a And thou shalt take fine flour, and bake twelve ^ccakes thereof: two tenth deals shall be in one cake.

6 And thou shalt set them in two rows, six on a row, ^dupon the pure table before the LORD.

7 And thou shalt put pure frankincense upon ^eeach row, that it may be on the bread for a memorial, ^eeven an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

8 Every ^esabbath he shall set it in order before the LORD continually, ^ebeing taken from the children of Israel by an everlasting covenant.

9 And ^ait shall be Aaron's and his sons': and ^athey shall eat it in the holy place: for it is most holy unto him of the offerings of the LORD made by fire by a perpetual statute.

10 ^a And the son of an Israelitish woman, whose father ^awas an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel: and this son of the Israelitish ^awoman and a man of Israel strove together in the camp:

11 And the Israelitish woman's son blasphemed the name ^aof the LORD, ^aand cursed. And they brought him unto Moses: (and his mother's name ^awas Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan:)

12 And they ^aput him in ward, ^athat the mind of the LORD might be showed them.

13 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

14 Bring forth him that hath cursed without the camp: and let all that heard ^ahim lay ^atheir hands upon his head, and let all the congregation stone him.

15 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Whosoever curseth his God ^a'shall bear his sin.

16 And he that ^ablasphemeth the name of the LORD, he shall surely be put to death, ^aand all the congregation shall certainly stone him: as well the stranger, as he that is born in the land, when he blasphemeth the name of the LORD, shall be put to death.

17 And ^ahe that ³killeth any man shall surely be put to death.

18 And he that killeth a beast shall make it good; ⁴beast for beast.

19 And if a man cause a blemish in his neighbour; as ⁵he hath done, so shall it be done to him;

20 Breach for breach, eye for eye, tooth for tooth: as he hath caused a blemish in a man, so shall it be done to him again.

21 And ⁶he that killeth a beast, he shall restore it: and he that killeth a man, he shall be put to death.

22 Ye shall have ⁷one manner of law, as well for the stranger, as for one of your own country: for I am the LORD your God.

23 ¶ And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, that they should bring forth him that had cursed out of the camp, and stone him with stones. And the children of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 25.

1 Sabbath of the seventh year. 8 The jubilee. 14 Of oppression. 18 A blessing of obedience. 35 Of compassion: 47 of redeeming servants.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses in mount Sinai, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land which I give you, then shall the land ¹keep a ²sabbath unto the LORD.

3 Six years thou shalt sow thy field, and six years thou shalt prune thy vineyard, and gather in the fruit thereof;

4 But in the seventh year shall be a sabbath of rest unto the land, a sabbath for the LORD: thou shalt neither sow thy field, nor prune thy vineyard.

5 That ³which groweth of its own accord of thy harvest thou shalt not reap, neither gather the grapes ²of thy vine undressed: for it is a year of rest unto the land.

6 And the sabbath of the land shall be meat for you; for thee, and for thy servant, and for thy maid, and for thy hired servant, and for thy stranger that sojourneth with thee,

7 And for thy cattle, and for the beast that are in thy land, shall all the increase thereof be meat.

8 ¶ And thou shalt number seven sabbaths of years unto thee, seven times seven years; and the space of the seven sabbaths of years shall be unto thee forty and nine years.

9 Then shalt thou cause the trumpet ³of the jubilee to sound on the tenth day of the seventh month in ⁴the day of atonement shall ye make the trumpet sound throughout all your land.

10 And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and ⁵proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a jubilee unto you; and ⁶ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family.

11 A jubilee shall that fiftieth year be unto you: ye shall not sow, neither reap that which groweth of itself in it, nor gather the grapes of it of thy vine undressed.

12 For it is the jubilee; it shall be holy unto you: ye shall eat the increase thereof out of the field.

13 In ⁷the year of this jubilee ye shall return every man unto his possession.

14 And if thou sell ought unto thy neighbour, or buyest ought of the neighbour's hand, ye ⁸shall not oppress one another:

15 According to the number of years after the jubilee thou shalt buy of thy neighbour, and according unto the number of years of the fruits he shall sell unto thee:

16 According to the multitude of years thou shalt increase the price thereof, and according to the fewness of years thou shalt diminish the price of it: for according to the number of the years of the fruit doth he sell unto thee.

17 Ye ⁹shall not therefore oppress one another; but thou shalt fear thy God: for I am the LORD your God.

18 ¶ Wherefore ye shall do my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them; ¹⁰and ye shall dwell in the land in safety.

19 And the land shall yield her fruit, and ye shall eat your fill, and dwell therein in safety.

20 And if ye shall say, ¹¹What shall we eat the seventh year? behold we shall not sow, nor gather in our increase:

21 Then I will ¹²command my essing upon you in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth fruit for three years.

2 And ¹ye shall sow the eighth year, and eat ²yet of ³old fruit until the ninth year; until her fruits come in ye shall eat ⁴of the old store.

3 ¶ The land shall not be sold ⁴for ever: for ⁵"the land is mine; for ye ⁶are ⁷strangers and sojourners with me.

4 And in all the land of your possession ye shall grant a redemption for the land.

5 ¶ If ¹thy brother be waxen poor, and hath sold away ²some of his possession, and if ³any of his kin come to redeem it, then shall he redeem it at which his brother sold.

6 And if the man have none to redeem it, and ⁵himself be able to deem it;

7 Then let him count the years of the sale thereof, and restore the surplus unto the man to whom he sold it, that he may return unto his possession.

8 But if he be not able to restore to him, then that which is sold shall remain in the hand of him that hath bought it until the year of jubilee: and in the jubilee it shall go out, and he shall return unto his possession.

9 And if a man sell a dwelling house in a walled city, then he may deem it within a whole year after it is sold; ¹¹within a full year may he deem it.

10 And if it be not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall be established for ever to him that bought it, throughout his generations: it shall not go out in the jubilee.

11 But the houses of the villages which have no wall round about them shall be counted as the fields of the country: ⁶they may be redeemed, and they shall go out in the jubilee.

12 Notwithstanding ⁷the cities of the Levites, and the houses of the Levites of their possession, may the Levites redeem at any time.

13 And if ⁷a man purchase of the Levites, then the house that was sold, and the city of his possession, shall go out in the year of jubilee: for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Israel.

37 Thou shalt not give him thy money upon usury, nor lend him thy victuals for increase.

38 I am the LORD your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, and to be your God.

39 ¶ And ¹if thy brother that dwelleth by thee be waxen poor, and be sold unto thee; thou shalt not ¹⁰compel him to serve as a bond-servant:

40 But as an hired servant, and as a sojourner, he shall be with thee, and shall serve thee unto the year of jubilee:

41 And then shall he depart from thee, both he and his children with him, and shall return unto his own family, and unto the possession of his fathers shall he return.

42 For they are ¹¹my servants, which I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: they shall not be sold ¹²as bond-men.

43 Thou ¹³shalt not rule over him with rigour, but ¹⁴shalt fear thy God.

44 Both thy bond-men, and thy bond-maids, which thou shalt have, shall be of the heathen that are round about you; of them shall ye buy bond-men and bond-maids.

45 Moreover of the children of the strangers that do sojourn among you, of them shall ye buy, and of their families that are with you, which they begat in your land: and they shall be your possession.

46 And ye shall take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit them for a possession; ¹²they shall be your bond-men for ever: but over your brethren the children of Israel ye shall not rule one over another with rigour.

47 ¶ And if a sojourner or stranger wax rich by thee, and thy brother that dwelleth by him wax poor, and sell himself unto the stranger or sojourner by thee, or to the stock of the stranger's family:

48 After that he is sold he may be redeemed again; one of his brethren may redeem him:

49 Either his uncle, or his uncle's son, may redeem him, or any that is nigh of kin unto him of his family may redeem him; or, if he be able, he may redeem himself.

50 And he shall reckon with him that bought him from the year that he was sold to him unto the year of jubilee: and the price of his sale shall be according unto the number of years, according to the time of an hired servant shall it be with him.

51 If there be yet many years be- hind, according unto them he shall give again the price of his redemption out of the money that he was bought for.

52 And if there remain but few years unto the year of jubilee, then he shall count with him, and according unto his years shall he give him again the price of his redemption.

53 And as a yearly hired servant shall he be with him: and the other shall not rule with rigour over him in thy sight.

54 And if he be not redeemed ¹⁴in these years, then he shall go out in the year of jubilee, both he, and his children with him.

THE FOURTH BOOK OF MOSES, CALLED NUMBERS.

CHAPTER 1.

⁷ The men of war numbered. ⁴⁷ The Levites exempted for the tabernacle service.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying, in the tabernacle of the congregation, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

Take ^cye the sum of all the congregation of the children of Israel, by their families, by the house of their fathers, with the number of their names, every male by their heads;

From twenty years old and upward, all that are able to go forth to war in Israel: thou and Aaron shall ¹number them by their families.

And with you there shall be ^da man of every tribe; every one head of the house of his fathers.

¶ And these are the names of 13 Of Asher; Pagiel the son of Ocran.

14 Of Gad; Eliasaph the son of ⁹Deuel.

15 Of Naphtali; Ahira the son of Enan.

16 These ^hwere the renowned of the congregation, princes of the tribes of their fathers, heads ^{of} of thousands in Israel.

17 ¶ And Moses and Aaron took these men which are expressed by their names :

18 And they assembled all the congregation together on the first day of the second month, and they declared their ^jpedigrees after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, by their polls.

19 As ^kthe LORD commanded Moses, so he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai.

20 ¶ And the children of Reuben, Israel's eldest son, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, by their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war ;

21 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Reuben, were forty and six thousand and five hundred.

22 ¶ Of the children of Simeon, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, those that were numbered of them, according to the number of the names, by their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all that were ^lable to go forth to war ;

23 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Simeon, were fifty and nine thousand and three hundred.

24 ¶ Of the children of ^mGad, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war ;

25 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Gad, were forty and five thousand six hundred and fifty.

26 ¶ Of the ⁿchildren of Judah, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war ;

27 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Judah, were threescore and fourteen thousand and six hundred.

So were all those that were numbered of the children of Israel, by the house of their fathers, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war in Israel;

Even all they that were numbered, were six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty.

¶ But the Levites after the tribe of their fathers were not numbered among them.

For the LORD had spoken unto Moses, saying,

Only thou shalt not number the tribe of Levi, neither take the sum of them among the children of Israel:

But thou shalt appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of testimony, and over all the vessels hereof, and over all things that belong to it: they shall bear the tabernacle, and all the vessels hereof; and they shall minister unto it, and shall encamp round about the tabernacle.

CHAPTER 2.

The order of the tribes in their tents, etc.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

Every a man of the children of Israel shall *b*pitch by his own standard, with the ensign of their father's house: far off about the tabernacle of the congregation shall they pitch.

¶ And on the east side toward the rising of the sun shall they of the standard of the camp of Judah pitch, throughout their armies: and Nahshon the son of Amminadab shall be captain of the children of Judah.

And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were threescore and fourteen thousand and six hundred.

And those that do pitch next unto him shall be the tribe of Issachar: and Nethaneel the son of Zuar shall be captain of the children of Issachar.

And his host, and those that were numbered thereof, were fifty and four thousand and four hundred.

Then the tribe of Zebulun: and Eliab the son of Helon shall be captain of the children of Zebulun.

And his host, and those that were numbered thereof, were fifty and seven thousand and four hundred.

All that were numbered in the camp of Judah were an hundred thousand and fourscore thousand and six thousand and four hundred, throughout their armies. These shall first set forth.

¶ On the south side shall be the standard of the camp of Reuben according to their armies: and the captain of the children of Reuben shall be Elizur the son of Shedeur.

11 And his host, and those that were numbered thereof, were forty and six thousand and five hundred.

12 And those which pitch by him shall be the tribe of Simeon: and the captain of the children of Simeon shall be Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

15 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were forty and five thousand and six hundred and fifty.

16 All that were numbered in the camp of Reuben were an hundred thousand and fifty and one thousand and four hundred and fifty, throughout their armies. ¹And they shall set forth in the second rank.

17 ¶ Then ¹the tabernacle of the congregation shall set forward with the camp of the Levites in the midst of the camp: as they encamp, so shall they set forward, every ^kman in his place by their standards.

18 ¶ On the west side shall be the standard of the camp of ¹Ephraim according to their armies: and the captain of the sons of Ephraim shall be Elishama the son of Ammihud.

19 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were forty thousand and five hundred.

20 And by him shall be the tribe of Manasseh: and the captain of the children of Manasseh shall be Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

21 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were thirty and two thousand and two hundred.

22 Then the tribe of ^mBenjamin: and the captain of the sons of Benjamin shall be Abidan the son of ³Gideoni.

23 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were thirty and five thousand and four hundred.

24 All that were numbered of the camp of Ephraim were an hundred thousand and eight thousand and an hundred, throughout their armies. And ⁿthey shall go forward in the third rank.

CHAPTER 3.

1 The Levites' service. 40 The first-born freed by the Levites. 44 The over-plus redeemed.

THESE also are the generations of Aaron and Moses, in the day that the LORD spake with Moses in mount Sinai.

2 And these are the names of the sons of Aaron; Nadab the ^afirst-born, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

3 These are the names of the sons of Aaron, ^bthe priests which were anointed, ¹whom he consecrated to minister in the priest's office.

4 And ^cNadab and Abihu died before the LORD, when they offered strange fire before the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai, and they had no children: and Eleazar and Ithamar ministered in the priest's office in the sight of Aaron their father.

5 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

6 Bring ^dthe tribe of Levi near, and present them before Aaron the priest, that they may minister unto him.

7 And they shall keep his charge, and the charge of the whole congregation before the tabernacle of the congregation, to do the ^eservice of the tabernacle.

8 And they shall keep all the instruments of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the children of Israel, to do the service of the tabernacle.

9 And thou shalt give the Levites unto Aaron and to his sons: they are wholly given unto him out of the children of Israel.

10 And thou shalt appoint Aaron and his sons, ^gand they shall wait on their priest's office: ^hand the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

11 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

12 And I, behold, ⁱI have taken the Levites from among the children of Israel instead of all the first-born that openeth the matrix among the children of Israel: therefore the Levites shall be mine;

13 Because ^jall the first-born are mine: ^kfor on the day that I smote all the first-born in the land of Egypt I hallowed unto me all the first-born in Israel, both man and beast; mine they shall be: I am the LORD.

14 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of ^lSinai, saying, 15 Number the children of Levi after the house of their fathers, by their families: every ^mmale from a month old and upward shalt thou number them.

16 And Moses numbered them, according to the ⁿword of the LORD, as he was commanded.

23 The ^zfamilies of the Gershonites shall pitch behind the tabernacle westward.

24 And the chief of the house of the father of the Gershonites shall be Eliasaph the son of Lael.

25 And ^athe charge of the sons of Gershon in the tabernacle of the congregation shall be ^rthe tabernacle, and ^sthe tent, ^tthe covering thereof, and ^uthe hanging for the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, 26 And ^vthe hangings of the court, and the ^wcurtain for the door of the court, which is by the tabernacle, and by the altar round about, and ^xthe cords of it, for all the service thereof.

27 ¶ And ^yof Kohath was the family of the Amramites, and the family of the Izharites, and the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites: these are the families of the Kohathites.

28 In the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, were eight thousand and six hundred, keeping the charge of the sanctuary.

29 The ^zfamilies of the sons of Kohath shall pitch on the side of the tabernacle southward.

30 And the chief of the house of the father of the families of the Kohathites shall be Elizaphan the son of Uzziel.

31 And ^atheir charge shall be ^bthe ark, and ^cthe table, and ^dthe candlestick, and the ^ealtars, and the vessels of the sanctuary wherewith they minister, and ^fthe hanging, and all the service thereof.

32 And Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest shall be ^ochief over the chief of the Levites, and have the oversight of them that keep the charge of the sanctuary.

33 ¶ Of Merari was the family of the Mahlites, and the family of the Mushites: these are the families of Merari.

34 And those that were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, were six thousand and two hundred.

35 And the chief of the house of the father of the families of Merari was Zuriel the son of Abihael: ^h*these* shall pitch on the side of the tabernacle northward.

36 And ³*under* the custody and charge of the sons of Merari shall be the boards of the tabernacle, and the bars thereof, and the pillars thereof, and the sockets thereof, and all the vessels thereof, and all that serveth thereto, 37 And the pillars of the court round about, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords.

38 ¶ But ⁱthose that encamp before the tabernacle toward the east, even before the tabernacle of the congregation eastward, shall be Moses, and Aaron and his sons, keeping ^jthe charge of the sanctuary ^kfor the charge of the children of Israel; and the ^lstranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

39 All ^mthat were numbered of the Levites, which Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of the LORD, throughout their families, all the males, from a month old and upward, were twenty and two thousand.

40 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Number ⁿall the first-born of the males of the children of Israel from a month old and upward, and take the number of their names.

41 And ^othou shalt take the Levites for me (I am the LORD) instead of all the first-born among the children of Israel; and the cattle of the Levites instead of all the firstlings among the cattle of the children of Israel.

42 And Moses numbered, as the LORD commanded him, all the first-born among the children of Israel.

19 And the priest shall take the ^esodden shoulder of the ram, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and ^p shall put them upon the hands of the Nazarite, after the hair of his separation is shaven :

20 And the priest shall ^q wave them or a wave offering before the LORD : this is holy for the priest, with the wave breast and heave shoulder : and ^r after that the Nazarite may drink wine.

21 This is the law of the Nazarite who hath vowed, and of his offering unto the LORD for his separation, besides that that his hand shall get : according to the vow which he vowed, so he must do after the law of his separation.

22 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

23 Speak unto Aaron, and unto his sons, saying, On this wise ^s ye shall bless the children of Israel, saying unto them,

24 The LORD ^t bless thee, and ^u keep thee ;

25 The LORD ^v make his face shine upon thee, and ^w be gracious unto thee ;

26 The ^x LORD lift up his countenance upon thee, and ^y give thee peace.

27 And ^z they shall put my name upon the children of Israel ; and ^a I will bless them.

CHAPTER 7.

1, 10 The princes' offerings. 89 God speaketh to Moses from the mercyseat.

AND it came to pass on the day that Moses had fully set up the tabernacle, and had anointed it, and sanctified it, and all the instruments thereof, both the altar and all the vessels thereof, and had anointed them, and ^a sanctified them,

2 That the princes of Israel, heads of the house of their fathers, who were the princes of the tribes, ^b and were over them that were numbered, ^c offered :

3 And they brought their offering before the LORD, six covered wagons, and twelve oxen ; a wagon for two of the princes, and for each one an ox : and they brought them before the tabernacle.

4 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

5 Take it of them, that they may be to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation ; and thou shalt give them unto the Levites, to every man according to his service.

6 And Moses took the wagons

7 Two wagons and four oxen he gave unto the sons of Gershon, according to their service :

8 And four wagons and eight oxen he gave unto the sons of Merari, according unto their service, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

9 But unto the sons of Kohath he gave none ; because the service of the sanctuary belonging unto them ^c was that they should bear upon their shoulders.

10 ¶ And the princes offered for ^d dedicating of the altar in the day that it was anointed, even the princes offered their offering before the altar.

11 And the LORD said unto Moses, They shall ^e offer their offering, each prince on his day, for the dedicating of the altar.

12 ¶ And he that offered his offering the first day was Nahshon the son of Amminadab, of the tribe of Judah :

13 And his offering was one silver charger, the ^f weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after ^g the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them were full of fine flour mingled with oil, for a meat offering :

22 One kid of the goats for a sin offering:

23 And for a sacrifice of ¹peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Nethaneel the son of Zuar.

24 ¶ On the third day Eliab the son of Helon, prince of the children of Zebulun, did offer:

25 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil, for a meat offering:

26 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

27 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb ^m of the first year, for a burnt offering:

28 One kid of the goats for a sin offering:

29 And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Eliab the son of Helon.

30 ¶ On the fourth day Elizur the son of Shedeur, prince of the children of Reuben, did offer:

31 His offering was one silver charger of the weight of an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil, for a meat offering:

32 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

15 ¶ And on the day that the tabernacle was reared up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, namely, the tent of the testimony: and ^oat even there was upon the tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire, until the morning.

16 So it was alway: the ^pcloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.

17 And when the cloud ^qwas taken up from the tabernacle, then after that the children of Israel journeyed: and in the place where the cloud abode, there the children of Israel pitched their tents.

18 At the commandment of the LORD the children of Israel journeyed, and at the commandment of the LORD they pitched: as ^rlong as the cloud abode upon the tabernacle they rested in their tents.

19 And when the cloud ^starried long upon the tabernacle many days, then the children of Israel kept the charge of the LORD, and journeyed not.

20 And so it was, when the cloud was a few days upon the tabernacle; according to the commandment of the LORD they abode in their tents, and according to the commandment of the LORD they ^sjourneyed.

21 And so it was, when the cloud ^sabode from even unto the morning, and that the cloud ^twas taken up in the morning, then they journeyed: whether it was by day or by night that the cloud was taken up, they journeyed.

22 Or whether it were two days, or a month, or a year, that the cloud tarried upon the tabernacle, remaining thereon, the children of Israel ^uabode in their tents, and journeyed not: but when it was taken up, they journeyed.

23 At the commandment of the LORD they rested in their tents, and ^vat the commandment of the LORD they journeyed: they kept the charge of the LORD, at the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

1 The use of the silver trumpets. 11 The Israelites go from Sinai to Paran. 33 Moses' blessing.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Make thee two trumpets of silver; of a whole piece shalt thou make them: that thou mayest use them for the ^acalling of the assembly, and for the journeying of the camps.

3 And when ^bthey shall blow with them, all ^cthe assembly shall assemble themselves to thee at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And if they blow but with one trumpet, then the princes, which are ^dheads of the thousands of Israel, shall gather themselves unto thee.

5 When ye blow an alarm, then ^ethe camps that lie on the east parts shall go forward.

11 ¶ And it came to pass on the twentieth day of the second month in the second year, that the cloud ^zwas taken up from off the tabernacle of the testimony.

12 And the children of Israel took ^atheir journeys out of the ^bwilderness of Sinai; and the cloud rested in the ^cwilderness of Paran.

13 And they first took their journey ^daccording to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

14 ¶ In the first place went the standard of the camp of the children of Judah according to their armies: and over his host was Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

15 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Issachar was Nethaneel the son of Zuar.

16 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Zebulun was Eliab the son of Helon.

17 And ^ethe tabernacle was taken down; and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari set forward, ^fbearing the tabernacle.

18 And the standard of the camp of Reuben set forward according to their armies: and over his host was Elizur the son of Shedeur.

19 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

20 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Gad was Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

21 And the Kohathites set forward, bearing the ^asanctuary: and the other did set up the tabernacle against they came.

22 And the standard of the camp of the children of Ephraim set forward according to their armies: and over his host was Elishama the son of Ammihud.

23 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Manasseh was Samiuel the son of Pedahzur.

24 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Benjamin was Abidan the son of Gideon.

25 And ^athe standard of the camp of the children of Dan set forward, which was the rereward of all the camps throughout their hosts: and over his host was Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

26 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Asher was Pagiel the son of Ocran.

27 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Naphtali was Ahira the son of Enan.

28 ^aThus were the journeyings of the children of Israel according to their armies, when they set forward.

29 ^aAnd Moses said unto Hobab, the son of ^bRaguel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law. We are journeying unto the place of which the LORD said, ^c"I will give it you: come thou with us, and ^dwe will do thee good; for ^ethe LORD hath spoken good concerning Israel.

30 And he said unto him, I will not go; but I will depart to mine own land, and to my kindred.

31 And he said, Leave us not, I pray thee; forasmuch as thou knowest how we are to encamp in the wilderness, and thou mayest be to us ^ainstead of eyes.

32 And it shall be, if thou go with us, yea, it shall be, that what goodness the LORD shall do unto us, the same will we do unto thee.

33 ^aAnd they departed from ^athe mount of the LORD three days' journey: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD ^bwent before them in the three days' journey, to search out a resting place for them.

34 And ^athe cloud of the LORD was upon them by day, when they went out of the camp.

CHAPTER 11.

⁴ Manna loathed. 16 Seventy elders appointed. 31 Quails are given in wrath, etc.

AND ^awhen the people ¹complained, ²it displeased the LORD: and the LORD heard it; and his anger was kindled; and the ^bfire of the LORD burnt among them, and consumed them that were in the uttermost parts of the camp.

2 And the people cried unto Moses; and when Moses ^cprayed unto the LORD, the fire ³was quenched.

3 And he called the name of the place ^dTaberah: because the fire of the LORD burnt among them.

4 ^eAnd the ^dmixed multitude that was among them ⁵fell a lusting: and the children of Israel also ⁶wept again, and said, Who ^cshall give us flesh to eat?

5 We ^fremember the fish which we did eat in Egypt freely; the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlick:

6 But now our soul is dried away: there is nothing at all, besides this manna, before our eyes.

7 And the manna was as coriander seed, and the ⁷colour thereof as the colour ^gof bdellium.

8 And the people went about, and gathered it, and ground it in mills, or beat it in a mortar, and baked it in pans, and made cakes of it: and the taste of it was as the taste of fresh oil.

9 And when the dew fell upon the camp in the night, the manna fell upon it.

10 ^aThen Moses heard the people weep throughout their families, every man in the door of his tent: and the anger of the LORD was kindled greatly; Moses also was displeased.

11 And ^bMoses said unto the LORD, Wherefore hast thou afflicted thy servant? and wherefore have I not found favour in thy sight, that thou layest the burden of all this people upon me?

12 Have I conceived all this people? have I begotten them, that thou shouldest say unto me, 'Carry them in thy bosom, as a nursing father beareth the sucking child, unto the land which thou ^kswarest unto their fathers?

13 Whence ^lshould I have flesh to give unto all this people? for they weep unto me, saying, Give us flesh, that we may eat.

14 I ^mam not able to bear all this people alone, because it is too heavy for me.

15 And if thou deal thus with me, "kill me, I pray thee, out of hand, if I have found favour in thy sight; and let me not see ^omy wretchedness.

16 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Gather unto me ^pseventy men of the elders of Israel, whom thou knowest to be the elders of the people, and officers over them; and bring them unto the tabernacle of the congregation, that they may stand there with thee.

17 And I will ^qcome down and talk with thee there: and "I will take of the spirit which is upon thee, and will put it upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with thee, that thou bear it not thyself alone.

18 And say thou unto the people, "Sanctify yourselves against tomorrow, and ye shall eat flesh: for ye have wept ^tin the ears of the LORD, saying, Who shall give us flesh to eat? for ^v*it was* well with us in Egypt: therefore the LORD will give you flesh, and ye shall eat.

19 Ye shall not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, neither ten days, nor twenty days;

20 But even a ^swhole month, until it come out at your nostrils, and it be loathsome unto you: because that ye have despised the LORD which is among you, and have wept before him, saying, Why came we forth out of Egypt?

21 And Moses said, The people, among whom I am, are six hundred thousand footmen; and thou hast said, I will give them flesh, that they may eat a whole month.

22 Shall "the flocks and the herds be slain for them, to suffice them? or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to suffice them?

23 And the LORD said unto Moses, "Is the LORD's hand waxed short?

thou shalt see now whether ^amy word shall come to pass unto thee or not.

24 ¶ And Moses went out, and told the people the words of the LORD, and gathered the seventy men of the elders of the people, and set them round about the tabernacle.

25 And the LORD ^ycame down in a cloud, and spake unto him, and took of the spirit that was upon him, and gave it unto the seventy elders: and it came to pass, ^z*that* when the spirit rested upon them, "they prophesied, and did not cease.

26 But there remained two of the men in the camp, the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad: and the spirit rested upon them; and they were of them that were written, but ^bwent not out unto the tabernacle: and they prophesied in the camp.

27 And there ran a young man, and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad do prophesy in the camp.

28 And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Moses, one of his young men, answered and said, My lord Moses, ^cforbid them.

29 And Moses said unto him, Enviest thou for my sake? ^dWould God that all the LORD's people were prophets, and that the LORD would put his Spirit upon them!

30 And Moses gat him into the camp, he and the elders of Israel.

31 ¶ And there went forth a ^ewind from the LORD, and brought quails from the sea, and let them fall by the camp, as it were ^ga day's journey on this side, and as it were a day's journey on the other side, round about the camp, and as it were two cubits high upon the face of the earth.

32 And the people stood up all ^fthat day, and all that night, and all the next day, and they gathered the quails: he that gathered least gathered ten ^hhomers: and they spread them all abroad for themselves round about the camp.

33 And ^hwhile the flesh was yet between their teeth, ere it was chewed, the wrath of the LORD was kindled against the people; and the LORD smote the people with a very great plague.

4 And he called the name of that place ¹⁰Kibroth-hattaavah: because there they buried the people that lusted.

5 And ^hthe people journeyed from Kibroth-hattaavah unto Hazeroth; and ¹¹abode at Hazeroth.

CHAPTER 12.

Miriam's and Aaron's sedition. 10 Her leprosy; Moses prayeth for her. 14 She is shut out of the camp seven days.

AND Miriam and Aaron spake ¹against Moses because of the Ethiopian woman whom he had married: for ^ahe had ²married an Ethiopian woman.

2 And they said, Hath the LORD deed spoken only by Moses? hath he not spoken also by us? and the LORD ^cheard it.

3 (Now the man Moses was ^dvery meek, above all the men which were upon the face of the earth.)

4 And ^ethe LORD spake suddenly unto Moses, and unto Aaron, and unto Miriam, Come out ye three unto the tabernacle of the congregation. And they three came out.

5 And ^fthe LORD came down in the pillar of the cloud, and stood ^gin the door of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam: and they both came forth.

6 And he said, Hear now my words: If there be a prophet among you, I the LORD will make myself known unto him ^hin a vision, and will speak unto him ⁱin a dream.

7 My ^jservant Moses is not so, who is faithful in all mine house.

8 With him will I speak ^kmouth to mouth, even ^lapparently, and not in dark speeches; and ^mthe similitude of the LORD shall he behold: therefore then ⁿwere ye not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?

9 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against them; and he departed.

10 And the cloud departed from off the tabernacle; and ^obehold, Miriam became ^pleprous, white as snow: and Aaron looked upon Miriam, and, behold, she was leprous.

11 And Aaron said unto Moses, alas! my lord, I beseech thee, ^qlay not the sin upon us, wherein we have done foolishly, and wherein we have sinned.

CHAPTER 13.

¹ The names of the men who were sent to search the land: ¹⁷ their instructions: ²¹ their acts: ²⁶ and their relation.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Send ^athou men, that they may search the land of Canaan, which I give unto the children of Israel: of every tribe of their fathers shall ye send a man, every one a ruler among them.

3 And Moses by the commandment of the LORD sent them from the wilderness of Paran: all those men were heads of the children of Israel.

4 And these were their names: of the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur.

5 Of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori.

6 Of ^bthe tribe of Judah, ^cCaleb the son of Jephunneh.

7 Of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph.

8 Of the tribe of Ephraim, Oshea the son of Nun.

9 Of the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu.

10 Of the tribe of Zebulun, Gad-diel the son of Sodi.

11 Of the tribe of Joseph, namely, of the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the son of Susi.

12 Of the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli.

13 Of the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael.

14 Of the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi.

15 Of the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi.

16 These are the names of the men which Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses called ^dOshea the son of Nun, ^eJehoshua.

17 ¶ And Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said unto them, Get you up this way southward, and go up into ^g the mountain;

18 And see the land, what it is; and the people that dwelleth therein, whether they be strong or weak, few or many;

19 And what the land is that they dwell in, whether it be good or bad; and what cities they be that they dwell in, whether in tents, or in strong holds;

20 And what the land is, whether it be fat ^h or lean, whether there be wood therein, or not: and ⁱ be ye of good courage, and bring of the fruit of the land. Now the time was the time of the first-ripe grapes.

21 So they went up, and searched ^j the land from the wilderness of Zin unto ^k Rehob, as men come to Hamath.

22 And they ascended by the south, and came unto Hebron; where ^l Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmi, the children of Anak, were. (Now ^m Hebron was built seven years ⁿ before Zoan in Egypt.)

23 And ^o they came unto the ¹ brook of Eshcol, and cut down from thence a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bare it between two upon a staff; and they brought of the pomegranates, and of the figs.

24 The place was called the ² brook ³ Eshcol, because of the cluster of grapes which the children of Israel cut down from thence.

25 And they returned from searching of the land after forty days.

26 ¶ And they went and came to Moses, and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh; and brought back word unto them, and unto all the congregation, and showed them the fruit of the land.

27 And they told him, and said, We came unto the land whither thou sentest us, and surely it floweth with ^p milk and honey; and ^q this is the fruit of it.

28 Nevertheless ^r the people be strong that dwell in the land, and the cities are walled, and very great: and moreover we saw the children of Anak there.

1 The people murmur at the spies' report. 11 God threateneth them. 13 Moses intercedeth with God, and obtaineth pardon.

AND all the congregation lifted up their voice, and cried; and all the people wept that night.

2 And ^a all the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said unto them, Would God ^b that we had died in the land of Egypt! or would God we had died in this wilderness!

3 And wherefore hath the Lord brought us unto this land, to fall by the sword, that our wives and our children should be a prey? Were it not better for us to return into Egypt?

4 And they said one to another, Let us make a captain, and let us return into Egypt.

5 Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Israel.

6 And Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, which were of them that searched the land, rent their clothes:

7 And they spake unto all the company of the children of Israel saying, The land, which we passed through to search it, is an exceeding good land.

21 But as truly as I live, ^a all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD.
22 Because ^b all those men which have seen my glory, and my miracles which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, have tempted me now ^c these ten times, and have not hearkened to my voice;
23 ^d Surely ^e they shall not see the land which I sware unto their fathers, neither shall any of them that provoked me see it:
24 But my servant Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, and hath followed me fully, him will I bring into the land whereunto he went; and ^f his seed shall possess it.
25 (Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites dwelt in the valley.)
To-morrow turn you, and get you into the wilderness by the way of the Red sea.
26 ¶ And the LORD spake unto
Moses and unto Aaron, saying,
27 How ^g long shall I bear with this evil congregation, which murmur against me? I ^h have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmur against me.
28 Say unto them, ⁱ As truly as I live, saith the LORD, as ye have spoken in mine ears, so will I do to you:
29 Your carcases shall fall in this wilderness; and ^j all that were numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, which have murmured against me,
30 Doubtless ye shall not come into the land ^k concerning which I ^l sware to make you dwell therein,
^m save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.
31 But your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, them will I bring in, and they shall know the land which ⁿ ye have despised.
32 But as for you, ^o your carcases, they shall fall in this wilderness.
33 And your children shall ^p wander ^q in the wilderness ^r forty years, and bear your whoredoms, until your carcases be wasted in the wilderness.
34 After ^s the number of the days in which ye searched the land, ^t even ^u forty days, each day for a year, shall ye bear your iniquities, ^v even forty years; ^w and ye shall know my ^x breach of promise.

35 I ^m the LORD have said, I will surely do it unto all this evil congregation, that are gathered together against me: in this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die.

36 And ⁿ the men which Moses sent to search the land, who returned, and made all the congregation to murmur against him, by bringing up a slander upon the land, 37 Even those men that did bring up the evil report upon the land, ^o died by the plague before the LORD.

38 But ^p Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, which were of the men that went to search the land, lived still.

39 And Moses told these sayings unto all the children of Israel: ^q and the people mourned greatly.

40 And they rose up early in the morning, and gat them up into the top of the mountain, saying, Lo, ^r we be here, and will go up unto the place which the LORD hath promised: for we have sinned.

41 And Moses said, Wherefore now do ye transgress ^s the commandment of ^t the LORD? but it shall not prosper.

42 Go ^u not up, for the LORD is not among you; that ye be not smitten before your enemies.

43 For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and ye shall fall by the sword: ^v because ye are turned away from the LORD, therefore the LORD will not be with you.

44 But ^w they presumed to go up unto the hill-top: nevertheless the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and Moses, departed not out of the camp.

45 Then the Amalekites came down, and the Canaanites which dwelt in that hill, and smote them, and discomfited them, even ^x unto Hormah.

1 The rebellion of Korah. 31 The earth cleaveth asunder. 46 Aaron stayeth the plague.

NOW Korah, the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, and Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab, and On the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, took men :

2 And they rose up before Moses, with certain of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty princes of the assembly, famous^b in the congregation, men of renown :

3 And ^cthey gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said unto them, ¹Ye take too much upon you, seeing ^dall the congregation are holy, every one of them, ^eand the LORD is among them : wherefore then lift ye up yourselves above the congregation of the LORD ?

7 And put fire therein, and put incense in them before the LORD to-morrow : and it shall be that the man whom the LORD doth choose, he shall be holy : ye take too much upon you, ye sons of Levi.

8 And Moses said unto Korah, Hear, I pray you, ye sons of Levi :

us into a ^aland that floweth with milk and honey, or given us inheritance of fields and vineyards : w^bthou ²put out the eyes of the men ? we will not come up.

15 And Moses was very wroth, and said unto the LORD, ³Respect not thou ⁴their offering : I have taken one ass from them, neither have I hurt one of them.

16 And Moses said unto Korah, thou and all thy company before the LORD, thou, and they, and Aaron, to-morrow :

17 And take every man his censor, and put incense in them, and bring ye before the LORD every man his censor, two hundred and fifty censers ; thou also, and Aaron, each ⁵you his censor.

18 And they took every man his censor, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stood in the door of the tabernacle of the congregation with Moses and Aaron.

19 And Korah gathered all the congregation against them in the door of the tabernacle of the congregation : and ⁶the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the congregation.

20 And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

21 Separate ⁷yourselves from among this congregation, that they may ⁸consume them in a moment.

22 And they fell upon their faces, and said, O God, ⁹the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall ¹⁰one man sin, and wilt thou be wroth with all the congregation ?

23 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

24 Speak unto the congregation, saying, Get you up from about the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.

25 And Moses rose up, and went unto Dathan and Abiram ; and the elders of Israel followed him.

26 And he spake unto the congregation, saying, ¹¹Depart, I pray you from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest ye be consumed in all their sins.

27 So they gat up from the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, on every side : and Dathan and Abiram came out, and stood ¹²in the door of their tents, and the wives, and their sons, and the little children.

8 And Moses said, ¹Hereby ye shall know that the LORD hath sent me to do all these works; for have not done them ²of mine own mind;

9 If these men die ³the common death of all men, or if they be visited after the visitation of all men; then the LORD hath not sent me:

10 But if the LORD ⁴make ⁵a new thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up, with all that appertain unto them, and they ⁶go down quick into the pit; then ye shall understand that these men have provoked the LORD.

11 ¶ And ⁷it came to pass, as he had made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground clave under that was under them:

12 And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all ⁸the men that appertained unto Korah, and all their goods.

13 They, and all that appertained to them, went down alive into the pit, and the earth closed upon them: and they perished from among the congregation.

14 And all Israel that were round about them fled at the cry of them: for they said, Lest the earth swallow us up also.

15 And there came out a fire from the LORD, and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that offered incense.

16 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

17 Speak unto Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, that he take up the censers out of the burning, and utter thou the fire yonder; for they are hallowed.

18 The censers of these ⁹sinners against their own souls, let them make them broad plates for a covering of the altar; for they offered them before the LORD, therefore they are hallowed: ¹⁰and they shall be a sign unto the children of Israel.

19 And Eleazar the priest took the brasen censers, wherewith they had been burnt had offered; and they were made broad plates for a covering of the altar:

the LORD; that he be not as Korah, and as his company: as the LORD said to him by the hand of Moses.

41 ¶ But on the morrow all the congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, Ye have killed the people of the LORD.

42 And it came to pass, when the congregation was gathered against Moses and against Aaron, that they looked toward the tabernacle of the congregation; and, behold, ¹the cloud covered it, and the glory of the LORD appeared.

43 And Moses and Aaron came before the tabernacle of the congregation.

44 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

45 Get you up from among this congregation, that I may consume them as in a moment. And ²they fell upon their faces.

46 And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a censer, and put fire therein from off the altar, and put on incense, and go quickly unto the congregation, and make an atonement for them: ³for there is wrath gone out from the LORD; the plague is begun.

47 And Aaron took as Moses commanded, and ran into the midst of the congregation; and, behold, the plague was begun among the people: and he put on incense, and made an atonement for the people.

48 And he ⁴stood between the dead and the living; and the plague was stayed.

49 Now they that died in the plague were fourteen thousand and seven hundred, besides them that died about the matter of Korah.

50 And Aaron returned unto Moses unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the plague was stayed.

CHAPTER 17.

6 Aaron's rod only flourisheth: 10 it is laid up for a memorial against the rebels.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and take of every one of them a rod according to the house of their fathers, of all their princes, according to the house of their fathers twelve rods: write thou every man's name upon his rod.

3 And thou shalt write Aaron's name upon the rod of Levi: for one rod shall be for the head of the house of their fathers.

4 And thou shalt lay them up in the tabernacle of the congregation before the testimony, "where I will meet with you.

5 And it shall come to pass, that the man's rod, ^bwhom I shall choose, shall blossom: and I will make to cease from me the murmurings of the children of Israel, whereby they murmur against you.

6 ¶ And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, and every one of their princes gave him ^{1a}a rod apiece, for each prince one, according to their father's houses, even twelve rods: and the rod of Aaron was among their rods.

7 And Moses laid up the rods before the LORD in ^cthe tabernacle of witness.

8 And it came to pass, that on the morrow Moses went into the tabernacle of witness; and, behold, the rod of Aaron for the house of Levi was ^dbudded, and brought forth buds, and bloomed blossoms, and yielded almonds.

9 And Moses brought out all the rods from before the LORD unto all the children of Israel: and they looked, and took every man his rod.

10 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Bring Aaron's ^erod again before the testimony, to be kept ^ffor a token against the ²rebels; and thou shalt quite take away their murmurings from me, that they die not.

11 And Moses did so: as the LORD commanded him, so did he.

12 And the children of Israel spake unto Moses, saying, Behold, we die, we perish, we all perish.

13 Whosoever ^gcometh any thing near unto the tabernacle of the LORD shall die: shall we be consumed with dying?

father, bring thou with thee. ^tthey may be ^ejoined unto thee. and ^dminister unto thee: but thou art thy sons with thee shall minister before the tabernacle of witness.

3 And they shall keep thy charge and the ^echarge of all the tabernacle: ^fonly they shall not come nigh the vessels of the sanctuary and the altar, ^gthat neither thou nor ye also, die.

4 And they shall be joined unto thee, and keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, for all the service of the tabernacle: and a stranger shall not come nigh unto you.

5 And ye shall keep ^hthe charge of the sanctuary, and the charge of the altar; that there be no wrath any more upon the children of Israel.

6 And I, behold, I have ⁱtaken your brethren the Levites from among the children of Israel: for you they are given as a gift for the LORD, to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation.

7 Therefore thou and thy sons with thee shall keep your priest's office for every thing of the altar and ^jwithin the veil; and ye shall serve: I have given your priest's office unto you as a service of gift and ^kthe stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

8 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Aaron, Behold, ^lI also have given thee the charge of mine heavenly offerings of all the hallowed things of the children of Israel; unto thee have I given them, ^mby reason of the anointing, and to thy sons, an ordinance for ever.

9 This shall be thine of the most holy things, reserved from the fire every oblation of theirs, every ⁿmeal offering of theirs, and every ^osin offering of theirs, and every trespass offering of theirs, which the shall render unto me, shall be most holy for thee and for thy sons.

10 In the ^pmost holy place shall thou eat it; every male shall eat it: it shall be holy unto thee.

11 And this ^qis thine; ^rthe heavenly offering of their gift, with all the wave offerings of the children of Israel: I have given them unto thee, ^sand to thy sons and to thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: ^tevery one that is clean in thy house shall eat of it.

12 All the best of the oil, and all the best of the wine, and of the wheat, the first-fruits of them which they shall offer unto the LORD, them have I given thee.

13 And whatsoever is first ripe in the land, which they shall bring unto the LORD, shall be thine: every one that is clean in thine house shall eat of it.

14 Every thing devoted in Israel shall be thine.

15 Every thing that openeth the matrix in all flesh, which they bring unto the LORD, whether it be of men or beasts, shall be thine: nevertheless the first-born of man shalt thou surely redeem, and the firstling of unclean beasts shalt thou redeem.

16 And those that are to be redeemed from a month old shalt thou redeem, according to thine estimation, for the money of five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs.

17 But the firstling of a cow, or the firstling of a sheep, or the firstling of a goat, thou shalt not redeem: they are holy: thou shalt sprinkle their blood upon the altar.

18 And shalt burn their fat for an offering made by fire, for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

19 And the flesh of them shall be thine, as the wave breast and as the right shoulder are thine.

20 All the heave offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer unto the LORD, have I given thee, and thy sons and thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: it is a covenant of salt for ever before the LORD unto thee and to thy seed with thee.

21 And the LORD spake unto Aaron, Thou shalt have no inheritance in their land, neither shalt thou have any part among them: I am thy part and thine inheritance among the children of Israel.

22 And, behold, I have given the children of Levi all the tenth in Israel for an inheritance, for their service which they serve, even the service of the tabernacle of the congregation.

23 Neither must the children of Israel henceforth come nigh the tabernacle of the congregation, lest they bear sin, and die.

congregation, and they shall bear their iniquity. It shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations, that among the children of Israel they have no inheritance.

24 But the tithes of the children of Israel, which they offer as an heave offering unto the LORD, I have given to the Levites to inherit: therefore I have said unto them, Among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance.

25 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

26 Thus speak unto the Levites, and say unto them, When ye take of the children of Israel the tithes which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then ye shall offer up an heave offering of it for the LORD, even a tenth part of the tithe.

27 And this your heave offering shall be reckoned unto you, as though it were the corn of the threshing-floor, and as the fulness of the wine-press.

28 Thus ye also shall offer an heave offering unto the LORD of all your tithes, which ye receive of the children of Israel; and ye shall give thereof the LORD's heave offering to Aaron the priest.

29 Out of all your gifts ye shall offer every heave offering of the LORD, of all the best thereof, even the hallowed part thereof out of it.

30 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, When ye have heaved the best thereof from it, then it shall be counted unto the Levites as the increase of the threshing-floor, and as the increase of the wine-press.

31 And ye shall eat it in every place, ye and your households: for it is your reward for your service in the tabernacle of the congregation.

32 And ye shall bear no sin by reason of it, when ye have heaved from it the best of it: neither shall ye pollute the holy things of the children of Israel, lest ye die.

CHAPTER 19.

1 The water of separation: 11 the use of it for purification of uncleanness.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

2 This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD hath commanded, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring thee a red heifer without spot, wherein is no blemish, and upon which never came yoke:

3 And ye shall give her unto Eleazar the priest, that he may bring her forth without the camp, and one shall slay her before his face.

4 And Eleazar the priest shall take of her blood with his finger, and ^d sprinkle of her blood directly before the tabernacle of the congregation seven times:

5 And one shall burn the heifer in his sight, her ^e skin, and her flesh, and her blood, with her dung, shall he burn:

6 And the priest shall take ^f cedar wood, and hyssop, and scarlet, and cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer.

7 Then ^g the priest shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp, and the priest shall be unclean until the even.

8 And he that burneth her shall wash his clothes in water, and bathe his flesh in water, and shall be unclean until the even.

9 And a man that is clean shall gather up the ^h ashes of the heifer, and lay them up without the camp in a clean place; and it shall be kept for the congregation of the children of Israel ⁱ for a water of separation: it is a purification for sin.

10 And he that gathereth the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: and it shall be unto the children of Israel, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among them, for a statute for ever.

11 ¶ He ^j that toucheth the dead body of any ¹ man shall be unclean seven days.

12 He ^k shall purify himself with it on the third day, and on the seventh day he shall be clean: but if he purify not himself the third day, then the seventh day he shall not be clean.

13 Whosoever toucheth the dead body of any man that is dead, and purifieth not himself, defileth ^l the tabernacle of the LORD; and that soul shall be cut off from Israel: because ^m the water of separation was not sprinkled upon him, he shall be unclean; ⁿ his uncleanness is yet upon him.

14 This is the law, when a man dieth in a tent: all that come into the tent, and all that is in the tent, shall be unclean seven days.
